Reborn as the Dragon King's Son-In-Law

Chapter 61: Violation

"Honey, do you still remember what happened three years ago? There was a dragon that had a strange energy emitting from him like that brat. And he even became like a crazy dragon. I just guessed that the incident three years ago had something to do with the Dragon Emperor."

Bringing up the Dragon Emperor's personal problems slightly increased the anger within Lucius. The relationship between Lucius and the Dragon Emperor could have cracked at any time if it had not been for Lilith's interference. Therefore, Lucius could only show a calm face while listening to his wife's explanation.

"Since that's what you said... should we intervene directly to stop this match? If this continues... that boy named Charles will..."

"Haha. Just leave it alone. Do you care that much about your stupid nephew? I wouldn't care even if he died."

Scratching his head, Lucius couldn't help but shut his mouth after seeing his wife's scary expression. A man like Lucius was very afraid of a wife as terrifying as Lilith.

"Mother, Father! Hurry and help my brother-in-law right now! He will definitely die if he has to face that bastard!" Shelia's voice began to be heard beside Lilith and Lucius. Shelia's two hands relentlessly pulled on Lilith's shoulders and hoped that she could help Lucien from the fraudulent actions carried out by the empire. Unable to hold back her annoyed expression, Lilith decided to pat her second daughter on the head and then leave her where she was.

Lilith's gaze began to turn towards a place above the sky where the entire area was filled with various nobles from the empire. The figure of a man with a crown on his head could be seen showing a sly smile at Lilith. In fact, Lilith already knew that the match taking place today was purely a plan by the empire to lure her out of her nest.

There was no way the weak trap set by the empire could bring Lilith into despair. The power of a Divine Dragon was far beyond the common sense of ordinary living beings. Even if half of the Dragon race's population came to attack Lilith, they would not be able to take her down or injure her with their weak attacks.

Lilith’s power was now far beyond the common sense of living beings throughout the world. With just one wave of her hand, she could easily wipe out everything within a radius of millions of miles. Even though Lilith was not worried about the traps the empire would set to trap her, she still had to be careful when facing the Dragon Emperor.

The only being in the Dragon Realm who could fight against Lilith was the Dragon Emperor. Maybe that was also the reason why Lilith continued to watch every move of the Dragon Emperor, even while he sat in his place. For Lilith, even a slight movement made by the Dragon Emperor would have a huge impact on the plans the empire had prepared.

"This damn fox...! I will make him pay for what he has done in this sacred duel! How dare he dirty the sacred battle of our Dragon race!" Various feelings of annoyance began to emerge from Lucius’s mouth. The battle between dragons in the arena was the most sacred battle that no one could violate. But now the empire was openly breaking the rules of the sacred battle between the Dragon races just because of the plan their leader wanted to carry out.

"Don’t think too much about it. I will keep an eye on the old man if he dares to move from his place. Of course, he will receive his retribution for daring to hurt my beloved son-in-law."

Gulp—

For some reason, Lucius’s previously dark expression took on a nervous look. When Lucius listened to Lilith’s words about Lucien, he felt a little worried. However, Lilith was a woman who truly loved her family.

’I wish you the best, little brat! Don’t anger your mother-in-law and make her decide to attack the imperial capital!’

A sneezing sound involuntarily came out of my mouth. A slight bad feeling incessantly struck my heart. As my eyes gazed towards the sky above, the changes in Charles, who was previously in his true form, ceaselessly showed the pressure of an incredibly powerful expert.

The pressure of a Dragon Emperor stage dragon began to surge out from Charles’s entire body. The significant increase in Charles’s strength shocked the spectators around the arena. Even so, none of the spectators knew the reason why Charles’s strength could increase so much after activating his true form.

Only those on the Dragon Emperor’s side knew the real plan that the Dragon Emperor wanted to carry out in dealing with Lilith. The head of the Vermillion family and his wife couldn’t hold back their worried expressions when they witnessed the changes in their son, who had now become abnormal. The size of Charles’s dragon form, which was previously 500 meters, began to increase until it reached the size of a thousand meters.

"This is...! Unbelievable! The size of this male dragon... It’s even at the same level as a Dragon Emperor stage dragon!" Various comments came out of the mouths of the spectators around the arena. Even Elize couldn’t help but show a worried expression when she discovered the increasing strength of Lucien’s opponent. In all of Elize’s life, this was the first time she had witnessed a young dragon like Charles being able to reach the Dragon Emperor stage in such a short time.

Both Athena and Shelia began to endlessly show ugly expressions towards the situation happening in the arena. Instead of remaining calm while watching my fight like before, the two sisters began to feel a bad feeling in their hearts about the situation I was currently experiencing.

Fighting against a Dragon Emperor stage dragon was an impossible thing for someone like me to do. The difference in power levels between Charles and me was now three major realms apart. Therefore, none of the spectators around the arena could imagine that I would win against Charles.

"Cien! Just give up immediately! This is no longer an ordinary match! You will be killed by him!"

Listening to Elize’s warning about the situation in the arena, I could only reveal a calm expression and endlessly focus on the changes in Charles, who was now showing extraordinary pressure. Charles’s strength, which had previously been increasing non-stop, finally calmed down.

"You... what actually happened?"

A dark red aura began to surge out from Charles’s dragon form. An overwhelming amount of evil aura began to surround Charles’s dragon form. On the contrary, Charles’s consciousness had now completely disappeared and turned into boundless hatred.

The anger that appeared on Charles’s face when facing the human in front of him was enough to show that he had completely lost his mind. For some reason, the sound of my heartbeat started pounding after feeling the significant increase in Charles’s strength. As Elize’s disciple, I never once thought that I would be able to win against a Dragon Emperor stage dragon.

For Elize, who already had the experience of a hundred-year-old dragon, dealing with a Dragon Emperor stage dragon was easy for her. That was also the reason why Elize received permission to live in the territory of the Dragonia Kingdom while staying in the territory of Lucius and Lilith.

Chapter 62: Cornered

It would be meaningless to allow a woman like Elize not to live within the borders of the Dragonia Kingdom. Letting Elize live around the border of the Dragonia Kingdom was no different from getting a strong guard. Therefore, Elize did not mind at all, even if she had to protect the territory of the Dragonia Kingdom from the front of the border line.

"Cien... He doesn't listen to me at all. Hena, what should we do? Should we help Cien?"

Athena's current focus returned to watching the fight between Lucien, who was now fighting Charles nonstop. Every attack Charles launched gave fatal wounds to my entire body. Even though the scales of my half-dragon form were no different from iron and steel, I wouldn't be able to survive receiving even a scratch from a Dragon Emperor stage dragon.

Thinking back to the time Lucius and I had fought six months earlier slightly increased the fear within me. There was nothing I could do to win against Lucius. In the end, both Lucius and I had absolutely no evil intentions of killing each other.

"Lize, let's watch a little longer. We'll step in directly to help him if he can't hold his ground any longer."

