

Here I Come

Layla's POV

So that bh was pregnant with my man's baby! I wanted to kill her the day Killian brought her home. I had just gotten him back when he had to go to a meeting to discuss a possible treaty. We had made love to each other before he left making plans for when he returned. BUT he had brought her. I could smell him all over her so I knew they completed the mating process.

I slammed the door of the pool house in anger. That bh was getting everything I wanted. I wanted Killian, I was his mate not her. I was supposed to be Luna and be the one to bare him pups not her. She is ruining everything. I went to find my phone. I was horny as ever because I was in heat and Killian had just denied me because of her! I found my phone in the living room. I snatched it off the side table and called Warrick. Warrick was the Pack's Gamma and third in command. I waited for him to pick up, "Why hello Layla Babe!"

I smiled at the sound of his voice, "Come over I am in need of you."

Warrick: "You still in the Alpha's pool house?"

Me: "Yes. I need you in so many ways."

Warrick: "I will be there in a ve."

I hung up the phone. I wanted Killian but I would settle for Warrick. He would please me for now but I had to find away to get Killian back from her. What did she have that I didn't? Oh wait I know she was now carrying his pup. I always knew Killian wanted pups and he would do anything to be apart of his pups life. That got me to thinking. What if I could get pregnant? I could pass the pup off as his. Once I tell him that I am with child would he get rid of her? I knew he still wanted me, I saw the lust in his eyes when he walked into the kitchen.

Yes my plan would work, I just had to get Warrick to agree to help me. Which all I had to do was tell him he could fk me anyway he wanted and that I could probably get Killian to name him as the new Beta. Yes I was wanting to get rid of Ashton as well. He always thought himself to good for me. I heard Warrick knock on the back door then walked in. As soon as I saw him I rushed at him. I would pleasure him first then get him to agree. I threw myself at him and he caught me in his arms.

I kissed my way to his earlobe, "I want you to fk me long and hard."

He set me down on the ground and pulled off my top leaving my breast exposed. He then ripped off my shorts. I was completely naked in front of him. HE stood there looking at me, waiting for me to make the next move. I dropped down to my knees and pulled his shorts down. His dk sprang to life. I brought my mouth to his dk and started to suck it. HE had a nice size dk of 7 inches and it was thick. It wasn't Killian's 10 inch dk that would fill me up but Warrick's would work for now. I moved my head faster feeling that Warrick was close to coming. I grabbed the base of his dk to help speed up his c*m. I heard him growl as his sperm coated my throat. I smiled up at him, "I will give you more pleasure and a lot more if you help me with my plan."

Warrick pulled me up, "Tell me everything."

He followed me to the kitchen and threw me on to the counter so that my ass was to him. He started to rub his still hard ck at the entrance of my py. I moaned with pleasure, "I want Killian back."

Warrick stopped moving, "You want him, then why am I even here?"

I pulled him back to me so that his dk was back to rubbing me again. I lifted up a little so that I could place his ck where I need it. He let his ck enter my py a little, "I can make you the next Beta."

That earned me pleasure as he slide in another inch. I stood up a little, "Killian's mate is with child. He plans to make her Luna tomorrow. I want to destroy her. I want Killian back. I can get rid of Ashton, the bh and the pup but I need your help."

Warrick pushed me hard against the counter then slapped my ass. God I loved it when I was treated rough. Warrick moved another inch into me, "How?"

I was on the verge of going crazy if we didn't finish this. I attempted to move again but Warrick spanked me again, "I asked you how slut?"

God Warrick was working me into a frenzy. I need to c*m, "I plan to tell Killian that the pup she carries isn't his. I need you to get me pregnant so I can pass the child off as his. Think of it, you will be beta, our child the next Alpha, and I will still let you fk me any time you want."

Warrick slammed his full length into me as hard as he could. God yes this is what I needed. He pulled me by the hair, "I agree to your plan now shut the fk cunt and let me fk you."

I was smiling as Warrick continued to fk me like a slut. I was going to get what I wanted.

Watch out Killian here I come.
