Reborn as the Dragon King's Son-In-Law

Chapter 21: Latest Version

"Ah. Forget it. I also know what Master means. Therefore, I have to leave now. I hope Master doesn't stay in the hot water for too long. I'm leaving now."

Unfortunately, my legs stopped when a groan came out of Elize's mouth. My head couldn't help but turn back toward Elize. For some reason, Elize's cheeks were flushed.

Elize didn't dare to look at my little brother, which had suddenly stood up very straight. A slight feeling of awkwardness struck her heart. The memory of where she had previously touched my little brother came flooding back to her. Luckily, Elize decided to hold back the awkward feelings in her heart.

"That... are you seriously going to leave with that big, sturdy thing of yours? I don't think that's good for it..."

Silence fell around the place again. I couldn't say a word at all in response to Elize's statement. Therefore, I quickly walked back into the wooden house.

Elize's face showed no change at all. She felt a little embarrassed after recalling the hard and large object owned by her disciple. Luckily, Elize didn't think too much about her disciple's large object. Instead, she decided to immerse herself in the warm hot spring again.

But Elize couldn't forget the memory where she stared at my big and long object. Suddenly, a strange feeling appeared in the lower part of her stomach. For some reason, a slight stimulation swept through her body, and one of Elize's hands couldn't stop herself from touching the sensitive part of her pussy.

A moan could be heard coming out of Elize's beautiful mouth. It was a small moan. But it wasn't Elize's first experience touching herself either. She is a mature woman. Therefore, it is not strange if Elize has some perverted experiences, such as touching herself.

The aphrodisiac properties that came out of my body couldn't completely restrain Elize's calm thoughts. Due to my relationship with Athena, who, as a potential future partner, was already known to her, she couldn't completely calm her usually cool mind, and it instead turned into chaos.

This was the first time Elize felt her heart beat so fast when she was with a man. In Elize's entire life, she has never once had a special relationship with any man. Apart from me, Elize considers men all over the world to be inferior to her.

In the room of one of the wooden houses, I had completely returned to my clothes. My little brother, which had previously reacted, had regained its composure. But that doesn't make me happy at all. I absolutely cannot forget the moment when Elize looked at my big and mighty little brother with her awkward face.

"It's so embarrassing. This is so embarrassing. How will I be able to face my master tomorrow? This wasn't supposed to happen... I just love Athena. Whatever it is... I just want her... but Master is also very kind to me. I think that this is the reason why Athena let me train with Elize. And again, those words were before I was taken away to Elize's side..." Recalling the events of two months ago made me shake my head a little. I knew what Athena's words meant, which showed that she already knew what would happen at this time. Even now, I have a slight feeling of affection toward Elize.

This is not the feeling I felt when I considered Elize as my master. This is much more like my affection toward Athena. Both Elize and Athena are two beautiful and charming women. Having them with me wouldn't be much of a loss at all.

The strength of Elize and Athena is also enough for me to be able to stand against most of the dragons who hold high positions. As a human being, I must also have strong support. If I don't have strong support, I won't have a good and peaceful life in the future.

"Oh, system... When will you complete your upgrade? It's been almost a month! Hurry up and complete your upgrade immediately!" Both of my gazes incessantly stared at the blue panel in front of me. A countdown was visible on the blue panel screen. My eyelids twitched as if I couldn't believe what was happening.

There is one minute left before the system upgrade ends. This wasn't even a feature of the previous system. A little curiosity struck my heart. My gaze kept staring at the blue panel, which was now counting down. As time passed, half a minute finally passed.

Ten seconds...

Five seconds...

One second... over. That was when the system finally reached version 2.0. In less than a few seconds, all the notifications appeared in front of the blue screen.

All the features that didn't exist before were shown in front of me. There were even features in the form of Affection Points. It was a feature that could help me increase my strength just by collecting points from the affection of the women close to me.

[Ding! You've unlocked various new features. All things previously locked by the system are open to the host.]

"Eh? What's the difference between Intelligence and Wisdom stats? Don't they both increase knowledge and memory?"

[Intelligence only helps the host improve their memory and also improves their understanding of situations in general. But Wisdom is different from Intelligence. It is an attribute that can help the host increase their understanding of everything, just like magic skills. The higher the level of Wisdom the host has, the stronger your understanding will be.]

"But why is my Intelligence lower than all the common attributes I have? Am I that stupid?"

[Actually, it is not at all surprising that the host's Intelligence attribute is lower than the average being throughout the world. After all, the host is a reborn human. The world you were in before was lowly. The morals in the eyes of the inhabitants of your previous world are very different from those of the inhabitants of this world. Therefore, the host's Intelligence will increase as your understanding of the world increases.]

For some reason, a sigh involuntarily escaped my mouth. The low Intelligence attribute gave me a slightly bad feeling. As a man who was reborn from another world, the low Intelligence attribute did not reflect a man who came from the modern world at all.

I should have a higher level in terms of memory. Maybe the reason why I have low Intelligence is that I am naive. Although I have always hated people from the human world, as well as the dragons who dislike me, I have no life-and-death enmity toward them.

Killing was the most taboo thing in my previous life. But it still makes me feel uncomfortable even after being reborn into this free world. Killing is the most common thing in this world, but I still can't completely commit that dirty act.

Thinking back to taboo things in my head made me feel a little displeased. Of course, I will kill those who try to kill me in the future. But I have never once killed anyone after being born into this world. I only wish that I could have more time to gain some experience of living as a human in this world.

