Reborn as the Dragon King's Son-In-Law

Chapter 141: A World Without Stars

Involuntary screams started to come out of Lucien's mouth. Luckily, Rossweisse's attempt to suppress Lucien's voice left him unable to open his mouth. On the contrary, the expression Lucien was showing at this moment was beginning to take on a sinister look.

This was something that Lucien had not expected at all from Rossweisse, whom he thought was a cold and charming woman. But the current Rossweisse was no different from a teenage girl who was in love with a boy. Therefore, Lucien couldn't hold back his disgusted expression after witnessing how Rossweisse boldly tried to snatch him away from her beloved student.

Elize is Rossweisse's favorite student. Moreover, Elize was currently lying right next to Lucien and Rossweisse. That alone was enough for Lucien to think of Rossweisse as a bitch who would do anything to try to snatch him away from the grasp of her beloved student.

"Rossweisse... I order you to get off my body. You are a teacher; how can you dare to act like a bitch?"

Suddenly, a terrible expression began to appear on Rossweisse's face, which had previously shown a happy expression. One of Rossweisse's hands began to touch Lucien's cheek. For some reason, one of Rossweisse's hands started pinching Lucien's sharp nose.

Small snorts began to come from Rossweisse's nose. After hearing the word "bitch" come out of Lucien's mouth, Rossweisse couldn't hold back the ugly expression on her face at the attitude Lucien had shown towards her.

She said, "Lucien, you are an unfilial student. You should know that I was the person who contributed the most to your recovery. You should show your gratitude to your teacher."

An involuntary cough came out of Lucien's mouth. It had to be admitted that Lucien had been wrong in regarding Rossweisse as a woman who dared to act indecently in front of her students. Therefore, Lucien started to apologize for the attitude he had previously shown towards Rossweisse.

"I'm sorry, Master. I admit that I was wrong. So what should your student do so that Master is no longer angry with your student?"

After pondering for a while, Rossweisse immediately moved Lucien to a quiet place without anything in it. It was an empty and dark place that could not be considered a small universe.

The ability currently demonstrated by Rossweisse in creating a small universe was at a level far lower than Lilith's Creation ability. The various voids seen around the small world created by Rossweisse were enough to show that Rossweisse's understanding of Creation was at a low level.

Only Lilith can create a small universe with her extraordinary power. Because the Star Element is an ability that represents the element of Creation, Lilith has many opportunities to create a small universe.

Until now, Rossweisse had not had any chance to create various stars in her small world. Rossweisse knew from the start that she was completely unsuited to mastering the abilities of Creation. Therefore, Rossweisse decided to let Lucien enter her little world without caring about the attitude he had shown towards her.

Lucien's eyes endlessly stared at the empty world that Rossweisse had created with her own hands. For some reason, Lucien did not feel a single sign of life in the small world created by Rossweisse.

"Master, this place... Is this Master's small world?"

"That's true. But this is by no means a perfect world. I can say that this world only contains absolute emptiness without any stars in it."

Even though the small world created by Rossweisse had absolutely nothing in it, Lucien couldn't help but feel amazed at the extraordinary power that Rossweisse possessed. Creating a small world with one's own power was something that Lucien absolutely could not imagine in his entire life.

Now Rossweisse had shown the result of her creation by creating an empty small world. There was no problem even if Rossweisse created a small world without any life in it. In the end, Rossweisse is the strongest Queen Witch the Human Race has ever had.

Only Rossweisse was able to reach the peak of all magicians as a human. For this reason, not a single living creature in the entire world dared to openly attack the territory of the Human Race. But after Rossweisse disappeared from her guard post, every party that had been hostile to the Life Continent began to carry out their attacks on the Life Continent.

Luckily, the Human Emperor had predicted the moment when the enemy would attack from the eastern side of the Life Continent. For this reason, the Human Emperor decided to focus the majority of his troops on guarding the eastern border. However, every party that tried to attack the Life Continent focused their attacks on the eastern side of the Life Continent.

"Without any stars in it... That means the reason Master let me see all this was so that I could help you? But I don't have the ability to help Master create various stars in your little world."

Silence involuntarily began to settle over Rossweisse. Since the first time Rossweisse witnessed how Lucien demonstrated the abilities of the Star Element, she had hoped that Lucien could help her understand the origins of Creation.

Creation was the only thing Rossweisse couldn't understand after the tens of thousands of years she had spent on the path of magic. Now Lucien is Rossweisse's last hope for understanding the meaning of Creation. However, Lucien has an ability that no one else in the world possesses.

Only Athena and Lilith possess the Star Element as their primary ability. Because Lucien has completely succeeded in obtaining the Star Element, Rossweisse now places all her hopes in Lucien, believing that he can help her understand the meaning of Creation in the future.

"Don't worry. You can activate your Star Element ability first. I also want to know what exactly the Star Element ability is capable of. I have only heard once in the past that the Silver Divine Dragon activated the Star Element to destroy a superpower that had existed for hundreds of thousands of years."

Annihilating a superpower that had existed for hundreds of thousands of years was something that was impossible for a lowly dragon to accomplish. Because Lilith is the only dragon capable of destroying such a long-standing superpower, she earned the nickname The Strongest among all living creatures throughout the world.

Among all living beings in the entire world, Lilith is the only being whose strength far surpasses experts at the Heavenly Warrior stage, also known as the Divine Dragon stage. But Lilith is a wise woman and would never riot against the whole world.
