

Refining 831

Chapter 831 - No Longer the Same Qin Yu

Bang –

Within the jade pendant's vortex, the white light loudly shattered. The eye looked deeply at Qin Yu, as if remembering his appearance and aura. Then, it quietly faded from sight.

Hou –

With a roar, a blue light that belonged to the power of the Ancient race appeared. It appeared as the phantom of a giant, one that stood as tall as the heavens, its eyes like the stars.

An ancient and boundless aura gushed out from the giant. It was like a divine mountain that supported the skies, one that would never bend or falter.

The giant looked down at Qin Yu. "Descendant of the future, know that my Ancient race was born to support the skies and earth. Even if we die, we shall never compromise!"

Qin Yu had a calm expression. "The Ancient race suffered a bitter catastrophe and now I may be the only one remaining in the world. I have bet everything today. If I succeed, then I, Qin Yu, vow to rebuild the Ancient race and restore them to their previous glory!"

The giant was silent for a long time. Then, it slowly closed its eyes and said, "If you fail to keep your world, the bloodline of the Ancient race will surely be broken. It will shatter to dust, refusing to live ignobly in this world!"

Qin Yu solemnly said, "Good!"

The giant turned around and walked away, vanishing from sight. The blue light broke apart.

Qin Yu took a deep breath. He looked at the black light in the vortex. According to their connection, he could determine it represented the path of time. It was pure black, representing the mysteries of the unknown. Perhaps the essence of time was this.

"It is only through a coincidence of lucky chances that I was able to touch upon the highest path of time with my current boundary. In truth, I have only touched the smallest corner and am far away from reaching the threshold. So I do not understand the characteristics of time and I have no means to persuade you.

"If you exist with your own consciousness, then there is one thing you must be aware of. You and I are of one body. If I can live an interesting and splendid life, you can also spread out your glory. If I vanish, you are also doomed to be unable to display your greatness. Then, are you willing to help me?"

The black light remained silent. It seemed that Qin Yu's words weren't enough to move it.

The little blue lamp's lips moved and he sent a thought fluctuation directly into Qin Yu's mind. Qin Yu furrowed his eyebrows for a moment and slowly said, "If there is a day when I am an emperor, I shall do my best to liberate you. I will never break my promise!"

The black light directly dispersed. Like the cold waters of a pool, it wrapped round the white strength of the world and the blue strength of the Ancient race.

Bang –

A raging red blaze burned and combusted. It was filled with majesty and overwhelming momentum. The Dao Monarch's phantom appeared. His face was stiff and his eyes were blank, as if he were a puppet.

"The one who seized my Great Dao, you have become my eternal enemy. Once I wake up from my deep slumber, I will make sure you suffer a cruel death even if I must travel through the blue skies or yellow springs!"

Perhaps this was a mark that the Dao Monarch had left behind in his Great Dao before he fell into a slumber. Once it was captured it would be triggered.

Let alone a Dao Monarch who had been asleep for endless years and might not wake up again, even if he was here at the height of his power, Qin Yu wouldn't hesitate at all.

"Dao Monarch, the one who seizes your Great Dao is named Qin Yu!"

Pa –

The Dao Monarch's phantom dissipated.

Out of the five strengths, four had broken apart. The only one that remained within the vortex was the yellow light. When Qin Yu's eyes fell upon it, his gaze was cold yet complex. This strength represented the power of his bloodline that had been stripped from him but had just recovered. It represented his family background.

Everything indicated that from the moment he was born he shouldn't have been an ordinary person. Still, something had happened that had left him suffering a pitiful fate. If it weren't for the little blue lamp then Qin Yu might have already died. He would have turned into the soil of the earth, never knowing of this.

Perhaps feeling Qin Yu's gaze, an old man with his hands behind his back appeared within the yellow light. Even though he was only a bloodline projection, just by standing there he was like a divine needle in the sea, suppressing all around it.

This was what potential was!

"My clan was born in accordance with the will of the heavens and earth and our bloodline is incomparably honored. Looking at the entirety of the myriad heavens, it still represents the highest echelon. If you dare to discard it then that is the same as abandoning your clan. You will be abandoned by your clan. Thunder tribulation will be lowered down upon you and your bloodline will be stripped so that you will live out your remaining days as a mortal!"

Qin Yu fiercely looked up. Stripping his bloodline? Reducing him to a mortal...?

He would be abandoned by his clan, rejected by them, and suffer a severe punishment...but according to his memories, when he was tortured in the past and had his bloodline stripped away, he was nothing but a child that was several years old.

What sort of unforgivable mistake could such a young child make that he would need to endure inhumane pain and be thrown away by his family to fend for himself!?

In his mind, the image he had suppressed appeared once again. On the summit of that low mountain there was an ancestral shrine. Blood rained down from the skies like a rainstorm. In his ears, amidst the roaring thunder, he thought he could hear the frightened sobs of a young child as well as his pained screams.

Qin Yu's complexion paled and the scene changed. He no longer just saw the low mountain, the ancestral shrine, and the skies. Now he could also see a child's little body. Several cold and powerful hands held him tightly to the ground. Bright red bloody water continuously flowed away with the rain water. Like ink, it stained the water red.

Fear, hatred, despair, violence!

At this moment, all these emotions flooded Qin Yu's heart, turning his eyes red. He fiercely pointed at the old man, the projection of his bloodline. "So what if I abandon my clan? So what if my bloodline is stripped? I'll wait for you to come!"

The old man angrily shouted, "Unfilial descendant..." He lifted his hand and a terrifying momentum gathered, causing the entire vortex to shake.

Hum –

The jade pendant shivered and an invisible will arrived, interrupting him.

"How is this possible!?"

With a loud shout, the old man broke apart.

Rumble rumble –

The vortex wildly spun around, rolling the five shattered strengths together and fusing them at an astonishing pace.

White, black, blue, red, and yellow.

The five colors gradually turned into one. It was a vast pale blue and white color, like fogs and clouds rolling through the horizon.

The serene and indifferent voice sounded out one final time. "From this day on, you are no longer the same Qin Yu!"

...

Bang –

White Ape's giant body fiercely crashed down. The array formation barrier that covered the island surface broke apart like a frail air bubble. In the shocking explosion, wind and dust blew everything apart and the entire island was smashed into several pieces. Sea water spread out in a ring-like shape and then swept back in the next moment, submerging the island in the blink of an eye.

The churning waters were torn apart. White Ape leapt into the skies. Many of his radiant white hairs were now scorched and withered. There were even vast stretches of his body that were bare of all hair, and one could see the red burnt body beneath. He seemed to be in a distressed state.

It was clear that after the Sea God used its big move, White Ape found it difficult to deal with. In fact, since the battle began in the deep sea, the battlefield kept moving closer and closer to Starfall Archipelago.

Now, they had arrived at the edges of the islands. The island that had been shattered by White Ape's fall just now had been densely populated not too long ago. But thanks to the alliance seeing that the situation was rapidly deteriorating, it had been urgently evacuated.

Hou –

With a loud roar, the black clouds up in the skies erupted and the three-horned cow-shaped Sea God appeared in its full glory. Its body towered like a mountain and its blood red eyes were like the sun and the moon. It seethed with killing intent as it lifted a hoof and pressed down at White Ape.

“Come at me!”

White Ape cursed inwardly, his face almost turning blue. In his current state, he didn't dare to face the Sea God who was burning its source to attack.

He rolled away to evade. Endless sea water sank down as a giant hoof inserted itself into the depths of the sea. The remnants of the island were directly submerged and vanished without a trace.

This damned Beast Trainer Alliance, just what did these bastards do? Had they stolen the Sea God's lover or killed its child?

What had turned this fellow so crazy!?

Throughout the long years, both sides had fought several times and they had a good understanding of each other's strength. The Sea God had been cautious all this time, thus White Ape had managed to occupy the winning side.

But today, the Sea God was in a berserk state from the very beginning, simply not caring about the losses it endured. This left White Ape in a precarious position.

If things continued like this, then unless he ignored suppressing his injuries and released his full firepower against the Sea God, he would be ruined sooner or later. But if he released the suppression of his injuries, then even if the Sea God was defeated, White Ape still wouldn't be able to withstand it. He might not die, but it wouldn't be much different.

Looking at the hoofprint that sank deep into the bottomless sea, White Ape gulped. He glanced back at Starfall Archipelago behind him, an uncertain look in his eyes.

But soon, he bitterly smiled. This really had become a habit of his. He always thought about opportunities to obtain even more chips so that he could open his mouth wider and reap more benefits later.

But in truth, from the very start the Beast Trainer Alliance wasn't the key issue here...if he could, then he would have run away a long time ago. White Ape had already lived for many years, but it was far from enough. The crux of the problem was that he couldn't flee!

Since he had already been involved in that thing's karma of cause and effect and benefited from it in order to preserve himself, if he were to leave here then misfortune would surely fall upon his body and he would suffer an even more miserable fate than this.

Chapter 832 – Today I See the World

As White Ape was complaining inside and feeling anxious, the Sea God across from him who was filled with dreadful killing intent suddenly released a terrible pained howl.

White Ape looked up, startled. Just what was going on now? He was clearly the one taking a beating, so why was this fellow crying out so pitifully?

But soon White Ape couldn't bother attending to these random thoughts. He stared tightly at the Sea God shrouded in black clouds and his heart started to race, a foreboding feeling surging up that began to drown out his mind.

The pitch black clouds fiercely trembled. With a loud bang, they all began to combust. The flames were a strange gray color. Just by looking at them, one felt utter fear and despair.

Hou –

The Sea God roared again. Despair, anger, unwillingness, hate...all sorts of negative emotions wove together, nearly condensing into tangible essence.

Its aura rose crazily. If it had only burnt a portion of its source strength before, then now it had fully detonated it.

The feeling it gave off was like a living super volcano that could swallow the entire world and all things in it at any time.

White Ape's complexion really turned green this time!

Could someone tell him just what had happened? This Sea God had been in a good condition before, but now it was ruining its life.

No, this wasn't just ruining its life; this was completely giving up on its life!

As a consciousness bred from the world, the fountainhead of the Sea God's strength was the world itself. And its source was the medium it used to utilize the world's strength. Once that was completely burnt out, it would lose all its strength and fade away here.

The reckless were afraid of the arrogant and unreasonable, and the arrogant and unreasonable were afraid of those that didn't fear death...so, who wouldn't be afraid of this Sea God that wasn't afraid to die?

...

Qin Yu wasn't afraid at all. This was because as White Ape was shouldering all the hardships and suffering for him, the five strengths had merged into one and the inheritance of the brand mark began.

This was a marvelous and magnificent process. Qin Yu felt as if he underwent countless reincarnations through samsara, and each time he reincarnated he would witness the power of the unstoppable current of time from the point of view of a bystander.

The vicissitudes of life became nothing because in the long river of time, countless proud sons of heaven were born. Each one of them was incomparably powerful and they even possessed the horrifying strength to destroy entire worlds with nothing but a thought.

But no matter how formidable they were, they were still nothing but meteors. They left behind a brilliant and radiant trace in the endless river of time, yet in the end their light was extinguished as they fell to the earth.

Qin Yu couldn't remember how many glorious rises he witnessed in his samsara, but none of these talented individuals were capable of escaping the above ending.

Gradually, Qin Yu couldn't help but wonder. Just what boundary would he have to achieve in order to surpass the material world and become a truly eternal existence?

This thought became increasingly clear and increasingly intense. It slowly fixed itself deep into his mind, becoming a mark that could never be erased.

"Even now, no one knows where the path of eternal life is or how far it goes. Lucky descendant of the future, I hope you can take a step beyond what I waited for and become your true self."

A voice resounded within his soul, gentle and deep.

In the next moment Qin Yu woke up. He finally realized the origin of the brand mark. No wonder it was so formidable, it was actually...

After a long silence, Qin Yu stood up and bowed. "I have no idea where I will arrive in the future, but I vow I will do everything in my power to search for the path to eternal life. I will not disappoint the gift of the past sages."

The little blue lamp asked, "Are you awake? How do you feel?" Looking at Qin Yu, he seemed a bit curious and inquisitive.

When Qin Yu looked over, the figure within the great sun phantom instantly dispersed. The main body of the lamp enlarged and runes as thick as chains appeared around it.

But most of them were incomplete and there were places that were mottled with rust. It resembled a broken bronze mirror that had been exposed to the wind and sun for countless years.

The little blue lamp seemed to sense something. There was a hum in Qin Yu's mind and the image he saw vanished. Qin Yu apologetically said, "My apologies. I just obtained this ability so I wasn't able to freely turn it on and off."

