

Chapter 25 : Responsibility

Alpha Roman had the urge to do something violent. Those urges were rare and had the tendency to appear during arguments, and only when the other party touched his bottom-line. All of a sudden Alpha Roman didn't know what to do.

That girl, Anaya, who was unconscious inside, had nothing to do with him. Still he wanted to protect her and give her some care. This unusual feeling was making him uncomfortable from the inside.

And even while he was uncomfortable about this strange feeling, he was even more anxious about Anaya's health. The whip marks, the broken ribs, just how much did that girl suffer in her pack? Was she even treated like human? Alpha Roman's eyes flashed with black for a moment, which scared the doctor and Easton.

"Alpha." Easton called out in concern, wondering what triggered his Alpha's wolf.

"Call that girl out." Alpha Roman said in a deep voice which was an indication that he was upset.

Easton sighed, he felt bad for Anaya too. Such inhumane behaviour, no one deserved it. He knocked on Charlotte's door to call her out.

The doctor needed Anaya's information to get her admitted in the hospital and neither of them knew her. Only Charlotte could provide her basic information.

Charlotte opened the door clueless about the situation outside. Alpha Roman and Easton have the same impression of her - Careless kid.

As an important part of the werewolf community or even as an elemental, Charlotte was expected to be alert of her surroundings but here she was wearing her headphones, completely worry free of what was going on.

"Um." Charlotte saw the three people outside on the corridor and thought they were finally going to give her some attention. She also noticed the doctor's coat.

"Am I supposed to have a medical test? But I have already eaten today..." Charlotte said. The doctor pursed her lips and looked at Alpha Roman. Alpha Roman looked away, trying to calm himself down.

'I didn't expect this at all.' Alpha Roman thought. He thought that since Charlotte was an elemental, the pack would put some effort into her but apparently she was just a kid in need of education.

"You can get a medical examination if you want later. Right now the doctor is here to check Anaya." Easton said.

Charlotte raised an eyebrow, "Anaya? What happened to her now?"

The lack of concern was highly suspicious.

"Anaya has to be admitted into the hospital so we need to fill up some details. You are the only one here who knows a little about Anaya so do co-operate." Easton continued.

The doctor took the opportunity to add, "Usually if the patient is from another pack, we run a complete test on their body to get some more information about them but since the patient is from the Alpha's mansion, we won't do that. All in all we need her full name, age, pack name, her Ranking if she has any, if underage, then we'll need a signature from her guardian as well."

Charlotte was not used to Anaya being attended to. After every beating Anaya was left alone for a while to apply medicine and then she often got back to work. How come she fell sick as soon as they arrived to the southern warrior pack? This was all a drama to grab attention, wasn't it?

Since everyone was watching and waiting for her to give the information, Charlotte had to speak up.

"Her full name is Anaya Joel Braunt. She is seventeen years old I think. We both are from Blue Stone and she doesn't hold a rank."

Charlotte felt like she had seen through Anaya's fainting drama and purposely gave a little misinformation about her age. Although it won't change anything, at least her treatment will be delayed by a little. This will teach her a lesson. Why did she have to pretend like those wounds are something big? Anaya never fainted at home before, all the punishments were silently handled.

Did she think that since mom and dad aren't here it's a chance to gain sympathy and run away? Charlotte internally snorted. She won't let that happen.

"Because she is a minor, we cannot admit her without the consent of a parent or guardian." The doctor said as she looked at Easton and Alpha Roman. With her expression one could say that taking Anaya to the hospital was important.

Easton said, "I will contact blue moon pack -"

Alpha Roman interrupted him and said, "Leave it. I'll come with you to sign."

"You? Why?" Easton was shocked.

"Because her treatment is important and it will take at least three to four hours even if her parents are informed. I will sign for her and inform her parents about this."

Saying that Anaya's family or the pack didn't give a damn about her seemed inappropriate in front of the doctor. It wasn't his business to publicize Anaya's relationship with her pack to others.

Easton couldn't refute Alpha Roman's reasoning, "Okay then."

The doctor understood this as well and agree to it easily. She confirmed the other details with Charlotte once again and concluded, "I will arrange an ambulance to take her to the hospital then. Alpha Roman will have to follow us for the procedures."

"Okay."

The doctor went away to give the hospital a call for an ambulance. Alpha Roman leaned on the railing, stuffed his hands in the trouser pockets and closed his eyes for a second.

Charlotte was left dumbfounded at the decision made by Alpha Roman. Anaya wasn't a relative of his, nor did they know each other. Then why was he so adamant on taking her to the hospital?

Charlotte knew that a little bit of rest is enough for Anaya. That girl never needed medical attention before.

(A/N - More like she never received any care.

Anaya had to learn to take care of her own wounds
T~T)

"You don't have to do that Alpha." Charlotte said softly, "Anaya is very clumsy and often hurts herself badly but it's not too much. She will be fine after a day of resting.."

Alpha Roman suddenly opened his eyes and looked at Charlotte with black eyes. His spring like blue eyes were completely covered, the tolerance he had for Charlton was getting thinner and thinner.

