Reborn as the Dragon King's Son-In-Law

Chapter 131: Mana Suppression

Twenty-seven days passed in the blink of an eye. At this time, I also received additional training from Rossweisse to reduce the abundant mana power that was now within my body. Since then, I had endlessly felt my body being under heavy pressure from all my blood vessels as well as the mana power within my body.

I was the only one who had received additional training from Rossweisse to suppress my mana power, which had currently reached more than 300,000 MP. But still, my current mana power had been completely suppressed to 150,000 MP.

150,000 MP was no different from the mana power of an expert at the Dragon King stage. For now, I had experienced a decline in both my physical strength and my internal strength.

Unfortunately, there was nothing I could do right now apart from showing the tired expression that was relentlessly creeping across my face. My gaze fell upon the palms of my hands, which were now wearing ten black rings. The ten black rings were a curse that could reduce a person's mana power by up to 50%.

I now had strength equivalent to that of an ordinary Dragon King stage dragon. Even if I fought Tifa and Tina in a one-against-two battle, I would lose to the two girls without being able to put up any resistance.

A large part of me was shocked by the incredible growth in strength that Liz had managed to achieve. After nearly a month of training under Rossweisse's guidance, she had finally reached the peak of the 4th-star beast stage.

The extraordinary development Liz had shown even surprised Elize, who usually didn't care about everything that happened around her. After all, this was the first time Elize had witnessed her personal mount gain such a massive increase in strength after beginning her training.

Moreover, this was also the first time Elize had witnessed Liz decide to train after more than three decades of being together. With autumn arriving this month, the warm temperatures, which were much different from the hot temperatures of the previous months, gave Liz a feeling of enthusiasm.

For an eagle like Liz, being in the autumn season was enjoyable and could increase her fighting spirit during training. The same was true for Elize and the two elf girls, who felt the same emotions that Liz was experiencing at this moment.

There was nothing strange about the four women feeling an extraordinary sense of happiness during the warm autumn season. But unfortunately, I didn't feel anything other than the despair that was relentlessly sweeping through my heart. After all, enduring such an unreasonably heavy burden in terms of both mana power and physical strength was the most inhumane thing I had ever experienced in my life.

Not only had Rossweisse given me an overwhelming burden during my training, but she had even personally placed curses on me to suppress the amount of mana power I possessed. Deep in my heart, I didn't understand why Rossweisse had decided to give such inhumane training to a weak human like me.

"Master, can I take off these ten rings right now? I can't endure them any longer..."

Rossweisse's gaze immediately turned into one filled with terrifying killing intent. At the same time, both of her hands tightly gripped my shoulders without letting go.

Even now, I still didn't understand why Rossweisse had been showing such unhappiness towards a man like me throughout the past month. In the end, I was still Rossweisse's disciple, whom she had considered her most valuable disciple.

But I didn't care at all about Rossweisse's opinion of me as her disciple. Even if I offended Rossweisse's feelings at some point during this month, I wouldn't let her act however she pleased simply because of the personal feelings she had towards me.

"Hm... Are you still complaining about the training your master has given you? Just accept every special training I have given you. If you don't want to continue this training, you can give your opinion right now."

The sound of grinding teeth could be heard nonstop from inside my mouth. In my entire life, I had never once felt so angry towards a woman I considered to be the most honourable woman.

Rossweisse was Elize's direct master, yet she had absolutely no qualms about bullying her own disciple's lover through such inhumane methods. Unable to hold back the anger that had been building up in my heart for a long time, I finally decided to voice all of my opinions regarding every piece of training Rossweisse had put me through over the past month.

"I have so many complaints. You were too cruel to me but not to your other disciples. I want to challenge you, Master! Here and today, I want to challenge you for the second time!"

A challenge from a disciple was the rarest thing Rossweisse had received since she first accepted someone as her disciple. The first disciple who had dared to challenge Rossweisse was Elize, but now her disciple's lover had also dared to challenge her. But there was no reason for Rossweisse to refuse the challenge that her disciple's lover had given her.

"Good, very good. Lucien Blackheart, you have dared to challenge your master after being under my guidance for almost two months."

"What? Are you scared now? I want to vent all the emotions I've been holding back for a month!"

In fact, Rossweisse had been waiting for the moment when her disciple's lover would challenge her to a one-on-one fight. Now that the man had presented his challenge, Rossweisse would not hesitate to accept the battle he wished to have with her.

"Then come and attack right now. There's no need for a countdown. Besides, you can use all your strength to defeat your master."

After more than a month, Rossweisse and I were finally able to resume our fight. Everything I had achieved up to this point had come directly from Rossweisse. Therefore, I hoped I could shorten the gap between my strength and Rossweisse, whose power was as far apart from mine as heaven and earth.

A terrifying woman like Rossweisse was someone I couldn't possibly defeat at this time. Even if I activated my true form as the Velvet Prostitute Physique, I would still be considered a weak being in Rossweisse's eyes.

My Dragonoid Transformation began to activate throughout my entire body. Even my white and black wings started to emerge from my back. At the same time, an oppressive yellow-red aura relentlessly surged out from within my body.

The colour of my aura, which had previously been red whenever I entered my Dragonoid Transformation, had now completely changed to yellow. That was the change in my aura after successfully reaching the Dragon King stage. However, the level of my mana power was still not much lower than that of a peak Great Dragon King stage dragon.

The colour of Elize's aura was bright blue. Moreover, from the very beginning, Elize's main element had been the Ice Element. Therefore, it was not strange that her main aura possessed the purest light blue colour.

***

Discord Discord: discord.gg/4yCzqTCUhp

Chapter 132: Mana Core

Every living being that focuses on training its magic power has a core with a different colour. For example, Rossweisse has a purple core. The purple colour of a Mana Core represents a symbol that a person already possesses mana power equivalent to that of top-level powerhouses.

Beginners who have just started their Path of Magic generally only have pale white Mana Cores within them. For that reason, I currently have a yellow Mana Core within me.

The yellow colour represents the quality of a person's Mana Core as a Superior Mana Core. Meanwhile, the white colour represents the Inferior Mana Core. Therefore, it is not strange that all living beings who have just entered the Path of Magic have Inferior Mana Cores that are extremely low and worthless.

Only those who have achieved a Low-Grade Mana Core can be considered true mages. As for those who have an Inferior Mana Core within them, most of them will be considered lowly mages without any qualities for their entire lives.

Because Inferior Mana Cores have a white colour in terms of the mana power within a person, those who have Low-Grade Mana Cores will have silver-coloured Mana Cores. The silver colour is proof of a magician who has succeeded in opening all nine core origins within themselves, allowing them to successfully channel the mana power that had been stuck in their Mana Core and spread it throughout their body.

Medium-Grade Mana Core is the next level after the Low-Grade Mana Core. The colour of the Mana Core that represents the Medium-Grade Mana Core is orange. High-Grade Mana Cores have a Mana Core colour of at least red. It was also something I had once used after activating my Dragonoid Transformation form.