The little blue lamp said, "I can understand, but others wouldn't. It would be best if you brought it under control as soon as possible. Before you have enough strength, do not expose the existence of the brand mark."

After a brief pause, it continued, "You should now be aware that this brand mark you obtained is a problem in itself. It should never have appeared...and since you have obtained it, you now belong in the ranks of things that shouldn't have appeared."

Qin Yu took a deep breath and smiled, "Nothing in this world is perfect. If there are gains, there are also losses. At the very least, I was lucky today. As for whether or not I will regret this choice in the future, I will leave it up to time to verify."

He turned around and slowly looked at the world he was in. There was joy and happiness on his face as he whispered, "I've lived for more than a hundred years and yet I now truly see the world today. May the world see me as well. Please take care of me in the future."

...

The jade pendant pierced into the skies, like a massive glacier that communicated with the heavens. But now this glacier was covered with cracks, as if it would shatter with the lightest touch.

Qin Yu stood beneath the jade pendant. He looked up at the endless skies and slowly reached out his hand.

The little blue lamp frowned, "Qin Yu?"

"It's fine. I can feel that it isn't truly destroyed." As he finished speaking, his palm touched the surface of the jade.

Hum –

There was a slight trembling as a faint light crossed the surface of the jade pendant like a wave. It was like invisible glue that wrapped around the cracked jade.

"Hm?" The little blue lamp was surprised. It seemed things were a little different from what it knew.

Qin Yu said, "The brand mark isn't complete. By fusing together the five strengths in my body, it was barely able to make it whole again. But perhaps because I provided a bit too much strength, after the brand mark was completed, this was the result."

He thought for a moment. A light flashed in his eyes and he said, "With this strength, I can control the jade pendant to move one final time."

The little blue lamp immediately understood. It smiled and said, "So, it should remain here."

An attack from the jade pendant, even if it was incomplete, would be enough to reverse a critical situation.

Moreover, as things stood, it was much easier to leave. Otherwise if the mystic realm was to break apart, how could the Beast Trainer Alliance give up?

"Shall we leave?"

Qin Yu shook his head, a complex look in his eyes. "Wait a moment. I have one final matter to attend to." He closed his eyes. Then, the shadows at his feet started to wriggle about like a living creature.

At this time, the door to the shadow world was pushed open and Qin Yu's consciousness entered it.

He didn't understand the Path of Shadow Transformation, but after fusing together with the embryo egg and truly seeing the world, opening this entrance wasn't difficult.

The shadow world was incomparably vast. The skies and earth were gray and the air was filled with a bleak and deathly silence that lacked all vitality. A grand palace was situated in the depths of these empty plains.

With a thought, Qin Yu appeared at the entrance of the palace. He pushed open the doors, arriving at the great hall where Undying once lived.

He looked around and his eyes finally landed on the floor. Qin Yu tapped his foot against the ground and fluctuations instantly spread out. An entrance opened up. The stone steps led downwards as far as he could see.

As he walked down the steps, he came to a great underground chamber below the palace. There, above the altar, he saw the unconscious Spirit. He furrowed his eyebrows together and a guilty look crossed his eyes. He lifted his hands and faint traces of light glittered between his fingers.

"Hold on!" The little blue lamp suddenly said. The great sun phantom appeared at Qin Yu's side. Perhaps because its attributes were completely different from this shadow world's, it had to try its best to condense its aura. Only a faint layer of shallow blue enveloped the body of the lamp.

Qin Yu turned his head.

"Qin Yu, I know you want to save her, but you cannot do that, at least not now."

The little blue lamp spoke straight to the point, "There is a great secret behind the demonic altar. You should also be able to see a part of it now. If she isn't here to block the demonic altar's connection to you, then it is likely that the existence of the brand mark will be exposed.

"Believe me. With your current ability, it won't take too long before you are truly strong. When that time comes, I won't stop you. But now is not the time."

Qin Yu furrowed his eyebrows. "If I am a little more careful then I shouldn't be discovered. Perhaps I can find another way to seal off the connection with the demonic altar."

The little blue lamp said, "I acknowledge that you have the ability to achieve that now, but there are still certain risks involved...Qin Yu, you must be cautious above all. If you aren't then everything you have now might turn into mist. You may even bury yourself within it."

After a long time, Qin Yu looked at the deeply slumbering Spirit on the altar and said, "I promise that I will return your freedom to you in the future, and I will do my best to give you what you want."

He turned and walked away. With one step he left the chamber, with another step he left the grand hall, and with a third step his consciousness returned to his body.

Shua –

Qin Yu opened his eyes, “Let’s go.”

Chapter 833 – Crazy Sea God

He lifted a hand and punched out a fist. The space of the mystic realm shattered and a channel was opened up. After fusing with the embryo egg, this space no longer posed any impediments against Qin Yu.

Hu –

Qin Yu stepped forward. Everything in front of him was dark for a moment before light filled his field of vision.

He came out!

But at this time his complexion changed. He looked up at the skies where endless black clouds roiled and rumbled and wove together like ink. Then, a pair of giant red eyes appeared between the black clouds. They seemed to be dyed in blood and as they glared at Qin Yu, there was nothing but infinite hatred and loathing within them.

At this moment, the world in Qin Yu’s eyes was filled with dark malice!

Hou –

A loud roar came from the distance. Qin Yu could clearly ‘see’ invisible lines gathering between the heavens and earth. They wrapped together like cables, creating the outline of a massive shadow, one which possessed a terrifying power that shook the heart.

But now, this shadow formed from lines was constantly dispersing. Although the speed wasn’t too fast now, once the momentum accelerated past a certain point it would completely collapse.

A memory floated up from Qin Yu’s soul. He immediately understood the source of these eyes that stared at him and this voice that roared at him.

“Sea God...” Qin Yu whispered beneath his breath. He had a dignified expression. Perhaps this was the first test he would have to face after fusing with the embryo egg.

And this test involved life and death. If he couldn’t overcome it then he would be dragged down into hell by the violently enraged Sea God.

Bang –

A terrifying fluctuation of strength instantly erupted. Even though he was a significant distance away, Qin Yu could still feel how horrifying this strength was.

Qin Yu’s heart shook and he turned to flee without hesitation. Although he had no idea who was fighting with the Sea God right now, he knew that leaving would be the best choice.

As long as he delayed a bit longer, the Sea God would be erased by the world and he would be safe.

Qin Yu was fast but there was someone even faster than him. With the sound of piercing air, White Ape howled through the sky. His chest had caved in and when he crossed over above Qin Yu, Qin Yu could clearly hear the sounds of breaking bones.

White Ape felt his heart ache. He lamented his tragic fate. Even though he managed to linger on this far, he would still die here.

Shit! I really cannot stand this anymore! Just because a tiger doesn't growl doesn't mean you can treat it like a sick cat!

Even if I really must fall here, I will still ruthlessly beat up this Sea God! I want this fellow to know that even if it is an extension of the world's will, it still isn't enough in front of this uncle!

White Ape crazily flew backwards and narrowed his eyes. At this time, a person's figure flashed in his eyes.

Mm...

This fellow seems a bit familiar!

White Ape widened his eyes. This boy, why was he here?

Qin Yu called out loud, "Senior White Ape!"

Qin Yu immediately regained his senses. White Ape was the one who had blocked the Sea God's strike just now, but it was clear from the last collision that he wasn't the Sea God's match.

In other words, Qin Yu's plan to run away and delay until the Sea God was erased by the world had utterly failed.

Bang –

Black clouds flooded over like a tide. Qin Yu looked up and saw the Sea God's eyes in the storm. They were flooded with killing intent.

Qin Yu complained inwardly. After he fused with the embryo egg, the result was more like improving the foundation of his body and talent. There was simply no bonus power he gained.

Facing the Sea God that had gone berserk on the verge of death, even White Ape could only be beaten. If Qin Yu were the one in his place, he estimated he would last less than a second before he lost.

He wanted to escape but couldn't, and he couldn't fight either...

As Qin Yu felt his surroundings darken, he suddenly heard White Ape roar out loud, "Junior, do not be afraid! Come to this old man's side!"

White Ape who had been sent miserably flying over had now stood up straight. Crackling, tearing sounds came from within his body, as if layers of cloth that wrapped around him were being shredded apart. An extremely tyrannical aura started to be released.

New fur regrew from his bare scorched skin. In the blink of an eye he was restored to how he was in the beginning. With his fur flying around him, he was like a great sun reborn, all of the distress from before having vanished into the wind.

Qin Yu was overjoyed. Who imagined that the White Ape who was being brutally beaten up just moments ago would suddenly turn into such a reliable big brother? Sure enough, the heavens never sealed off all exits.

He took a step forward. But before he could flee, boundless strength arrived from nothingness. It was like several hundred large mountains had ruthlessly crashed down upon his head.

Even with the intensity of Qin Yu's mortal body, he still paled as a stuffy feeling filled his chest. And, this was also when he saw that the situation wasn't good and shifted to avoid the strongest impact on his body, otherwise he feared that all of his bones would have been broken by now.

The black clouds had been incomparably far away just a breath of time ago, but now they had made their way close. The Sea God's great mouth had opened wide to bite down at Qin Yu.

"Humph!" White Ape coldly sneered. He appeared by Qin Yu's side and punched out a fist.

The punch clashed with the Sea God's horn. The ear-shattering sound was like a metal striking metal and the roar of thunder. With a heaven-shaking explosion, the black cloud was instantly crushed to reveal the Sea God's colossal figure. It wheeled backwards and the horn on its head that had met the punch cracked and broke off.

White Ape protected Qin Yu and drew backwards. Each step he took released a fierce sound that shook the earth. He looked at the Sea God's broken horn and let loose a carefree laugh. This stupid bastard, after chasing this grandpa White Ape for so long, now I'll teach you why flowers are red!

He stretched out a claw and pierced through space. It was unknown where his claw went, but he pulled out the chicken overlord.

This fool was still asleep and hadn't woken up. But, it looked much more pitiful than before. Half of its feathers had fallen off and its dispirited 'rod' now drooped to the side, as if it had gone through 18 layers of torture.

Qin Yu was stunned. Even at this time, he still couldn't help but imagine some random thoughts...could this White Ape really have such strange hobbies?

Luckily, White Ape had his eyes fixed onto the Sea God and the only thought on his mind was that he needed to blow this Sea God fellow up before he died. Otherwise, if he discovered the strange look in Qin Yu's eyes he would have vomited a mouthful of blood and sent Qin Yu flying away with a kick!

"Take it and leave...although this unbelievable thing has disgraced me, for better or worse it is a descendant of my lineage. Take good care of it. Take it as repaying me the favor of saving your life today!"

A chicken and a white ape, what kind of lineage descendant is he talking about...even if he was talking about some crossbreed, this quality was just too low!

Tsk tsk, this taste was seriously too much!

Qin Yu did his best to suppress these thoughts. He picked up the chicken overlord and flew away, even faster than before.

White Ape: ...

Hey you little bastard, although I didn't ask you to stay behind and fight by my side, you should have at least pretended that you would for a moment or two. How could you run away so quickly!?

But after thinking about it he immediately changed his mind. If Qin Yu ran away so fast, that must mean he knew what he was doing. That little fellow shouldn't die so easily following by his side.

The rumbling Sea God saw Qin Yu leaving and its eyeballs nearly popped out. The reason it ended up in this condition was all thanks to that boy. How could it look on helplessly as he ran away?

If I can't live on, then you will die with me!

Bang –

Wild strength erupted from its body.

White Ape fiendishly grinned. "Come at me! Sea God, those that have dared challenge me have all fallen to their knees and sung their defeat! The next one will be you!"

Little fellow, did you forget how powerful my last punch was? And you still laugh and want to play hard with me? I have had a splendid record of success in my life and I'm not going to let you ruin it!

Hm!

Take my punch!

...

When Qin Yu turned around and left, White Ape was still able to use the reasons of 'he knows what he is doing' and 'he won't die easily' to comfort himself. But, the Sea God absolutely could not endure this. It was about to be erased by the world, so its last remaining thought was to pull Qin Yu down with it.

Qin Yu suddenly heard a loud roar from behind. A chill surged up his heart. He suddenly found that an additional barrier appeared in front of him, like an invisible bowl had been turned upside down, trapping him, the Sea God, and White Ape inside it.

Of course this was simply a description. In truth, this big bowl had a bottom to it. Qin Yu tried to dig his way below but he found his path blocked.

He took a deep breath and a flash of dark gold appeared in the depths of his eyes. The invisible barrier in front of him suddenly revealed its most essential nature. Lines of silk-like thread wove together. They were extremely tiny, yet each line contained a boundless force behind it.

This was strength that came from the world's will!