"Is there anything new? Also, I want to see what these Affection Points are for. Can they also give me some benefits?"

[Correct. The host can now purchase some of the items needed for you to be able to increase each of your attributes. You can even improve your practice process in terms of magic skills just by purchasing items from the system.]

"What price must be paid to have all the knowledge in the world?"

[Of course, the price will be very high. It will probably cost at least a hundred thousand points.]

"100,000 Affection Points?! You... This dog system is trying to kill its own master! How can I collect 100,000 Affection Points? This is impossible for me right now!" My body unconsciously fell from my bed. The notification from the system slightly made me unable to hold back my ugly expression. However, the price of purchasing all the knowledge of this world is not small at all.

One hundred thousand points is impossible for me to achieve with my current strength. What's more, I'm not a bastard. I just want to practice and improve my cultivation. But this damn system really wants me to flirt with other women besides Athena.

[This is a reasonable price that the system has offered to the host. If it were any other request, it would only require at least a thousand points. But this is about knowledge that includes magic as well as various other martial skills.]

After pondering for some time, I decided to stand up again from my place. Patting my clothes, I looked back at the blue panel in front of me with a sharp gaze.

"I understand. Are there any other functions? I'm sure that's not the only thing you get after reaching system level 2.0."

[The host is really smart, even though your knowledge attribute is very low. The system will show everything to the host.]

[Space Teleportation: Can move the host to the place where the host’s women are. There is nothing that Space Teleportation cannot reach as long as the lives of the host’s women are still intact.]

[Some other additions have also been added. For example, you can now see the progress of your magic that you have been practicing all this time.]

[Cultivation practice progress: 95%.]

"What about other skills?"

[They are skills acquired by the host personally. Since Ice Element is a skill learned directly by the host, it naturally does not fully belong to the host.]

"I understand. I now finally understand that the reason I was able to fly before was because of the ability of the Flying Technique. It seems like I gained some unique abilities after having sex with those women from noble families." I couldn’t stop the wrinkles on my face at all. I don’t know whether I should be sad or happy. The skills I have now are the result of my hard work while still in the brothel. I previously didn’t expect that I would gain various unique skills after being intimate with those noble ladies. But it made me gain some special skills.

In this case, I can only be grateful for my hard work over the past few years. The years I spent in the brothel were not good years. It could have even cost me, the successor of a God King, my life.

Chapter 23: Great Dragon!

Since my business of interrogating the system had been completely resolved, my body began to feel tired. Suddenly, my body fell back onto the bed. For now, I really want to rest and forget what happened today.

My current thoughts completely drifted into my dreams. I didn’t even think about the problems that occurred in the hot springs before. Even though Elize is a charming woman, I can still maintain my senses like a mature man.

One week passed, and I felt a strange fluctuation occur in my body. My cultivation process finally reached 99%. Elize also noticed the changes that had occurred in my body. Therefore, without hesitation, she directly guided me and allowed me to reach the Great Dragon stage.

An immense power endlessly surged from my entire body. The amount of mana I can produce right now far surpasses that of the average being in the Great Dragon stage. A slight expression of surprise crossed Elize's face. The phenomenon from my breakthrough slightly froze the area within 200 meters.

"Finally, a breakthrough to the Great Dragon stage. This isn't bad. Not bad at all." My eyes stared endlessly at my two hands, which were facing downward. After remembering the bitter experience I had in the previous days, I could no longer hold back my gratitude for my unexpected breakthrough.

But the Great Dragon stage is still much weaker than the Dragon King stage. Fighting against the young master of the Vermillion family in my current state is no different from bringing death upon myself. Even if I have strength far above the average Great Dragon stage, I'm just an ant in the eyes of Dragon King stage experts.

"Don't be complacent. Just continue your training. It's still not completely over. I hope you can continue your current training further."

A nod appeared in my head. Elize's words made the most sense to me right now. My strength may be great, but I am still weak. I am aware that most experts in the kingdom have at least reached the Dragon King stage.

"This is all thanks to you, Master. Thank you, Master. Your disciple will always remember all the training you have given me all this time!"

Elize's cheeks involuntarily turned red. Her gaze, which had previously been looking at me, moved away from my face. Suddenly, an Affection Points notification appeared in front of me.

[What a thrilling feeling! +50 Affection Points have been added.]

[Affection Points: 437.]

After more than a week, I had earned 437 Affection Points by teasing Elize. It's actually completely incomprehensible to me how I gained Elize's affection. But I understand that she currently regards me as her most cherished disciple.

That's just my foolish thinking. At least I won't have any feelings for Elize before the time comes. Likewise, Elize always ignores the thrilling feeling when listening to the praise that comes out of my mouth.

"Nonsense. Now that you have reached the Great Dragon stage, I will increase your training to be even harder. There shouldn't be any problems if the time is extended until nightfall."

No rejection came out of my mouth. Instead of being afraid of Elize's increasingly harsh training, I decided to accept each of her training sessions with pleasure.

One month later, I finally raised my understanding of the Ice Element to a higher level than before. After practicing for a long time, my progress in the Ice Element reached 24%.

This was an incredibly fast achievement due to various foreign knowledge entering my memory. The current me has reached the Great Dragon stage. Therefore, Elize did not hesitate to bestow some top-level Ice Element skills upon me.

Five days later... my comprehension of the Ice Element had reached 27%. Even though it was slow, I gained so many benefits that it allowed me to understand all kinds of magic far beyond what people at my current level could do.

350 meters is the current limit I can reach just by deploying my ice domain. If I wanted to destroy a small village, I could kill its residents with just my full strength.