But not all of the mana within me leaked after activating the Dragonoid Transformation form. This was the second time I had experienced a leak in terms of mana power after fighting against Charles. Therefore, I decided not to hold myself back from fighting Rossweisse head-on in a one-on-one battle.

Superior Mana Cores are represented by yellow, Top-Grade Mana Cores are represented by light blue, while Perfect Mana Cores are represented by dark blue. But the Origin Mana Core is one of the strongest and rarest Mana Cores that can be achieved by any magician in the entire world. Apart from Rossweisse and a few other powerful powerhouses, not a single living being could achieve an Origin Mana Core like Rossweisse and the top-level powerhouses who only focused on training their magic power.

Even for non-magicians, they do not really need Mana Cores as the main source of increasing their combat power. Every living being has its own strengths to survive in the world. Therefore, even the ten Heavenly Warriors did not train their magic power to the same extent as Rossweisse.

Actually, the reason why I was able to increase my Mana Core was because I was forced to train my magic power. If I had not decided to train my magic power, I would not have a Mana Core equivalent to that of Great Dragon King stage experts.

The purple colour is identical to the colour of the Origin Mana Core. Moreover, those who have achieved the Origin Mana Core are people who have succeeded in attaining enlightenment in terms of magic and have the power to manipulate every law that exists throughout the world. For that reason, the Origin Mana Core is the pinnacle of all Magical Paths that can be achieved by all living beings throughout the world.

There is not a single living being that has reached a level above the Origin Mana Core to this day. Even in history, it is only written that the Origin Mana Core is the pinnacle that every magician can achieve in their lifetime. But one thing is certain: Rossweisse has absolutely no desire to give up on continuing her training in pursuit of greater knowledge in terms of magical power.

From Rossweisse's point of view as the most talented magician in the entire world, she considers the Origin Mana Core to be the starting point for every magician to achieve godhood. Therefore, even until now, Rossweisse has tried her best several times to improve the quality of her Mana Core far beyond the Origin Mana Core itself.

Unfortunately, for thousands of years, Rossweisse has never once managed to break through to a level above the Origin Mana Core stage. From then on, Rossweisse decided to wait until she could reach the Heavenly Warrior stage in the future before looking for a way to break through her bottleneck in magic.

Only by reaching the Heavenly Warrior stage does Rossweisse reckon that she will be able to surpass the realm of the Origin Mana Core stage, which has long been considered the pinnacle of mages. After all, the ten Heavenly Warriors were ancient humans who only focused on cultivating their ultimate abilities.

None of them decided to focus on developing their Mana Cores. Apart from Rossweisse, the humans living on the Life Continent considered training their magic power to be anything but efficient.

One of the reasons why humans choose not to train their magic power is also because of their low talent for understanding every aspect of magic. From the very beginning, giving birth to a human with a high level of magical talent has been something that is rarely achieved by humans throughout the world. Therefore, Rossweisse is the only human who possesses an understanding of magic at a much higher level than the average of all living beings throughout the world.

"Dragonoid Transformation? But that’s still not enough... If only you could break those ten black rings, I’m sure you would be able to cause me some trouble."

In the end, Rossweisse is an arrogant woman. Rossweisse’s confident attitude has become her trademark ever since she became the strongest witch in the entire world. As the Queen Witch, Rossweisse has many followers who will always remain loyal to her.

Shaking her head, Rossweisse sighed and returned her focus to fighting against her disciple. Moreover, the expression I was showing had completely turned serious. In just a few seconds, shadowy movements began to appear beneath my feet.

The shadow movements I released now had undergone an extraordinarily significant improvement compared to before. Because my Agility attribute had reached a very high level, I possessed speed that was no lower than that of a Dragon Emperor stage dragon.

"Shadow Killing? I just realised that you have that ability too. It feels like fate..." A small laugh involuntarily escaped Rossweisse’s mouth. After more than a month, Rossweisse finally witnessed one of my main abilities, Shadow Killing.

Shadow Killing is a unique ability that is only possessed by those who are born as unique and talented humans. Because the man standing before her was born with the ability of Shadow Killing, Rossweisse recalled one of her female disciples who had also been born with Shadow Killing as a natural talent.

***

Discord Server: discord.gg/4yCzqTCUhp

Chapter 133: Lucien’s Trump Card

"Shadow Killing? Not bad. But do you think such a low-level ability can defeat me? You are still too lacking in your understanding of the true ability of Shadow Killing!"

The only human who could activate the ability of Shadow Killing to its highest level was her own disciple. A disciple recruited by Rossweisse in the past could be considered her first female disciple. However, that disciple was also one of the most talented disciples that Rossweisse had ever had to date.

Being born as a unique human being is by no means easy among the countless Human races. But because the man in front of her had Shadow Killing as a natural ability, Rossweisse thought that the man had been born with a unique ability like her first female disciple.

"You’re so arrogant! I swore that I would definitely defeat you!"

An involuntary sigh came out of Rossweisse's mouth. The arrogant attitude I was showing right now did not make Rossweisse feel any fear in her heart. In the end, with one finger, Rossweisse was able to throw me several steps away.

At the same time, Rossweisse did not hesitate to show one of her powerful abilities in facing a man like me. For the first time, Rossweisse decided to make the first attack instead of letting one of her disciples attack her first.

Even Elize couldn't hold back her shocked expression when she saw her master decide to make the first move when facing a disciple like Lucien. Since the first time Elize met her master, this was the first time she had witnessed her master take the initiative to attack one of her disciples.

A small part of Elize recognized that Lucien was a man worthy of being her master's training opponent. Moreover, Lucien's current strength had been completely suppressed to half a percent of his actual strength. For that reason, Elize knew that her lover was a man who could surpass her master's potential.

My right shoulder unknowingly suffered a minor injury due to a bone shift. Just before I could dodge the attack that Rossweisse was trying to launch at me, I received an invisible wound that came directly from Rossweisse's Wind Element.

It must be admitted that Rossweisse was an opponent whom it was impossible for me to beat at this time. But that wasn't the main problem for me at all. However, in all aspects, Rossweisse was the best among experts at the same level as her.

In just a matter of seconds, Rossweisse once again decided to launch an all-out attack on me. Unfortunately, there was no way for me to dodge every attack Rossweisse tried to launch at me.

Even if I could escape to the top of the sky, Rossweisse could cast the various magic elements she possessed with tremendous power at any time. Because I had now felt the Wind Element created by Rossweisse, I could feel almost my entire body receiving wounds that couldn't be healed instantly.

"Still trying to defend? You're too bad when it comes to close combat! Brat, I advise you to surrender right now!"

"Give up? Ugh...! Hmph! Never! I will never give up... I will keep going to be able to land this one attack on you!"

A high level of mana power began to surge out from within my body. Almost the entire sky around me began to experience piercingly cold fluctuations. At the same time, the various attacks previously launched by Rossweisse began to turn into blocks of ice.

