

Gender Revealed

TWO WEEKS LATER

Charlie's POV

I woke with the urge to puke. It had been two weeks since since the Crowning and every day had been perfect. I had spent every day with Killian. If we weren't making love then we were handling pack business or hanging out with Ashton and TA. I rushed from Killian's bed and straight to the bathroom to throw up. Ugh the pregnancy was messing with me. I was an emotional mess and I found myself puking ever 4 hours. Killian came into the bathroom and held back my hair so I didn't get puke in my hair again.

I finally stopped puking. Killian let go of my hair and handed me a wet washcloth to wipe my face. I leaned against Killian's legs, "How much longer is this going to last?"

Killian kissed the top of my head, "I don't know my love. We can ask the good Doc when we see her today."

I smiled at that. Today we would find out the gender of our pup. Killian had been counting down the days. Killian and I both decided we had wanted a girl and were hoping for a girl but either way we just wanted our pup to be healthy. Killian helped stand me up when we heard a knock on the door. Killian went to answer the door as I started to brush my teeth. I could hear Ashton's voice in the other room, "It is almost time to find out what gender our JellyBean is gonna be!"

I would have laughed but I was busy getting the taste of puke out of my mouth. We had been referring to the baby as JellyBean since Killian told me that is what he thought he saw in the picture when we found out I was pregnant.

I spit out the tooth paste and washed my mouth out with water. I walked out of the room and hugged Ashton, "Ash where is TA?"

If you wanted to find Ashton or TA most of the time they were together or knew where the other was. I was happy that two of my favorite people were together even though they denied it. Ashton bit his lip (his tale of bad news), "She said she was gonna visit Beta Alec for a few days."

He seemed a little upset. I had told him that my Uncle Alec and TA were close and that TA was helping my Uncle who was helping me leave my old pack. I grabbed his hands, "Hey she will be back soon. Plus Alec won't let anything happen to her."

Ashton gave me a slight smirk. Killian walked out of the closet dressed let me know that I needed to get dressed as well since my appointment was in 15 minutes.

Once I was dressed and we were on our way to the doctor Killian's phone kept going off. I was used to it since other Alphas had been calling him lately to congratulate him on finding his mate and getting me pregnant. I realized that instead of answering his call he kept letting them go to voicemail. It made me smile to know that he cared more about knowing about our baby then being congratulated for knocking up your mate.

I got all signed in and was waiting for the doc to call me back. I was slowly getting nervous. I placed my hands on my now very visible pregnant belly. Killian placed his hand on my knee, "Everything will be fine babe."

I smiled up at him. My name is called and we head to the back. Ashton was told that he had to wait outside which hurt him a little. I promised to get a video and a ultrasound photo for him which made him smile. I changed into the small gown and when I sat down on the table Killian walked up next to me and pressed his hard ck against my thigh. I rolled my eyes at him, "How can you be hard at a time like this?"

He started to nibble on my earlobe, "I am always hard around you. Plus with you in that tiny gown just gives me a fantasy that we might act out later."

I kissed him. We pulled apart when the nurse walked in. I laid down as she spread the jelly on my big stomach. The jelly was cold as ice. Killian was holding my hand as we both stared at the monitor that would show us our JellyBean. After a few minutes the nurse finally found our pup. Tears formed in my eyes. Our pup was a tiny little thing. The nurse flipped a switch so we could hear the heart beat. Killian brought his face closer to mine. I could feel him smiling, "So is it a boy or girl?"

The nurse zoomed in closer, she pointed out the heart, one of his arms, and then she found the s*x. Killian started jump and shouting with joy and I brought my hands to my head. Oh Goddess I am going to be one stressed out momma.

Once I was redressed we were given the dvd and a handful of pictures. I was fighting the urge to smack the cheesy grin off his cute face. Ashton was outside pacing, he looked up at us, "SOOOOOO"

Killian smiled even bigger as he handed Ashton a ultrasound picture. Ashton brought it all the way up to his face, "So this is the JellyBean, but is a girl or boy?"

I looked at Ashton, "We are having a boy!"