The current me has completely raised my understanding of the Ice Element to a high level. 30% is the limit that Dragon King stage dragons can reach while practicing their magic.

My current strength is probably equivalent to that of weak dragons at the Dragon King stage. After breaking through to the Great Dragon stage, my physique has completely reached a level far more terrifying than when I broke through the High Dragon stage.

Elize's training is also one of the reasons why I have a physique far above that of the average human. Luckily, I was able to survive every training session that Elize gave me. If my strength had not increased much more rapidly than in the previous three months, I wouldn't have been able to endure any of the training she is giving me now.

After two weeks had passed, my comprehension of the Ice Element had reached its limit. No matter how much I forced myself to practice, I had completely reached the limit that only Dragon King stage dragons can attain.

"That's already good for you. There's a barrier blocking your comprehension. It can't be broken even if you force yourself to practice twice as much." Elize's explanation didn't make me feel sad. On the contrary, I didn't think much about the limits of my Ice Element comprehension. But it's still not enough for me to be able to fight the young master of the Vermillion family.

"Can you teach me more than this? I don't have the confidence to fight that young master of the Vermillion family. I hope you can help me increase my strength even further, Master."

Pondering in place for some time, a small sigh escaped Elize's mouth. From the start, she understood that I couldn't be complacent about my current improvements. Therefore, Elize would not stop her disciple from training until he could fight against the young master of the Vermillion family.

Chapter 24: Adaptation

"Actually, the limits of one's understanding cannot be measured just by one's strength. You can also surpass your limits when faced with life and death. It's the same as your fight with those three true dragons. Because of your fight with them, you gained so much understanding that even you yourself never learned."

Elize's words made the most sense to me. An expert couldn't have their limits simply because their strength was lower than the level above them. Even if they had reached the limits of their strength, there was no way they would be restrained just because their strength was weak.

This is absolutely nothing I want to think about, even after reaching the Great Dragon stage. My limits in understanding something cannot possibly stop at my current level. And after listening to Elize's explanation, I understood that Elize had also surpassed her limitations of being at the Great Dragon King stage.

"Could it be possible that Master also..."

"That's right. Your master has surpassed the level of understanding that only people at the master's level can achieve. The more the master learns about magic, the master's understanding of the world also begins to change."

Once again, I couldn't help but sigh. I was happy to see that Elize had surpassed her previous limitations of only comprehending the Great Dragon King stage and reaching the comprehension of the Dragon Emperor stage.

Elize's achievements also made me realize how strong she is. If Elize alone could have such a high status within the kingdom, she should be one of the foremost experts in the Dragon Realm.

The magical comprehension of a Dragon Emperor-stage dragon far surpassed that of ordinary beings. This was also the reason why Elize had few opponents after staying in the kingdom for so long. None of the dragons could fight against her evenly.

Existences like the Dragon Emperor could be counted on just ten fingers. Excluding Lilith, the Dragon Emperor-stage dragons had their territories to manage. Dealing with something as useless as fighting was not their goal.

The only person who can fight Elize in the same generation is Athena. Both Elize and Athena were not that far apart in age. Therefore, they were both of the same generation and could be considered the strongest.

"There's no need to rush. I'll let you experience mana exhaustion first. This is also one of the ways your master can surpass the comprehension that only dragons of the Dragon Emperor stage can achieve."

Mana Syndrome is a disease that only those who have reached their limits in casting magic suffer from. I am one example. If Elize hadn't come to stop me earlier, I would have fallen into a state of madness and probably would have lost my life.

"Please provide your guidance, Master!"

Some time passed, and Elize and I were now in our respective positions. One of our hands was now preparing to cast our magic. Just as my eyes wanted to look at Elize's face, a barrage of ice spears appeared in front of me and hit me like iron nails.

My entire body was injured from receiving attacks from the continuous ice spears. Elize's expression was calm. In fact, she didn't care at all to see me, who was now in such a miserable condition. Likewise, I didn't care about my current condition.

Every time Elize launched an attack and hit me with her spear, my reflexes in dodging and blocking every attack from Elize increased very rapidly. The current me could easily read every move that Elize would make against me. Both of my gazes began to experience a slowdown in time.

The common skill of the human race is adaptation. Humans have talents that can surpass both dragons and monsters. Moreover, I have talents far above the average human, enough for me to adapt in less than a few hours.

Super Regeneration endlessly heals my body and grows various damaged organs in my body. Both my legs and arms have received attacks from Elize several times. Even though it was painful, I decided to endure every bit of pain I received from each of Elize's attacks.

The speed of my regeneration can easily allow me to grow my organs slightly faster than before. This is just a small development. Even this still couldn't be considered worthy of being at the same level of regeneration as the dragons. But it was enough for me to be able to maintain my consciousness when facing Elize.

[MP: 1,072/38,500.]

A large amount of blood came out of my mouth. Elize's face turned slightly ugly. Seeing me in such a bad state made her unable to contain her feelings of worry. Luckily, she decided to suppress her worry after seeing my condition.

I regained my balance after almost falling off my feet. The amount of mana I'm expending right now has exceeded my limits far beyond the times I trained with Elize. With that, most of the area within the forest had turned into a cold and frozen sea of ice.

The scorching temperature that previously engulfed the entire place also couldn't withstand the impact of the two Ice Elemental forces colliding with each other. For some reason, Elize's gaze turned sharp and penetrated the deepest part of my body.