Viewers all over the world couldn't help but have strange expressions on their faces after watching my fight against Charles. Moreover, the citizens of the Dragonia Kingdom couldn't hold back their worried expressions when they witnessed the fight between their princess's fiancé and Charles. Unexpectedly, various cheers and shouts of enthusiasm erupted from the mouths of the citizens of the Dragonia Kingdom.

"His Highness! Please grant victory to this kingdom! Even though you are a human, you are our only hope of being able to free ourselves from the various abusers of the empire!"

"Oh goddess! Please! If you lose, we'll all just end up being puppets of the empire!"

Every hope of the citizens of the Dragonia Kingdom showed a form of sincerity in supporting their princess's fiancé. Lilith is one of the reasons why the citizens have homes to live in within the Dragon Realm. But unfortunately, the empire is a villain that will destroy the peace of the Dragon Realm.

Spurt!—

A pained expression began to appear on my previously expressionless face. Suddenly, Charles's incoherent voice began to come out of his mouth. Those were not pleading words asking for help from others. On the contrary, they were the words that Charles had long wanted to say when facing me.

"That poker face of yours... haha... I finally managed to get you to show that pathetic face of yours! Hahaha! I would even die just to be able to see your pathetic face!"

A small part of me expressed anger at the disgusting words Charles gave me. There's no way I would feel happy listening to a man's praise. For some reason, the killing intent that had previously been suppressed within my body started leaking out.

A piercing, icy air began to decorate all sides of the arena. My current half-dragon form gave me a massive increase in the amount of my mana. This is also the reason why I can activate Ultimate Ice Form in the next few tens of minutes.

[You have successfully activated Ultimate Ice Form.]

[Every destructive power of your Ice Element abilities will be increased by dozens of times beyond what the host should have. Mana Point consumption while activating Ultimate Ice Form will consume 1,000 Mana Points per minute.]

[Successor of the God King's title: It can give the host a buff of 5% against every attack launched by the host. As the host becomes stronger, the buff from the increased attack will become much greater as your strength increases. From now on, the buff increase will raise the critical hit percentage up to 20%.]

"Wait a minute?! Lize! Why are you teaching Cien that skill? Don't you know that it's a dangerous technique?!"

Elize's empty mind endlessly imagined how her disciple managed to activate the dangerous Ultimate Ice Form. Even the usually calm Elize began to ignore the various questions Athena gave her about Lucien's current form. On the other hand, Elize didn't know the reason why her disciple could have the Ultimate Ice Form as his transformation.

"Hurry up and stop him! Do you think the mana consumption for Ultimate Ice Form is very small? It's even very dangerous for someone like Cien!"

"I don't..."

A sigh could be heard coming out of Lilith's mouth. Lilith's cold eyes stared back at Athena and Elize. She said, "Don't act rashly. Don't you know that Lucien is the true heir of God King Velvet? He will automatically get every ability that Elize has learned."

"But Mother... Cien will die if he continues to activate this form..."

"Then he wouldn't act recklessly just to activate that dangerous form. If he is so confident in facing his opponent, we should also believe that he will be able to successfully win against Charles."

After listening to Lilith’s explanation, both Athena and Elize no longer had any reply they could give to Lilith’s words. Because Lilith also believed that I would be able to win against Charles, both Athena and Elize also believed every word the strongest woman said.

"I have a bad feeling. I hope this boy can win against that guy."

"You worry too much, Darling. You should know that our son-in-law is not a weak man. He still has strength that he has not shown until now."

Shaking her head, Lilith returned to watching the match between her son-in-law and Charles, which had now reached its peak. For some reason, Tina and Tifa’s faces started showing half-shocked expressions after watching my fight against Charles.

"Our master is so strong? Ah... Tina, I’m sorry for doubting your words the night before."

"..." Unfortunately, Tina didn’t reply to the apology her sister gave her. On the other hand, Tina’s gaze was now endlessly watching the battle between Charles and their master.

[Soul-Life Earring has restored the host’s mana amount to a maximum of 100 Mana Points per second. The system expects the host not to push yourself too hard. Running out of mana is no different from accepting defeat in a match.]

[By the way, you must also be able to complete the mission of reclaiming your first wife from your opponent. It will trigger the system to give various random rewards to the host.]

’This dog system! If you have any help or advice for me, why don’t you give it to me? Why did you have to make me delay my thoughts for so long just to listen to your ramblings?!’

[Hm~. Good luck. From now on, this system will not interfere any further in the host’s fight to win back his first wife.]

Chapter 63: Strongest Technique

The system’s sentence that wrote "first wife" couldn’t help but make me unable to hold back my shocked expression. Actually, it wouldn’t be surprising if this system considered Athena as my first wife. However, both my relationship and Athena’s relationship have been going on for 2 years.

There is no problem for me to consider Athena as my first wife. Even though Athena is not entirely my woman, she will, sooner or later, become my complete woman.

With me successfully winning the fight against Charles, Athena will forever be my partner, and she will never be separated from me again. Even if Lucius came to disrupt his first daughter's relationship with me, he wouldn't be able to do anything to our personal lives.

"Cough. I will try my best to get my beloved woman back. Charles, I will defeat you right now!" A very piercing cold aura began to engulf all sides of the place, and cold air began to appear that was much stronger than before. Various blocks of ice began to form around the arena. Even the outside of the arena was badly affected due to the ice power released by my ability.

Everyone on the spectator stands couldn't hold back their shocked expressions after witnessing the extraordinary changes shown by me. The burden I endured in activating the Ultimate Ice Form did not completely make me feel pain throughout my body. On the other hand, activating Dragonoid Transformation allowed me to have physical endurance far above my current level of strength.

Suddenly, Charles's attack was launched again, and he prepared to attack from various sides in front of me. A burst of fire from Charles, followed by his terrifying heat, began to melt every block of ice under the arena. For some reason, the entire sky above the arena began to show the power of the Ice Element colliding with the Fire Element.

Various hot and cold currents of air began to surround all sides within a radius of hundreds of meters. Not a single being could hold back their shocked expressions when they witnessed the battle between the two prodigies. However, this was the first time in all of history that two living beings only tens of years old possessed strength above that of ordinary adult beings.

Both Lilith and the Dragon Emperor showed absolutely no expressions on their faces while watching the battle between the two prodigies. The only plan they had in mind right now was to prepare to carry out their secret attack. As long as both parties did not move from their places, Lilith and the Dragon Emperor would not act rashly in front of the public.

Freeze!—

The previously melted ice blocks around the arena began to freeze due to the pressure released by my attack. Dozens of ice lotuses began to appear between my two hands. The pressure released by the tens of ice lotuses gave a bad feeling to those who sensed the large amount of mana contained within them.

One attack from the ice lotus was enough to destroy the entire area within a thousand-meter radius. Moreover, Tifa and Tina, who had witnessed the greatness of my ice lotus, couldn’t hold back their frightened expressions. This was the second time Tifa and Tina had witnessed an attack from the ice lotus that was about to be released by me.

