Chapter 504: Chapter 504 – Long live Alpha Denver and Luna Paris

Murmurs broke out as Moonlight stood up to the girls. Everyone was happy, but the girls could not leave until they saw Denver to remove the curse he had silently placed on them for their misdeed.

Therefore, they chose to endure the humiliation. The coronation was unexpectedly over attended due to the news of Paris's transformation. Everyone wanted to see for themselves, but in the pack house, three ladies were chatting excitedly.

"London, I wish I had met Denver sooner. He makes me feel wanted every time I spend time with him," Paris said excitedly. London smiled with moist eyes.

"It's true. I have never seen you as happy as I see you here," she agreed, adding, "I can't believe you both spent six days indoors."

She had also been marked and mated with, but they couldn't spend all their days indoors like that, still touring around the pack.

"Same here. I can't believe it," Zoe chimed as she worked on the pins effortlessly. Due to Paris's platinum blonde hair, it blended quite well with the color of the diamond pins, making her beauty extraordinary.

"I mean, I've also shifted, mated, and been marked, but we got some breaks in between."

Paris laughed. "I guess Denver's libido is just higher, but somehow, I am able to match it, and my body always feels ready the moment I lay eyes on him. He's so handsome, and he's just every woman's dream."

Zoe sighed. "Well, that's because you are his mate. Men in this family don't cheat, so they are always obsessed with their women."

"That is what I observed. All the men in this pack have just one woman," London added. "I wish I could stay, but Grant has great responsibility in Vegas, so we will come visit later."

"I look forward to it, and you both look stunning," Paris said. She loved London, but the attachment to her was no longer there. Instead, she was addicted to her man.

"Well, I have to be honest. You are the most beautiful woman in this pack and any other," Zoe said honestly. Paris shook her head.

"No woman can match mom in terms of beauty, brain, strength, and power. She has it all. Aunt Alice is also very stunning and powerful," she pointed out.

"I agree with you, Paris, but I stand with Zoe. Your beauty is rare, and if you weren't my twin sister, I'd be jealous."

Paris was dressed in a white gown glistening with little diamonds, making her look like a bride.

She still insisted in her heart that her new mom and Aunty were the most beautiful women she ever met but did not voice it.

Denver, Grant, and Monterey, dressed in identical cream tuxedos, looked stunning as the three of them walked to the luxury tent.

Grant went to join Alpha Denzel and Luna Valerie, as Denver and Monterey waited on the stage. When Denver's eyes met with those of the two girls, he scoffed and looked away.

The MC went ahead with the show, announcing Zoe first. She walked in with London, as London went to sit beside Luna Valerie. All families and friends attended the occasion, and the moment Paris was announced, everyone was eager to see her.

They were not disappointed when she appeared at the doorway, not looking like the woman who accompanied Denver to Moonlight's coronation.

"What happened? Magic or what?" They heard someone ask from the crowd. Denver smiled, and as soon as Paris's eyes met with the two girls, they were miraculously healed.

They began screaming from where they sat. "Thank you, Denver, thank you, Paris. You are the most beautiful woman in the world," they said honestly.

Moonlight was upset and spoke up. "Denver, you shouldn't have healed them."

Denver smiled at her. "I know, but I'm in a very good mood. You know what happens when I'm in a good mood."

Moonlight understood and did not argue anymore. "I'm so happy to see you happy. You and Paris are a match made in heaven."

Alpha Denzel stood up and took over the ceremony. "Monterey, you have been like a son to me. Do you agree to take up the position of the beta of this pack, to support your Alpha, and represent him anytime the need arises?"

"Yes, uncle, I do."

Alpha Denzel smiled and moved to Zoe. "You, Zoe, are equally my daughter. Do you also pledge to support your mate at all times, and protect the pack even as you enjoy the benefits thereof?"

"I do, dad," Zoe said. Everyone laughed as Alpha Denzel turned to Denver.

"Denver Denzel, my son. Are you ready to assume the position of the Alpha of the Evergreen pack, to protect and defend it at all times?"

"You know I am," Denver said casually. Alpha Denzel smiled and turned to Paris.

