

So It Begins

Killian's POV

I watched as Ashton placed Charlie in on of the SUVs with our Warriors and made his way to our vehicle. Ashton opened the driver side door and started the engine and took off. After a few minutes of silence Ashton spoke, " So a mate?"

I laughed, " Yeah a mate, Lyla ain't gonna like it at all"

Ashton gripped the wheel tighter, " No she won't. you know she has been waiting for you to make her Luna and now we are returning with our Luna. What you gonna do Kill?"

I was silent as I thought about what he said. Lyla and I had been on and off again for over 4 years. I don't even know if we are even in a relationship but I do know that just because Have a mate and a Luna for my pack doesn't mean I am giving up Lyla. I would make Lyla understand everything. I looked out the window and thought back to the moment with Charlie's legs wrapped around me as I f*d her py. Just remembering that moment made me hard as a hammer. I needed to have her again. I looked at Ashton, " How much longer till we are home?"

Ashton looked at the GPS, " 5 minutes till we reach our border and 10 til we are back your place. Why what's up?"

I couldn't wait 15 minutes to have Charlie again. I needed her now or I was gonna blow, "Once we Pass the border pullover. I want to have a little chat with the Future Luna. "

Ashton started laughing uncontrollably. " Oh a little chat huh?"

Me: " Shut the Hell up."

Ashton: " What you need to get your dk wet?"

Me: " Just wait til you have a mate that is a hot piece of ass."

Ashton: " As long as my mate looks like our Luna then I will be happy to fk her anytime."

I growled at Ashton, " She is mine pup. You touch her and I will rip you into pieces or I will throw you in caves for a week. "

Ashton shook his head, " All I am saying is that our Luna is beautiful. I know she is yours and don't plan to touch her. I want my own mate."

We sat in silence as we passed the border. Ashton pulled over and so did the other two SUVs. I walked to the one Charlie was in and opened her door. She was laying down in the back seat asleep. She looked so angelic that i didn't want to wake her, but I had an itch that need to be scratched. I place my hand on her shoulder and she sat up and twisted my hand as if she intended to break it. I hissed in pain, " Babe let go. I was wanting to show you something and need you to come with me."

She let go of my hand and crawled out of the car. I shut the door and motioned for them to proceed to my house to wait for us. Charlie was rubbing the sleep from her eyes, " What do you want to show me?"

I grabbed her hand and led her down a trail that exited into a meadow. The moon was full tonight so you could see everything clearly. We were surround by black moon roses and tall grass. I pulled Charlie to me and kissed her. I thought she would ght me or not kiss back as she did last time but her mouth opened up. She moaned with excitement and I pulled her closer so that she could feel my erection. She pulled away, " So Alpha what is it you wanted to show me?"

I stepped away from her and started to undress myself. Once I pulled all my clothes off I looked at her and saw hunger in her eyes. Her brown eyes trailed my body and lingered on my ck. She licked her lips and it caused my dk to get harder. She took a step toward me and ran her hands all over my chest and abs. She allowed one hand to go even further and wrapped her slim nger around my ck. I growled how amazing it felt to have her hand there. She didn't move her hand so I pushed myself inn her hand, " fk me Charlie. "