Previously, the power of the ice lotus created by me was enough to kill two true dragons in the Dragon King stage. Even so, there were also people from the imperial side who started to calculate the attack that had previously succeeded in killing their three assassin agents.

Any news about how the three dragons sent by the empire to set up a trap within the Dragonia Kingdom had been completely thwarted by a human had become known throughout the empire. The higher-ups in the empire fully knew the identity of the human who had dared to kill their three agents. And now, the human who had killed their three agents had shown himself before the young master of the Vermillion family.

The human was much stronger than the higher-ups of the empire could have hoped for. In the lifetime of the higher-ups of the empire, this was the first time they had witnessed a human successfully survive a fight against a Dragon Emperor stage dragon.

"I don’t know which of them is worthy of being called a monster. Father, is this according to what you calculated?" A cold and impassive expression appeared on the face of a woman standing behind the Dragon Emperor. That woman was the only daughter of the Dragon Emperor. Even though she was the only daughter of the Dragon Emperor, there were still several sons born into the Dragon Emperor’s family as his biological sons.

It’s just that the Dragon Emperor cared far more about his only daughter than his own sons. For some reason, a sinister look appeared on the Dragon Emperor’s face.

The Dragon Emperor’s two eyes, filled with killing intent, incessantly stared at the side where the human was fighting Charles. Previously, the Dragon Emperor had heard news about a human being born with the Velvet Prostitute Physique among the Human race. As the emperor of the Dragon race, the Dragon Emperor’s knowledge was no worse than Lilith’s.

"A bit deviated from what your father should have expected. Celestia, your father hopes that you will never decide to stand by that human’s side. This person... he is much more dangerous than your father expected."

Listening to the advice her father gave her, Celestia showed a polite attitude before finally deciding to return to watching the battle in the sky. Many things happened during the fight between me and Charles, who had now lost consciousness.

The spectators sitting in front of the arena began to show frightened expressions. Most of the spectators with low strength decided to leave the place. As of now, none of the beings below the Dragon Emperor stage could stand their ground against the tremendous aura collisions between Charles and me.

Half of Charles's dragon form began to show signs of freezing. The icy atmosphere surrounding the arena began to intensify as I strengthened the tens of ice lotuses. Even though I felt very overwhelmed, I would not be able to back down while fighting against Charles, who now had direct support from the empire.

"This is bad! Charles! Darling, hurry up and stop this fight! If we don't stop that human immediately, our Charles will only die and then turn into ice particles!"

No answer came out of Charles's father's mouth. Both Charles's father and the other family members could not show any expressions on their faces when they witnessed Charles's condition. Moreover, Charles's father endlessly thought about the reason why the Dragon Emperor chose to give the Berserker Pill to Charles.

A small part of Charles's father hoped that his master would not do anything bad to his son. From the start, the goal of the Vermillion family was to build a close relationship with the Lucifer family. For that reason, the Vermillion family decided to submit completely to the Dragon Emperor's orders.

Chapter 64: Seventy-Two Guards

"Your Majesty, what do you really want to do to our son? Why did you have to make him sacrifice half of his life?!" The voice of Charles's father appeared in the Dragon Emperor's head. Transmitting messages between members of the Dragon race was the most common thing anyone could do. Even external beings can have the ability to transmit messages to each other.

Listening to the question from the head of the Vermillion family, the Dragon Emperor, without hesitation, immediately answered what he had been hiding from his subordinate for a long time. Letting Charles take the Berserker Pill was only a preliminary plan for the Dragon Emperor to launch his full attack on Lilith.

"I will take full responsibility for the sacrifice made by your son. Even though he will turn into a deformed dragon, I swear that I will give full rights to the Vermillion family to control every outer territory in the border area of the Dragonia Kingdom as your own."

Suddenly, silence fell over Charles's father. Even though his son was much more important than the Vermillion family's interests, obtaining full rights to own territory beyond the borders of the Dragonia Kingdom was the Vermillion family's initial goal in order to suppress the Lucifer family to its roots.

"I beg you not to let my only son die at the hands of that human. I only hope that Your Majesty can let our only legal heir live."

"Don’t worry. I promised that I wouldn’t let him die. After all, I was also the one who gave that Berserker Pill to your son."

A sigh could be heard coming from Charles’s father. The expression on his face looked lifeless. Charles’s father was actually happy when he heard about the compensation given by the Dragon Emperor to the Vermillion family, but he couldn’t let his only son sacrifice his life just for the benefit of the empire.

A small grin appeared on the Dragon Emperor’s face. His gaze returned to the side where the members of the Vermillion family were. No one from the imperial side commented on the actions taken by their master towards the successor of the Vermillion family.

Within 500 miles, a dragon who was now preparing to shoot an arrow seemed to emit a sharp and mysterious aura. The moment the dragon opened its eyes, everything around him seemed to move in slow motion.

"Target locked. Ready to fire at any time."

"Immediately fire your arrow. He is already weakening. Don’t hold back your attack. The order given by His Majesty is absolute. As long as we can finish off that human, we will have complete control over this game that has been going on for hundreds of years."

Not a single trace of hesitation could be seen on the face of the dragon preparing to shoot his arrow. The sharp gazes of the two dragons gave a sense of intimidation to the comrades below them. Ignoring the disgusting smile from his partner, the dragon immediately fired his attack without caring about the sunny weather this morning.

"Wait and see whether it can injure that man or not. As long as no one interferes with the arrow’s trajectory, that human won’t be able to withstand it."

The speed of the arrow shot by the dragon surpassed the speed of sound. In less than a few seconds, the arrow had reached half of the imperial capital. But still, I felt a slight sense of danger as I prepared to release the attacks from those dozens of ice lotuses.

Unable to hide my surprise, Shelia’s voice rang out from the front of the spectators and showed a face full of worry. The reaction speed shown by Shelia in sensing the arrow attack secretly launched by the empire was much faster than that of Athena and Elize.

"Brother-in-law! Don’t be careless! Stop your attack first and just focus on stopping those arrows!"

Unfortunately, I wasn’t completely able to stop the attack technique I had previously created. The amount of mana contained within those dozens of lotuses didn’t allow me to cancel the attack instantly. Therefore, I couldn’t help but decide to throw the dozens of lotuses towards the side from which the arrow had been fired at me.

There was no sign that the arrow would stop advancing towards me. On the contrary, the arrow’s speed was much faster than what had been seen before.

Even though more than a dozen ice lotuses at full power crashed into that single arrow, there was no effect whatsoever in reducing its speed. I could only refocus on strengthening my defenses to withstand the attack.

The enormous shock wave destroyed every facility within the imperial capital. All the glass windows in the residences of the imperial citizens were shattered due to the collision between my power and that single arrow. For some reason, almost half of the imperial capital turned into a sea of ice that nearly spread to its outer edges.