A slight expression of surprise appeared on Rossweisse's face, which had previously shown a cold expression. The colour of my aura, which had previously been red-yellow, began to show a pure yellow colour. It was proof that I had completely succeeded in refining my Superior Mana Core to a perfect level.

Having succeeded in improving the quality of my Mana Core to the purest level, I would have a greater chance of making a breakthrough in terms of magic power. After some time, three giant ice golems appeared to emerge from the ground.

Those were the three ice golems that I had created over a month. At first, I found it difficult to create the three giant ice golems with just my thoughts, so I decided to create them manually.

Almost every night, what I did was try to assemble the three ice golems until they were the same size as a normal mountain. Therefore, I now had the strength of three ice golems equivalent to the Dragon King stage.

"Cien, are you really serious about defeating our master?"

"Three ice golems that have been formed with top-level Ice Element? This brat... I didn't expect this brat to be able to boldly assemble those three giant ice golems secretly within this one month."

Of course, I had tried very hard to create the three ice golems with my own two hands. If it weren't for Rossweisse forcing me to endure an unreasonably heavy burden for two long months, I wouldn't have taken the trouble to form those three giant ice golems with the ability of my Ice Element.

"How about it, Master? This is the trump card that this disciple of yours has been saving to face you!"

Every expression shown by Rossweisse at this time revealed both amazement and anger. On the one hand, Rossweisse felt amazed by the hard work her disciple had put into assembling the three giant ice golems, but on the other hand, she also felt displeased after remembering what her disciple had done for more than a month.

Assembling the three giant ice golems at night was no different from breaking the rules that Rossweisse had imposed on her disciple. There was one rule that Rossweisse always upheld: she wanted her disciple to always rest at night. Because her disciple had dared to break the rules that Rossweisse had implemented, she unknowingly began to release a large amount of mana power.

The mana power that leaked from Rossweisse's body began to destroy the entire forest in Elize's territory. A month ago, the forests in Elize's territory that had previously been damaged had been completely restored after the battle between Rossweisse and Lucien. But now, the forests around Elize's territory were experiencing destruction once again.

Luckily, Elize did not comment at all on the actions her master was taking to destroy the surrounding forest. Deep inside Elize's heart, she felt worried about the condition of her lover, who was now facing their master, who had fallen into a state of anger.

"This is bad... Master Rossweisse has now completely shown her anger! Can our Master survive?"

Even Tifa and Tina couldn't hold back their breath after watching Rossweisse's battle against their master. For some reason, Tina and Tifa hoped that their master would decide to give up on facing Rossweisse one-on-one.

***

Discord Server: discord.gg/4yCzqTCUhp

Chapter 134: Beyond the Limits

"Master! Please surrender immediately! You will not be able to defeat Master Rossweisse! She is too strong!"

Unfortunately, no answer could come out of Lucien's mouth other than an indifferent expression. Lucien's current focus had completely reached an extremely high level. Even if Tifa and Tina tried to disrupt Lucien's concentration, he would not be able to wake up from his thoughts as he tried to fight face-to-face against Rossweisse.

Both Lucien and Rossweisse had conflicts that they needed to resolve right now. Moreover, Lucien had harboured displeasure towards Rossweisse from the start. After all, Rossweisse had dared to put Lucien through every senseless training and the most inhuman things.

In fact, Lucien's main goal in fighting head-to-head against Rossweisse was to test the limits of his current strength. For more than a month, Lucien had felt that his increase in strength had far surpassed the strength he had possessed a few months ago.

From Lucien's point of view, he knew that he would sooner or later break through to the Great Dragon King stage. Lucien's cultivation progress had now completely reached 88%. That alone was enough for Lucien to make his breakthrough within the next month.

Unfortunately, Lucien's focus at the moment was on trying his best to survive while enduring every trace of killing intent that was now relentlessly surging out of Rossweisse's body. For the first time, Lucien witnessed how his master showed such a terrifying expression towards a disciple like him.

Another part of Lucien felt an extraordinary sense of enthusiasm burning within him as he faced a powerful expert like Rossweisse. Even though he knew that Rossweisse was a human with incredibly terrifying strength, he decided to continue fighting her head-to-head.

"This is a great sin. Lucien, you must receive the punishment you deserve for daring to violate one of the rules that your master has implemented."

A cold and emotionless voice began to reverberate throughout Elize's territory. Even the usually relaxed Liz couldn't hold back her worried expression. For some reason, Liz recalled the time when her Grandmaster showed her anger towards every enemy she had fought in the past.

It was rare for Liz and Elize to witness Rossweisse showing her killing intent towards a disciple rather than her enemies. But Lucien did not feel any deep fear towards the killing intent surging out of Rossweisse's body. In contrast, Lucien simply remained calm as if he were used to dealing with the pressure of a powerful expert.

'The pressure that a mother-in-law has is even more terrifying compared to the pressure that this bitch has!'

Lucien's mind was now endlessly imagining the figure of Lilith, who was extraordinarily strong and full of charisma. Even when Lucien tried to stand in front of Lilith, he felt his body continuously giving various danger signals towards Lilith's extraordinarily powerful figure.

But the moment Lucien stood face-to-face with Rossweisse, he didn't feel any pressure at all apart from Rossweisse's terrifying gaze. Even so, Lucien knew that the situation he was currently in was not a good one at all.

"Then come here! I will block every one of your attacks, Master!"

For some reason, a spear thousands of metres tall began to appear, falling from the sky. It was a spear with a combination of every element that existed throughout the world. With a single strike from that spear, it could level a large region at any time.

But there was no reason for Lucien to hesitate in trying to withstand an attack from the terrifying spear that Rossweisse had created. The three giant ice golems standing behind Lucien started to move and prepared to block the giant spear with both hands. Within just a few breaths, an incredibly powerful clash of power began to sweep across Elize's territory.

Even parts of the borders of the Dragonia Kingdom began to experience the effects of the clash between Rossweisse's and Lucien's attacks. Both Lucien and Rossweisse possessed immense power that they could release at any time. But even though Lucien had abundant mana power, he was no match for Rossweisse in her eyes.

The attack from Rossweisse's giant spear showed absolutely no sign of stopping as it descended upon Lucien. Relying solely on the three giant ice golems was not enough for Lucien to defeat Rossweisse. Even Rossweisse did not consider the three ice golems created by Lucien to be powerful.

"Damn it... This time I'll use everything I have! I'll give it my all!"

Lucien began to activate the Ultimate Ice Form throughout his body after more than two months. Lucien's current strength had completely achieved a breakthrough. For some reason, the three giant ice golems behind Lucien started to show signs of becoming much stronger.

The colour of the ice previously possessed by the three giant ice golems began to take on a deep light purple hue. Since Lucien had now fully displayed the Ultimate Ice Form related to his Ice Element, the three giant ice golems that Lucien had previously created had completely resonated with Lucien's power.

In the end, every block of ice possessed by the three ice golems came directly from Lucien's Ice Element. Therefore, Lucien decided to activate his Ultimate Ice Form to increase the defence of his three giant ice golems.