'After all, he is still the successor of God King Velvet. I just wonder how far this kid's physique can take him in increasing his strength? It can't just be this much. Nothing can withstand the limitations of power in the possessor of the Velvet Prostitute Physique, even if it is a god!'

I, who always tried to dodge every attack from Elize, stopped and received a strong attack from her. My body, which previously stood straight, fell from my place. Even though I tried to move my body, the amount of mana in my body had reached a critical level.

My consciousness inevitably fell into my subconscious. A slightly disappointed expression crossed Elize's face. After watching for some time, no changes occurred in my body. It no longer made Elize feel excited after remembering the torture training she previously gave me.

Chapter 25: Killing Intent

The life I lived before was a boring one. There was nothing I could do apart from listening to orders from my seniors. I also had some resentment toward them, but I didn't want to do anything cruel to any of them.

My death had absolutely nothing to do with anyone from that world. I died because I didn't want to live anymore. Maybe I died because I wandered around the streets too much, but I'm still not completely sure about that memory.

My memories are very blurry. Even after being reincarnated and living a new life, I don't have all the memories from my previous life like the fictional characters who are reincarnated into fantasy worlds.

This is also the reason why I decided to live my life like a human from another world. What I wanted before was to live freely and command the territory that would be passed down from my parents to me. But that will never happen again in my lifetime.

Actually, I really hate those who come from the city next to the village. The humans from the city were very cruel to the villagers. Even if I were a human from another world, I didn't have the power of characters from a fantasy story.

I saw them die and be killed one by one. I hated all of them far more than I hated those bitches from every noble family. If only I had the strength back then, I would probably have killed them with both hands indiscriminately.

Morals no longer matter when faced with an enemy who has killed one's parents. It was completely unforgivable, even if they were fellow humans. After living in the Dragon Realm for two years, I know that the people of the Dragon race have a better life than humans.

The attitude of the dragon population is like that of highly educated nobles. Meanwhile, humans are animals who will kill each other. Likewise, the residents of my village died without any resistance against these vile humans.

"I don't want to be like this. I may be naive and selfish. I may also be a stubborn person, like Elize said. But I want to kill them. This is also the wish of the residents of that village! As one of them, I must represent them to avenge their deaths." Every time I remember that cruel past, my hatred starts to increase and shows on my face. I can still feel the blood that was splattered in the past. Even though I have lived for more than two decades, I still cannot forget the bad memories that those humans inflicted on me.

A small laugh came out of my mouth. It wasn't a desperate laugh; instead, it was cold and mysterious. At the same time, my body finally regained consciousness and stood up from its place.

Unfortunately, I wasn't fully awake. My consciousness had been completely eroded by the hatred that I could not forget from the past. Even my body subconsciously emitted extremely dense evil intent, far surpassing the evil beings in the entire world.

The killing intent exuding from my body prevented Elize from holding back her wary expression toward me. Elize's instinct toward the mysterious power coming out of my body gave her a slightly worried feeling. Even though Elize was much stronger than her disciple, she was not completely able to withstand the bad feeling that was incessantly surging in her heart.

A large amount of negative power surrounded my entire body and covered it with a dark aura. The negative aura surrounding the place created a storm that even penetrated the barrier created by Elize. With terrifying power overflowing from my body, the entire sky above the forest turned into dark clouds.

A circle, like a halo, formed above my head. The shape of the halo above my head showed terrifying power and was black in color. The moment my dark gaze looked to the side in front of me, a powerful storm of energy hit the entire area.

The various trees near Elize were all destroyed due to the terrifying power released by me. The current chaos was enough to blow away most of the trees in the forest. Luckily, the killing intent emanating from my body did not completely spread and reach parts of the kingdom's territory. After all, the Dragon King is the being who has been guarding the Kingdom of Dragonia.

There was no way someone like Lucien would dare to mess with the territory of a Dragon Emperor stage dragon. Even Elize was a little relieved to see that I decided not to spread the evil aura to the territory of the kingdom. The distance between the wilderness and the Dragonia Kingdom was thousands of miles.

Unfortunately, my consciousness showed absolutely no signs of awakening from my hatred. At first, Elize wanted to open her mouth and ask about my current condition, but she received an attack from me.

[The true form of the Velvet Prostitute Physique that is not in a perfect state. The host can currently only use the strength of the Velvet Prostitute Physique at around 5%.]

[All unique skills of the host have risen to the peak. Both the skills you acquired in the past and the skills you are currently learning have all improved to the peak.]

[Nothing will be able to stop the host, who is now affected by the change in the Velvet Prostitute Physique. The condition for the host to return to its original state is that the host must have a relationship with the woman you love.]

One of Elize's hands was now rubbing her cheek. The attacks I launched previously far surpassed the attacks I had when I previously trained with Elize. But Elize didn't understand what was really happening to me. Despite that, Elize decided to be more serious when facing me.

Elize received no fatal injuries. Even if the negative aura released by me can mess up Elize's mind, she won't be defeated by me, even if she fights with me, who has fallen into a state of madness.

Chapter 26: Hidden Feelings

Elize’s two feet stepped forward from their place and appeared in front of her disciple. A moment after Elize’s attack reached her disciple’s body, Lucien’s figure disappeared and reappeared beside Elize.

"This... a shadow move?! Where did he learn it? I didn’t even know it at all..."

Shadow Killing is a skill I learned while still in the brothel. This was my first time trying to perform the shadow steps of one of the Shadow Killing skills. Even though I’m not in a conscious state, my mind can easily learn every skill I currently have.