Luckily, every citizen in the empire was able to survive despite the devastating attack unleashed by my power. From the start, the attack I created was only focused on defeating Charles. Therefore, I wouldn’t act foolishly and get myself into trouble with the empire.

"What is this? Almost all the buildings in the capital have turned into a sea of ice! What actually happened in that arena?"

Lucius’s mouth continuously showed an intense grind between his teeth. His gaze turned to the place where Lilith had been. However, Lilith’s figure had completely disappeared from her spot, to the point that even Lucius himself didn’t realize what had happened.

"Could it be... Lilith? What are you going to do? Even though she herself said not to act as she pleases, but..."

There was no expression on Lucius’s face. His mind was constantly occupied with thoughts of Lilith, who was trying her best to protect their son-in-law from enemy attacks.

Once again, Lucius’s face showed concern. His gaze, which had previously been focused below, shifted again towards his daughters. The figures of Athena and Shelia disappeared at the same time as Elize from the front of the spectators.

"Heilde, Ariel, where are your two older sisters?!"

"They just went to help brother-in-law. Just look up there in the sky. They were even blocked by the Dragon Emperor’s seventy-two guards."

Various powerful presences could be seen hovering in the sky. Even the followers of the Dragon Emperor had taken action to block the Dragonia Kingdom’s path. Since the beginning, both sides had grudges that needed to be settled.

Since this was the moment when the empire was carrying out its sneak attack against the Dragonia Kingdom, they had fully prepared to destroy the Dragonia Kingdom until it was completely annihilated. However, that still didn't guarantee that the Dragon Emperor would survive every attack from Lilith.

The fight between the Dragon Emperor and Lilith had already begun before the people among the spectators realized the power of the arrow aimed at Lucien. Perhaps that was also the reason why the followers of the Dragon Emperor decided to leave their positions and fight face-to-face against the Dragonia Kingdom.

"Only Dragon King Stage and Great Dragon King Stage dragons? Do you all think that you can fight against us, Dragon Emperor Stage dragons and Dragon Overlord Stage dragons?"

Chapter 65: Have I Lost?

"What Mr. Wyn said is true! Don't let them interfere in the battle between Young Master Charles, who is currently fighting against that human boy."

There were many powerful dragons on the empire's side. They were all the main forces that had guarded the empire for millennia. Even a small portion of them were individuals who had existed even before the Dragonia Kingdom was created in the Dragon Realm.

Not all living beings could fight toe-to-toe with the noble leaders of the Dragon Realm. Most of the dragons who had guarded the empire for a long time were Dragon Emperor-stage dragons. Moreover, the number of Dragon Overlord-stage dragons was around 24.

But the number of Dragon Emperor-stage dragons was no lower than 48. The large difference in numbers on the empire's side was enough for the Dragonia Kingdom to lose badly. Luckily, Lilith was the protector who always prevented the empire from undermining their power in the Dragon Realm.

"Lize, go and keep Lucien away from this place. We will deter them all with all our might."

"Wait a moment. Hena, if you two get in their way... I'm sure you'll be defeated immediately." An endless expression of doubt crossed Elize's face. The people who should have gone to save Lucien were Athena and Shelia. As the strongest woman among the three of them, Elize was the only dragon who could survive fighting against the monsters in front of them.

Athena’s face began to show a look of helplessness. Even if Athena tried her best to save her lover, she had no chance of getting past the defenses of the 72 dragons in front of her.

The powerful dragons of the empire were no match for Athena and Shelia at all. There was no hope for the three women to save Lucien from the imperial trap. For some reason, the sound of screaming was heard in the place that had now turned into chaos.

A roar like that of a powerful giant rang throughout the empire. Lucien’s previously half-human form revealed his true dragon form. This was the first time I had shown my true dragon form after successfully snatching Elize’s virginity.

Both the power and defense of my current dragon form had far surpassed those of my Dragonoid Transformation form. The dragons who saw me successfully achieve the form of a true dragon once again couldn’t help but show surprised expressions. Some of the imperial protectors even praised the prowess of this young man of the Human race.

"Talent is an extraordinary thing in this world. It’s a shame that this man was discovered by them first. If this human were on our side... sigh. Just thinking about it is useless."

"Just focus on our work. However, His Majesty has given us orders not to let anyone get involved in the fight between the two prodigies. Let the arrow land right on that human’s body."

An endlessly frightening expression appeared on Elize’s face, which was devoid of any emotion. The aura on Elize’s body, which had previously shown no aura, began to emit a terrifying pressure. The aura of a Dragon Emperor-stage dragon began to surround all sides of the empire and shocked the spectators in the arena.

"Lize!? You actually broke through? Since when did you manage to reach this level?!"

"Sorry for keeping it a secret from you and Lucien. I managed to break through when I woke up this morning. I don’t know how to explain it, but it was all because of the flower pot that our darling brought the night before."

The Flower of a Thousand Nights is a flower that can help anyone overcome obstacles in cultivation. That was also the reason why Elize was able to successfully reach the Dragon Emperor stage without having to take any tests. After all, reaching the Dragon Emperor stage at such a young age was something impossible for young dragons to achieve.

"This little girl from the Darmica family... We have to change the plan! She is a girl who is difficult to deal with. We have to be more serious about fighting the three of them now."

The powerful dragons agreed with the statement given by their companion. The terrifying aura emitted by Elize gave the Dragon Emperor-stage dragons a sense of danger. But for Dragon Overlord-stage dragons, facing Elize was no different from facing a dragon that had just hatched from its egg.

"Let the young ones fight each other. It doesn't matter even if we lose one of our great talents. That girl betrayed us from the start." The older, powerful dragons showed no expression other than amused smiles. But unfortunately, the figure of Lucius appeared before them. As a king who led a kingdom, Lucius would not remain silent and ignore the actions taken by the empire against his family.

"How about counting me in to fight against you? I'll gladly fight you."

Silence reigned for a while before a cold voice finally sounded from one of the older dragons. Stroking his short beard, the older dragon nodded as if agreeing to the challenge given by Lucius.

"King of Dragonia, allow this old man to challenge you. Do you have any objections?"

"Of course not. Even if you want to attack me together, you can come at me all at once!"

"Kekeke~. What an arrogant adult dragon! You will regret daring to challenge all of us!"

[The host's mana has been greatly reduced. The effect of activating all three forces simultaneously increases the burden on the host's body in withstanding the existing pressure. Please retreat immediately for your safety.]

[MP: 14,101/167,200.]

[MP: 11,555... 8,453.]

"No... I still haven't lost! No... I won't lose that easily just because of an arrow!" Being secretly shot by an arrow from a distance was the dirtiest thing the empire could do to me. This was the first time in my entire life that I had experienced being shot by a silent arrow from afar. Therefore, I was completely unable to maintain my composure after trying my best to endure such a senseless attack.

