

Chapter 41

Lindsay looked at Olivia with a smirk. "I forgot to mention, I recorded everything that happened that day."

Olivia's expression changed, but she quickly composed herself. "I don't know what you're talking about."

She hadn't expected Lindsay to record that day's events. This woman was too cunning.

If Olivia had known about the recording, she wouldn't have allowed her brothers to let Lindsay off so easily. Although she didn't think she was in the wrong, releasing the recording could harm her.

Olivia regretted volunteering to learn how to weave straw hats just now.

She had guessed that with Lindsay's personality, Lindsay wouldn't teach her, so she wanted to make Lindsay look worse in front of the livestream audience.

Lindsay raised an eyebrow. "If you provoke me again, I won't hesitate to let everyone hear the recording."

Most of the people present looked intrigued, their expressions showing they wanted to know more. It seemed there was indeed something going on between Lindsay, Alex, and Olivia if she had recordings.

Charles' eyes also lit up; this was a big scoop!

Alex looked at Lindsay in shock, his expression a mix of disbelief and confusion, as if questioning how she could be like this and when she had changed so much.

Lindsay found his expression exasperating.

Compared to his scheming brothers, Alex was indeed much simpler and more naïve.

Justin knew Olivia didn't want their relationship with Lindsay to be exposed.

Lindsay had been quite aggressive since she arrived. So, trying to mediate, he said, "We're all acquaintances here. If there's any misunderstanding, we can sit down and clear it up once we return to the capital. It's not a big deal."

He implied that Lindsay should drop the matter.

Lindsay raised an eyebrow at him. "So, you think I'm making a big deal out of nothing, Mr. Ford? I'm never the one to start anything, but it always ends up being my fault. I can't understand your logic.

"I've said before that I don't want to be involved. Please respect that and take good care of your angel."

She looked completely exasperated. "I can't avoid trouble no matter how hard I try?"

Since Justin wanted to help Olivia, he might as well get dragged into it too. Lindsay's words were full of hidden meanings, and the curiosity in everyone's eyes grew. The livestream viewers were also becoming more intrigued.

Justin didn't expect Lindsay to not only continue misunderstanding his relationship with Olivia but also drag him into the mess.

What did she mean by them taking care of their angel?

Wasn't that leading everyone to speculate about his relationship with Olivia?

Justin looked helpless. "Linds, stop making a scene."

He couldn't understand why, even if Lindsay didn't like Olivia, she couldn't at least pretend to get along for the sake of the show. This was a live broadcast—was it necessary to make such a fuss?

Before Lindsay could respond, Elric chimed in. "Mr. Ford, listen to yourself. It sounds like you're accusing Lindsay of causing trouble without reason. As an observer, I didn't see her doing anything wrong."

He added meaningfully, "If I didn't know you two grew up together, I'd think you had a grudge against her."

Lindsay smiled wryly and added, "Don't say that. Even I sometimes think so."