Qin Yu didn't have time to figure out why the soon-to-die Sea God was still able to utilize the immense power of the world's will. His eyes darkened and his complexion turned ugly.

The range of this bowl was shrinking, which meant that if he couldn't break his way out, the space he could evade in would grow increasingly small. Eventually he would be drawn into the battle between the Sea God and White Ape. If that were to happen, then even if Qin Yu had a strong body he would still be ground to pieces and pulverized to bits!

He couldn't just sit and wait for death!

Chapter 834A – Fight the Sea God

Bang –

Bang –

From behind, the battle between the Sea God and White Ape erupted once again. The fluctuations of the battle were limited to a narrow range because of the invisible barrier, causing their impact to become even deadlier.

Qin Yu was like a reef beneath the sea. He quietly kept himself submerged, letting the shockwaves and bombardments wash over him as he steadily retreated backwards. Faint traces of dark gold light flashed in the depths of his eyes as he looked ahead. Several moments later, he lifted his hand and pressed the air.

When this finger touched the barrier, he felt something hard. A counterforce surged up through his finger, causing his entire arm to turn numb.

But Qin Yu revealed an excited expression. He could clearly 'see' that beneath the power of this finger, several of the lines that formed the barrier began to collapse and decompose.

It worked!

Senior White Ape, please do your best and help me delay for enough time!

Pa –

Qin Yu's finger fell a second time!

At this moment, the confident White Ape that was holding back the Sea God was at a complete loss. If possible, he really wanted to curse the world. For so many years you have been standing by and doing nothing, so why are you helping it so blatantly today!?

That's right, with the Sea God's strength alone, if White Ape were to release the suppression of his inner injuries, he should easily be able to beat it up.

But now White Ape was facing a super-edition Sea God that was being supported by the strength of the world, and also one that had gone completely crazy and didn't care about its life anymore.

White Ape was only able to feel refreshed for several moments before he discovered that he was suddenly struggling. He was immediately heartbroken. 'This old man has lived a life of success and it was always me crushing others into the ground, but now that I am on the verge of death, I am the one who is supposed to be ruthlessly devastated by others?'

This...how could he endure this!?

No, this isn't good, I can't fail here. So what if this fellow is cheating? I can still beat it up until its face is covered with blood. As White Ape hardened his resolve, he brandished his fists, his attacks coming out even wilder than before. But in this world, things didn't happen just because one wanted them to.

Bang –

A fist punched the Sea God's face. Its face twisted and deformed as a few teeth flew out from its giant mouth and crashed into the sea, causing large waves to surge.

But White Ape wasn't happy at all. Rather, he had a strange expression, because in the next moment he was sent flying backwards by a hoof kick to the chest.

Fresh blood gushed out as if it was free of charge and countless bones broke. White Ape's vision blurred and he almost fell unconscious as he gasped for breath.

Before he could recover, black clouds howled over like a thick curtain, wrapping him within. Following that, the sea crazily roared and endless mist rose up, fusing into the black clouds and making them grow larger, thoroughly submerging the Sea God and White Ape.

Rumble rumble –

Black Clouds tumbled violently as heaven-shaking sounds thundered within. It was like a million storms were roaring at once. Bangs often came from within the black clouds, low and deep and penetrating into the heart, making cold shivers run up the spine.

Qin Yu's heart shook. Before he could think, his body instinctually evaded.

In the next moment, White Ape's body crashed into the place where he had just been standing. He slammed into the invisible barrier. Qin Yu could see that because of the invisible barrier suffering a tremendous impact, it bulged outwards. Lines rapidly collapsed in its wake.

This greatly accelerated Qin Yu's efforts. But rather than being happy, his heart sank into a valley of despair.

White Ape had been defeated!

Even if he was closer to breaking through the barrier, the Sea God needed even less time to kill him. There was no more chance for him to escape.

A trace of annoyance and panic flashed in his heart, but it was soon replaced by an ice cold calmness. Since he couldn't retreat, he could only fight.

Qin Yu was of course well aware of his own capabilities. Thus, he knew that it was impossible to fight the Sea God with his strength alone.

He would still need to rely on White Ape!

His thoughts raced. He quickly landed and he flickered over to White Ape's side. "Senior, how are you?"

"Cough cough cough! Didn't I tell you to leave? Why are you still here?" White Ape coughed with discomfort, looking at Qin Yu as if he were a disobedient little kid.

Qin Yu nearly choked on himself. Hey, do you not know why I am still here? It's not good to keep bad habits like pretending to be confused!

But he had no time to care about this right now. He directly said, "Senior, we have to work together to fight it, otherwise neither of us will survive."

White Ape looked up at Qin Yu. Although he didn't say anything, the intent in his eyes was crystal clear.

You brat, you don't have the strength!

There was no way for Qin Yu to refute this. He hurriedly said, "Senior White Ape, I am not making a joke here. This is our final chance!"

He looked over White Ape's shoulder, his eyes locked onto the incoming black clouds. In Qin Yu's eyes, those tumbling black clouds were stripped of their appearance, reduced to nothing but a tide of pure energy.

The energy surged up and down endlessly, releasing immense power. But since it was a tide of energy, there were fluctuations and changes. And when these changes occurred, that was when it was at its weakest point.

"Senior White Ape, attack that point with all your strength!"

White Ape had no idea where Qin Yu's confidence came from. He looked up and just happened to see a flash of dark golden light in the depths of his eyes.

His heart immediately filled with awe, causing him to instinctively follow Qin Yu's words. He punched out a fist according to his instructions.

Dang –

It was like he had struck a great drum; the sound was completely different from before. The violently surging black clouds stagnated for a brief moment before turning into a mass of water that splashed down onto the sea.

The Sea God hidden within released a roar of pain. One giant eye was instantly left bruised and swollen with only a small gap left to see through. Despite all of this, it spitefully glared at Qin Yu.

"This is..." White Ape was shocked. He looked at the beaten up Sea God, his thoughts falling into confusion.

At this moment, all of his confusion and questions were swept away like fog in the wind. No wonder the Sea God suddenly stormed out today, rushing towards Starfall Archipelago and even disregarding its life.

So its true target had been this brat Qin Yu all along. In other words, he had been ruthlessly hammered and beaten up because of him!

White Ape should have been annoyed, but he suddenly discovered that he couldn't summon any anger at all. In fact, he even felt a bit pleased with himself.

Yes, he felt pleased with himself.

Although he had no idea how Qin Yu had accomplished it, it seemed that his guess was correct.

This brat, he must have walked into some heaven-defying dog shit luck!

If things were like this, then perhaps he could profit and he wouldn't need to ruin himself stopping the Sea God.

In fact, he might obtain an even greater good fortune and escape his current half-dead predicament!

"Senior White Ape, over there!"

White Ape instantly returned to his senses. Without hesitation, boundless strength erupted and he punched out, his momentum like moving mountains.

Sea God, you might be cheating by relying on the will of the world, but I also have someone behind me! Let's see just how you die today!

Hou –

The Sea God howled in anger. Although it possessed immense power, it discovered to its sorrow that it couldn't avoid White Ape's punch at all. It seemed that the moment White Ape punched, all of its ability to dodge had been sealed.

And the spot White Ape punched was the point where its strength was the weakest. If it was struck there, the consequences would be hard to predict.

With no other choice, the Sea God retreated backwards. It rolled up its body, using its thick hide to block White Ape's punch.

Qin Yu was shaken; this really did work. Although his strength was weak compared to these two, his eyesight was incomparably astonishing.

White Ape laughed out loud, "Brother Qin, today I will listen to your instructions. Just tell me how you want me to attack!" Since he had correctly guessed Qin Yu's current status, how could White Ape dare to pull rank with him? Even calling him Brother Qin was a profit.

Hum hum, after all he was...

If his status was known by outsiders, then almighty beings would gather from throughout the myriad heavens. They would spread out their tail feathers like peacocks, hoping to take him in as a disciple.

Haha, if one survives a disaster they are bound to live to a happy old age! This phrase is perfect for an old ape like me!

Qin Yu had no idea that he had already exposed his hidden card. As for being called brother, he didn't care as long as White Ape was happy.

"Senior White Ape..."

"Just call me big brother. Or you can call me Old White too!"

"...Brother White, don't give the Sea God any time to recover. Strike its front left hoof!"

White Ape was overjoyed. "Okay, just watch me!"

Qin Yu had personally called him Brother White. Tsk tsk, with just this he had enough to brag about for the rest of his life.

Later on he could tear down a banner and wrap himself with this accomplishment if anyone dared to talk nonsense to him and tried to catch him and turn him into a mount.

Mount, mount, how about this old ape rides your grandma instead!

As for the Sea God in front of him...in White Ape's eyes, it no longer mattered. Let alone the world's will helping it cheat, even if the world's will personally came here, he still wouldn't be afraid!

Today, Big Uncle Ape is here and no one can one-up me. Whether you come from the north, south, west, or east, just kneel down and lick my feet!

Bang –

A heaven-shaking explosion was followed by the Sea God's angered roars. This was clearly its strongest front hoof strike, but when it clashed with White Ape's fist, it felt sore and numb. The boundless strength in its body fell into chaos as it was sent flying away.

It was Qin Yu!

The Sea God looked over. It had already noticed that White Ape only found its weakness because he was listening to Qin Yu's directions.

As it wondered why that boy would possess such an ability, the Sea God's eyes turned even redder!

It couldn't allow things to continue like this. Even if it had temporarily obtained the support of the world's will, its own collapse hadn't slowed. There wasn't much time left.

It would kill him first!

Hou –

The Sea God reared back its head and roared. The sea below started to boil as endless water rose into the skies. It was like the entire sea had risen up by several thousand feet. It wanted to use the impact of sea water to forcefully separate Qin Yu and White Ape.

White Ape roared out loud. The white hairs on his body flooded with light as they wrapped around Qin Yu. Then, the violent sea waters flooded them.

As soon as they entered the water, the underwater currents immediately condensed, turning into arrows that shot at the tumbling White Ape.

Even if sea water flooded his field of vision, Qin Yu could still clearly feel the Sea God's position. But with White Ape's current state, it was impossible for him to follow his guidance to attack.

Time slowly passed. The light emanating from White Ape's hairs began to weaken. He had released the suppression of his injuries in exchange for gaining a greater strength for a brief period of time. But now those hidden dangers within his body were beginning to erupt. He, too, didn't have much time left.

Qin Yu took a deep breath and closed his eyes. When he opened them once more, a vortex seemed to be spinning in the depths of his eyes.

He raised a hand and thrust out a finger!

Chapter 834B – Fight the Sea God

In the turbulent deep sea undercurrents, a massive grinding pan suddenly appeared. It was over a thousand feet in diameter and the five colors of black, blue, red, white, and yellow revolved within it. The edges were a murky and hazy blue.

The moment the grinding pan arrived, a boundless force swept out, suppressing the wild undercurrents and returning the surrounding area to peace and quiet.

Qin Yu stuffily coughed and his face paled. Blue veins bulged out across his palm, but his finger remained steady and stable, not shaking in the least.

When he fused with the jade pendant's embryo egg, although his cultivation hadn't increased, he wasn't without gains. For instance, the Five Element Mountain cultivation method that he practiced. With a thought, he perceived it as if he had spent thousands of years deeply immersed in studying it, all of it ingrained within his heart.

After becoming enlightened in the five elements, he could comprehend the ultimate supernatural art, the Five Element Cycle. This manifested as the giant grinding pan that appeared beneath the sea and suppressed the raging undercurrents.

This supernatural art focused on suppression and imprisonment. Using the five elements as the base, it covered the world and all myriad things within it. As long as something belonged to the five elements, it would be impossible for it to break free.

Of course, such an overbearing and strong supernatural art wasn't without its limits. Although it could be used to suppress all things in the world, it still used Qin Yu's boundary as its foundation.

If it weren't for the powerful support that Qin Yu gained through fusing with the embryo egg, with his cultivation it would have been impossible for him to suppress the strength that the Sea God was controlling. Even now he barely managed to achieve this, but the strength draining away from him was like a burst dam. It was impossible for him to last much longer.

"Brother White, that area, attack!"

White Ape clenched his jaws. He had been demeaning the Sea God just moments ago and in the blink of an eye he had nearly been ruined. Although Qin Yu was calling him Brother White just now, it was mostly because of the forced situation.

If he truly wanted to approach Qin Yu and borrow his glory to rise back up, he at least had to display his own value.

"Brother Qin, rest assured that I won't give it a chance to act recklessly again!" White Ape clenched his teeth. He lifted his hands and grasped forward.

Bang –

Space shattered and a black stone stick howled out. With a loud 'pa' it landed in his palm. Then, as if it had been awakened, its surface started to shine with light.