In fact, the power of the arrow gradually began to drain away my mana until there was almost nothing left. For now, I had nearly reached my limit after trying my best to stop that single arrow with all my strength. My two hands, now in the form of a true dragon, continued to block the arrow's attack with all my might.

"Lucien! Hold on a little longer! You can't lose consciousness!" A worried voice came from Athena's mouth. Hearing Athena's concern about my condition filled my heart with warmth. Unfortunately, I couldn't survive the attacks from the arrow, which was incredibly fast and unstoppable.

The various blocks of ice that had previously restrained Charles shattered as my strength began to decline drastically. For some reason, Charles delivered a powerful punch right into the middle of my stomach.

Spurt!—

Chapter 66: Divinity Path

The blow that Charles delivered earlier in his dragon form managed to penetrate my stomach, removing the organs from my abdomen. Due to my current state having completely reached a level much weaker than my peak, I was unable to perform instant regeneration like I had previously demonstrated.

When my consciousness almost completely disappeared, the shot from an arrow moved again and managed to reach my heart. The form of my enormous true dragon began to shrink into its human form. There wasn't any power that I could feel after receiving a shot from an arrow right through my heart.

"No way... brother-in-law... is he dead? I can't accept it!"

All five of my senses, both sight and hearing, had completely dulled. There was nothing I could do after falling from the sky. Even so, I would not give up, even if I had to endure the terrible condition that was now happening to me.

[Do you want to re-enter a state where you will completely lose control over your power? You will only be able to move based on your instincts and survival instinct. Will you accept it?]

"I can't do anything else. I agree to your suggestion. I know that I will lose consciousness just like when I trained against Elize before..."

This would be the second time I experienced Mana Syndrome after more than three months. Since the beginning, the amount of my current mana had reached zero. That alone was enough for me to fully enter the half-life state and gain full rights over activating that inhuman form.

[After successfully acquiring God's Bloodline, the form of "that" imperfect host will become many times stronger.]

[Warning: the longer this form remains activated, the host's soul will experience the most painful side effects you have ever felt in your life.]

Return to the time when Lilith previously disappeared from Lucius's side to fight face-to-face with the Dragon Emperor. As soon as the arrow began to be aimed at her son-in-law, Lilith took her first step to protect him. But what Lilith hoped for did not end well.

For that reason, Lilith could not go and help her son-in-law survive the attack from the arrow. The speed of the two strongest dragons could not be seen with the naked eye alone. Therefore, Lilith and the Dragon Emperor, who had surpassed the speed of light, began fighting each other within the slow flow of time.

Most of the people on the Dragon Emperor's side were unaware of the presence of their master, who had disappeared from his throne. The only person who noticed the Dragon Emperor's disappearance was Celestia. As the only daughter of the Dragon Emperor, Celestia had observed her father many times, allowing her to know where he was.

"The Dragon Emperor Astaroth! Tell me why you had to make that brat risk his life?! He's clearly no threat to you at all!"

Evil laughter began to erupt from the Dragon Emperor's mouth. As the leader of the entire Dragon race, the Dragon Emperor possessed knowledge far beyond that of anyone else in the world. Allowing a human born with the Velvet Prostitute Physique to live in this world was no different from making that human the Dragon Emperor's third rival after Lilith.

There is only one living being of the same species that can reach the divine level above all others. And the being who will achieve divinity is Lilith, who has succeeded in surpassing the Dragon Emperor in terms of the path of divinity. However, Lilith was one of the reasons why the Dragon Emperor was unable to make a breakthrough and surpass her power.

In the eyes of all living beings, both the Dragon Emperor and Lilith possessed levels that were not much different from each other. It was just that there was a limit imposed by the world on those who had surpassed the existence of all living beings. One of the beings who managed to surpass the existence of all living beings was Lilith.

Due to Lilith's achievement in surpassing the Dragon Emperor's accomplishments in the past, she had completely succeeded in defeating him in terms of the divine path. For now, Lilith is the only dragon who has managed to surpass the Divine Dragon stage.

"Do you think I'm blind? I know what you're planning! You want to raise that child so that you have a chance to surpass the Divine Dragon stage! You are just a hypocritical woman who has deceived your family for your own personal gain!"

"Astaroth, is there something wrong with your head? I have to tell you that you dared to hurt one of my family members. I will not allow someone like you to go any further!"

The entire Dragon Realm experienced a violent shock as two powerful auras began to collide with each other. The two dragons at the Divine Dragon stage possessed enough power to destroy everything in the world. Moreover, every living being has a peak level of strength that they can reach in their lifetime.

"Kehehe... Very good, Lilith. You are a damn bitch who has blocked my path to climbing even higher! I have to kill you right now. Otherwise... I won't be able to surpass you for the rest of my life."

Lilith's expression did not change after listening to every rant the Dragon Emperor directed at her. It was common for the Dragon Emperor to try his best to kill Lilith. If Lilith died at the Dragon Emperor's hands, the strongest path of divinity among the Dragon race would fall into his possession.

"5%... I will use 5% against you. If we release power that exceeds the 10% limit, both the Dragon Realm and the entire world will fall into chaos because our power has exceeded the system's limits."

"Don't act like I don't understand. From the very beginning, I prepared everything so that the two of us could fight to the end."

A sharp look appeared in the eyes of both the Dragon Emperor and Lilith. Lilith's speed as she attacked the Dragon Emperor created a powerful storm that disrupted everything in the sky. Every time Lilith and the Dragon Emperor soared through the heavens, everything around them was destroyed by their boundless attacks.

For some reason, a pained expression appeared on the Dragon Emperor's face. There was no way he could defeat Lilith, who had surpassed him by several levels in strength. For that reason, the Dragon Emperor had prepared a trap long ago to kill her.

"You've become stronger again?! This is unfair! Why does it have to be you who possesses such talent!? I am the one who is destined to become the god of the Dragon race!"

Chapter 67: Strange Phenomenon

"Achieving godhood? That's something you won't be able to achieve in your entire life. Becoming a god isn't easy. It's different from breaking through a major realm."

The more Lilith explained, the angrier the Dragon Emperor became whenever the topic of achieving godhood was mentioned. This was the only way for the Dragon Emperor to stop Lilith from surpassing the realm of the Divine Dragon stage. If not for Lilith being born with unreasonable talent, the Dragon Emperor would have long since succeeded in achieving godhood.

Wiping the blood from his head, the Dragon Emperor's expression returned to its dark state. His eyes, which had previously been focused on Lilith, began to look around at all sides. Nodding slowly, the aura around the Dragon Emperor's body returned to the state it had been in when he and Lilith had previously faced each other.

Realizing that the Dragon Emperor's killing intent had completely disappeared, Lilith could only reveal a curious expression before finally deciding to open her mouth. Since a man like the Dragon Emperor had decided to admit defeat for the first time, Lilith would not lower her guard after witnessing the Dragon Emperor's suspicious actions.