It's just that Lucien was currently unable to completely stop the attack from the giant spear that Rossweisse had previously created in the sky. Even though Lucien's current strength had completely reached an extremely high level, he was still not a worthy opponent in Rossweisse's eyes.

A sly grin appeared on Rossweisse's beautiful lips. There was no reason for Rossweisse to let Lucien win in a fight against her. However, Lucien was not an ordinary disciple at all and was very different from the disciples Rossweisse had met in the past.

Fighting half-heartedly against Lucien was no different from inviting defeat upon herself. Even when Rossweisse tried to increase the pressure of the giant spear she had created, she realised that Lucien's three giant ice golems managed to put up a little resistance against it.

There was even a moment when the giant spear previously created by Rossweisse was successfully suppressed, even though it only lasted for a fraction of a moment. But that alone was enough for Rossweisse to think of Lucien as a terrifying human being. But that wasn't the main reason Rossweisse chose to display her terrifying strength while fighting against Lucien.

The only reason why Rossweisse decided to create a giant spear with a combination of every element in the world was to give Lucien a chance. Letting Lucien surpass his limits in terms of magic and physical strength was one way for him to increase his strength much faster than all living beings in the entire world. For that reason, Rossweisse decided to release 5% of her true power to let Lucien surpass the limitations of his power.

***

Discord Server: discord.gg/4yCzqTCUhp

Chapter 135: Maximum Power

5% of Rossweisse's true power was enough for her to defeat any expert in the Dragon Emperor stage with a single finger. Since Lucien managed to withstand 5% of Rossweisse's power, he could be considered one of the strongest beings below the Dragon Overlord stage.

"That's not something an ordinary human can do! This is crazy! Our master is too crazy! It's even on par with, or even stronger than, Dragon Emperor stage dragons!" An involuntary scream came out of Tifa's mouth. As a girl from the High Elves race, Tifa had witnessed the power of an expert who was above the Dragon Emperor stage.

The pressure that Lucien was emitting right now was no different from that of an expert who had reached the Dragon Overlord stage. Although Lucien had not fully reached the Dragon Overlord stage, he had combat power that allowed him to fight against an expert who was on par with Dragon Overlord stage experts.

"5% of the Master's true power... Lucien... he managed to withstand the Master's power? Even though it was only 5% of the Master's true power, Lucien managed to withstand it for just a few moments..." Although Elize witnessed how her lover managed to withstand the Master's terrifying attack for a few seconds, Elize was not completely surprised after knowing her lover's true strength. Even if her lover possessed incredibly strong power and had far surpassed her own, Elize realized that her lover still had one additional power that he rarely used.

The true form of the Velvet Prostitute Physique was the only ace that Lucien had and was also the only option for Lucien to be able to defeat Rossweisse. When Rossweisse first fought against Lucien in his true form, Rossweisse decided to release a small part of her power to withstand every attack from Lucien.

At first, 5% of Rossweisse's true power was enough for her to defeat Lucien's true form. But the development of Lucien's current strength, which was far beyond the common sense of all living beings in general, gave him the strength to fight against Rossweisse, who was now showing 5% of her true strength.

As soon as the attack from Rossweisse's giant spear became much stronger than before, Lucien's expression began to show pain. Streams of blood could be seen flowing from Lucien's eyes.

The heavy burden carried by Lucien in resisting Rossweisse's giant spear attack was one of the reasons why Lucien continuously suffered serious injuries throughout his body.

Even though he was having a hard time trying to withstand one attack from Rossweisse's giant spear, he decided to unleash his full power, which had far surpassed his actual strength.

Various bolts of lightning began to fall from the sky. The bolts of lightning continuously struck Lucien, who was now taking cover beneath his three giant ice golems. Without allowing Rossweisse to show any reaction on her face, Lucien once again decided to create an ice golem more than 500 meters high.

The size of a mountain is only around 500 meters. Therefore, Lucien started to create a giant imperfect ice golem with a height slightly greater than that of ordinary mountains.

Unfortunately, it wasn't just the giant ice golem that Lucien had created using the power of his Ice Element. Lucien even started to combine every element he had acquired after having sex with Elize and Athena. With each combination of the various elements he obtained from his two lovers, the power of Lucien's giant ice golem began to increase, becoming dozens of times stronger than before.

A very large explosion began to spread throughout the vast area of Elize's territory until it reached the border of the Dragonia Kingdom. There were many soldiers who witnessed the phenomenon that occurred in Elize's territory. But still, none of the soldiers dared to interfere with the fight between Lucien, who was now fighting against Rossweisse.

The commander of the Dragonia Kingdom's troops began to appear floating in the sky along with the other soldiers behind him. Endless confusion appeared on the commander's face. When the commander first met Lucien, he thought of Lucien as an extraordinarily strong young man.

A man like Lucien was someone who had the potential to become the strongest being in the entire world. There was no doubt in the commander's mind when imagining Lucien's extraordinary greatness in the future. However, the commander was fully aware that Lucien was the future king of the Dragonia Kingdom.

Making himself Lucien's subordinate was not at all detrimental in the commander's eyes. Moreover, the commander's troops had completely considered Lucien the strongest man after Lucius. For that reason, none of the soldiers considered Lucien a despicable or weak human being.

Lucien's nickname as a weakling had completely disappeared in the eyes of the citizens of the Dragonia Kingdom. Most of the citizens of the Dragonia Kingdom considered Lucien their prince. However, not all citizens of the Dragon Realm recognized Lucien as a talented young man.

The only reason Lucien had been able to survive in the Dragon Realm until now was because of the presence of Lilith, who always protected him from a distance. If it weren't for Lilith, who always protected Lucien from a distance, it would have been impossible for the citizens of the Dragon Realm not to carry out sneak attacks on him.

Crack!—

The attack from Rossweisse's giant spear unconsciously began to be suppressed by the fusion of the power of every element that Lucien possessed. The Star Element that Lucien had never once used started to activate without him knowing. For the first time, Lucien's strength, which was previously at the Dragon King stage, began to soar until it reached the Great Dragon King stage.

One of the ten black rings that Rossweisse had previously given to Lucien began to disintegrate. The moment one of the ten black rings shattered, the previously suppressed mana power within Lucien's body began to surge until it reached 400,000 MP.

"Haa!!!"

Rumbling!—

"This... This is... Is this the real power of the owner of the Velvet Prostitute Physique? It's so great and so pure..." A small grin unconsciously appeared on Rossweisse's sexy lips. Lucien's significant improvement made Rossweisse endlessly praise his greatness in terms of strength. For the first time in Rossweisse's entire life, a disciple like Lucien managed to withstand an attack from Rossweisse's giant spear that contained 5% of her true power.

Elize, who was now floating in the distance, could only reveal a face full of happiness after witnessing how her lover managed to surpass their master in terms of fighting strength. For the first time in Elize's life, she was finally able to witness one of her master's disciples surpassing her in terms of strength.