"Not too much?" Easton said incredulously, "You call that not too much? The only reason we are not asking about Anaya's injuries is because it's not our place to interfere in her matters, the most we can do is get her to the hospital, or you and your family would have already been under investigation for injuring a minor!"

(A/N - Remember Charlotte said she's 17).

He purposely didn't say 'abuse' because the situation wasn't clear yet. Easton didn't want to accuse someone without proof but he was still mad at the way Blue stone was managing it's pack. How did Anaya get to this state? Clearly she wasn't taken care of. What kind of family neglects their family members like this?

Charlotte was flustered with the questioning. She was never treated this way before. Her words were always taken seriously no matter what she said. No one refused her, ever. Blue stone pack had pampered Charlotte so much that she had forgotten what it was like to be reprimanded by someone.

"If you can't say anything useful then it's better you don't say anything at all." Alpha Roman said.

Charlotte's face flushed in embarrassment. This was the kind of treatment she was expecting. Charlotte, heck her entire family and even the Alpha's family, thought since Alpha Roman had specifically asked for her they would give her a good treatment.

Charlotte assumed she was special since birth because her mother said so. She was an elemental after all. Preferential treatment was normal for her. Then why does Alpha Roman not treat her like she was special? All the special treatment was given to Anaya ever since they arrived.

Charlotte hated Anaya for taking it from her. Charlotte could feel the fire burning inside her. The more she thought about Anaya, the more angry she got. But even though she wanted to do something, it will be frugal in front of Alpha Roman and his Beta. Charlotte wasn't strong enough to fight them, even if she was an elemental.

In order to make things smooth, Charlotte sprouted a bunch of lies.

"Beta Easton, I am sorry if I said something wrong. You have misunderstood me. I am just saying that Anaya gets hurt very easily and heals slowly. It's just how it's been. My family has taken care of Anaya for a long time so we know how she is. Anaya hates the hospital facility and prefers to stay home and get better."

Alpha Roman rolled his eyes at Charlotte. He couldn't believe she was still going at it.

"Well, she is passed out right now so we can't say what she prefers. I am the Alpha and currently responsible for everyone inside the borders of my pack and I decided what happens to them. It will be better for you to not interfere."

Easton nodded righteously, "Yes, Alpha is right."

"You shouldn't interfere. Anaya will be taken to the hospital as the doctor suggested."

The doctor came back after arranging the necessary things for the ambulance, "Alpha, the ambulance will be here in a few minutes."

Alpha Roman nodded, "Is there anything else that needs to be arranged?"

"Not for now Alpha."

Alpha Roman said, "If there is anything then let me or Easton know. We will be following behind in the car."

Charlotte felt like today all her plans were failing. Since they did not fall her words, Charlotte had to put on an innocent image in front of them.

"Alpha Roman is so kindhearted. You can even go as far as to help a stranger. I don't understand why others think you are heartless." She said to flatter him and put on a shy expression as she looked away.

Easton felt a shiver down his spine. At first he thought it was due to her cringe worthy flattering skills but soon he found that it was due to the coldness radiating from his Alpha.

An Alpha's aura was very powerful. The stronger the Alpha, the more powerful his aura. In that case Alpha Roman's aura was suppressing to a painful degree.

"Those rumours aren't baseless." Alpha Roman said, "I can be quite heartless when I want to be. So be careful, you don't want to see that side of me."

Charlotte felt fear in her heart. She shouldn't have said anything to begin with but his concern for Anaya was pissing her off. Why did he have to be so caring towards Anaya but when it comes to Charlotte, Alpha Roman has that cold look in his eyes?

Charlotte nodded and looked down, just like Anaya did in Blue Stone.

The ambulance arrived within a few minutes and they took Anaya downstairs and into the ambulance. Alpha Roman and Easton got into the car and followed behind. Charlotte was left alone at the mansion.

"That Anaya won't be any useful to you. In the end you will have to come to me." Charlotte mocked once they were gone. She called her mother to tell her everything.

"Hello mom?" Charlotte spoke when the call was answered.

Ginny was happy to have Charlotte's call, "Hey sweetie, Alpha Clark informed us that you got there safely. How is everything? Do they treat you well?"

"It's fine here. I liked blue stone better. Alpha Roman is not as smart as others say and he doesn't treat me well." Charlotte complained.

Ginny got concerned and asked, "Why? Did he say something bad?"

"It's all because of Anaya. She fainted as soon as we got here and now Alpha Roman and his Beta are all over her to make sure she gets all the medical attention. She never needed one before but now she wanted to grab all the attention to herself. And Alpha Roman is rude to me. He says mean things and only cares about Anaya. Am I the one he asked for or Anaya?"

Ginny huffed, "That girl keeps on creating trouble everywhere she goes. Don't mind her Charlotte. If she makes things difficult for you then you can do whatever you want with her."

"But what about Alpha Roman? He doesn't like me, how will I get close to him?"

"Alpha Roman seems like a dense person, but be patient. He will come around eventually. I've read that if someone is a bit mean to you that means they have interest in you so don't give up. You are his responsibility, he can't do anything to you. Be confident and whenever you get a chance, keep reminding Anaya what she is and what her place is."