"Why did you lower your strength again? Do you want to admit defeat for the first time?"

"I admit that you are strong. Lilith, I will admit defeat for the first time in the tens of thousands of years that we have fought each other."

Both Lilith and the Dragon Emperor began to show serious expressions as they stared at each other. Moreover, Lilith, who had fought against the Dragon Emperor several times in the past, couldn't hold back her strange expression after witnessing the Dragon Emperor admit defeat in a fight against her. For a moment, a little confidence appeared in Lilith regarding every sentence the Dragon Emperor spoke while facing her.

"Since you want to surrender... I will ask you to withdraw all your troops. And also allow my son-in-law to regain his entire lifespan!"

"Of course. But I want to ask you one thing. Do you consider that human boy your son-in-law? Will you consider him your daughter's future husband? Or do you consider him your own?"

"Hey... Your Majesty, Dragon Emperor Astaroth, do you think that changing the topic will make me completely fall into the trap you have set? Stop asking those useless questions."

For some reason, the Dragon Emperor's laughter was much louder now than when he had laughed previously. Various thoughts about Lilith wanting to make her son-in-law her own appeared in the Dragon Emperor's mind. However, an ancient dragon like Lilith would never be bound by the relationship between in-laws.

Only the strongest have full rights to control the situation of the weak. Because Lilith is the strongest in the Dragon Realm, she has full rights to choose whom she should make her own and can, at any time, discard her partner.

"Hahaha! Am I right? Since you can't hide your annoying expression at all, I know that what I said is true."

In fact, every finger on the Dragon Emperor's right hand started to move whenever he tried to provoke Lilith. Moreover, Lilith was completely unaware of what the Dragon Emperor was doing to the surroundings. Even so, Lilith fully knew that the Dragon Emperor had set a trap from the start when facing her.

"Just talk all you want. You will never be able to beat me! Never!"

"I know. I know what you're trying to say. But will you be able to dodge this deadly attack?"

Within the flow of time, far beyond the sight of ordinary beings, various colorless hands could be seen emerging from within the void dimension. The colorless hands began to wrap around every side of Lilith's body, making her unable to move from her place.

Even Lilith couldn't hide her expression of disbelief after realizing what the Dragon Emperor was trying to do in his fight against her. Those colorless hands were a force that came from the very depths of hell. Even someone who had reached the highest level of existence, like Lilith, would suffer severe effects upon coming into contact with the core power of hell.

The color of Lilith's body, which had previously been in its normal state, began to turn into a dark, transparent shade. There were only two paths for those who came into direct contact with the core power of hell. First, they had to be willing to sever their souls from their bodies. Second, they had to surrender and allow the core power from the depths of hell to corrode their souls until nothing remained.

"This is the power of the deepest core of the Eternal Realm? You borrowed power from the core of hell? Astaroth, you should know that this is a taboo act! You even had to borrow power from hell just to be able to kill me?!"

"Oh, Lilith, you look so pathetic now. Everything you did was pointless, even if you tried to unleash 100% of your power."

Lilith's entire body couldn't move after being wrapped by every strand of hell's core power. Every action Lilith tried to take at this time to free herself from the core power of hell was futile. Therefore, her power was endlessly drained by the core power of hell whenever she released all of her strength.

In Lilith's lifetime, this was the first time she had experienced a situation that could cause her death at any moment. There was not a single day when Lilith would have expected that the Dragon Emperor before her had entered into a secret contract with the beings of the Eternal Realm. As one of the ancient dragons who had existed since ancient times, Lilith had witnessed the greatness of the beings who lived within the Eternal Realm.

The Eternal Realm, also known as the hell of the entire world, is the most immoral place and impossible for anyone to explore. The core power of the Eternal Realm was impossible to resist with ordinary power.

"Ugh... I can't possibly lose to a bastard like you. I will definitely avenge—" Lilith's voice stopped after she felt the strange fluctuations that were continuously sweeping across the Dragon Realm. Every strand of core power from the depths of hell began to tremble in fear after sensing the radiant waves spreading throughout every corner of the Dragon Realm. A loud heartbeat began to reverberate across the skies of the Dragon Realm.

Both Lilith and the Dragon Emperor were completely unaware of what was happening beneath them. However, the Dragon Emperor paid no attention at all to the strange events occurring among the crowd. On the other hand, the Dragon Emperor's expression returned to one of concern after seeing Lilith's form return to its normal state.

Chapter 68: Rampage

Returning to the side where Lucien had previously fallen from the top of the arena, Lucien's condition, which had previously been in a bad state, began to show signs of waking up from his fainted state. At the same time, a circle with a black halo appeared above Lucien's head.

Lucien's current form was much different from when he first activated the true form of the Velvet Prostitute Physique. Lucien's two eyes, which showed a dark and colorless gaze, began to look at all sides of the arena. In one blink, all the buildings in that place collapsed and created a terrible shock throughout the empire.

"Dragon King stage... Great Dragon King stage? Unbelievable. That human is still hiding a strength that is far greater than before?!" A surprised voice came out of Ariel's mouth. In Ariel's entire life, this was the first time she had witnessed a human having their special form while they were in an unconscious state.

Nothing bad happened to Ariel and the others while they were in the destroyed arena. Ariel, Heilde, Tifa, and Tina all managed to survive the destruction that Lucien created throughout the entire arena. The mysterious power that was endlessly emitting from Lucien's body gave a feeling of intimidation to every living being in that place.

Lucien's wings, which had previously numbered only two, began to grow two more wings. However, those four wings were much different from the wings of a Dragon race member. Instead, they were four wings that showed the shape of black skulls.

The instincts of Charles, who was now in a semi-conscious state, gave rise to a feeling of worry in his heart. Charles's desire to withdraw from facing the enemy before him endlessly struck his mind. For the first time, the Dragon race felt fear when faced with an unknown being.

Lucien's two dark eyes began to look across the sky before finally returning to Charles's figure. The cold eyes from Lucien began to increase the fear within Charles beyond control. For some reason, the figure of Lucien, who had previously been standing in his place, disappeared and unknowingly appeared in front of Charles.

The 72 protectors of the Dragon Emperor couldn't hide their disbelief when faced with the speed displayed by that human. Unfortunately, only 67 dragons managed to survive after fighting face-to-face against Elize and Lucius. Despite that, Elize and Lucius decided to stop their fight after they felt their instincts warning them with fear.

"Cien... you can't go on a rampage again. Don't die, Cien!"

Thud!—

One punch from Lucien was launched directly into the stomach of Charles, who was now in his true dragon form. A gush of blood began to flow out of Charles's mouth and endlessly fell from the sky. Countless spectators couldn't hide the expressions on their faces after witnessing the mysterious power of that human.

[100% critical hit has been successfully dealt to the opponent of the host.]

The spectators watching from a distance could only stare after witnessing Lucien's battle against Charles. For some reason, spectators from various races began to show enthusiastic expressions after witnessing the fearful faces displayed by the Dragon race towards that human.