The attack from Rossweisse's giant spear, which had previously been in the sky, began to shatter. The moment Rossweisse's giant spear shattered into pieces, the magic power of every element within the giant spear began to enter the depths of Lucien's body.

***

Discord Server: discord.gg/4yCzqTCUhp

Chapter 136: Perfection

There was no panicked expression on Lucien's face after he managed to absorb every element from the giant spear. The power of each of Lucien's elements began to experience a significant increase, besides the Star Element itself. However, the Star Element is a special ability that can only be used by Lilith and Athena.

A woman like Rossweisse would not have any chance of learning the abilities of the Star Element. But that's not a big problem at all for Rossweisse. On the contrary, Rossweisse's mind was currently focused on the improvement of each of Lucien's elements, which had now reached the next level.

Even Lucien's Mana Core began to soar until it reached the complete perfection of a Superior Mana Core. That alone was enough for anyone to consider Lucien to have completely reached the top of the hierarchy in the Magic Path. Even Rossweisse admitted that Lucien's current self had fully possessed the power that allowed him to compete with Dragon Overlord stage dragons.

With Lucien's mana power having increased drastically, Lucien's chances of facing off against a Dragon Overlord stage dragon were no lower than 40%. After all, a Dragon Overlord stage dragon could easily manipulate all the laws of heaven and earth that existed throughout the world.

Most Dragon Overlord stage powerhouses were dragons who had the strength to compete with high-level experts throughout the world. But experts like Rossweisse did not completely regard experts at the same level as the Dragon Overlord stage as their opponents. For some reason, the figure of an expert at the Heavenly Warrior stage was the ultimate goal for those who had been stuck in the realm of the Ancient Warrior stage for a long time.

For experts who were equivalent to the Dragon Overlord stage, they considered the Ancient Warrior stage to be the pinnacle of all worldly power. Even living beings from the Dragon race also thought that the Dragon Supreme stage was the pinnacle of all the glory they had to achieve in their entire lives.

Since the Divine Dragon stage was impossible for them to achieve, the powerful dragons throughout the Dragon Realm decided to compete for one of the positions as Dragon Supreme. Therefore, there were only ten Dragon Supremes scattered throughout the Dragon Realm after hundreds of thousands of years.

A single dragon at the Dragon Supreme stage was enough for them to wipe out hundreds of Ancient Warrior stage experts. But the Human race had an extremely large number of Ancient Warrior stage experts. Therefore, the Human race was not at all worried about an invasion from the Dragon race, even if they decided to attack the Life Continent.

The current Human race and the past Human race have completely become different races. In the past, the Human race was a weak race that was always oppressed by various other strong races throughout the world. But now, the Human race is one of the three strongest species in the entire world.

Only the Giant race and the Dragon race can compete with the Human race for supreme supremacy in the world. Although, in the end, the relationship of the Human race in the current era can be said to be the worst. From the perspective of all living beings of the Human race, they consider themselves to be the best among all existing humans.

It would not be strange if humans in the current era decided to compete over something completely useless in the eyes of ancient beings. Until now, the Human race was the only race that enslaved those of their own kind.

Living beings throughout the world cannot fully express their complaints about the actions of the Human race, which tried to enslave their own kind. In the end, the Human race is the Human race. Therefore, every personal matter that the Human race had had to be resolved in their own way.

As time passed, Lucien's figure seemed to have completely absorbed the remains of every element in the giant spear. In fact, this was Rossweisse's real plan to let Lucien bring out his full potential while facing off against 5% of her true strength.

Lucien's current strength had completely reached the peak of the Dragon King stage. Although Lucien's previous strength managed to reach the Great Dragon King stage, it only lasted for a few breaths before it finally returned to how it was before. But now, Lucien's strength has completely reached the peak of the Dragon King stage.

Lucien's current cultivation progress had completely reached 99%. After successfully absorbing the remnants of each element in the giant spear, Lucien's cultivation improvement had completely reached its limit.

There was no longer any way for Lucien to break through to the Great Dragon King stage before the time came. But still, deep inside Lucien, he felt a strange sensation deep within his veins and genes.

"My God's Bloodline..."

[Ding! The processing of the host's God's Bloodline has completely succeeded in reaching 0.1%! Congratulations, host, this is the initial path for you to be able to reach the true "God"!]

"Hey, is there a gift? I've been fighting for more than 2 months, but you haven't given me a single gift. Why are you now being like a system that is stingy towards its master?"

[Host... think about what you have done these two months. You don't even do any activities outside your lover's territory! How could this system personally assign a mission to the host? This system is not at fault!]

Every explanation given by the system did not allow Lucien to reply to any of the chatter that the system had given him. Actually, Lucien had the intention of travelling outside the Dragonia Kingdom. But still, Lucien felt afraid and worried about the situation in the outside world.

As a former introvert, Lucien hoped he could have more knowledge about the situations that occurred throughout the world. For now, Lucien's only goal was to grow stronger and then be able to travel freely wherever he wanted.

But before that, Lucien had to train under Rossweisse for a year. Following Rossweisse's teachings was currently the only way for Lucien to be able to increase his strength much higher than that of every living being in the entire world. After landing near Elize and the others, gasps began to emerge from Lucien's mouth.

Lucien's face, which previously showed a tired expression, once again showed a face full of arrogance. Even though Lucien's eyelids had turned dark, he would not let his women witness his weak side.

Without thinking, Elize immediately ran to hug the lover whom she loved the most. The wounds her lover had received made Elize unable to hold back her tears. Even though Tifa, Tina, and Liz witnessed the hug Elize gave Lucien, they didn't have any comments they could say.

***

Chapter 137: Worldly Law

"How amazing! Ha ha ha! Lucien...! You have become so strong!" Praise after praise endlessly came out of Rossweisse's mouth. The expression Rossweisse showed at this time completely revealed her passionate side. For the first time, Rossweisse was finally able to witness a human whose power was much greater than his actual power level.

Lucien is the only human who can satisfy Rossweisse's deepest desire to face off against the strongest enemy in the future. Because Lucien's potential far surpassed Rossweisse's expectations, she believed that Lucien was the only man who could reach the level of Divinity.

Not a single human being in the entire world has been able to achieve apotheosis since the world was first created. For now, Rossweisse regards Lucien as a human who can achieve apotheosis and possess strength equal to all the powerful experts in the world.

Among all the humans Rossweisse had met in the past, Lucien is the only human who has potential far beyond the common sense of all living beings throughout the world. Therefore, there was no doubt on Rossweisse's face after witnessing the sky above turn dark.

Lots of roaring sounds could be heard around Elize's territory. Various lightning bolts in the sky incessantly struck Lucien, who was now in a meditative state. The moment before Lucien could utter a word, he felt his entire body being struck by lightning that endlessly entered his body.

The feeling of making a breakthrough started to surge within Lucien once again. Lucien's Dragon King stage had completely reached its peak state. For some reason, the God's Bloodline within Lucien started to push his breakthrough much faster than it should.

