

Fully Exposed

Charlie's POV

I leaned up and kissed Killian on the cheek. Did he really think that I would give him into him so easily. He was about to be put to work. I faked a yawn, " Raincheck, your pup is making me sleepy."

I started to walk away from him but he pulled me back, " Oh no you don't you been teasing me all night. I plan to make you moan all night. You can sleep tomorrow."

I smiled at how good i felt to be in his arms. He was kissing the back of my neck as he unzipped my dress. He let it fall to the ground. I stood before him naked. He bent down to pick my dress off the patio oor. I giggled, " Killian we are still outside."

He was slowly taking off his black button down shirt, " I know this. I plan to make love to you every room in this house."

I giggled more, " So we are starting with the patio?"

He nodded. He nally nished undressing. God I forgot how sexy he was especially naked. He walked to me and picked me up bridal style. He walked us in to the pool. He placed me at the beginning of the stairs. he slide me between my thighs. He kissed the inner part of my thigh lead straight to my entrance. I leaned back leaving myself fully exposed to him. I jumped as soon as I felt him suck on my clit. I moaned out his name from pleasure. He then decided to heighten my pleasure by placing two ngers in my py. I started to move my hips to match his pattern. He continued to eat me out causing me to orgasm twice. I whimpered when he moved away from me. He grabbed my hand and pulled me into the pool with him. He led me to one of the pool jets. He started to kiss my neck, " Will this hurt the pup?"

I moaned as he started to kiss my mark again, " No it won't."

He picked me up a little so that the jet was hitting my clit and entered me from behind. OH GODDESS! the pressure of the water hitting my clit and having Killian ram his ck into was sending me into over drive. I was having to use the edge of the pool to stay up right. Killian pulled my legs up so that the jet was hitting my clit harder and so that he could pump into me harder. I was so close, " YES! DON'T STOP!!"

He didn't stop. He actually sped up causing to climax hard. I knew he wasn't close at all. He was bound to kill me with an orgasm. He let go of my legs and whispered in my ear, " What I am about to know may hurt a little but I promise you will enjoy it."

I could only nodded. He pulled me away from the jet and I whimpered a little. HE laughed, " Did my little LUna like feeling the water on her clit as a i f*d her?"

I nodded. He led us back to the steps. he told me to grab the steps railing. I did. He let me go so i could oar there in the water. He slide back between my legs and started to slam into me hard and fast. I held on to the railing as hard as I could. He was right it did hurt a little but it felt heavenly. I was moaning louder than before, " KILLIAN I AM ABOUT TO c*m!!!"

He sped up even faster. I let out a low growl as he came with me. I was slowly coming back down to earth when he told me that he wasn't done with me.

Goddess save me.