A slight feeling of worry struck Elize’s heart. Elize’s gaze constantly focused on her disciple’s poor physical condition. Even though her disciple’s regeneration abilities far surpassed those of an average human, he was unable to completely withstand the side effects of the changes forced upon his body.

Unfortunately, Elize couldn’t stop fighting against me. Therefore, she could only continue the fight and find a way for me to regain my consciousness.

A sturdy and majestic ice wall was created in front of Elize. The attack from Elize that almost reached me earlier disappeared and turned into snow debris. Seeing the changes in front of her, Elize couldn’t maintain her amazed expression.

"Heh... it seems like this kid’s potential is far beyond my expectations! He has the potential to surpass me! This talent might allow him to surpass the current Dragon King and even defeat the Dragon Queen, who is said to be the strongest!"

For some reason, the sky above the clouds turned very dark, much darker than before. An ice meteor reaching 500 meters appeared above the forest. A small laugh involuntarily came out of Elize’s mouth.

"Ha ha ha. I’ll be serious! Let me see to what extent your strength is..."

The amount of mana I currently have has grown much greater than before. I can now easily spread my ice magic thousands of meters away, but it was still within the range that Elize could handle.

Even though my strength had increased several times compared to before, Elize didn’t completely show her seriousness while facing me in my berserk state. However, she could defeat me at any time without even activating her true transformation.

Every time Elize’s attacks collided with mine, various feelings of anger, sadness, disappointment, and happiness appeared in her mind. These were the feelings Lucien had experienced since he was first reincarnated into this world.

All the things Elize didn’t know about Lucien began to enter her mind. These memories made Elize unable to maintain the composure of a powerful expert. For some reason, her gaze turned affectionate.

"No woman will be able to resist the charm of the inheritor of the Velvet Prostitute Physique... even I, who am actually the Frost Dragon, can’t resist it. I want my disciple to return to normal. If not, he will die and won’t have enough mana to survive anymore." Elize’s previously surging fighting intent completely disappeared and turned into a desire to save her disciple. The weapon in her hand vanished. Walking closer to me, now in critical condition, Elize immediately took her disciple into her arms without hesitation.

[Ding! You’ve completed the mission to get the heart of the Frost Empress. You can choose one of the three special abilities.]

[Added +50 Affection Points...]

Elize’s entire body was covered in a very strong ice aura. However, the negative power coming from my body caused several small injuries to her.

As a powerful woman, Elize could easily evade every negative force released by my body. Even though I possessed strength far above the average Dragon King stage, she could resist it and quickly adapt to the circumstances around her.

After observing my changes for some time, Elize guessed that I must have had at least an intimate relationship. The purpose of the Velvet Prostitute Physique from the beginning was to have a woman as a partner. And because her disciple was the owner of this physique, Elize would not hesitate to let her disciple fully claim it.

A soft kiss fell on Lucien’s lips. Lucien’s previously hateful consciousness disappeared, and he regained awareness. His blurry gaze fell upon Elize, who was kissing him. Suddenly, Lucien’s arms, without hesitation, wrapped tightly around her.

"Master..." I was confused by what was happening around me. Elize suddenly kissing me made me unable to think of anything else. I couldn’t hold back the desire that had built up inside me. I let myself completely sink into her embrace.

I shouldn’t have done something like this to my only master. Even though I hadn’t taken the initiative to kiss Elize, I had long developed an attraction toward her.

There was no rejection within me after spending three months with Elize. There was no way I could resist her charm like before. Combined with the side effects of the Velvet Prostitute Physique, both Elize and I had sunk into our desire.

Chapter 27: Special? - R18

Time inside the barrier felt much slower compared to previous days. The two figures, a man and a woman, began to kiss each other. My previously ugly form regained its composure. Even the killing aura that had previously engulfed my entire body disappeared, replaced by a calm aura.

Every time Elize touched my little brother's erection, I couldn't help but try to hold back the moans that escaped from my mouth. The way Elize touched my genitals felt very different from the average noble ladies from that human city.

Maybe Elize is a woman I like. From the start, my relationship with the noble ladies was limited to a cooperative relationship that could be mutually beneficial. Even though I suffered more losses and torture than all the humans in the city, that didn't make me think about it any further.

Both my relations with the human city had been completely severed due to Athena's interference. I owe Athena a debt of gratitude for what she did for me previously in the human city. Even humans could not touch me when they tried to snatch me from Athena's hands.

Athena's rescue of me in the past was enough for me to completely submit to her. The only woman I love is Athena. But Elize is also a precious woman to me. Therefore, I don't want either of them to leave me because of a trivial matter.

My previous thoughts were very selfish and naive. There's no way I could throw away great women like Elize. From the start, this was my intention. I won't abandon this thought even after I reach a higher position in the Dragon Realm.

Choosing one of them is not a wise move. But Athena will forever be a special woman to me. She held a slightly higher position than Elize in my heart. Even Elize realized that Athena was the most important woman in my life.

Elize's moist and wet mouth endlessly licked my huge cock. Every time Elize put my cock into her mouth, the feeling of suction from Elize's cold yet warm mouth made me unable to contain the pleasure on my face.

My previously calm attitude changed and became fierce. One of my hands immediately pushed Elize's head deeper onto my cock without hesitation. A feeling of incomparable pleasure endlessly flooded my mind.

I could feel the deepest part of Elize's mouth tightly clamping around my genitals. Luckily, Elize is a female dragon, which allowed her to hold her breath much longer than the average expert at her current level.

