

Chapter 81

In the evening, when Lindsay and her group returned from dinner, the live stream followed them into their rooms.

Although Lindsay and Wendy had only been there for less than a week, they had taken the time to decorate the place.

Their room was tidy, with various storage baskets neatly arranged. They had also woven flower baskets, filled them with soil, and planted wildflowers. They made vases and filled them with homemade dried flowers, giving the room a fresh and cozy feel.

The viewers commented:

"My bias and Wendy's room looks so fresh and cozy!"

"She's amazing! They've already made so many storage baskets with lids."

"The storage baskets are not only practical but can also be used as tables. Great idea."

"Wow, they've even woven baskets to plant wildflowers."

"The vases they made, filled with wildflowers, have a unique charm."

"Looking at their room and then comparing it to the other group's, the difference is huge."

"This reflects a positive attitude towards life. Lindsay and Wendy both radiate optimism."

"The atmosphere is so lovely. I'm growing more fond of Lindsay."

"Her hands are so skillful. I often saw her weaving when she had free time, but I didn't realize she had made so much."

"It seems like she could live well even without being in the entertainment industry just by weaving."

"Yes, she could start a live stream teaching weaving or selling her woven items. I'd definitely buy."

"Besides weaving, she has so many skills. She could succeed in any field."

"She could rely on her looks, but she chooses to rely on her talents."

"Lindsay seems like she could thrive anywhere."

"I'm sold. Just because of this room, I'm becoming a fan."

Unexpectedly, someone took screenshots of their room's decor and started a thread online.

The topic "Lindsay and Wendy's Room" quickly trended, drawing even more people to watch the live stream.

Charles couldn't stop smiling as the number of viewers surged again. He turned to the assistant director and said, "I've noticed that Lindsay has a knack for making content go viral. Even this managed to make it to the top trends."

He had originally invited Lindsay purely as a favor.

He initially predicted that Justin, Olivia, and Alex would generate high viewership and interest.

However, he hadn't expected Lindsay to be skilled in so many areas beyond divination. Her good nature and strong abilities naturally attracted more and more fans. Charles felt incredibly fortunate for having invited Lindsay. Most of the highlights in this season were contributions from Lindsay and her team.

The assistant director agreed, "Indeed, Lindsay's beauty and charisma are unique, and she's multi-talented. It's no wonder she's gaining so much popularity. Charles, have you decided where the next season of the variety show will be filmed? I've received calls from several people wanting to be guest stars."

Charles replied, "We'll discuss the guest stars later. We can add a couple if needed. I was originally planning to go to K City, but earlier today, I received a call from the secretary of the CEO of Harper Entertainment.

"He said their CEO wants to invest in our next season, but they specifically requested that we film it abroad."

The assistant director was puzzled. "Why would they make such a request?"

Charles lowered his voice so only the assistant director could hear. "I have a little insider information. The CEO of Harper Entertainment is the eldest brother of Mr. Alex and Ms. Olivia. Their request is likely because of Ms. Olivia."

Since Olivia had studied abroad, filming the next season overseas would give her a significant advantage.

The assistant director understood. "Are you going to agree to it?"

Charles smiled. "Why not? If someone is willing to invest in filming abroad, we can save a lot of money."
