Reborn as the Dragon King's Son-In-Law

Chapter 3: Dragon King’s Son-In-Law

"Is this also the function of the Velvet Prostitute Physique? It can also imitate the strength of the partner I have slept with before?"

[Host is right. Therefore, the system hopes that the host can look for more partners besides the Dragon Princess. It’s also for the future life of the host.]

Unexpectedly, a sigh escaped my mouth. Shaking my head, I decided to wave my hand in front of the blue window.

My face currently showed a cold expression. Even though the system wanted me to find a partner other than Athena, there was no way I could betray her without her consent.

Athena’s figure in my heart is much higher than all the women I have ever met. I myself have considered Athena as my wife. Even if I were human, Athena’s attitude toward me was much different from the women in this city.

"Don’t be kidding! Do you want me to die? I can’t betray that woman’s kindness. If she wanted, she could kill me whenever she wanted. But she didn’t..." My face returned to showing a calm expression. Recalling the memory where Athena previously gave me some words of encouragement, my heart was filled with happiness again.

That doesn’t mean I don’t want another woman as a mistress. However, the condition for me to increase my strength is that I have to have sex with a woman who was born with unique abilities.

[The system will not interfere with the host’s life. Don’t worry. The system’s only hope is one, namely that you must immediately improve your strength before "they" come to you.]

""They"? Is that the enemy?" My face turned wary. The words from the system seemed to indicate that there were strong enemies out there who were looking for me. It’s just that what the system said held many mysterious meanings.

[You don’t need to know for now. Even if you knew, it would only delay you from becoming much stronger than you currently are.]

My vision became very dizzy again. Suddenly, my body woke up from my subconscious. When I woke up again, I saw myself lying on my bed.

A bandage could be seen covering the top of my head. My body felt a little dizzy. The result of losing a lot of blood made my condition very bad.

"Brother-in-law is awake. Sister, you can come in now." A woman's voice was heard in the room. The tone of the woman's voice was very beautiful and could attract the attention of any man. And as the future son-in-law of the Dragon King family, I know the identity of that woman.

Shelia La. Lucifer is the name of this woman. She is the second sister of Athena. Also, she can be considered my younger sister-in-law.

Shelia's beauty was no lower than Athena's. Shelia's light brown hair gives a comfortable feeling when someone looks at her figure. Both gazes from Shelia were very gentle and different from Athena's.

The sisters of Athena were three in number. And the youngest is still around 20 years old. The youngest daughter and I are only one year apart in age. Even though she was born at an age not much different from mine, the strength of the youngest daughter was like heaven and earth compared to an ordinary human like me.

I didn't talk much with the three sisters of Athena. The fact that the people inside the castle consider me a pest cannot be ignored. Every time I passed by the sisters, they only acted formal and indifferent toward me.

By the way, how could Shelia happily call me brother-in-law? This makes me confused...

I don't really remember what happened immediately after I passed out. But one thing is certain. I had awakened my talent, and it was probably known to every dragon resident in the city.