"My daughter, Paris Denzel, do you accept to be a member of this pack?"

"I do," Paris smiled and said as Alpha Denzel continued. "And do you also vow to support your Alpha as the Luna of this pack, to protect and defend it, even as you enjoy its benefits?"

"Yes, I do."

"With everyone in agreement and those seated among the audience as witnesses, I hereby transfer the title of my Beta, Burke to his son, Monterey. From today onwards, he shall be addressed as Beta Monterey and shall be supported by Zoe."

Alice was the most excited as she gave a standing ovation. When the applause died, Alpha Denzel addressed his son.

"Denver, I transfer my authority and position as the Alpha of the Evergreen pack to you. You shall hereby be addressed from now onwards as Alpha Denver Denzel."

Excitement brewed from all angles, and when Alpha Denzel faced Paris, he said to Denver, "You are now the Alpha."

Denver nodded as his claw elongated. He pierced his wrist with it and offered it to Paris. "By tasting my blood, you shall become a member of this pack by blood."

Paris nodded her head as he offered his wrist, and she sucked his blood. The next moment, she screamed from pain as Denver embraced her to calm her.

Just as Denver warned, voices rummaged through her mind from all angles as Alpha Denzel declared.

"From today onwards, you shall be addressed as Luna Paris Denzel."

The congratulatory messages were just too much as music flooded the atmosphere, and the entertainment took over.

Denzel made an announcement. "Anyone who wants to stay can stay. For the next two weeks, we shall continue the celebration of peace."

The auditorium broke out in cheers as that was the first time former Alpha, Denzel declared anything like that. It meant that he was extremely happy.

A lot of people stayed, and preparations were made for them.

Grant and London returned to Vegas after the coronation. Alpha Denver and Luna Paris escorted them to the chopper.

The twins embraced each other and were emotional, but there were no tears as they both knew that happiness was all that awaited them.

Even if Grant and London spent more days, they knew that Paris and Denver would not be there to entertain them. Those two enjoyed their own company too much.

As expected, the new Alpha and his Luna only entertained their guests for two days before making themselves scarce and leaving the rest of the responsibility to their parents.

They continued what everyone termed as a honeymoon for a whole week. No one was surprised when Paris was found to be pregnant when she came out after that one week spent indoors.

"She's pregnant," Alpha Denzel announced during supper. Paris was stunned. "How can you tell, dad?"

"If he says you are, then you are. He's always been sensitive," Valerie smiled and said to her.

They were very excited, and nine and a half months later, she delivered quadruplets as Denver predicted.

Oh, he felt the labor pain intensely beside Paris throughout her delivery of the four pups. Denzel introduced the quadruplets, two boys, two girls, as Denver predicted to the pack as soon as they were born.

"This is a sign that this pack has a bright future," he announced. Everyone cheered as they had another party lasting two weeks to celebrate the peace and the new life.

Over the years, all of Denver's family friends, including Moonlight, Adira and Raven's children and his cousins, all had pups of their own, bringing joy and happiness to all families.

Denver caught his parents kissing one hot afternoon and went to confront them. "Aren't you guys too old for that?" To him, intimacy and romance should be reserved for people his age.

Valerie and Denzel laughed but did not utter a word. Only if Denver knew how much they made love every night, but some things were better left unsaid. With time, Denver might just experience it himself.

"Why don't you go take care of your pups? Are you tired already?" Denzel asked teasingly, Alpha Denver smiled.

"I can never get tired of them. I'm going to be with my pups and Luna."

Denzel and Valerie watched as he went to where the pups were playing with Monterey and Zoe's pups.

"See, we won after all," Denzel said, Valerie agreed. "Yes, we have children and grandchildren and are still madly in love with each other."

Their lips met again and pulling away, they caught Alpha Denver staring at them and laughed. "It's a beautiful day, let's go take care of our grandchildren," Valerie said, Denzel agreed.

"Yes, you are right. Have you noticed how they grow so fast?" His hands rested on Valerie's waist and Alpha Denver nodded.

This was true love and he knew he would have same or even better with Paris.
"The future is bright," he murmured.

THE END.