"That human brat is so powerful! Even the Dragon race, who are said to be the pinnacle of strength, are completely unable to hide their fear when faced with his terrifying aura!"

Almost the majority of living beings throughout the world gave their support to the domineering attitude shown by that human towards the Dragon race. Most living beings held grudges against the arrogant attitude that the Dragon race had shown towards them. Therefore, they expressed their praise for the treatment that Lucien gave to the entire Dragon race.

"Charles! H-He... his stomach was crushed to pieces! Kill that human! We will kill him with all our might!"

All the members of the Vermillion family began to reveal their presence as they faced Lucien, who had now completely lost consciousness. Lucien didn't care about the situation around him. On the contrary, Lucien's focus at this moment was fixed on gazing at the entire imperial scenery from above the sky.

"Human! You will die for daring to harm our young master!"

"Heh~. Huh...? Hehehe~. Hm..." From the perspective of Lucien, who had now completely lost control of his body, he considered the troops of the Vermillion family to be no different from insects that he could kill at any time. In one breath, an ice sword was created in Lucien's left hand and endlessly emitted an aura of dark icy energy.

Every wave of energy from the ice sword previously created by Lucien gave off a bad feeling to the troops of the Vermillion family. Moreover, the dragons who were tens of meters away from Lucien also felt the negative effects of being near him. Even so, the dragons, as followers of the Dragon Emperor, would not show any signs of worry when facing that human boy.

The troops of the Vermillion family launched their attacks on Lucien from various sides around the arena. They had completely lost their minds after witnessing how Lucien crushed the stomach of their young master. For the Vermillion family troops, Charles was the only successor who would replace the position of the previous family leader.

Charles's death at the hands of a human was an insult to all members of the Vermillion family. At this moment, both Charles's father and mother floated near the place where their son had previously fallen from the sky.

Charles's current condition had completely fallen into a critical state. Initially, Charles's father and mother wanted to take their son away from the battlefield. Unfortunately, what the husband and wife hoped for turned out to be in vain.

Lucien's killing intent began to surround all sides of the thousands of Vermillion family troops. The hilt of the ice sword previously created by Lucien started to turn to the side. In a split second, everything around that place turned into a sea of ice that was extremely cold and suffocating.

"This is Absolute Zero... This child... is this the true potential of Lucien after he has obtained a power that surpasses all beings in this world?"

In just a split second, nearly thousands of Vermillion family troops had been annihilated into tiny ice particles. None of the dragons around Lucien managed to survive after receiving the strongest attack from Lucien's Ice Element. Most of the Vermillion family troops, who possessed strength between the Dragon King and Great Dragon King stages, had been completely killed by Lucien.

One wave of Lucien's sword was enough to wipe out the entire main army of the Vermillion family. Suddenly, a large amount of vitality throughout the area began to float and enter the body of Lucien, who was now in his imperfect form. From the beginning, Lucien's current form had been an imperfect form at the initial stage of the Velvet Prostitute Physique's transformation.

Chapter 69: Silver Divine Dragon

"Stop! Let's stop this fight first! I know that my plan has been completely foiled by you guys, but we also have to deal with the rampage of that human first."

No expression could be seen on Lilith's face after listening to the Dragon Emperor's explanation. On the contrary, Lilith's expression at this time endlessly showed her disgust towards the attitude displayed by the Dragon Emperor.

There was no mercy in Lilith's heart to let the Dragon Emperor escape after he dared to trap her by borrowing the core power of hell. This was one of the reasons why Lilith could not contain her anger at the actions of the Dragon Emperor, who had tried to cruelly kill her. For Lilith, allowing a man like Astaroth to live for the next few years was no different from creating a walking disaster that could take her life at any time.

"No! I have to make you lose at least one of your vital organs. I will forgive you after you destroy one of the most important organs in your body."

"That's impossible... losing one of the most important things in my body is no different from making me a crippled ruler! I am the Dragon Emperor! There's no way I'm going to destroy one of my limbs just to grant your disgusting wish!"

Lilith's gaze began to sharpen, as if it could destroy every corner of the sky around her. Lilith's previously calm mind had completely given way to unstable emotions. After realizing what was happening below the arena, Lilith could no longer afford to waste time facing off against the Dragon Emperor.

"Then I will have to kill you and let this territory of yours be destroyed." Lilith's energy level began to increase every time she gave the Dragon Emperor a murderous look. The evil intent that had previously surged within the Dragon Emperor had completely disappeared and turned into worry. For now, the Dragon Emperor could not take any action at all against the monster standing before him.

The Dragon Emperor's sharp teeth continuously ground together as he stared at his body. The moment his eyes fell on his lower abdomen, the Dragon Emperor once again revealed a helpless expression before finally deciding to cut off one of the most important organs he had always considered his little brother.

Slash!—

"You will receive retribution later... Lilith, I will never forgive you."

After witnessing how the Dragon Emperor cut his reproductive organ from his body, Lilith's previously dark expression returned to its calm state. There was nothing the Dragon Emperor could do now in a face-to-face fight against Lilith.

"You have made the right choice. I will step down and bring my entire family back this time. I hope you don't harbor any dirty plans that could make me show my anger again."

Lilith's repeated warnings gave the Dragon Emperor a very dangerous feeling in his heart. For several millennia, this was the first time Lilith had shown such anger after having a family to look after.

'It's possible that the Silver Divine Dragon will return... I have to be on guard before that bitch surpasses the Divine Dragon stage.'

As time passed, both parties subconsciously felt growing concern after sensing the negative energy that continuously swept across all sides of the empire. Lucien's form, which had previously not reached perfection, began to display his long and wide wings. For some reason, Lucien's four wings started to expand and almost covered half of the empire.

"This damn brat... can't he restrain himself? He almost hurt his own father-in-law!" A click of the tongue escaped Lucius's mouth. In fact, Lucius did not understand what had actually happened to his future son-in-law. This was the first time Lucius had witnessed his son-in-law transform into such a terrifying being.

Lucius's gaze shifted once again to where his eldest daughter was. The expression shown by Athena was no different from the one displayed by Lucius. On the other hand, the expression Elize showed while looking at Lucien's transformation was filled with worry.

Allowing Lucien to remain in his imperfect form for too long was no different from bringing destruction upon himself. Unfortunately, Elize's body could not currently move from its place after fighting head-to-head against Dragon Emperor-stage dragons. Even so, the enemy had also suffered losses while fighting against Elize and Lucius.

Lucius's current condition showed no fatal wounds on his body. On the other hand, his face once again displayed an arrogant expression while facing the Dragon Overlord-stage dragons.

"Mr. Lucius, hurry up and stop your crazy son-in-law! We all know that this incident was completely our fault. But we hope that you and your family can bring this human back to his original state."