Breaking through from the Dragon King stage to the Great Dragon King stage is something that is difficult for all living beings throughout the world. The difference in strength between the Dragon King stage and the Great Dragon King stage was like heaven and earth. Therefore, it would not be strange if breaking through to the Great Dragon King stage required careful preparation before one could make the breakthrough.

Since Lucien was not at his peak state right now, he could only endure the pain of accepting every punishment that the Worldly Law gave him. Even so, Lucien's physical body was much stronger than the scales of the average Great Dragon King stage dragon.

There was no reason for Lucien to back off from making his breakthrough to the Great Dragon King stage. Even if Lucien was currently not completely at his peak state, he would not back down from trying to break through to the Great Dragon King stage.

As time passed, the dark sky above began to show a bright green colour around the horizon. A dark sky with a green colour is a sign that a person has enormous potential. But still, Rossweisse decided to take Elize and the others away from Lucien.

Being near Lucien, who was now trying to make his breakthrough, was no different from bringing disaster upon Elize and the others. As for Rossweisse herself, she did not care at all about Lucien's breakthrough, which had just begun. On the contrary, Rossweisse hoped that her disciple could survive receiving any punishment that the Worldly Law would give him.

For now, Lucien did not show any expression of despair or pain. In the end, the lightning that was now striking Lucien's body did not completely make him feel terrible pain. For that reason, the colour of the sky above once again began to change to dark blue.

Dark blue and green lightning began to surround Lucien, who now showed a calm expression. There was no fear on Lucien's face, only a calm expression. For some reason, Lucien currently had to focus on stabilising his foundation as a Great Dragon King stage expert.

Suddenly, the attacks from the lightning strikes in the sky began to increase, becoming tens of times stronger than before. The lightning even managed to create several giant craters around Elize's territory. Without being able to say a word, Elize could only show a sad expression.

The destruction of the territory that King Dragonia had given to Elize made her reflect on the time when she first set foot in the territory of the Dragonia Kingdom. That was the time when Elize decided to live within the border area of the Dragonia Kingdom. But now, the territory that King Dragonia had given her had been destroyed.

It had been almost the fourth time that Elize's territory had experienced total destruction due to the fight between Lucien and Rossweisse. Even though Elize was also one of the reasons why her territory had been reduced to dust several months earlier, she was the first to cause her own territory to be destroyed due to the fury Lucien had shown when they first fought one-on-one.

Luckily, one of Rossweisse's hands gently patted Elize's shoulder. As a master, Rossweisse hoped she could soothe the sadness of her disciple after her territory had experienced complete destruction.

There was no longer any place for Elize to stay within the borders of the Dragonia Kingdom other than asking King Dragonia for a new territory. For some reason, Elize decided to close her eyes instead of watching the destruction of the territory she had guarded for decades.

Being separated from a home that had accompanied Elize for decades made her unable to hold back her tears. But because Lucien was currently not fully at his peak, Elize began to see Lucien receive small wounds from the lightning strikes that were now relentlessly hitting his entire body.

Lucien's skin, which previously possessed the toughness of a Great Dragon King stage expert, began to be pierced by the successive lightning strikes from the sky. Unfortunately, there was no way for Lucien to survive receiving every lightning strike that was now relentlessly descending from the sky. On the contrary, without hesitation, Lucien immediately activated the Dragonoid Transformation in its peak state.

Various white scales began to appear all over Lucien's body. Now, the various lightning strikes that had previously hit Lucien's body were no longer able to injure him as before. Therefore, once again, the blue sky above began to turn blood red.

This is a phenomenon that has been very rarely seen for tens of thousands of years. Moreover, Rossweisse, who always acted calmly, subconsciously started to show a surprised expression. For the first time, Rossweisse witnessed a phenomenon in which the sky turned blood red after tens of thousands of years.

Since one of her disciples was now preparing to make a breakthrough to the Great Dragon King stage, Rossweisse realised that the Worldly Law did not want to let Lucien successfully reach the Great Dragon King stage. Therefore, Rossweisse decided to help her disciple withstand every terrifying and rare lightning strike.

At first, Lucien had completely reached his limit in enduring every attack from the red lightning that was now striking from the sky, but after Rossweisse came to help him, Lucien once again felt his heart regain its calm.

***

Chapter 138: True Form

"Rossweisse, you..."

"Call me Master! Didn't I tell you that you should call me Master?"

Silence began to settle over Lucien before he finally decided to apologize to Rossweisse. Because Rossweisse had decided to come to his rescue, Lucien couldn't hold back his happy expression after remembering Rossweisse's figure as his master.

Previously, Lucien did not fully consider Rossweisse his master, but now Lucien finally recognized Rossweisse as his master and also as a great woman. For the second time, Lucien regarded Rossweisse as the second strongest woman he had ever met.

But Lucien did not completely set his mind on considering Rossweisse the second strongest woman he had ever met. In the end, Rossweisse was Lucien's direct master. Therefore, Rossweisse would forever consider Lucien her disciple, and Lucien would also consider Rossweisse his master.

Every time the red lightning striking the sky began to target Lucien, Rossweisse, without hesitation, immediately blocked each lightning strike with her strength. There was even a moment when the remnants of the red lightning in the sky shattered and reached Lucien.

Taking one hit from the red lightning was enough to make Lucien feel excruciating pain. The dragon scales on Lucien's hand began to crack because of the remnants of the red lightning. That alone was enough for anyone to assume that the current phenomenon was not an ordinary phenomenon at all.

There was only one person who had ever attracted the red lightning during their breakthrough, but that person did not completely survive after receiving every punishment the world gave him. Therefore, Lucien was now the second person to experience the phenomenon of the red lightning that had disappeared for tens of thousands of years.

"Cien! Hurry up and protect yourself! The phenomenon of your breakthrough is far beyond common sense! Your master advises you to just give up!"

Lucien began grinding his teeth. Listening to Rossweisse's advice to give up on his breakthrough was something Lucien did not want for the rest of his life. However, Lucien had struggled hard to make his breakthrough much faster than that of any living being in the entire world.

Even if Rossweisse decided not to provide any assistance to Lucien, he would try his best to withstand every attack from the lightning bolts in the sky. Therefore, Lucien could not completely hide his disgusted expression at the thought of giving up on his breakthrough.

There was no reason whatsoever for Lucien to back off from making his breakthrough to the Great Dragon King stage. By successfully reaching the Great Dragon King stage, he would have a greater chance of facing much stronger enemies in the future.

"I don't want to! Please, Master. If you want to ask me to surrender, you'd better decide not to come to your disciple's aid. I'm not willing to retreat even if I have to die!"

The fighting spirit shown by Lucien unconsciously made Rossweisse unable to hold back her passionate expression. This was the attitude that Rossweisse had long wanted to see in all her disciples. But because her disciples were weak, Rossweisse had long forgotten the kind of man she liked—a man with a high fighting spirit.

