Chapter 2

Three years later

Ananda POV

"Double O74 report?" Cindy asked. I groaned jumping of the building landing gracefully.

"My name is Amanda not double what ever you just said. I'm just infiltrating the facility now the target seems to be heavily guarded" I said leaning against the wall. Why am I wearing this I know it's stylish but come on(pic above).

I hate this I'm the best assassin there is and there treating me like crap. Oh wait I have to say something. I'm now an assassin when I ran away I went to my aunt Natalie she's an assassin which is cool.

So she ended up training me and all that junk till here I am about to assassinate one of the most feared criminals in the world for seven million dollars. Why? Because it fun to kill people over the three years I ran away became cold ruthless I only have a soft spot for family and friends.

Since my family which includes my brothers and aunt can take care of them selves I don't need to worry much. I took a deep breath through the black cloth that was wrapped around the lower part of my face they say I have to do it.

As I stepped in I immediately was greeted by sleeping guards. Really you sleep on the job.

'I'm hungry' Danger whined. I huffed she ate yesterday. Oh sometimes I eat the souls of the people I kill.

I walked to the prison where my target was held while taking out all the cameras. This is too easy.

"Ah you came" he greeted.

I huffed "I had to come".

"What do you want?" I asked annoyed with him, he knew he was going to die so I don't know why he's so happy about it.

"Oh nothing" he said his answer laced with sarcasm. I rolled my eyes he didn't even put up a fight.

"You want me to kill you don't you?" I asked him.

"You finally get it" he laughed. I smirked he's a highly trained assassin yet still he's a bad guy. I finally get a challenge.

"You know I could just kill you" I stated looking at my nails I was not in the mood of argue.

"So why don't you?" he asked I rolled my eyes.

"I need a challenge something to keep me occupied do you know how boring it is to just kill someone and the worst part if I get caught I get killed" I told him.

"Are you done making small talk?" I heard someone say oh shit. I turned around to see the guards all up and running with guns in there hands.

"Oh look there finally up" my target said holding on to the metal bars. I glared at him this is all his fault.

"So babe are you going to just stand there or give your self up?" a guard asked holding a gun to my head. I put my hands up in surrender while smirking.

"Good girl now come with us" he said taking a grip of my hand. I twisted his hand then kicked him in the shin, taking out my new favorite dagger I stabed him in the chest taking away his gun.

"Put your hands up!" someone shouted I turned around throwing my dagger which hit him straight in the head.

"Stay down!" another guard shouted firing a bullet. I dogged easily really that's the best you can do.

Multiple gun shots where fired but I caught all of them.

"Do you not know it's not nice to hit a lady?" I asked the jumping in the air while throwing back the bullets. They all dropped do dead by the time my feet touched the ground.

I heard someone clapping in the background turning around slowly I saw my target just standing there holding the keys to his cell. How the hell did that happen.

"How sweet up took out the security for me" he cooed walking up to me. I growled.

"Now now be a good dog" he said pointing at finger at me.

'I'll show you dog you son of a bi-' I cut Rouge off I really don't need her complaining right about now.

"Why bother your just going to die" I said folding my hands over my chest.

"No that's what you don't understand I won't die but you will" he said holding a little remote in his hand. Is he going to blow the place up what is he sick.

"Are you crazy?" I asked him. He laughed

"I prefer the term mentally challenged. But for your case call me crazy. If you excuse me I have a plane to catch" he said a the ceiling collapsed reveling a helicopter.

"Good bye my dare friend I hope to see you soon" he said climbing up the ladder while the helicopter flew off.

"Fuck you" was all I said before walking away leaving the dead guards there to mind there own business.

****

"Nooo!" I screamed. Nova huffed throwing her self down. I stuck my tongue out at her.

"You have to or you'll be in so much trouble" she said looking through my closet.

I don't want to go to that stupid masquerade ball. Why? Aunt Natalie said and I quote' you must keep your self presentable at all times you must not lower your social status'. Just because she's going doesn't mean I have to go this is crap.

"Relax you need a break from all this stress losen up have fun" Nova said jumping up and down.

I huffed "Easy for you to say you don't have to come" I said sitting down in front of my vanity.

There was a knock at the door who could it be? Opening it cautiously I was greeted by Samantha a half human half ghost so she can talk to Nova too. She an assassin as well but she said she going to work with her dad who's a spy I'm thinking about that too.

"Why are you here?" I asked her she was smiling like an idiot.

"Natalie told me to help you get ready now come on well have work to do" she said forcing me to sit on the vanity chair. Oh boy here we go.

"And done. Now you can fest upon my masterpiece" Sam said to Nova who was sitting patiently this isn't fair I tell you. It's an outrage. Samantha was all dressed up her hair brown hair was in a half up half down with light curls. Let me say this her outfit was simple yet cute(pic below).

I didn't hate how I looked I just didn't want to go and the worst part I'm supposed to sing to everyone like seriously. I stared at myself in the mirror the girl looking back at me was not the same girl from three years ago she's not afraid to speak her mind she's independent and that's how I like it.

My dress wasn't that fancy. It was a red sleeve less cocktail dress with black stilettos, a silver belt with silver bracelets and a heart shaped necklace. My hair was pulled back to form a neat side bun with a red roses hair clip hair clip holding it together. I had on a silver mask which made my brown eyes stand out more. The only makeup I had on was red lipstick a touch of mascara and some dark eyeshadow.