Dark lines like flowing magma appeared on the surface of the black stone stick. Then, the lines spread to White Ape's palm, causing him to howl in pain.

The dark red lines rapidly grew. In a breath of time, they crawled over the entire surface of White Ape's body. As they did, his aura experienced a great change. He started to pant for breath as his eyes turned blood red. A destructive intent flooded out from his body, as if he had become a demon!

The power that came from the black stone stick seemed to gather all the negative emotions of the world. It possessed the desire to destroy all things. But this power actually didn't dare to approach Qin Yu. It seemed that the fluctuations Qin Yu was emanating right now were holy and sacrosanct, unable to be profaned by anything.

Hou –

The demonic White Ape roared into the skies. A last bit of brightness was maintained in his crimson eyes. He lifted his hands and then brought the black stone stick down, smashing at the place Qin Yu pointed to.

The sea waters in front of him instantly seethed and then split in half. Red and black flames leapt out as an inferno combusted deep below the sea, turning everything it touched into ashes.

The Sea God howled in pain. A massive wound was cut open in its colossal body. Dark flames swirled across its flesh and blood, wreaking havoc.

These flames not only burned its physical body but also acted on its soul, accelerating the Sea God's approaching death.

The surging undercurrents faded away. Qin Yu released the Five Element Cycle and the giant grinding pan vanished. He staggered and gasped for breath in great heaving gulps.

But as his eyes fell on White Ape's body, he couldn't help but frown. The power of the black stone stick might not approach him, but White Ape himself wouldn't be so polite.

Qin Yu could 'see' that black and red energy was constantly invading White Ape's body. It was condensing within his chest, fusing with White Ape's heart.

When his heart was completely corroded, White Ape would lose all rational reasoning. He would become nothing but a monster controlled by that black stone stick, only knowing destruction and slaughter.

With White Ape's strength, he should have been able to withstand the corrosion of the stone stick for some time. But, his heart had already been partially corroded away before.

Now the power of the stone stick was invading him once again, and the red and black power already entrenched in his body had burst out and combined together. White Ape's heart was rapidly transforming into a dark red and black color. His expression became increasingly pained and the last traces of brightness in his eyes were rapidly fading away.

In truth, the root reason why White Ape ended up in this current distressing situation was all because of this black stone stick.

In the past there was a great battle where White Ape emerged as the final victor. In a situation where he was heavily injured, he suffered an invasion from the stone stick's power and he had almost become a puppet when his mind had nearly been seized.

Afterwards, he had been chased down by his enemies and made a narrow escape, barely surviving. He fled all the way here, eking out a feeble existence with the support of the jade pendant embryo egg's strength.

He knew that if he used the stone stick again he wouldn't be able to contend with its corrosive strength. But, White Ape still chose to use it at this moment, because this was his best chance.

If White Ape didn't hesitate to abandon himself and use the black stone stick to kill the Sea God, would Qin Yu just stare on and do nothing as his consciousness was annihilated? Rather than begging for Qin Yu for help, it was better to place him in a situation where he had no choice but to help.

Of course, this was all a gamble. He was gambling that Qin Yu could save him...if he lost this gamble, then he was truly done for.

But he still did it.

The brand mark had been obtained by Qin Yu and the sky reaching jade pendant no longer existed. In other words, if he couldn't resolve the hidden dangers within him, he would die sooner or later.

Then, he might as well bet it all here!

Qin Yu's thoughts raced. A dark golden light flashed in the depths of his eyes. He stared at the lines that crossed the surface of the black stone stick and after a brief trance, he found himself in a purgatory of magma.

Black flames raged around him. A black fog tumbled within them. Red eyes appeared inside the fog. They were filled with cruelty and madness as they stared at Qin Yu.

"I don't want to provoke you, so mind your own business!"

A roaring sound echoed out from all around the tumbling magma purgatory.

Qin Yu furrowed his eyebrows before he composed himself. "Since I appeared here I have already decided to interfere. What are you going to do about it?"

Bang –

Magma tumbled all around and the black flames wildly grew. The black fog angrily roared, "Don't think that I won't dare do anything to you just because you obtained the brand mark! With your strength, you are as weak as an ant to me!"

Qin Yu lightly said, "If you want to kill me, go ahead and try. I also want to see whether you have the guts to do it."

The black fog roared, "I cannot kill you but I can imprison your consciousness here so that you stay forever, never able to leave!"

Qin Yu was expressionless. "Then you really are courting death." He swept his eyes around, dark golden light surging in his pupils. "Although I haven't yet found the weakness of your life gate, as long as I have enough time it wouldn't be difficult to do this.

"Since you know of the existence of the brand mark, you should also be aware that I am not just trying to frighten you...if you keep me here, is it because you are tired of living?"

The black fog fell silent. The red eyes shined with a vicious light. It was clear that Qin Yu's words had struck its sore point. The black fog could kill Qin Yu, but once it did that then it also wouldn't be able to escape.

In that situation, vanishing into smoke and forever fading away might be the best possible result.

It naturally wouldn't choose such a fate.

It didn't dare to kill and it didn't dare to imprison. Qin Yu was clearly intending to meddle and yet it was at a loss for what to do.

Before long, the black fog gratingly said, "Just what do you want?"

Qin Yu said, "Simple. I can ignore your fusion with White Ape. You can seize his body, but you must allow him to retain his consciousness."

"That's impossible!" The black fog roared.

Qin Yu looked at it, dark golden light shining in his eyes. "Believe me, you will agree."

The black fog agreed.

It couldn't determine whether Qin Yu was speaking the truth. Rather than both perishing together, it was better to coexist.

White Ape's eyes turned to brightness. He could feel the clear changes occurring within his body. After feeling a great happiness, he turned and said, "Brother Qin, thank you!"

His gamble had been correct.

The consciousness hidden within the black stone stick had just communicated with him. After escaping his difficult predicament, White Ape felt as if the entire world had opened up to him.

Qin Yu's eyes flashed. "Brother White, there is no need to thank me. You and I are companions who've fought shoulder to shoulder today, so it's natural for me to help you."

White Ape nodded affectionately. He laughed and said, "Brother Qin, do not worry. Watch me blow this Sea God up!" He raised the stone stick and his aura began to increase at a terrifying speed.

Rumble rumble –

Dark red flames surged out. It twisted and spun around, turning into a massive vortex.

Hou –

A demonic ape phantom appeared in the skies. Its body was a hundred thousand feet tall and seemed to support the heavens themselves. Its blood red eyes locked onto the Sea God. Then, it raised its arms and brought a stone stick pounding down.

Bang –

With a heaven-shaking explosion, the Sea God's colossal figure was sent flying away. Crimson flames instantly wrapped around it, wildly burning it away.

"I am not willing! I am not willing!"

The Sea God roared again and again, its pupils growing larger. But even at this moment, its resentful eyes were glued onto Qin Yu.

Pa –

Like an air bubble, the Sea God's body burst apart. The burning dark flames lost their target.

After a brief delay, they extinguished.

The Sea God that received the guidance of the world's will and was bred from the endless sea, vanished just like that, leaving no trace in existence.

Chapter 835 – Are You Speaking Of Me?

...

"Hahaha!" White Ape laughed out loud. He held the stone stick in one hand and grabbed his waist with the other. "Throughout all my adventures in the world, I have never once tasted defeat. So what if you are the incarnation of the world's will? If I want you to kneel, you still have to kneel..."

The laughter suddenly stopped. Qin Yu, who was standing on White Ape's shoulder, had a dignified expression. He looked up at the skies. There was nothing there, but the sudden pressure that covered his body – so thick that it almost solidified into essence – was coming from there.

White Ape almost lifted his hand and slapped himself. His mouth was just far too smelly. He spoke of the devil and now the devil had come!

What should he do now?

If he was in his peak state, White Ape wouldn't care. At the worst he would simply shatter space and leave this world.

But these years of being sick and wounded had shaken his foundation; it would take him at least several dozen years to fully heal himself. If he were to fight with the world's will now...if it wanted him to kneel, he would have to kneel!

Qin Yu was silent for a moment. He suddenly said, "The essence of the sky reaching jade pendant has been destroyed. All that is left behind is the power for a single strike. At some point, I will thoroughly destroy that space and allow the Great Dao of the heaven and earth to return to its rightful circulation."

The suppression that came from the skies lessened a little but it didn't disperse. Qin Yu thought for a moment and looked at White Ape below him. "The hidden dangers in White Ape's body have been resolved. Once he has healed from his injuries, he will leave this world. Before that happens, I promise that he won't interfere in the balance of this world."

Shua –

The pressure vanished, as if it had never appeared.

Qin Yu let out a sigh of relief.

White Ape wiped a cold sweat from his forehead. "Brother Qin, you really have a way with words. If it were me, I think I would just have to endure another battle."

Qin Yu said, "Brother White, we can't fight it." He added in his heart, "At least not now."

He looked forward and said, "Brother White, you should have heard the promise I just made. You cannot break this promise, otherwise if the world's will were to arrive again, it won't give up so easily next time."

White Ape nodded repeatedly. "Brother Qin, rest assured. I know how serious the situation is and I won't provoke any troubles."

Qin Yu smiled. "That's good then."

With a thought, the unconscious chicken overlord appeared. In the past he was at a loss for how to deal with its heart demon, so he could only borrow the Icesoul Jade Bed to help it wake up. But to the current Qin Yu, this small heart demon wasn't worth mentioning at all.

He placed a finger between the chicken overlord's eyes. There was a light 'pa' sound in the air, followed by a scream filled with hatred, unwillingness, and resentment.

Qin Yu coldly sneered. He lifted his hand and grasped out. The scream vanished, thoroughly erased.

White Ape's eyes were full of envy. If he was only 90% sure before, now he was absolutely positive.

Qin Yu must have obtained the brand mark. Only its legendary ability could so neatly and directly extinguish a heart demon with the turn of a hand.

The erect 'rod' finally began to wilt. Looking at its previously magnificent state reduced to less than a tenth of what it used to be, the losses could be imagined. It would be a long time from now until it regained the ability to cause trouble again.

The chicken overlord drowsily woke up. It was stunned when it first saw Qin Yu. It raised its wings and vigorously rubbed its eyes. It cried out loud, its voice heartbroken and filled with righteous indignation.

"Qin Yu, Qin Yu, you finally saved me! Wahh! Let me tell you something, I was just wallowing in a beautiful dream about cultivation, one that anyone would become addicted to. But while I was trapped within and couldn't free myself, an old white-haired ape appeared. It was simply a demon. In my dream it brutally tortured me. If I was able to record the sufferings I endured, you would see that I am nothing but a mass of cuts and bruises!

“That bastard white-haired ape. I definitely won’t let things go like this. Qin Yu, you will help me right? You must help me! I have a premonition that this isn’t a person that only exists in my dream and I will meet him sooner or later. At that time, I will teach that old ape what a pain worse than death means, what taking revenge means!”

As the chicken overlord wildly howled and screeched, its aggrieved face was now completely distorted. When combined with the tears that were dripping from its eyes, one could only think of a single word to describe it – freak!

Qin Yu was silent. He looked at the chicken overlord with pity and then the pale White Ape behind it whose eyes were nearly burning with flames. There was no need to mention anything after that.

With a light cough, he interrupted the still complaining chicken overlord. “First, look behind yourself.”

After being unhappily interrupted, the chicken overlord thought that Qin Yu was still the same old person who never understood others. It frowned and turned its head...

Ka –

One could almost hear the crunching of teeth from the chicken overlord closing its mouth too fast.

White Ape’s cheeks twitched and his teeth crackled. “Old white-haired ape...hahaha...haha...are you talking about me?”

...

The chicken overlord howled in despair and grabbed onto Qin Yu’s thigh with its wings. But in the end, it was carried away by a smiling White Ape.

That’s right, he was smiling. Though his face was indifferent, the corners of his lips were raised up. It was something that was a smile and wasn’t a smile, an expression full of mystery.

Facing this mysterious smile, Qin Yu felt a chill surge through his heart. As he watched White Ape’s back fade into the distance, he silently mourned for the chicken overlord.

However, the reason that White Ape gave him was logical and appropriate. He said that since Qin Yu had saved his life, then as an old ape who knew what gratitude was, he had to repay this favor!

If a useless and good-for-nothing descendant like this chicken overlord was allowed to go out as he was, it would be far too embarrassing. He would help Qin Yu train it properly and then send it back to Qin Yu’s side.

Thinking about it, Qin Yu didn’t have any reason to refuse, so he tacitly agreed.

He turned around and looked at the last light fading over Starfall Archipelago. Qin Yu’s eyes flashed and he said, “It’s time to leave.”