But now, the man Rossweisse liked had appeared in the world. Moreover, that man possessed talent far beyond Rossweisse's expectations. Therefore, Rossweisse endlessly began to praise the man's greatness in both spirit and talent.

The disciplined attitude Lucien displayed after being trained by Rossweisse was enough to make her admire him as a great disciple. Therefore, Rossweisse had witnessed Lucien's development several times since he first set foot in Elize's residence.

"Alright. I'll help you with all my strength! Emerge, Absolute Defense Origin!"

An absolute defensive technique began to appear around Rossweisse and Lucien. These various barriers could withstand attacks from any expert below the Ancient Warrior stage. But even so, the sky above began to undergo changes that were far greater than before.

Rumbling!—

Various powerful shockwaves began to destroy every region of the Dragonia Kingdom. Every phenomenon occurring today far surpassed the terrible phenomena that had occurred before. On the contrary, the sky began to glow with a shimmering golden colour.

"Impossible... That lightning is Heavenly Lightning?! No! Cien! Hurry and take cover behind your master! That lightning can ignore every law in the entire world!"

Unfortunately, there was no chance for Lucien to escape from the golden lightning strikes descending from the sky. A single strike of golden lightning was enough to cause Lucien's body and soul to completely break down. But for some reason, the figure Lucien was currently displaying began to reveal the true form of the Velvet Prostitute Physique.

If the form Lucien was currently displaying had been the form he usually used, there would have been no reason for Rossweisse and the others to feel afraid when facing Lucien's true form. The true form Lucien was displaying now far surpassed any form he had ever shown before.

Even the golden lightning that had previously struck Lucien was completely absorbed by him using a red sword. It was the weapon that the system had previously given to Lucien.

The One Elementary Sword was a weapon specially made for Lucien and surpassed every weapon in the world. Since the One Elementary Sword was now Lucien's personal weapon, he had the full right to absorb the attack from the golden lightning that had previously struck his body.

It was a pity that every form displayed by Lucien at this moment had completely reached a majestic and domineering state. Even Lucien's two wings, which had previously been bone-shaped, began to transform into six wings like those of a fallen angel. For the first time, Rossweisse couldn't hold back her pale expression when she witnessed the true form of the Velvet Prostitute Physique.

The form of the Velvet Prostitute Physique that Lucien was currently using was the same form he had once used when he faced thousands of troops from the Vermillion family. But the current Lucien had completely lost control of the true form of the Velvet Prostitute Physique. Therefore, Lucien had now completely entered a state in which he could attack Rossweisse and the others.

Luckily, Lucien's current focus was to continuously resist the Heavenly Lightning that relentlessly struck him. In just a split second, a slash from the One Elementary Sword swept away the golden sky that had previously engulfed the heavens.

"Arrogance... Heavens... You are all so arrogant... I, Lucien Blackheart, will never bow under the power of the heavens!"

***

Chapter 139: Beyond Heaven!

Rumble!—

Once again, the previously bright sky above showed an endless darkness. The dark color gave a feeling of fear to Rossweisse and the others. Even a strong woman like Rossweisse could not hold back the worried expression on her face at the black lightning that struck across the sky.

Throughout Rossweisse's entire life, she had never once heard of black lightning other than red lightning. However, red lightning was the culmination of all the punishments given by the world to living creatures throughout the world.

Lucien was the first person to successfully overcome the world's punishment in the form of both red lightning and golden lightning. After Lucien succeeded in destroying the remains of the golden lightning in the sky, the laws of the world never once intended to let Lucien out of their sight.

Because Lucien was a dangerous living creature in the eyes of the world, there was no reason for the world to let Lucien successfully break through to the Great Dragon King stage. Therefore, the black lightning that appeared in the sky was the last power released by the world after the beginning of the Era of Creation.

It was a lightning bolt that had not been used by the world for a long time against all living creatures throughout the world. For some reason, at the side of the Dragonia Kingdom's castle, Lilith's figure could be seen showing a shocked expression.

Even as the strongest dragon in the entire world, Lilith realized that the world was currently trying to kill Lucien with all its power. But unfortunately, Lucien was the true successor of God King Velvet. Therefore, Lilith knew that it was impossible for the world to kill Lucien, who had now reached his best state.

Lucien's God's Bloodline, which had reached 0.1%, was the reason why Lucien's true form had become much more human-like compared to his previous true form. Because Lilith's expression now showed a blank face, Athena decided to ask what her mother was thinking at that moment.

"Mother, are you okay? What are you really thinking right now?"

"My daughter, I think your lover is in serious danger. You have to see what your lover is doing right now in the face of the Worldly Law."

Unfortunately, there was no expression of understanding on Athena's face, only a clueless expression. Luckily, Lilith decided to let her daughter watch the events that were taking place within the borders of the Dragonia Kingdom. For that reason, Athena could not help but look worried about Lucien's current situation.

Various black lightning bolts began to gather in the sky and transformed into a giant human figure thousands of meters tall. It was one of the final abilities that the Worldly Laws could unleash in order to prevent future chaos. Even so, there was no expression of doubt on Lucien's face apart from his dark gaze.

"One Elementary Sword... destroy all the lightning in the sky and absorb it into your power!" The cold and oppressive voice that came from Lucien's mouth caused the black sky above to rumble with thunder. Even the black lightning bolts that had previously taken the form of a giant began to show their terrifying faces. After all, the human standing before them was someone who could threaten the lives of all living creatures.

The World Laws absolutely did not want a human like Lucien to reach a height that could surpass the world itself. Even though Lucien was the rightful heir of God King Velvet, the world would forever consider itself to stand far above every living creature in the entire world.

But the creature they were facing now was not an ordinary living creature at all. With the sword wielded by that living creature, he could exert tremendous pressure on the entire black sky that was currently engulfing the heavens.

Even the black lightning that had previously gathered into a giant human began to prepare its strongest attack against Lucien. With a single strike from that giant lightning figure, everything within tens of thousands of meters began to turn into countless ashes.

No one knew what had really happened to Lucien, who was now fighting face to face against the Worldly Law. For the first time, Rossweisse was completely unable to hide her helpless expression after witnessing her student being struck by that terrifying black lightning.

Suddenly, sinister laughter began to echo throughout the Dragonia Kingdom. Lucien's figure could be seen floating in the sky once again. There was no expression of fear on Lucien's face. Instead, Lucien decided to raise his sword and slash it across the black sky, which was now releasing countless black lightning bolts.

The expression on Lucien's face was endlessly filled with happiness. Successfully repelling the strongest attack of the Worldly Laws was something absolutely impossible for any living creature in the entire world to accomplish. Therefore, even the black lightning that filled the sky subconsciously moved away from Lucien, who was now floating closer towards them.

Within just a few breaths, the slash of Lucien's sword created an incredibly powerful explosion and destroyed every trace of the black sky that had previously engulfed the border region of the Dragonia Kingdom. For some reason, a small crack appeared in the sky, which had now completely returned to its normal state.