Elize's eyelids opened very wide. Both of Elize's hands were now clenched tightly after feeling my big cock enter her mouth. Every inch of my cock had completely entered Elize's mouth. Therefore, Elize was completely unable to hold back her tears after feeling her disciple's cock enter her throat.

"Delicious... ah... amazing. Master, your mouth is really very moist and cold. I feel as if I am in a place full of two seasons!"

Elize's eyes began to move as she looked at my figure, unable to contain my pleasure. A large part of Elize was happy to see me showing such a joyful expression. But Elize was also angry at herself for forcefully putting her disciple's cock into her mouth. After all, Lucien was Elize's disciple.

But remembering the times she and Lucien spent together brought a warm feeling to Elize's heart. She had now completely accepted Lucien as the opposite sex. The feeling of love was the only thing Elize could feel right now. The relationship between master and disciple no longer meant anything in Elize's eyes.

From the start, I was Elize's only disciple. To Elize, my status as her disciple was nothing more than a title. Her intention from the beginning was never to become a master and have a disciple to train.

If it weren't for Athena's request, it would have been impossible for Elize to accept me as her disciple. Even if I had the Velvet Prostitute Physique, she still wouldn't have accepted me. Therefore, I was happy to be with Elize because of the request Athena gave her.

Gulp—

Elize's head began to move back and forth. As time passed, I could feel the throbbing in my genitals intensify. Realizing this, Elize chose to release my cock from her mouth and let it ejaculate.

A large amount of white liquid overflowed and covered parts of Elize's body. Elize's previously clean face was sprayed with my fishy-smelling seed. For some reason, the taste of my semen caused Elize to lose some of her senses.

"I want it right now... I want to have you, Lucien. Please give yourself to your master~" Elize's gaze turned very sharp. As a human, I couldn't contain my fear after seeing Elize's sharp eyes. I felt as if I were prey that could be devoured by Elize at any moment.

I didn’t go against Elize’s wishes. Instead, I let Elize play with my cock and rub it against her pussy. Both Elize and I felt pleasurable sensations from each other.

Both of Elize’s legs were now resting on my lap. I also decided to sit down from my place. Our gazes met, her eyes resembling cold ice gems. She said, "No matter what our relationship becomes from now on, you will still be my disciple. And please keep this a secret from Athena... I don’t want her to know that I have become yours."

My cock, which had previously been rubbing against Elize’s pussy, began to enter a place it shouldn’t have entered. The feeling of my cock starting to steal Elize’s virginity made her involuntarily shed tears. Even though I was worried, I couldn’t stop Elize from recklessly inserting my cock into her pussy.

Chapter 28: Elize’s Virgin - R18

[You’ve successfully captured the virginity of the Frost Empress. You acquired every skill the Frost Empress currently possesses.]

[Special Abilities that you have gained from obtaining the Frost Empress’s virginity: Emperor Domination, Dragon Transformation, Dragon King’s Aura, Spearmanship, Swordsmanship, Weapon Art, Ultimate Ice Form, Absolute Domain, Fire Element, Wooden Element, Earth Element, Water Element, Light Element, Space Element, Wind Element.]

[You also gained Ice Element comprehension at the Dragon Emperor stage expert level.]

[One of the abilities acquired by the host will be locked for now. Emperor Domination: the divine intent of an emperor capable of shaking the heavens and the earth. A pressure that can make everyone near the host feel uncomfortable. Emperor Domination’s mana consumption requires at least nearly one hundred thousand mana.]

Some of the abilities I had acquired were completely unknown to me, even though I had been with Elize for several months. All the abilities I obtained had never even been used by Elize while she was with me. But that didn’t make me care. Instead, I returned to focusing on Elize’s desire to devour my entire cock and insert it into her pussy.

The woman above me was an extraordinarily strong and fierce woman. I, an experienced man, could only give myself over to whatever Elize wanted to do. After all, this was Elize’s first experience having sex with a man.

Red blood began to flow out of Elize's pussy. Even most of my cock became stained with Elize's virgin blood. Luckily, the blood from Elize losing her virginity didn't cause me any concern. Even though Elize was a woman with no experience in sex, she was still an expert whose strength far surpassed mine.

"Ugh... it feels quite painful. Is this the moment when a woman loses her chastity? It feels even more painful than getting stabbed in the stomach." A laugh escaped from Elize's mouth. The feeling of losing her virginity endlessly surged through her mind. This was the first time Elize had felt such intense pain after losing her chastity.

Elize could no longer hold back the pleading expression on her face as she looked at her disciple. A few happy tears flowed down from one of her eyes. I was actually worried about Elize's condition. Some memories of adult knowledge books about the Dragon race that I had previously read came flooding back into my mind.

A female dragon who lost her virginity would experience endless pain. Every female dragon would suffer torture far beyond what they could endure. Therefore, I was worried that Elize's condition would never return to normal.

Elize's extraordinary strength could not completely stop the tears from flowing down her cheeks. The endless pain she felt did not calm her down at all. Instead, Elize decided to press her lips against her disciple's lips.

I didn't mind Elize suddenly kissing me at all. The pressure around my cock while it was inside Elize's pussy made me unable to hide my expression of pleasure. What I felt now was completely different from what I had felt while working in the brothel.

The difference between a human woman and a female dragon was like heaven and earth, like used goods compared to brand-new ones. Elize was far better than the others. Moreover, Elize belonged to the True Dragon race. Therefore, the difference between Elize and noble ladies could not be compared by anyone.

Five minutes passed, and Elize finally regained her composure. Her healing power began to ease the pain she had previously felt in her stomach. As I slightly moved my hips, a moan escaped from Elize's mouth.

