Reborn as the Dragon King's Son-In-Law

Chapter 5: Father-In-Law

Moaning sounds began to come out of Athena’s mouth. The groans produced by Athena made me unable to contain myself for the second time. Every time Athena and I exchanged saliva, it made my mind go blank as if it were an aphrodisiac.

But what I thought was right. Even Athena herself noticed that the production of my saliva made a woman like Athena very aroused. Due to the function of the Velvet Prostitute Physique that had been activated after my previous awakening, any saliva of mine could make women lose their minds and fall into lust.

My breathing became very chaotic. I couldn’t breathe at all while kissing Athena intensely. When I wanted to move my kiss away from Athena, she, without hesitation, gave me artificial respiration.

It really helped me to resume my kiss with Athena. As my hands began to remove the clothes one by one that were blocking Athena’s beautiful body, a knock suddenly came from outside the room.

I ignored the knock. Neither Athena nor I cared at all about the presence of people outside the room. But unfortunately, the knocking became much louder after it had continued for more than a few seconds.

"This makes me angry..." Just as I wanted to walk out of bed, Athena’s two hands pulled me back into her arms. I showed a doubtful expression on my face. I didn’t know if it mattered whether I ignored the knock or not.

"Ignore that. You are mine now. Only mine, the Dragon Princess."

Badump—

My heartbeat started beating uncontrollably. The charm of Athena really made me almost lose my mind and ignore the knocking outside the room. But I didn’t ignore the person outside the room. Instead, I decided to move away from Athena’s embrace.

"No. It will only add to the problem if we ignore the knocking. I’ll go check it out."

"Don’t. That’s not a servant. I think it’s better if we..."

Unfortunately, before I could get down from the bed, a cracking sound came from the door in my room. In less than a few seconds, the figure of a middle-aged man wearing a black robe walked in with a cold expression.

"Good son-in-law, you actually dared to harm my daughter!"

This is bad. Very bad for my life! I couldn't respond with a single sentence to what this man said. After all, this man is the Dragon King, and at the same time, he is the father of Athena and her three other sisters.

"That... that... this... It's not like that..." Before I could finish my sentence, a punch from the man hit me in the face and sent me flying out of the room. It made me almost lose consciousness.

If I didn't have stronger soul power than the average being, I wouldn't have been able to maintain my consciousness after taking the Dragon King's blow. The Dragon King's current level was at the Dragon Emperor stage.

Luckily, the man was still very good at holding back his strength when hitting me. If he had exerted even a little more of his strength, it would have been impossible for me to survive the blow.

The proactive nature of the Dragon race is scary compared to other living beings. Even when I first became Athena's lover, the Dragon King's expression showed unhappiness.

The Dragon King's wife's help allowed me to receive direct recognition from her husband. If it weren't for my mother-in-law's words, it would have been impossible for me to be accepted into the Dragon King's family.

A sigh escaped my mouth. For some reason, I felt the wounds on my body starting to regenerate at a slow speed.

It wasn't the kind of regeneration that usually restores my body over a few days. It was more like instant regeneration that only races other than humans had. But I didn't care about it. Ignoring the gazes of the guards in the castle grounds, my eyes turned to the figure in the sky.

"Heh~. That's not bad. Brat, I'm going to be a little serious about dealing with you. Try and survive this whole trial!" Dozens of plasma energy balls began to form above the cloudy sky. Before the plasma balls landed on me, I decided to show my full strength in front of my father-in-law.

[You have activated Dragonoid Transformation.]

Thud!—

An explosion started to appear in the sky of the Dragon Realm city. Most of the inner city residents showed surprised expressions. For more than a hundred years, no one had dared to attack the Dragon King’s castle, let alone infiltrate it.

"Lucien! Dad, I beg you to stop this right now! Lucien has just woken up from fainting! He hasn’t even recovered in a day to be able to withstand Dad’s terrifying power!"

A cold snort came from the Dragon King. Ignoring his daughter’s words, the Dragon King decided to stare at the rubble and smoke beneath him.

Unexpectedly, the Dragon King’s previously cold expression turned into one of utter shock. My figure now showed the true form of a half-dragon. That was also why the Dragon King couldn’t suppress his shock upon seeing my figure.
