

Glimpse of the Past

Layla's POV

I looked down at the pregnancy test. It read negative. DAMN IT! I had thought that my plan would work. Have numerous amount of s*x with Warrick and I would end up pregnant. UGH! I had to think. I heard laughing from coming outside around the pool area. I looked out the window and saw Ashton, Killian, soon to be Alpha Orin, and the bh. I opened the window so I could listen into the conversation.

Charlie's POV

" We are having a boy!" I said loudly. Orin let out a loud WHOOP and pulled me into a hug. Killian was still wearing his cheesy smile. Ashton broke out once again into a dance. I swear you would think I just told them I found the cure against Silver posioning.

I started to smile as well. Yes I wanted a girl but I knew deep down I wanted a boy. I hoped he looked just like Killian but acted like me. Ashton had decided that we ould do a cook out and placed steak on the grill. Orin went and grabbed every one a beer and grabbed me Orange Juice. As soon as he open the beer I pulled it out of his hand, " What the hell do you think your doing O?"

He looked shocked, " I was celebrating the good news."

I placed my hands on my hips and took a very motherly stance. All three of them laughed at me. I scoffed, " You can have one and only one."

The all laughed again and all I could was smile while shaking my head.

Layla's POV

So the bh was having a boy.It was suppose to be me!!! I furiously grabbed my phone and called my Aunt Sienna. I waited for her to pick up.

Sienna: " Hello Layla."

Me: " Aunty Sie I need your help!"

Sienna: " Let me guess you want to get rid of Charlie."

Me: " Yes. I thought I would try to get pregnant and try to pass the baby off as his but I am not pregnant."

Sienna: " Have you tried to presuade him by telling him that Charlie was carrying Ashton's pup and not his?"

Me: " Not yet."

Sienna: " Well get to it. Make him listen and if he doesn't believe then contact your Uncle Muary. He will send in the same rogues who killed her mother. Now I must go."

Sienna hung up. I had forgotten all about Uncle Muary. Uncle Muary was a Rogue Alpha. When Sienna had fallen in love with Alpha Brenton who was mated to Luna Haysl who had just welcome Charlie into the world. It took Sienna a year to talk Uncle Muary into attacking the Blue Moon Pack and killing the Luna. She didn't waste time in marrying the Alpha and getting pregant.

I didn't want to go down that road just yet. I would try to convince him that Ashton was really the father of the bh'S child and not him.

I had to convince him tonight.