"Finally were done" I rejoiced getting up from my seat.

"Not so fast. Bring your clothes" she told me. I huffed

" I already have them on now the limousine is waiting downstairs let's go" I said dragging her downstairs.

"Bye Nova" I yelled closing the door.

"Wait I'm coming with you" she said coming outside.

"Why?" I asked.

"Because I'm bored Jake I go to vist his parents in the ghost realm" she said.

"But your not dre-how did you get dressed so fast?" I asked. She was dressed in a black version of Samantha's dress with white heels, a white mask and a white head band her hair in a half up bun she looked good.

"Oh that reminds me we have to go to the ghost realm it's a more private matter" I said getting into the car.

They nodded. We have this little group we deal with supernatural beings that don't really listen to rules and regulations of the Council.

What is the Council? Well its a group of supernatural beings that are set over us other supernatural beings there like the government. Each council member represents a different supernatural so it's even. They are like tyrants but even if there tyrants they are the ones set over us so we have no choice.

We don't really work with them we work with our selves but since there the council we have to listen to them so it's kind of boring. Other than the fact that we get to travel the world fighting bad guys. Like superheroes. But we're better since we can actually kill people. Sorry it's a habit. I just have to kill to survive literally.

"Where here" Nova yelled snapping me out of my thoughts. I'll tell you more later.

"Uh Nova how are you going to come with us?" I asked the ghost. She smirked at me.

"Did I not tell you I'm a hybrid" she said turning her self solid again. My jaw dropped we have been friends for like forever and I did know how did I not sense this how.

"I'm half demon half vampire" she said.

"Yo-o-u where a hybrid this whole time" I started yelling she nodded.

"Let's just go" Samantha said opening the door which lead to the red carpet. I'm like eighteen years old. Well everyone here is at least eighteen years old so I don't worry much.

"Okay guys relax all we have to do is go in and look pretty and come out easy" Samantha said walking gracefully on the red capert. I rolled my eyes she's such a drama queen.

"Good evening ladies may we please see your invitation?" a guard asked he was cute but not that cute.

"Of course" Nova said smiling.

Does this mean she's alive or is she still dead? I wonder. Maybe it's only for a specific time? Wait can't a Grimm Reaper bring the dead back to life or something? No! I think.

"Enjoy the rest of you afternoon" he said opening the door for us. I smirked and walked in so did Nova and Samantha.

As I stepped in I felt a powerful energy wave but it was different like there was a dark presence. It got stronger the further I went in the room. What the hell is going on here.

"Do you guys stay feel that?" I asked the others they nodded looking around. Where is it coming from.

"Stay alert guys what ever this is it isn't here to give up free candy so I suggest you keep your eyes open" I said they nodded and we continued walking around the room.

"So Nova how are you able to show your self to everyone?" I asked the ghost.

"Well since I'm a hybrid as you know demons can travel from the underworld to the human world so that's what I did" she replied taking a sip of her drink.

I suddenly felt a surge of power like an energy wave. "We need to get Samantha" I told her masking both our sents. Who ever is causing this isn't someone you should mess with.

"Where is Samantha?" Nova asked starting to panic where is she this isn't like her.

"Nova your disappearing" I told the ghost as she started to become transparent again with the green is glow returning.

"Let's go" I said dragging her towards the exit but we were stopped by two girls dressed in very short black dresses with high heels and bunny ears they screamed slut. Why are they blocking our exit.

"Would you like to try a flaming flower" one said holding a tray which held what looked like orange flowers that seemed to be laced with a certain type of powder.

"No thank you" I said as I felt Nova's other hand starting to fade as well.

"No we insist" they persuaded that's when it hit me. Looking around I realized everyone was acting all crazy. What The Hell.

"Try a flaming flower" another insisted. I turned her down again.

"Flaming flower?". Every once in a while I would look at Nova her hands were almost completely gone. How do I know this? Because the green glow is coming back.

"Flaming flower?" another girl asked. This time I took it a waited until she was gone then I burned it up and let the ashes fall to the ground. Everyone was acting way weird what the hell is going on?

"Okay Nova here eat this it gives you half an hour more so you don't look like your arm less" I told the ghost giving her a pill I had in my pouch. She took the pill and immediately her arms came back the green glow faded.

"Good evening ladies and gentlemen" someone's voice boomed.

"I have gathered you today to celebrate a momentous occasion. Today we launch the new product breath of pleasure" the same voice repeated. I spotted a guy that looked like he was in his early twenties, he had brown hair black eyes?

"Are you seeing the smirk on his face?" Nova asked that's when I realized that he was smirking. But why?

"Breathe of Pleasure will be released for public viewing in the next two months but just for your enjoyment heres a sample of the product" he said holding up a small orb which was yellow in colour.

He waved his hand and some people wearing air masks came on stage holding more of the yellow substance. Why are they wearing masks? I mean I'm wearing a mask but why are they wearing breathing masks.

"We need to find Samant- there she us" I said as I spotted the Burnette who was looking around.

"Samantha!" I called out her head sudden snapped in my direction.

"Where were you guys?" she asked us.

"Looking for you" I replied.

"We need to get out of here now!" she said.

"Whats going on?" I asked but was interrupted by a ear peirceing scream.