My sudden movement gave Elize a feeling of surprise. She, who had previously adapted to the size of my huge cock, couldn't hold back her soft moans. But the pain Elize had felt before had almost completely disappeared and was replaced with pleasure.

"You... Lucien..."

"Isn't this also what you want? Lize, from now on, you are mine. I am yours too. We will both share the same life and destiny. I promise that for the rest of our lives, we will always stay together forever." The confession that came out of my mouth didn't completely make Elize believe me. Remembering my relationship with Athena was enough to make Elize indifferent to my words. Without paying attention to my serious expression, Elize immediately hugged her disciple without hesitation.

I didn't mind Elize's indifferent attitude towards my words. What I had said earlier was a declaration regarding my relationship with Elize. Even though Elize considered me a weak man for now, sooner or later, I would make this woman see me as someone who could stand as her equal.

This was not arrogance, but rather the self-confidence that I had long kept restrained. I had always believed that I would be able to reach the same level that Elize and Athena had already attained. Even when it came to the Dragon King, I swore that I would surpass that man and eventually surpass his wife as well.

My main goal right now was to reach the Dragon King stage. My journey towards the Dragon Emperor stage would still take at least several years. At the very least, I had hope of surpassing most of the dragons in the Dragon Realm. After all, I was a man born without a special background, unlike the children of noble families.

Athena's guidance was one of the reasons I was able to awaken my talent through my own efforts. If Athena hadn't decided to bring me into the Dragon Realm, I would never have been able to awaken my talent to this extent.

Chapter 29: Promise - R18

Both of my hands are now holding Elize's sexy, seductive ass. The size of Elize's breasts is no smaller than an E-cup. But I don't mind it. Even if they were much smaller than Athena's breasts, I would still think the size of Elize's breasts is one of the most beautiful.

It is not good if a woman has a breast size that exceeds normal limits. I would also feel disgusted if those breasts were far beyond the imagination of ordinary living beings. Luckily, I'm a normal guy. There's no way I'm going to choose my women just because of their big breasts.

Both big and small are the same in my eyes. As long as that woman loves me, I will love her forever. Just like Athena and Elize, they are both my two precious women.

My sudden touching of both of Elize's buttocks couldn't stop Elize from showing an embarrassed expression. The shape of Elize's buttocks is slightly superior to Athena's. Even though Elize's height is around 186 cm, she has a slender body like a 20-year-old girl.

"Don’t be rude~. You’re too focused on playing with that! Please be more serious..."

For some reason, a coughing sound came out of my mouth. I should have known my limits by now. This was the first time Elize and I had sex. Therefore, I have to make various beautiful memories with Elize while we are still having sex.

"I know that. Can I call you Elize from now on? I don’t feel worthy of calling you Master after our relationship."

Silent where she was, a look of doubt began to appear on Elize’s face. It wasn’t a big deal for Elize to let her disciple call her by her name. But Elize didn’t want that. Elize’s great strength made it impossible for her disciple to call her by name directly.

"That... I allow it if it’s just the two of us in this place. But you are not allowed to call me by my name in public. Before you reach the Great Dragon King stage, you have to call me Master for now. This is all just to avoid public suspicion."

My previously serious face showed happiness. As long as Elize allows me to call her by her name when we’re alone together, that’s enough for me. As a weak man, I couldn’t possibly ask for more from Elize.

"Understood. I will achieve it in just two years!"

"Two years? You’re taking it too lightly! Humph. I’ll wait for you..." Elize’s previously firm attitude suddenly turned shy. After listening to my solemn vow to reach the Great Dragon King stage in two years, she decided to trust me after remembering my common-sense-defying talent.

"Hehe... that means Master agrees? Now I have another goal to achieve."

Sighing, I returned to focusing on fucking Elize, who was now beneath me. I ignored Elize’s anxious expression. Instead, I started thrusting into Elize’s womb with all my strength.

The body of a female dragon really made me unable to hold back my happy expression. Both my body and mind had completely sunk into the endless pleasure that Elize was giving me. Every time my cock reached the deepest part of Elize’s pussy, I endlessly felt a tight clamp that could make me release my semen from its storage place.

’Is this a female dragon? I now know the reason why they can have so many children! These female dragons really can suck the seed out of their mate until there is nothing left. I have to be more careful...’ Luckily, Elize was a woman who had just lost her virginity. If Elize were an experienced woman, I wouldn’t be able to retain all the semen stored inside me.

Most female dragons have the ability to give birth to far more dragon babies than the average of any other species. Even if I release my semen into Elize's womb, she won't have the chance to give birth to my child as long as both parties don't accept each other.

Likewise, Elize understands what will happen if I release my sperm into her womb. Luckily, Elize didn't intend to give birth to a child with me. Neither Elize nor I want to have a child who could disrupt the relationship between master and disciple.

My feelings for Elize are only those of a member of the opposite sex. Moreover, I am still a young man. Even Elize still hasn't fully become an adult dragon. A memory of previously listening to Athena's story about the ages of various dragons came rushing back into my mind.

Baby dragons are dragons that have just hatched from a mother dragon's egg. Meanwhile, young dragons are dragons that have just passed their infancy and will soon reach maturity. Therefore, Elize, who was still only a few tens of years old, could not be completely considered an adult dragon.

One of the female dragons who can compete with Elize is Athena. None of the younger generation of dragons could fight against the two female dragons. Even the young masters of every major family would have no chance of fighting against Elize and Athena head-on.

