

Chapter 90

Lindsay got angry and took the initiative to break ties with Alex.

Because Alex cherished and doted on his sister Olivia, Lindsay grew to dislike and target Olivia.

That was why on the variety show, Lindsay would act so confrontational towards the both of them.

The fake accounts crafted their story convincingly, fabricating numerous examples to illustrate Lindsay and Alex as cousins.

Those unaware of the truth mostly believed it after reading the posts.

As a result, many passersby and onlookers developed a dislike for Lindsay.

They thought she entered the industry under her cousin's care and then turned against him when he refused to get her offers. She was so ungrateful!

The topics "Lindsay is Alex's Cousin" and "Lindsay is Ungrateful" quickly trended.

Oliver also bought several trending slots to heat up the discussion and cement this narrative.

Meanwhile, the production team bought the items needed for drawing talismans.

Lindsay sat down with the child on her lap, drawing talismans on the table in the courtyard.

Elric and his two friends gathered around to watch.

The live camera also focused on Lindsay.

Using cinnabar, Lindsay drew a talisman to ward off evil, folded it into a triangle, and threaded it with a red string, placing it around the child's neck.

She then picked up some paper and folded little frogs, rabbits, pigs, and cats for the child to play with, replacing the old coin in his hand.

With the talisman, he no longer needed to hold the coin.

The child's attention was quickly drawn to the paper animals, and he played with them, giggling happily.

"She can even fold paper animals!"

"After she finishes, they look so lifelike with just a few strokes."

"Lindsay, is there anything you can't do?"

"Her hands are so skillful, I want to touch them."

A flood of Lindsay's fans praised her dexterity and creativity.

Before long, discordant voices started to emerge.

"Your idol's hands are indeed skillful, and she knows a few things, but her character is questionable."

"Exactly, I didn't expect her to be Alex's cousin and an ungrateful one at that."

"She couldn't get offers, so she teamed up with Elric during the live broadcast to confront and target Oliva and Alex. Shameless."

"Receiving a favor and repaying it with hostility—Lindsay is a typical ungrateful person."

"I used to like her, but now I just want to block her. Her character is too poor."

The leading voices were naturally the fake accounts hired by Oliver, followed by fans of Alex and Olivia.

Lindsay's fans were exasperated by these comments.

"Do you really believe they are cousins?"

"Just because someone said so online doesn't mean it's true. Where's your common sense?"

"Stop stirring things up. Unless Lindsay herself says they're cousins, I won't believe it."

"I don't believe she would demand anything from Alex, and when refused, break ties with him."

"From this episode's live broadcast, it looks more like Alex and the angel are feeling guilty."

"These people posting comments are just here to slander Lindsay."

"Earlier, these people said children can see who's good and bad."

"Now they're back for attention. Are they ready to be proven wrong again?"

Except for a few who were skeptical, most of Lindsay's fans didn't believe the rumors. Many of Elric's fans also helped to refute the claims.

In any case, Lindsay's fans maintained one stance—they would only believe what Lindsay said herself.

This somewhat surprised Oliver.

He hadn't expected that the fans Lindsay gained from this episode of the variety show would be so loyal.

However, he didn't care about the attitudes of Lindsay's fans as long as the general public believed the narrative.

After a while, Lyle came to invite Lindsay and the others to dinner.

Before heading out, Lindsay went to the bathroom, and the live camera naturally didn't follow her.

When she came out, Charles beckoned to her.

Seeing this, Lindsay walked over to the corner where Charles was standing.

Comments

Support

Share