Shua –

His figure flickered and he howled away.

As for Dorelis, Senior Lin, and Yun Die, Qin Yu didn't worry about them at all. With Dorelis accompanying them, it would be easy for them to find him.

What Qin Yu needed to do was to stop for a moment after he left and wait for them to catch up.

...

Starfall Archipelago had persevered.

The alliance had persevered.

Everyone had survived!

A jubilant attitude spread throughout the numerous alliance cultivators. The alliance cultivators had fresh smiles as they hugged each other.

But after the joy, the high level alliance figures began to feel nervous – it seemed that the situation had really overdone things this time.

Regardless of the outcome, that thing in the sea had gone crazy, almost dragging down Senior White Ape to perish with it. This was an indisputable fact.

Senior White Ape's appetite had always been good, and they feared that it would even be better this time! As the numerous high level figures thought about how the bulk of their saved up assets was about to be ripped away from them, they found it difficult to breathe.

How sad, this wasn't the result they wanted...

Bah!

But this was the result! If Senior White Ape hadn't killed off the Sea God then they would have been truly pitiful. Still, there were some people who wondered why that old White Ape fellow didn't disappear along with the Sea God. That would have been the most perfect result!

But this thought was only for daydreaming. No one dared to express it in the least. Did any of them want to be killed off by White Ape?

Daogasi said, "This time, Senior White Ape has rescued the entire alliance. We shall agree to any request he asks for. I believe no one will argue this.

"Now, let us return to another issue. According to the message sent by the Elders within the mystic realm, the Western Tomb Qin Family descendant Qin Yu managed to create a resonance with the sky reaching jade. This is the only harvest that the alliance has had in countless attempts over the last 100,000 years.

"Compared to the price that the alliance will soon pay, this talent is even more important...so, find Qin Yu and bring him back to the alliance. No matter what he wants, no matter what request he has, as long as it is within a reasonable scope then agree to it and invite him to become a part of the alliance."

President Daogasi looked over at the crowd. "Everyone, the future might be right in front of us right now...to prosper or to decline!"

The entire alliance started to move. The mystic realm entrance was opened and all cultivators who entered were found and brought out. But, this didn't include Qin Yu.

The unwilling Beast Trainer Alliance dispatched a massive number of cultivators and flipped the entire mystic realm upside down. But in the end, they found nothing.

They didn't see him if he was alive, and he had no corpse if he was dead!

As if Qin Yu had vanished from this world...

Chapter 836 – Leaving the Alliance

When they thought about how the sudden actions of the Sea God occurred soon after the mystic realm opened, the intelligent members of the Beast Trainer Alliance focused all their attention on Qin Yu.

“Did Qin Yu have any companions when he entered the alliance? Or was there anyone in the alliance who was close to him? Find these people and have them remain in the alliance for the time being!”

President Daogasi's eyes shined with a sharp light.

But the elites of the alliance came up empty-handed once more.

That's right, they easily investigated and came up with the names of the closely related Dorelis, Senior Lin, and Yun Die. They even found out about the Xue Sisters that he was close to.

But after sending people to their residences, they found nothing but empty rooms. Following the clues, they came to Su Hongyi, but she shook her head and said she didn't know anything.

Because of East Han's death and with her Su Family background, the alliance wasn't able to question her too much. But, it was impossible for so many people to quietly leave.

The entire sea region was within the alliance's sphere of influence. If they had the intention of searching for some people, it wasn't too difficult.

But as the Beast Trainer Alliance was preparing to move, White Ape came over, holding the shocked and dazed chicken overlord in hand. He gave a straightforward warning, “Seeing that you are about to give me a generous offering, I will give you a word of caution. It would be best if you didn't search for Qin Yu's trail, otherwise catastrophe will soon find you!”

The issue was dropped like this.

Although the alliance had no idea what basis White Ape was making this judgment on, no one was willing to take the risk.

Because looking at Senior White Ape's appearance, if the alliance decided to go their own way and do their own thing, he would immediately go wild.

If White Ape went wild...this would be another calamity!

White Ape opened the Beast Trainer Alliance's treasury and made his way in. It was only half a day later that he came out with a satisfied expression, leaving numerous pale-faced alliance figures in his wake.

In White Ape's words, "I was going to be fine taking away just half, but since I gave you such an important warning today and saved you from such a grave disaster, taking another 20% isn't going too far."

What kind of warning was so special!?

President Daogasi's tall and strong figure suddenly appeared frail and thin. His voluminous clothes stirred in the wind, appearing as if he had withered overnight.

...

Commandeering her own ship, Dorelis and the others easily found Qin Yu. He had a reasonable explanation prepared for her, but Qin Yu only laughed in his heart.

Dorelis stared tightly at Qin Yu's face. She suddenly asked, "What did you do after entering the alliance's mystic realm?"

Qin Yu raised an eyebrow. "I didn't do anything at all."

Dorelis laughed, "If I believed you I would be an idiot! Be honest with me. Are you the reason why the Sea God went on a rampage?"

Qin Yu denied everything. His manner was earnest and solemn, as if he were an innocent bystander who had no involvement in what happened.

When it came to the sky reaching jade pendant and the embryo egg's brand mark inheritance, Qin Yu wouldn't say a single extra word no matter who asked.

Dorelis had a stern expression, "My instincts tell me you are lying."

Senior Lin agreed with this. He stared at Qin Yu, a deep look in his eyes.

Qin Yu was standing right in front of him, but if he closed his eyes he couldn't sense his aura at all. It was like he was nothing but an illusory shadow!

And all these changes were discovered after Qin Yu entered the mystic realm. Although he couldn't say for sure that Qin Yu was the reason why the Sea God went berserk, he was definitely related. Otherwise, where did these changes come from?

This Qin Yu was truly wrapped in a shroud of mystery. Perhaps he needed to remind his master to be a bit more cautious, in case an accident occurred.

The issue was dropped with that.

If Qin Yu decided to conceal something, it certainly wouldn't be discovered by others. Even if they suspected something, it was meaningless without evidence.

Dorelis left in a huff. But before she left, she glared at Qin Yu and sneered, "You won't remain smug forever!"

Qin Yu soon understood her meaning. He looked at the disturbed Xue Sisters in front of him and rubbed his forehead.

He suddenly thought that his actions would cause the two sisters to overthink things so he lowered his hand. "What plans do you have?"

Xue Qingqing looked up and stared at Qin Yu with wide eyes. She bit her lips, her face pale like a frightened little beast.

Xue Yueyue grabbed her little sister's hands and did her best to remain calm. She said, "Big Brother Qin, after we reach the shore we can part ways. We sisters will remember all the care you've given us these past days."

Qin Yu was silent for a moment. He slowly said, "You don't have to overthink things. Since you're here, I'll do my best to place you somewhere safe. But I also have something important that I am involved in right now and there are dangers involved, so it isn't suitable for you two to remain by my side.

"So if you have someplace you want to go, I will deliver you there. Otherwise, I can make arrangements for the two of you."

Xue Qingqing's eyes reddened. "Big Brother Qin, we have no place to go!"

Xue Yueyue bit her lips. She knew that with Qin Yu's personality, since he spoke so openly and honestly, he didn't want to further entangle himself with them.

There was no chance to stay by his side. Finding a safe place to settle down in was already the best possible result for the two of them.

"We will leave everything in Big Brother Qin's hands."

Qin Yu's thoughts raced. With his current status, whether it was the Dark Parliament or Western Tomb Divine Church, it would be easy to place the Xue Sisters somewhere. But, he only had a shallow connection to these two forces where they were using each other. He had no idea what their relationship would be like in the future. If he sent the Xue Sisters to them, they might be at peace for a time but he feared he would only be harming them in the end.

And Qin Yu owed them a great favor.

If the Xue Sisters hadn't gifted him the Dao Monarch's blood, he suspected he wouldn't have been able to fuse together with the embryo egg. The result could be imagined.

That was an indirect lifesaving graciousness.

Although Qin Yu had saved the Xue Sisters more than once before, things like benevolence and favors couldn't be equated to each other in numbers alone.

Logically speaking, Qin Yu believed he needed to give them proper arrangements.

After considering things over and over, Qin Yu thought of Dragon City.

First of all, due to the Ancient consciousness, the Dragon Soul was his ally for the time being.

And in Dragon City there was the Shadow Clan and Zhou Li. With her disposition, if she knew that Qin Yu had arranged for the Xue Sisters to stay there, she would definitely look after them. With two layers of protection, there would be no issue with the Xue Sisters' security.

As for other things such as whether or not the Xue Sisters would find life in Dragon City suitable for them, he didn't have time to consider that.

"Alright. I have a choice for you to make."

Moments later, the Xue Sisters earnestly bowed and left. They agreed to go to Dragon City without any objections.

Qin Yu felt that when it came to people like the Xue Sisters who knew when to advance and retreat, he should secure them even more. He didn't want to involve Senior Lin nor did he want to go to Dragon City himself. If he encountered Zhou Li, it would only make things even more awkward.

So, he decided to have Dorelis make the trip. She was sufficiently strong for the journey and recently she had become even more annoying. If they parted for some time, he would at least have a bit more peace and quiet.

Qin Yu knocked on Dorelis' cabin door. It was unknown what they discussed, but when he left looking refreshed, she walked out after him with a face so dark and gloomy it looked like it would drip water. But in the end she still agreed to help deliver the Xue Sisters to Dragon City.

The ship temporarily anchored on an island to resupply. As Qin Yu sent the Xue Sisters away, he cupped his hands together, "Until we meet again!"

Xue Qingqing parted her lips, "Big Brother Qin..."

She had many words to say, but she couldn't say a single one.

Xue Yueyue gripped her hands. "Big Brother Qin, goodbye!"

Dorelis smirked. Even the blind could see the emotions in the eyes of these two girls, and yet that young boy Qin Yu wasn't moved at all. What a heartless bastard.

"Let's go, let's go, we still have a long way to travel. We must hurry and change ships."

They boarded a ship bound for another direction. Even when they were far away, Qin Yu could still see the two sisters standing on the deck, waving at him.

Yun Die eerily said, "Teacher, you are far too popular. This makes me feel a great deal of pressure!"

Qin Yu lightly knocked her head. "What nonsense are you saying? Let's go!"

He turned and boarded the ship.

Some people, some emotions, were destined to only ever briefly cross paths.

He had too much on his mind and couldn't attend to these things any longer.

He hoped they would do well in the future.

Yun Die rubbed her sore forehead and clenched her fists in indignation. She ruthlessly thought, "Teacher, I will never give up and hand you over to those cheap whores outside!"

...

Sending away the Xue Sisters could be considered as resolving one of his concerns. Qin Yu sat on the deck and calmly looked at the changing colors of the skies.

Waves splashed and tumbled around him. The sky was a deep blue and a light sea breeze rolled along the wind. It was a rarely seen calm and peaceful side of the sea.

Yun Die thought for a moment. She brought over a deck chair and placed it to his side. "Teacher, can I sit here?" Before Qin Yu could voice his agreement, she turned and sat down. Then, she stretched out her waist so that her curves were fully outlined.

After getting acquainted with her teacher's personality and in addition to her thoughts of 'seducing him', while her respect for Qin Yu hadn't faded in the least, most of her fear and dread of him had disappeared.

Qin Yu shook his head and closed his eyes. "You are already sitting down, so can I ask you to leave?"

Listening to the helplessness in his words, Yun Die chuckled. "Of course I won't leave. And I don't think teacher would ask that either."

Qin Yu didn't respond and Yun Die didn't mind. She reclined back comfortably against the chair, feeling incomparably relaxed.

Staying by teacher's side felt amazing...

Moments later, Yun Die spoke up once again. "The sea is too peaceful today. It's like the surface of a calm great lake."

The closed-eyed Qin Yu suddenly furrowed his eyebrows. "What did you say?"

Yun Die blinked her eyes. "I said that the sea is peaceful..."

"After that."

"...It's like the surface of a calm great lake."

Qin Yu's eyes flashed open. He looked at the serene sea in front of him and slowly frowned. He mumbled, "Dorelis..." He took a step forward and said, "Wait here!"

Before his voice fell he had already flown out from the ship. As he took a step down, the calm mirror-like space surrounding them suddenly shattered.

The skies inside were dim and dark, with turbulent waves raging all around. One could hear the angry roars of the sea.

Qin Yu stepped in and the gap vanished from sight.

Chapter 837 – Releasing the Giant Spirit Clan

Shua –

Senior Lin appeared in front of Yun Die. He asked in a low voice, "What happened? Where did mister go?"

Yun Die opened and closed her mouth repeatedly. "I don't know."

She was also confused.

Qin Yu stepped out of the mirror world, separating himself from the structured illusion. Then, he saw what was occurring atop the frantic sea.