To reach maturity, a dragon must be at least 100 years old. Those who have not reached 100 years of age will only be considered young dragons or baby dragons. But the case is different with Elize, as she already has the power to surpass every citizen of the Dragonia Kingdom.

Elize's combat strength was equivalent to that of Dragon Emperor-stage dragons. The Dragon King himself also admitted that Elize was a woman with terrifying talent. If it weren't for Elize deciding to stay within the territory of the Dragonia Kingdom, it would have been impossible for the Dragon King not to take action to expel Elize from his territory.

Elize's relationship with the Lucifer family has existed since the time Athena and Elize first met in the past. All the dragons in the kingdom know of Elize's very, very terrifying potential. Perhaps that was also the reason why the young master of the Skylord family was so eager to bow his head before Elize and intended to become one of her disciples.

Chapter 30: God's Bloodline - R18

Several hours passed, and the previously bright sun had now set in the west. The evening finally passed. My half-conscious eyes looked at Elize, who was still moving on my lap. For some reason, a feeling of endless tiredness swept through my body.

My body, once full of strength, was replaced by incomparable exhaustion. Even the black halo above my head disappeared because my strength had reached its limit. But unfortunately, I couldn't stop Elize from needing me like a toy dildo.

"Master... I can't do it anymore... I want to rest... Ngh..."

Elize's gaze had now completely turned blank. Her two blue eyes stared at me like prey she could stab at any time. Luckily, I didn't panic when faced with Elize's current changes. Instead, I let Elize play with me for a while.

I admit that having sex with Elize was an amazing experience for me. But due to the large difference in strength between Elize and me, I was only able to hold on for half a day before finally collapsing where I sat.

This isn't a big deal for me. The power of my endlessly active regeneration began to restore my stamina. Due to the power of regeneration that could restore my stamina endlessly, I could spurt my semen inside Elize at any time.

'I don't know what's going on anymore... is this okay? I should have known that Elize was still a young dragon. Doesn't that mean I've done something forbidden? Cough. No...' I subconsciously shook my head. My mind kept imagining what Elize would look like as a young dragon and under the age of adult dragons in general. However, having sex with young girls in the modern world is illegal.

This world should not have such laws. But Elize is a female dragon at an young age. Therefore, I don't think what I am doing right now is an act that violates sexual harassment against children under 17 years old.

Although I don't care about the age difference between the Dragon race and the Human race, I won't do something stupid like sleeping with a little girl. I'm a normal guy. And again, I only love women who are more mature than my current age.

The age difference between Athena and me is no less than 8 years. I am 22 years old and will soon turn 23 years old. Because the age gap between Athena and me is relatively small, I still see her as an adult woman.

Athena is 30 years old. Even though 30 years is an old age for species like humans, for dragons, 30 years is no different from the age of a young woman.

Suddenly, a strong aura involuntarily emerged from Elize's body and changed the color of her previously white hair to blue. For some reason, the pressure emitted by Elize reminded me of the Dragon King. However, Elize's level had reached the threshold between the Great Dragon King stage and the Dragon Emperor stage.

The restrictions that Elize had previously felt in her subconscious began to crack and, little by little, were destroyed. It also made Elize inevitably wake up from her lustful thoughts. As she turned to her disciple, feelings of endless desire flooded Elize's mind.

"Is this what you're doing? How can I have such a rare opportunity like this...? I thought I would need at least 2 more years to reach the Dragon Emperor stage. But now this will allow me to reach the Dragon Emperor stage sooner or later..." Elize's expression endlessly revealed a look of disbelief. Breaking through to the Dragon Emperor stage is not an easy thing for Elize, who is a talented dragon. Although Elize could easily reach the Great Dragon King stage at a young age, reaching the Dragon Emperor stage would require at least a hundred years of experience.

This was one of the reasons why Elize had no chance of reaching the Dragon Emperor stage, even though she had combat power equivalent to that of a Dragon Emperor stage dragon. But now the barrier that Elize had previously felt was starting to break down and would soon give her a path to reach the Dragon Emperor stage. Without caring about the confused reaction on my face, Elize decided to kiss me affectionately.

[+2,500 Affection Points have been added.]

[Because you've conquered the heart of Elize and made her your woman, you can choose one of the three rare abilities.]

[108 Celestial Omniscient Scriptures: covers all knowledge that no one in this world can attain. It can help you overcome every obstacle in your cultivation. Even if you want to help your partner and share the knowledge they need, you only need to figure it out with the knowledge you have gained from the 108 Celestial Omniscient Scriptures.]

[Warcraft Builder: can create what does not exist in this world. The condition needed to create anything is your great strength. But it also has one weakness, namely that it cannot create buildings that are far beyond the limits of this world.]

[God's Bloodline: a bloodline that will be able to help the host develop much faster. No matter what obstacles you overcome in the future, you will not be held back just because you have reached a threshold in the things you have learned.]

'108 Celestial Omniscient Scriptures! But... the third option is more interesting. I think I should choose it first? But still... System, how much does it cost to buy the bloodline of a god?'

[That requires at least tens of millions of points. Because this is the bloodline of the God King. You are only the successor of the Velvet God King. Therefore, you will not have His bloodline even if you were born with the Velvet Prostitute Physique.]

"Eh?!"

"What’s wrong with you?"

A coughing sound involuntarily came out of my mouth. My sudden reaction of surprise made Elize unable to help but question what was happening to me. But I just ignored the question Elize asked me. My gaze began to focus on the blue panel in front of me.