A cold expression appeared on Lucius's face after listening to the pleas of the older dragons. The chaos currently occurring within the empire was entirely the empire's fault. As one of the victims who had been trapped by the empire during the siege carried out by the Dragon Emperor's protectors, Lucius would not readily accept their pleas to stop his son-in-law's rampage.

Both Lucius and Elize were aware of what had happened in the fight between Lilith and the Dragon Emperor. Lilith's victory had given her full authority to end the chaos occurring within the empire. Therefore, all of the Dragon Emperor’s followers decided to retreat after feeling Lilith’s terrifying aura.

Lilith’s figure descended from the sky and landed right beside Lucius and the others. With just a wave of her hand, Lilith completely healed all of Elize’s wounds. Realizing what had happened, Elize expressed her gratitude to Lilith for healing her injuries.

"Thank you for your help."

"By the way, Elize and Athena, you have to come with me. This is all to help your man regain consciousness. I will bring him back to the castle with you." There was no time for Lilith to engage in small talk with Lucius and the others. For now, Lilith’s goal was to bring Athena and Elize back to the castle along with Lucien. If Lilith did not immediately wake Lucien from his loss of control, he would sooner or later turn into a terrible monster.

The expressions of Elize and Athena turned serious after listening to Lilith’s explanation. The two women naturally understood the meaning behind Lilith’s words about bringing them back with Lucien. After all, Elize and Athena were the only women who had stayed by Lucien’s side until now.

"Mother! I also have to help my brother-in-law! Please let me go with them!" Hearing Shelia’s sudden request did not surprise Lilith at all. In contrast, a cold and expressionless smile remained visible on Lilith’s face.

"Our kind and cute little Shelia, can you let your mother decide for the first time what she should do with her future son-in-law? Please do not interfere with the task your mother has given to your older sister and her best friend to help your brother-in-law."

Chapter 70: The Empire’s Defeat

No one in that place agreed to let Shelia go with Athena and Elize. Moreover, Lucius was now continuously showing his lazy expression towards the attitude shown by his second daughter. For some reason, sighs began to escape from Lucius’s mouth.

Nothing good would happen if Lucius opened his mouth to help his son-in-law. With Lilith taking the initiative to personally help Lucien, Lucius would not hesitate to let her take full control of what was happening.

It wasn’t Lucius’s right to interfere in his wife’s problems. This was a problem between the strongest. Because Lilith had succeeded in defeating the Dragon Emperor, Lucius could only act humbly when facing his wife.

"Honey, I have to go and take our precious daughter with us. I hope you won’t be angry with the actions I’m taking right now."

A nod appeared on Lucius’s face after listening to his wife’s request. Letting Athena have sex with Lucien was the main goal behind Lucius making Lucien his son-in-law. After all, both Athena and Lucien were a couple destined to be together.

"You guys go and help that man regain his sanity. I entrust everything to you."

A small grin appeared on Lilith’s face. Regardless of the reactions shown by Heilde, Ariel, Tifa, and Tina, Lilith decided to take Athena and Elize with her as they floated away.

The sudden appearance of Lilith in front of Lucien shocked his instincts, causing him to subconsciously fly backward from his position. A large part of Lucien felt afraid when facing Lilith. As a human, Lucien’s instincts towards an ancient dragon like Lilith endlessly filled him with fear.

"Don’t be afraid. I came to take you back with us. Please don’t fight, Lucien. This will all be over as soon as possible."

"..." The reaction shown by Lucien, who had lost his mind, was only an expressionless face. For now, his entire body showed no movement after receiving Lilith’s touch. Even so, both Elize and Athena couldn’t hide their wary expressions when they witnessed the events happening before them.

The attitude that Lilith currently showed towards their lover was no different from that of a woman who wanted to express her gratitude to the person who had saved her. Athena and Elize couldn’t know the situation that had occurred when Lilith fought face-to-face with the Dragon Emperor. For lowly beings, spying on a fight between two ancient beings would only bring backlash upon their bodies and souls.

"Mother, even though I know that you want to show your kindness towards Cien, but... please don’t make us wait in this place for too long."

"Ah. You’re right. I’m sorry. Alright. I’ll take you guys back now."

Once again, the presence of Lilith, Athena, Elize, and Lucien disappeared from the sky. Every spectator who had previously been floating in the sky showed relieved expressions after witnessing the human’s departure.

Letting Lilith deal with that human’s rampage was a good choice for the empire. Suddenly, the Dragon Emperor appeared among his followers. At the same time, the expression he currently showed was endlessly lifeless.

"Interesting too... I didn’t expect that bastard to lose the most important reproductive organ for every man." The only person who was aware of the Dragon Emperor’s current situation was Lucius. As a man, Lucius knew that the Dragon Emperor’s genitals had now completely disappeared.

Recalling the cruel nature Lilith had shown towards her enemies in the past, it was not surprising that someone like the Dragon Emperor would lose his genitals. This was no problem at all for Lucius to comfort the Dragon Emperor after he had lost his reproductive organs. Instead, Lucius returned to monitoring the situation around the empire before finally deciding to turn back towards his daughters.

"Heilde, Ariel, we will go back now. But not yet. First of all, you will come with your father to deal with the chaos happening in this place. There is no other way for us to escape the punishment that the empire will give us."

"Isn’t that their fault? Why does Father have to take responsibility for the destruction caused by the empire itself?"

After listening to Ariel’s reply, Lucius couldn’t help but shake his head. This was a political problem that could not be solved simply by blaming both parties.

Both sides had their own conflicts over what had happened throughout the years. Letting only one side take responsibility for the resulting chaos would be no different from creating further enmity between them. Therefore, as a leader and at the same time a king, Lucius had to show his authoritative attitude in front of the entire empire.

"You are still a little girl. You do not yet understand the meaning of being a leader. This job is much harder than you can imagine."

"What our father said is true. Ariel, you have to learn more about political affairs between countries. I’m afraid you will only bring more problems in the future." Even a woman like Heilde commented on the innocence of her youngest sister. In the end, Ariel was no different from a little girl who was always spoiled by her family. Even so, Heilde would not allow Ariel to maintain the arrogant attitude she had previously shown towards their brother-in-law.

Luckily, Ariel didn’t mind the advice given to her by her father and older sister. On the contrary, her mind was endlessly imagining the figure of Lucien, who could kill thousands of troops from the Vermillion family with just a wave of his sword.

A large part of Ariel felt extraordinary fear when she imagined the moment Lucien would show his domineering attitude towards his enemies. The attitude shown by Lucien when facing his enemies was no different from what their mother had shown in the past. That was also the reason why Ariel couldn’t hide her frightened expression whenever she imagined Lucien.

As time passed, Lilith, Elize, Athena, and Lucien arrived back at the castle. The place where they were currently standing was Lucien’s private room. Even though she was nervous, Athena decided to show her mature attitude like an experienced woman.

"Do it immediately and show your affection to your man. You must at least be able to dispel any negative energy he has accumulated from the previous absorption."