Strong winds roared and endless waves shot into the skies. They rumbled as they splashed back down, like a heavy rainstorm was occurring.

Looking through the waves, Qin Yu could feel the chaotic auras coming from that direction. And, one of those auras belonged to Dorelis.

As for those that were wildly besieging her...they were the Giant Spirit Clan!

Whoosh –

Qin Yu immediately accelerated. The air whistled as he sped forward.

...

A large sturdy ship sailed across the sea, releasing loud and harsh creaking sounds. If it weren't for both sides taking the ship itself into consideration, then it would have long since collapsed and disintegrated and been sucked up by the black waters below.

The Xue Sisters were hiding in their cabin. They looked up at the skies above the ship where both sides were fighting.

When a group of Giant Spirit Clan cultivators appeared, their first thought was that these people had come for them. But, they soon realized this wasn't the case.

These people were targeting Dorelis!

And it was only at this moment that the Xue Sisters experienced how terrifying Dorelis was. Even though she was fighting by herself, she wasn't at a disadvantage at all.

In fact, she even gave off a feeling that everything was within her control.

Pure and bright holy light carried with it a burning hot aura as it howled around, forcing the giant spirit clansmen to retreat again and again. And as time passed, they discovered to their horror that their strength was being suppressed and their energy was dissipating.

Holy light constantly gathered and grew in the skies above, nearly condensing into essence that released a horrifying aura.

This feeling was like an entire mountain had fallen on their chests, making it difficult to breathe!

This woman was actually so unexpectedly powerful, and yet she resigned herself to following at Qin Yu's side. Then, his true strength...

So Big Brother Qin was actually fiercer than they imagined!

This misunderstanding caused Qin Yu's standing in the hearts of the Xue Sisters to rapidly rise. But soon they would discover that their estimation of him still wasn't accurate.

"If we can't kill her then hurry and retreat!"

A Giant Spirit Clan cultivator roared. He raised a hand and punched out at the holy light that was shooting at him. But, when the holy light exploded, the fragments still cut open deep wounds on his body.

The man frowned. He landed and turned to flee.

Dorelis had a faint expression. Her eyes were icy cold. "You Giant Spirit Clan remnants, you dare to approach me of your own accord...all of you are going to die!"

Bang –

Above her head, endless holy light started to burn as the temperature wildly rose. The sea waters down below began to boil.

At this time, Dorelis suddenly furrowed her eyebrows together. In the next moment the burning holy light split apart into numerous pieces. Each one collapsed inwards on itself and contracted, becoming blazing meteorites that blasted in all directions.

Each holy light meteorite had locked onto a giant spirit clansman and stubbornly suppressed their aura. They had no choice but to forcefully block them.

The giant spirit clansmen that had been locked onto revealed expressions of despair. They realized that their decision to kill Dorelis after receiving the message was the wrong one to make.

Hum –

Hum –

Space suddenly shook, turning into thick mud that wrapped around the holy light meteorites, slowing them down until they came to a stop.

The Giant Spirit Clan cultivators had been saved from death. They looked at the holy light meteorites that were right in front of them, panic and dread overcoming their hearts.

They were sure that if these meteorites crashed into them, every single giant spirit clansman that came here today would die without a burial ground.

Dorelis' eyes started to shine before she composed herself. She turned around, her expression full of aggrieved injustice. "Qin Yu, this time they came to me and tried to kill me. Are you still going to stop me?"

Qin Yu was expressionless. "No wonder you suddenly agreed to help bring them to Dragon City. You should have sensed the aura of these giant spirit clansmen already."

Welcoming his eyes, Dorelis didn't deny it. She curled her lips and said, "I didn't ask them to try and kill me."

Qin Yu said, "I promise that the Giant Spirit Clan will never attack you again. Let them off this time."

Dorelis raised an eyebrow, "Qin Yu, I have already given you face once."

"Then give it to me one more time."

"Don't push things too far!" Dorelis said with a fierce look.

Qin Yu no longer looked at her. With a flick of his sleeves, the burning holy light meteorites were slowly swallowed up.

He looked over the giant spirit clansmen and said, "Over the countless years, the Giant Spirit Clan has paid a steep enough price. Now, you may all let go of your burdens and return home. You can wait for a new era to arrive and for your clan to receive a new life. Believe me, that day is not far away."

"Who are you? Why did you save us?" A tall giant spirit clansman asked.

"Patriarch, at Vast Sea City it was this lord who rescued us." Several giant spirit clansmen stood out and nodded towards Qin Yu with gratitude.

Hong Shao took a deep breath and said, "After the High Ancestor and the others were murdered, it was this lord who brought us out of the yellow sand world. Without him, we would have died there."

She respectfully bowed.

The current Patriarch's complexion changed. He bowed and said, "I thank you for saving the lives of my clansmen several times." Then he stood up straight and continued, "But since the birth of my clan, we have shouldered a mission that we cannot ignore. While I appreciate your good intentions, I must decline them."

Qin Yu furrowed his eyebrows. His aura suddenly changed. Like an awakening great beast, a boundlessly ancient aura spread outwards, covering the entire Giant Spirit Clan.

A dual suppression that came from the bloodline and soul caused the complexions of the giant spirit clansmen to change. They couldn't help but crawl onto the ground and submit themselves.

This...this was....

The current Patriarch's eyes flew open. Because of his excitement, he began to tremble.

Hong Shao was the only giant spirit clansman that could still look up at Qin Yu. As she sensed his aura, her face flushed red.

Qin Yu opened his mouth and slowly said, "In the yellow sand world, I successfully recovered and returned. The life mission of the Giant Spirit Clan has been completed. You may return home and await my orders."

Hong Shao's tears fell down.

So the High Ancestor and the others hadn't died in vain. They had used their lives to help the master return to life.

The current Patriarch bowed deeply, "Yes, master!"

Qin Yu knew that if he wanted to, he could easily obtain the loyalty of the Giant Spirit Clan and make them walk through fire or water for him.

But at the level that Qin Yu now touched, even if he were to summon all the power of the Giant Spirit Clan, they would still be as fragile as a bubble, easily destroyed.

If so, then why not release them and allow this sorrowful and sad clan to experience freedom.

The Giant Spirit Clan left. They carried with them endless joy and expectations. The mission that their clan had inherited from their creation had now been accomplished, and they no longer needed to shoulder that heavy burden. When their master stood upon the peak of the world once more, they would no longer need to hide in the shadows and eke out an ignoble existence. They could hold their heads high and walk beneath the sunlight.

The Xue Sisters were huddled up and brought to the Giant Spirit Clan's great ship hidden at the seabed. Since the Giant Spirit Clan appeared, then going to Dragon City was meaningless. The Giant Spirit Clan's territory was the safest place to be.

Even until now, the Xue Sister's hearts were shaken. They never imagined that their Big Brother Qin had hidden himself so deeply. Just who was he?

Xue Qingqing bit her lips. At this time, something within her eyes was finally extinguished. It slowly faded into nothingness.

Xue Yueyue watched all of this happen. She held her sister's hand and squeezed tight, saying, "You silly girl, how can you still not understand? Big Brother Qin is a divine dragon that hovers in the highest heavens; he isn't someone that you or I can stay around. To know him and stay with him for a period of time is already our greatest stroke of good fortune, otherwise we would have died already."

Xue Qingqing was silent for some time. She raised her hands and wiped her eyes. "I know, big sister." She smiled, "I won't have any other thoughts. But, I will remember Big Brother Qin for the rest of my life."

Xue Yueyue rubbed her head and gently sighed. Wasn't she also the same? She just didn't have this silly girl's courage to say it out loud.

Big Brother Qin, if we never meet again, I wish you a good life from here on out.

Chapter 838 – Passing the Test

Qin Yu had no idea that in a ship far below the sea, there were two women praying for him to be blessed. But he knew that he wouldn't be able to do anything for the moment, because Dorelis had snuck into his room at night.

And most importantly, this woman had dressed for warm weather. It was appropriate to say she was in rags, or even ragged strips of cloth.

Dorelis fixed her eyes on Qin Yu and said, "You have already ruined my plans twice. Whatever. How do you plan on compensating me?"

She licked her lips. "If you have no idea, I can give you a suggestion. What do you think about repaying your debt with your body?"

Qin Yu rubbed his temples. "What craziness are you blabbering about again? Hurry up and go to sleep!"

Dorelis coldly sneered. "Do you not know that in these circumstances, saying such words to a woman is the highest form of rudeness!"

Qin Yu was expressionless. "You barged into my room like this and you want to talk about rudeness?"

Dorelis pulled over a chair, turned it around, and sat down on it, her legs spread wide. She had a cold and compelling expression as she said, "I've already given you a suggestion. If you aren't willing, then come up with something else. I plan on accepting this favor today!"

Her cold words combined with her expressionless face truly exerted pressure. But, was it suitable for her to say such things when wearing such a thin dress right now?

Qin Yu averted his eyes to the side, because he was worried that if he looked over he would see everything beneath Dorelis' skirt...this woman's sitting posture was too overbearing. He had no choice but to avoid it.

"Dorelis..." Qin Yu said, his expression becoming much more congenial. "First, put on some clothes. If you have an issue then we can slowly discuss it."

Dorelis blinked her eyes, a bit surprised. She looked at Qin Yu with a suspicious stare, "You are really going to discuss things with me?"

Qin Yu nodded, "I will."

"Then tell me, do you agree to compensate me with your body?"

Qin Yu forced a smile. "Dorelis, you are beautiful to begin with, and now that you are borrowing this body, you are still seductive and charming. As for me, I am just a normal man...it's just that what you are asking today is too sudden. Can you give me an explanation?"

Dorelis lifted an eyebrow. "Turn around and I'll tell you."

Qin Yu was silent for a moment and then he slowly turned around. He was already trying very hard to keep his eyes steady and unmoving, but he still saw something that shouldn't be seen.

This woman...this woman...she was actually playing an idiot!

Qin Yu felt his mind buzz and fall into chaos. Just what was Dorelis thinking right now? Even if she was feeling extremely sexually starved or something, her actions shouldn't go to such an extreme, right?

Dorelis glanced at Qin Yu's expression and charmingly smiled. "Do you like what you see? Should I come over so you can get a better look?"

Qin Yu coughed, "You still haven't explained things to me."

Dorelis said, "It's simple. When you released the Giant Spirit Clan today, you were so full of masculinity and daring that you captured the passion in my heart and I am no longer able to suppress the desire to eat you up. Does that answer satisfy you?"

Qin Yu almost laughed in anger. Satisfy? Satisfy your face. If I believed your nonsense, I really would be an idiot. But this time he couldn't have a showdown with her because he suddenly felt fluctuations from the Ancient's consciousness.

It was extremely well-hidden. If he hadn't fused with the jade pendant embryo egg, allowing him to clearly feel everything occurring in his body, he wouldn't have been aware of it.

Qin Yu immediately understood what was happening. The Ancient's goal was to test whether or not Qin Yu was under his control.

Thinking about it, it should be because his aura changed after he fused together with the jade pendant embryo egg. Thus, the Ancient had no choice but to be cautious.

So Qin Yu had to act as if he had no idea that the Ancient's consciousness had arrived. He even had to coordinate with him and give him the chance to confirm things – for instance, what if they were suddenly interrupted as the relations between a man and woman started to heat up?

I can even endure this kind of situation. If you still don't believe me, then consider yourself sufficiently fierce!

Qin Yu remained silent as his thoughts raced, but Dorelis had already started to make her move. Although her intuition told her that Qin Yu was acting a bit strange today, how could she miss out on such an excellent opportunity?

It wasn't just the Ancient who had sensed the strange and unclear changes occurring to Qin Yu's body after he fused with the jade pendant embryo egg; Dorelis also felt it. Moreover, because she followed by his side, these feelings were even clearer.

She suddenly lost the absolute assurance she had in the backdoor she left in Qin Yu's body. She had to carry out reinforcement.

The method of reinforcement was simple. As long as Qin Yu couldn't contain himself and bonded with this body that she controlled, then later on this boy wouldn't be able to overturn the heavens no matter how much he struggled. He could only honestly and obediently be a puppet in her hands.

She hurriedly approached, then placed her hands on him and climbed up. Qin Yu immediately felt immense waves of pressure shrouding him.

This was so...it was absolutely real; it must feel amazing in his hand...

Mm, hold on. Stand firm. Don't think about it; absolutely do not think about it!

Dorelis leaned over and whispered into his ear. "Do you want to touch me? I really don't mind."

Qin Yu could sense the fluctuations of the Ancient's consciousness turn dense and heavy. It was clear that he was secretly observing him at this moment.