"A dimensional rift... Who would have thought that this kid would be able to destroy a reality? It seems like I shouldn't make this kid unleash the power he displayed previously while facing the Worldly Laws." Even Rossweisse admitted that Lucien's power in his true form was the most unreasonable thing she had ever witnessed in her entire life. For some reason, Rossweisse's whole body involuntarily grew warm after remembering how Lucien destroyed a small dimension with a single slash.

Destroying a small dimension was no different from possessing the strength of an Ancient Warrior stage expert. Since Lucien's current strength was no different from that of a dragon at the Great Dragon King stage, Rossweisse considered Lucien to possess combat strength that had surpassed most living creatures in the entire world.

Unfortunately, Lucien's true form could not last much longer before he finally fell from the sky. Luckily, Elize immediately appeared near Lucien and then carried him in her arms. At first, Rossweisse wanted to go and help Lucien, but she did not expect her student to take the initiative and carry Lucien herself.

Another side of Rossweisse felt jealous of her student's actions, as she did not hesitate to help Lucien. If Elize had not decided to catch Lucien before he fell from the sky, Rossweisse would have been the first woman to take Lucien into her arms.

For some reason, a frightened expression appeared on Elize's face, which was now full of worry. Lucien's current condition was far from good. Even though Lucien's mana had become dozens of times stronger than before, he had previously released all of his power until there was nothing left.

***

Chapter 140: A Successful Breakthrough

"Master! Are you okay? This is really terrible..." Various expressions of fear could be seen on Tifa's face, which was now filled with tears. After witnessing how Lucien had managed to survive the punishment of the Worldly Law, Tifa felt an overwhelmingly great concern towards her master's condition.

Because her master was now completely in a pitiful state, Tifa realised that her master's mana had completely reached zero. Therefore, without thinking any further, Tifa immediately channelled all of her mana into her master's body.

The same went for Elize and Tina, who also decided to pour all of their mana into Lucien's body. However, Liz could not hold back her half-dead expression. For the first time, Liz witnessed how a weak human like Lucien had managed to destroy every terrifying bolt of lightning from the Worldly Law itself.

There had never been a single being capable of driving away the punishment that the Worldly Law would inflict upon every living creature throughout the world. It was no wonder that Liz could not suppress the disbelief on her face towards Lucien's actions in confronting the Worldly Law. No matter what, this was the first time Liz had considered a man like Lucien to be a terrifying man.

Endless fear and helplessness began to overwhelm Liz. The moment the black lightning that covered the sky struck Lucien's side, Liz felt that the pressure emitted by that black lightning far surpassed death itself.

It was the first time Liz had ever experienced a sense of terror that far exceeded anything she had felt throughout her entire life. Even Elize had never been able to instil such overwhelming fear within Liz. On the contrary, both Elize and Rossweisse were the two women whom Liz regarded as her family.

Therefore, Liz would never consider those two women as her enemies. Even so, the attack of the gigantic black lightning in the form of a human continuously filled Liz with terror. Despite that, Liz decided to observe Lucien's condition, who was now in a half-conscious state.

Lucien's consciousness had not completely faded from his mind. For some reason, endless pain began to spread throughout Lucien's entire body. However, there was nothing Lucien could do to endure the pain he was experiencing at this moment.

Returning to Lilith and Athena, the mother and daughter began to let out sighs. Especially Athena, who had previously been endlessly shouting for Lucien's safety after he had been struck by the various punishments of the Worldly Law.

Fortunately, Lucien had completely survived the punishment previously inflicted upon him by the Worldly Law. Even Lilith could not suppress the relief on her face after witnessing how her son-in-law had escaped the punishment previously given by the Worldly Law. Therefore, Lilith turned her gaze back towards her daughter, who was now showing a happy expression.

"Now do you understand? You are still not worthy of becoming Lucien's first wife. The you of now is weak."

"I know that. But Mother, I will continue to fight even after I reach the Dragon Emperor Stage. I still want to keep moving forward further than anyone else in this world!" The determination Athena displayed at this moment far surpassed the determination she had shown one month earlier. No matter what, her lover had now completely reached a level of power far beyond the common sense of any living being throughout the world.

There was no reason for Athena to stop training simply because her lover's strength had reached such a terrifying level. Although Lilith had initially been slightly worried about her daughter's attitude after witnessing Lucien's true power, she was pleased to see that her daughter had decided to continue striving to become the strongest.

A satisfied nod appeared from Lilith. The pride Lilith felt towards Athena had far surpassed the pride she had felt towards her before. Without another thought, Lilith decided to take Athena back to continue her training.

As time passed, Rossweisse began to transfer a small portion of her mana into Lucien's body. Lucien's condition had no longer reached its critical state. No matter what, Rossweisse had taken the initiative to provide Lucien with emergency assistance.

However, Rossweisse could not suppress the awkward expression on her face after recalling how she had tried to save Lucien from the crimson lightning that had previously filled the sky. Therefore, Rossweisse's previously calm face gradually showed a blush of embarrassment.

Rossweisse's cheeks, which had turned red, were quickly noticed by Elize and the other women. Even Liz noticed the reaction her Grandmaster was showing towards Lucien. Even so, Liz had completely regarded Lucien as a bastard of a man who could have any woman throughout the world.

At the very least, the sky above the border of the Dragonia Kingdom gradually began to recover as time passed. Even the dimensional crack that had previously spread across the sky had returned to its normal state. Although everything had returned to normal, several dragons noticed a strange being standing inside that dimensional crack.

Most of the dragons who noticed that strange being within the dimensional crack were soldiers of the Dragonia Kingdom. Even the commander continuously recalled the appearance of the strange monster he had seen within that dimensional crack. Fortunately, the dimensional crack that had appeared in the sky only lasted for several dozen minutes before finally returning to normal.

Although the dimensional crack in the sky had completely returned to normal, every soldier guarding the border felt their entire bodies trembling violently. No matter what, a single glance from the mysterious being inside that dimension was enough to fill the soldiers with fear.

None of the soldiers knew the true identity of the mysterious being that had previously appeared within the dimensional crack. For that reason, the commander and the soldiers began to fly away from the border of the Dragonia Kingdom.

"Let's return and continue guarding around our camp. Do not let the enemy infiltrate our kingdom like what happened half a year ago."

"Understood, Commander. We will immediately carry out your orders."

Several hours passed after the incident that had befallen the entire territory of Elize. Lucien, who had previously been lying on the ground, was now asleep on a soft bed. When Lucien opened his eyes and looked around, he saw Tifa, Tina, and Elize sleeping beside him.

Suddenly, Lucien felt someone touching his private part. It was impossible for Lucien not to realise which woman had dared to tease his little brother. Without thinking any further, Lucien immediately wrapped the woman in a warm embrace.

At first, Lucien thought that the white-haired woman was Elize, but he did not expect that the woman lying on top of him was actually Rossweisse. For the first time in six months, the expression on Lucien's face was completely filled with shock.

***