Clenching his teeth, Qin Yu embraced Dorelis' waist. Her body was as soft and pliable as he imagined.

With a sound, all of Dorelis' bones seemed to be drawn out from her body. She languidly slumped against Qin Yu.

Her breathing became sharp and deep. Her arms tugged at Qin Yu's neck with strength, as if she wanted to push herself into his body.

At the same time, the breath that Dorelis emitted suddenly gained a hint of sweetness. It was like a mellow and fragrant wine, causing one's ears to blush red and their heartbeat to quicken, invoking the flames in their heart.

Qin Yu secretly grinned. He really hadn't seen it. This woman actually possessed such an incredible ability to seduce a person's heart and mind.

If it were anyone else in his place or if his will was a little less firm, then even though he had a plan in place, perhaps his fake acting would have become reality.

Damn it. Was the Ancient not planning to interfere at all? Did the Ancient really have some hobby of watching a live performance of 'The Crown Prince and the Concubine'? If this was the case, then there was nothing Qin Yu could do. With the performance having come this far, he was nearly at his limit. To continuously keep his sanity in this situation...it was absolutely impossible!

The arms around his neck slowly made their way down. Qin Yu stiffened a little. But just as he was about to end the act, a wave of power suddenly erupted from within him and sent Dorelis tumbling away.

Dorelis had been flushed red and mesmerized just moments before, but in the blink of an eye she regained her senses. Her eyes locked onto Qin Yu. Or to be more exact, she was looking through his body at the distant Ancient.

Several breaths of time later, she lifted a hand and yawned. She lazily said, "How disappointing...Qin Yu, it seems that this is as far as we can go today. We'll try it some more if we have another chance in the future."

She threw him a wink and gracefully walked away.

Qin Yu put on an awkward expression. But, he still revealed the smallest hint of anger in the depths of his eyes. This could be called a perfect performance in mood.

The Ancient's voice resounded in his mind. "I know that with your current age, you still haven't let go of the affairs of men and women. But, you cannot touch that Dorelis woman no matter what. Otherwise there will be nothing awaiting you but endless misfortune. Do you understand?"

The awkwardness in Qin Yu's expression became even heavier. He lowered his head and cupped his hands together. "Yes, I will remember." There was a bit of unwillingness on his face, but it was exactly because of this that he appeared normal.

After all, when facing such an incomparably beautiful woman like Dorelis, especially when she clearly wanted to have her way with him, any normal man would be angry and unwilling after they were stopped. And Qin Yu had been just a little bit away from being successful.

The Ancient lightly said, "Later, you will understand that this is for your own good." He continued to say, "I have already finished the preparations. Do not delay any further and return to Sky Declaring Pavilion!"

Shua –

The Ancient's consciousness vanished.

As for what Qin Yu experienced at the Beast Trainer Alliance, he didn't ask at all.

Perhaps this was because the Ancient believed that everything was within his control. Or maybe he had a feeling that no matter what he asked, he wouldn't receive any harvests.

Qin Yu closed his eyes, sensing his surroundings. After determining that he was truly alone, he let out a long breath of relief. There was a dignified expression on his face.

It was only at this moment, after truly facing the world, that he felt the great strength of the Ancient. No wonder he dared to fake his death and even discard his mortal body to scheme against the Dao Monarch, even evading the catastrophe of his race. It was because he had the ability to do it.

Qin Yu rejoiced. If it weren't for all these lucky chances and coincidences combining together and allowing him to fuse with the jade pendant embryo egg, he feared that even if the Ancient's heart was under his control, he wouldn't be able to escape disaster in the end.

And Dorelis...

This woman had likely been underestimating the Ancient's true strength all this time. There was no chance for her to compete with him for the Dao Monarch's Great Dao!

But soon, Qin Yu discovered that he also underestimated Dorelis.

There was a knock on his door. A neatly dressed Dorelis stood outside. When she met Qin Yu's gaze, she directly asked, "Has the Ancient's consciousness left?"

Qin Yu furrowed his eyebrows together.

Dorelis lightly said, "Don't worry. I'm not using some method to monitor you. It's just that your response to me wasn't normal."

Qin Yu was silent for a brief moment. "You realized it at the start?"

Dorelis said, "It wasn't at the start, but I'm not as stupid as you think I am." She looked him over, "With your current state, you should have passed the test. Do you want to celebrate with me? For instance, continuing what we were doing."

She batted her eyes, "I don't mind at all. I'm even looking forward to it."

Qin Yu bitterly smiled. "Since you know the inside story, don't try and stir up trouble."

Dorelis looked at him and suddenly said, "Qin Yu, you are definitely hiding something."

Qin Yu: ...

“With your cautious personality, if you weren’t absolutely sure that our conversation wouldn’t be discovered, how could you dare to talk with me here? You must remember that I warned you before that the Ancient can sense anything happening around you.”

Qin Yu forced a smile. Indeed, underestimating this woman was stupid on his part. Dorelis might have underestimated the Ancient’s strength, but she wasn’t a fool either.

Moreover, for him to make such a great mistake and not realize Dorelis’ real goal, it was likely because he was left flustered by what happened just now.

As expected, when it came to the creature known as man, no matter how calm his heart was or how clear his thoughts were, his intelligence would drop drastically in the face of beautiful women. The impulses they felt might even affect their will and thinking for a short time.

This was a lesson he needed to remember!

Dorelis smiled. “Qin Yu, are you engaging in some kind of introspection right now? Let me tell you, don’t bother wasting your time. When it comes to men, they will never be able to guard against a woman’s tricks. Alright. Since you have no intent to continue, I am going back to my room to rest...of course, if you ever change your mind, I will welcome you at any time. My door isn’t locked.”

When Dorelis turned, her smile vanished and a cold light flashed in her eyes. She had indeed guessed that Qin Yu was using her to lower the guard of the Ancient. Moreover, she had determined that Qin Yu was hiding some other secret.

But in fact, Dorelis hadn’t gained anything. She was increasingly sure that the backdoor she left behind in Qin Yu might not be able to play a useful role. In other words, if she couldn’t reinforce it, there was a high chance Qin Yu would escape her control in the future.

But this boy was slippery and clearly had scruples against her. It would be too difficult to drag him into her bed.

Should she use her back door and force Qin Yu to submit? Or should she wait a bit longer and search for another opportunity?

Dorelis fell into thought.

As Qin Yu watched Dorelis vanish around the corner, he closed the door. His expression became faint. As they talked just now, the hidden rune on the Ancient’s heart fluctuated a little. It was clear that Dorelis had been thinking of using it.

But Qin Yu didn’t worry about this. If Dorelis really tried something, she would be the one to suffer in the end.

Chapter 839 – Getting the Best Deal One More Time

Half a month later, Qin Yu and the group returned to Sky Declaring Pavilion. Senior Lin said his goodbyes and left. Without hesitation, he entered his chambers. After determining that no one was monitoring him, he opened up a contact array formation.

A golden water basin lay in front of him. The still water surface fluctuated and a blurry face was outlined.

Shua –

The face's eyes opened. They were calm, like the waters of an ancient ice spring, exuding a deep chill that reached into the depths of one's soul.

“What happened?”

As the ripples trembled, a calm voice echoed in the chamber.

Senior Lin bowed, his voice respectful. “Reporting to master, I followed Ning Qin to the Beast Trainer Alliance...”

Then, he briefly described what happened. The exception was that he gave an extremely long description about the changes that occurred to Qin Yu's body.

“Master, this Ning Qin's origin is mysterious and his background isn't as simple as it appears. This old servant requests that master please place this into consideration and be extra careful. If master wishes, I can try to find a way to probe him.”

The blurry face in the water said, “I already understand everything you've said. There is no need to probe him further. Bring him to me as soon as possible.”

Senior Lin was startled. He immediately bowed, “Yes, master.”

Shua –

The face vanished and the water basin returned to tranquility, without a single wave.

Senior Lin straightened himself. His eyebrows stretched out, a thoughtful look in his eyes.

With the master's disposition, if he made these arrangements, he must be absolutely confident in himself.

If so, there was no need to worry.

...

Somewhere far away, there was another quiet chamber. There was a round hole up above and beams of light shined down onto the ground below.

But, this light that shined down didn't spread outwards. It remained a foot-thick beam of light that pierced into the dark. Beyond it, there was nothing but darkness.

It was like ink, so thick that it couldn't be dispersed. Just looking at it, one felt as if they would be swallowed up.

Suddenly, a man's voice resounded in the darkness. “Ning Qin has returned to Midmorning City. I have already sent people to bring him here in the shortest time possible.”

After a brief silence, there was a response from the darkness on the opposite side. "You must be careful of this person. Although his cultivation is weak, I always feel a sense of dread towards him."

"Of course. If there is someone that you can treat with such caution, I won't underestimate him at all." The first voice that spoke laughed. "Now that I think about it, even though the master is powerful, his life was nothing but a failure. In the end, everyone that he could trust by his side eventually chose to betray him. I can't help but say this is a kind of sorrow."

"Shut up! Do not be so impolite to the master!" The other voice was ice cold, a killing intent lingering on every word. "In any case, it was the master who gave you and me our lives. This will never change. I never want to hear such disrespectful words to the master again, do you understand?"

"Since you don't like to listen to them, then I won't say them. After all, compared to actions, words are pale and weak." The first voice was calm, without any irritation from being scolded. He smiled and said, "Let's go. We must settle the final preparations and wait for the master to arrive!"

...

Qin Yu and Senior Lin met for a short talk. After they were done, Qin Yu sent him out and walked back to the guest room. He sat on a sofa and rubbed his chin.

Although Senior Lin had been rather cryptic when he spoke, Qin Yu had caught the true meaning behind his words. Sky Declaring Pavilion's master was feeling anxious and hoped that he could finish his preparations sooner.

This was consistent with the Ancient's requirements, but he didn't immediately agree. Rather, he tried to postpone it for the time being.

Dorelis and Yun Die walked into the guest room. Dorelis looked at him several times and suddenly said, "Qin Yu, what sort of naughty ideas are in your head this time?"

Qin Yu: ...

What kind of eyes was this woman born with? They were far too good! If she didn't take care of her eyesight in the future then she had best be careful of getting cataracts!

Qin Yu coughed, not looking at her. He turned to Yun Die and said, "For this following period of time, you must cultivate diligently on your own. As your teacher, since I cannot help you much, I will do my best to deliver you some cultivation supplies. Write down a list of anything you need. Do not worry about holding back. I will try to satisfy your requests as much as I can."

That's right, Qin Yu was preparing to get another deal one last time!

Once the Ancient found the Myriad Dragon Body, who knew how the situation would develop? If that were to happen, then he might as well fish for a fortune right now.

Dorelis blinked her eyes. "I want a piece too."

Qin Yu didn't even look at her. What are you talking about? You didn't even put in any effort yet you want a cup of the soup? Are you dreaming right now?

And most importantly, why would I give you any advantages? So you can restore your strength and become increasingly formidable so you can make things even more awkward for me?

Hoho, I am not actually that great of an idiot. I'd rather die than do something like support the enemy!

In the end, even though Dorelis stamped her feet in anger she couldn't make Qin Yu change his mind. She faintly guessed what he was thinking but could only clench her teeth and endure it.

Surname Qin, just you wait! Once I control everything I will make you drink my foot-washing water daily!

The next two days passed peacefully. As Senior Lin started to suspect that his words had been too vague and Qin Yu didn't understand the meaning behind them, the Internal Affairs Division Manager Bian Changli arrived at his dwelling with a deathly pale face. With shaking hands, he handed over a jade slip.

"Senior Lin, this is a purchase list that Mister Ning Qin submitted today. I cannot take responsibility for signing off on this, so I ask you to make a decision."

Bian Changli gulped as he spoke. Beads of sweat appeared on his forehead.

Although Senior Lin could approximately guess how astonishing the purchase list contained within this jade slip was from his expression, when he personally opened it and checked himself, he couldn't help but suck in a deep breath of cold air and almost flip the table over.

This was too much! Ning Qin, you have gone too far!

You did something similar before and I already agreed to it. I thought that your greediness was formidable enough, but I never imagined I had underestimated you. So your mouth could actually open this wide!

Bian Changli put on a long face. "Senior Lin, you cannot let things go this time. Otherwise, even if the entire Midmorning City Branch Division is emptied out, we still won't be able to collect all of the listed materials. You must advise the Pavilion Master that he must harshly crack down on this type of blackmail where people are taking advantage to line their own pockets!"

Senior Lin took a deep breath and suppressed his blood pressure. "I will immediately contact the master."

He turned and walked away.

Moments later, Bian Changli walked through the courtyard doors with a dazed expression. He rubbed his forehead and then looked up at the sun.

There's no fever and it's daytime. I'm not dreaming...

But how could the Pavilion Master agree to this?

...

The entire Sky Declaring Pavilion was mobilized as they started operating at full capacity. A massive amount of commodities, belongings, and properties were used to purchase precious treasure from all over, completely disregarding their cost. The entire world was shocked. No one had any idea what was happening that would cause Sky Declaring Pavilion to make such an immense movement.

Countless secret agents swarmed in. The spies in Sky Declaring Pavilion were also fully activated as they tried to obtain news of what was going on. But, it was clear that Sky Declaring Pavilion was prepared for this. With their perfect response, no one was able to obtain any useful information.

But some people didn't need to investigate to determine what this great turbulence was for.

For instance, Feng Qing.

The transfer of materials within Sky Declaring Pavilion naturally couldn't be hidden from her. In front of others she appeared calm and composed, working in her normal orderly manner. But as she lay in her bed at night, fear shrouded her like the darkness, swallowing her up whole.

Terror, restlessness, anxiety, and even despair. All sorts of emotions wove together and collided in her heart. But Feng Qing didn't reveal any of this, not even to her closest maid.

Feng Qing was waiting, waiting for a reasonable chance to appear. Before then, she couldn't reveal anything wrong, otherwise disaster was sure to descend on her head.

On the seventh day of the large-scale purchase of goods, Feng Qing finally found the chance she was waiting for. She personally brought over a batch of materials to Rising Lake Manor.

But what left Feng Qing in despair was that as she approached the manor entrance, Senior Lin was already looking at her. He calmly nodded at her and said, "Miss, leave these matters to me. Please return."

Feng Qing squeezed out a smile, forcefully trying to maintain a calm appearance. "I had no idea that Senior Lin was already here. With you here, there is sure to be no problem. I have many other matters to attend to so I will leave first."

Senior Lin bowed, "Take care."

Feng Qing turned around. But at this time, Yun Die suddenly appeared. She shouted out, "Miss Feng Qing, please wait a moment!" She hurried over and said, "Among the batches of materials sent over a few days ago, several of the items don't meet the standard. Teacher has compiled another list, so please prepare them again."

"Ah...I can't believe something like this happened...please ask Mister Ning Qin to rest assured that I will prepare everything as soon as possible." Feng Qing received the jade slip and probed it with her divine sense. As she did, she immediately relaxed.

Senior Lin secretly frowned. He walked forward and said, "Miss, I have been responsible for these matters all this time. How about letting me handle this?"

Feng Qing smiled. "Of course. Then, I'll have to trouble Senior Lin. I will make sure to severely punish the subordinates who did this and prevent anything similar from occurring ever again."

Senior Lin nodded. "Miss is considerate." He received the jade slip and probed it with his divine sense. After not finding anything improper, his heart untensed.

It seems he had been far too sensitive. But, he didn't mind being more cautious. This was related to the master's great cause and he couldn't allow himself to be negligent anywhere.

As for Qin Yu, although the master showed that everything was within his control, Senior Lin still couldn't dispel the dread in his heart.

Feng Qing said her goodbyes and left. Compared to how she was when she first arrived here, while she was still worried, she felt much more at ease.

In the jade slip just now, it was indeed a list of materials. But, out of those materials, there were the characters for 'don't worry'.

Feng Qing didn't believe that it was just a coincidence that Qin Yu had Yun Die deliver the jade slip to her. He was clearly sending her a message.

Since Qin Yu told her not to worry, it was clear he remembered his previous promise. Right now, he was her only hope.

Chapter 840 – Uniting the Dark Parliament

At the lakeside courtyard, Yun Die walked into the guest room. "Teacher, Miss Feng Qing has looked through the jade slip."

Qin Yu nodded. "I understand." Seeing that Yun Die wasn't leaving, he looked over and saw his disciple's worried expression. He smiled and said, "It's fine, I'm alright."

Yun Die knew of everything listed within the purchase list of materials. Yet, Sky Declaring Pavilion had actually agreed. It was clear that there were other hidden factors she didn't know about.

For such an extreme amount of wealth, the risks he was about to take must be proportionally high!

"Mm!" Yun Die nodded. "I believe in teacher. You will definitely be able to overcome any challenge. Then, I am going to go cultivate."

She bowed and excused herself. When she turned around she gripped her fists. She had to work harder and grow stronger. While she couldn't protect her teacher, she might be able to provide him help at certain times so that he wouldn't need to shoulder everything by himself.

Dorelis came out. When she looked at the direction Yun Die was heading in, she curled her lips and said, "That little girl, her character isn't that bad."

Qin Yu said, "I will only care about those who are good to me." His words had a double meaning to them. Then, he went straight to the subject, "Alright. Tell me what your preparations are. A tough battle will be coming up. If anything goes wrong, we're both going to be in trouble."

Dorelis charmingly smiled. "Rest assured, this big sister will always look after you. I will put my heart and soul into protecting you so that you don't suffer an accident."

She walked over and spoke a few hushed whispers into his ear. Qin Yu's eyes flashed. "Is this true? How did you find out?"

Dorelis stood up, a smug smile on her face as she raised an eyebrow. "I naturally have my own means. As for whether I'm speaking the truth or not, you can test it yourself."

...

Facts proved that in this world, meat pies would never fall from the skies. And even if they really did fall, they would definitely be wrapped in a layer of sugar with nothing but random spices and fillings within.

For instance, when Qin Yu tried to squeeze out everything he could one last time. Sky Declaring Pavilion had agreed to his demand and sent him all the treasures and materials he asked for.

The truth was that there was something sneaky occurring inside.

If it was Qin Yu from before, then even if he was extremely cautious he wouldn't have sensed anything. But to the current Qin Yu, all of the methods secretly utilized by Sky Declaring Pavilion were fully laid out in the open.

There weren't many goods that had problems and the quality of the items was excellent to begin with. The only difference was a faint aura that contaminated their surface.

These auras were incomparably weak and they were mostly similar to the items they were attached to. If one wasn't careful, they would easily neglect it. And even if it were discovered, they wouldn't sense anything wrong with the aura itself. This was all thanks to the genius and wisdom of the person who had prepared all of this.

There were 23 different auras, each one harmless on its own. Unless one gathered all 23 kinds, even if they were placed side by side they wouldn't produce any changes.

But Qin Yu found all the objects that were contaminated with the 23 different auras. At this time, he reached out a hand. His five fingers were spread wide as an invisible strength wove between them. It was like an aura, imprisoning the gray gas and preventing it from escaping.

A trace of dark gold light flashed in Qin Yu's eyes. Within his gaze, the gray aura suddenly expanded countless times over, revealing its true essence.

These were actually tiny gray beetles. They were each biting each other from head to tail. It was clear that they felt the situation wasn't good and they were all extremely anxious.

Suddenly, the gray beetles felt Qin Yu's gaze on them. They trembled and quieted down. As if falling into hibernation, they didn't make any further sounds.

These little things could actually feign death. How interesting.

Qin Yu's eyes flashed. He thought for a moment and then lifted his other hand. He raised a finger and a drop of dark red blood dripped down, quietly piercing through the invisible barrier and landing on the gray gas.

The hibernating gray beetles suddenly woke up. They revealed hideous expressions as they wildly consumed the blood.

Qin Yu lightly coughed and his face paled a little. But, he soon composed himself. His lips lifted up in a cold sneer.

He had put out the bait. Now, he'd have to see whether or not they took it. If they made good use of it, perhaps he might be able to give them a great surprise.

...

There was a pitch black room with a hole in the roof. A beam of radiant light fell through, but besides that everything here was pitch black.

A laugh rang out. "In my opinion, you think too highly of that Ning Qin. He is now within my control."

After a long silence, another voice spoke up from across the room. "Regardless of whether you believe me, I will warn you one more time. That person has always given me an unusual feeling."

"The truth is in front of you."

"Are you sure that you truly have control over him?"

The first voice sneered, "Humph! I have drawn out the power of the backlash from my main body and turned it into a curse I can control. As long as I touch flesh and blood, I can immediately lock onto Ning Qin. Even if he has a thousand methods he can give up on breaking free from me!

"You should be aware of the power of the backlash that my main body experienced in the past. Do you still believe that Ning Qin has the power to resist? If I control him, that is the same as cutting off the master's final path of escape. As long as everything goes smoothly, you and I can be truly reborn!"

"I hope you are right." The other voice quietly muttered.

In the darkness, there was a cold chuckle. "Of course I am right. From the beginning, I have always been right!"

"Master, I have respected you for countless years, feared you for countless years, hidden from you for countless years, hated you for countless years. Now, I fervently hope that you can arrive a bit earlier...I will wait for you so that we can settle all our grudges!"

...

That Dorelis had actually been speaking the truth.

After Qin Yu passed news of this to the Dark Parliament, he soon received a response. While their words appeared fairly calm, they couldn't conceal the surprise and heat within them.

These people knew of the existence of the Myriad Dragon Body and were very interested in it.

After receiving confirmation from Qin Yu, the Dark Parliament sprang into action. Senators Jasmine and Lone Mountain personally arrived at Midmorning City.

Senior Lin was closely monitoring Qin Yu's actions. But when the massive machinery of Dark Parliament began to move, even he couldn't completely block them from contacting Qin Yu.

It was unknown what sort of price the Dark Parliament paid, but Qin Yu soon welcomed the presence of two Senators at the lakeside courtyard.

Of course, the ones that came here were only puppets they controlled. Each Senator in the Dark Parliament was incomparably mysterious. Even the Senators themselves didn't know the true identities of each other.

Qin Yu glanced at the strong and sturdy man in front of him and the brown-haired woman beside him. Through their connection as Senators, they could directly determine each other's identities. He reached out a hand and said, "Senator Jasmine, Senator Lone Mountain, please take a seat."

Jasmine said, "Senator Morning Star, the Dark Parliament treats the news you sent us with the utmost seriousness. Today I came to confirm with you one final time that what you said is true."

Qin Yu nodded. "It is absolutely true. I can guarantee this."

"Great!" Senator Lone Mountain smiled. "Senator Morning Star, if everything goes smoothly then I will owe you a great favor."

Qin Yu revealed a puzzled look.

Jasmine thought for a moment and said, "Senator Lone Mountain doesn't have much life span left, but Sky Declaring Pavilion's Master possesses the legendary Myriad Dragon Body. As long as the parliament can obtain it, we can sacrifice it to the Dark Parliament in exchange for a gift. And, increased longevity just happens to be one of the gifts that the dark altar gives."

Qin Yu revealed an understanding expression. He cupped his hands together and said, "If so, then I must congratulate Senator Lone Mountain ahead of time. I hope you obtain what you desire."

Lone Mountain smiled. "I must thank Senator Morning Star for the information." If the Dark Parliament put forth their full strength, the chances of success would be quite high.

But even if this were true, no one dared to be careless. While the Sky Declaring Pavilion Master rarely appeared, according to the parliament's intelligence, he was a genuine top expert.

Moreover, he controlled the legendary Myriad Dragon Body that was said to possess infinite might and could destroy the heavens and earth. No one dared to underestimate the danger he presented!

"Senator Morning Star, our time is limited so we won't make any small talk. Please truthfully tell us everything you know."

Qin Yu nodded, "Okay."

Without concealing anything, he explained how the Sky Declaring Pavilion Master had asked him to treat the Myriad Dragon Body. Within this explanation, he didn't hide anything.

In any case, with the Dark Parliament's methods, if they made up their mind to verify something, then even the slightest discrepancy would be discovered. That wouldn't be good for him.

After listening to Qin Yu, Jasmine relaxed. She looked at Lone Mountain and said, "Here, allow me to apologize to you on behalf of the other Senators. The truth is that we had already investigated everything you have just spoken about...the reason is that Senator Morning Star hasn't been part of the parliament for too long, so it's inevitable for us to be cautious.

"But this time, you have proven yourself with your actions. The parliament promises that a similar matter will not occur in the future."

Qin Yu furrowed his eyebrows, a dark expression in eyes. "I may understand, but I really hope this is the last time."

Lone Mountain laughed, "I knew that Senator Morning Star wouldn't care about such things. You and I have more important matters to deal with right now!" His eyes were bright and eager as he said, "The Sky Declaring Pavilion Master has asked Senator Morning Star to treat the Myriad Dragon Body; this cannot be any more perfect. But, I believe that Senator Morning Star should have the means to limit the Myriad Dragon Body's freedom."

Qin Yu thought for a moment and slowly nodded. "I can give it a try."

Lone Mountain and Jasmine left fully satisfied. Since they had determined the truth of the matter, then the Dark Parliament would begin to make preparations.