Ex-Husband Wants Badly to Resume Their Marriage Chapter 34

How Dare She Blacklist Him

Hearing these words, Tiffany remembered what she saw at the door of the ward last night.

She was hesitating whether she should tell Sharon about that shameless man secretly kissing her while she was asleep.

Tiffany asked, "I saw Jameson yesterday. What did he say to you?"

Sharon was speechless when she heard Tiffany's question. After a while, she replied.

"Nothing important. He asked me to return his money. But he also said Martin wouldn't marry me because I was a divorced woman."

"What's wrong with him?"

"No kidding, ever since we got divorced, I've felt there's something wrong with him."

Something sounded...

At this time, they heard knocks on the door from the outside.

Sharon and Tiffany stopped talking and looked over at the same time.

They saw a woman, wearing sunglasses and a mask with a bouquet of flowers in her arms, who was standing at the door.

It took Tiffany a long time to recognize her.

She was stunned for a moment before she said, "Giana?"

Giana took off her mask and closed the door, waving her hand at them, "Hi, I'm here to visit the patient."

Although the two of them weren't very close, they were still ordinary friends.

That was because Tiffany had filmed several covers and advertisements for Giana.

However, Giana and Sharon didn't know each other.

Therefore, Tiffany was a little confused.

She didn't know why Giana had come here.

After Giana entered the ward, she put the flowers in the vase and then explained, "Yesterday, I heard that the designer of Lumiere Jewelry was hospitalized. I'm not busy today, so I come here to see you. Are you okay?"

Sharon also heard that Giana helped them finish the last two shows last night, so she nodded and said, "I'm okay. Thank you."

In fact, Giana was entrusted to come here today.

Jacob had no idea how solve the problem with Lumiere Jewelry's staff, including Sharon, who mistook Mr.Proctor's kindness to her as a high-profile courtship for Sheila.

Jacob had to explain it to Sharon before he told Mr.Proctor everything.

Otherwise, if Mr.Proctor knew the truth, he would really send Jacob to hell.

Hence, Giana, who was about to leave the company and go abroad for vacation, became Jacob's life-saving straw.

Jacob believed that she and Sharon would chat happily because she always dared to contradict Mr.Proctor.

In addition, Giana had helped Lumiere Jewelry so much yesterday, so Sharon wouldn't refuse her.

As for Giana, she also became curious after Jameson said confidently yesterday that others were peeking at him, and someone asked her to help Lumiere Jewelry walk the show.

Giana wanted to figure out what had happened, so she came here today.

Giana smiled and said, "You're welcome.I'm also not busy today.By the way, I heard that Mr.Proctor gave the qualification to a designer.Did you get it?"

Hearing this, Sharon and Tiffany were both puzzled.

Tiffany said, "Didn't that Mr.Proctor found an excuse to flatter Sheila? Why would he give it to a designer?"

"I don't know.I also heard it from others."

"You must have heard it wrong.Mr.Proctor will not be so kind.He had given Lumiere Jewelry a lot of benefits for the sake of Sheila lately."

Giana nodded in agreement, "Yes, Mr.Proctor is not a kind person."

As Giana spoke, she continued that topic.

"But, he had used the public relations team to help Lumiere Jewelry, which proved that he wanted to be a kind person and make more friends."

Tiffany was speechless.Sharon was also speechless.Actually, Giana was a little tired.

She felt it was too uncomfortable to beat around the bush like this.

She felt that either there was something wrong with Jacob's expression, or there was something wrong with her understanding.

What did he mean by "letting Sharon know that Mr.Proctor did it for her, but also not letting her become too proud?"

When Giana heard this sentence, she could tell that it was Jameson's order.

After falling silent for a while, Sharon changed the topic, "Do you want to eat grapes?"

She was longer interested in why Jameson flattered Sheila.

Just let them do what they wanted to do.

Giana was stunned for a moment, and then she quickly understood what she meant and replied, "Okay."

After sitting down, the three of them tacitly didn't mention Jameson and Sheila.

Giana was eating grapes while trying her best to continue the topic again.

She didn't know how to lead Sharon into believing that Mr.Proctor did it for her because she was not an expert in negotiation.

Moreover, she knew that Sharon didn't want to talk about it, so it was not easy for her to continue the topic again as a visitor.

A few minutes later, Giana wanted to leave.

"I'm leaving now.Have a good rest."

Sharon smiled and said, "Thank you for coming."

Tiffany stood up and said, "I'll see you off."

After leaving the ward, Giana couldn't help but ask, "Does Ms.Allyson hate Mr.Proctor very much?"

"She doesn't hate him.She just doesn't want to have anything to do with him anymore."

"I see.Mr.Proctor can be very self-centered and straightforward.Many people will get angry when they talk to him."

Tiffany knew that Giana often complained about Jameson in private.

"He is more than just self-centered.He is too stingy.I have never seen such a stingy boss like him.No wonder his son is going to call someone else dad" Tiffany said.

Giana was shocked.

"What?"

Only then did Tiffany realize that she was so excited that she almost spilled the beans, "I'm just making a metaphor.Anyway, he and Sheila, that pair of the shameless couple will pay for what they have done sooner or later, definitely!"

Hearing that, Giana stopped and told Tiffany why she came here today.

"I heard that Mr.Proctor had nothing to do with Sheila.The reason why he helped Lumiere Jewelry recently was not Sheila.Instead, he did it for..."

Tiffany said seriously, "I know.He must want to drive Sharon out of Lumiere Jewelry, so he did that."

She had divorced him, but he still didn't give her any chance to live.

Jameson was really a bad person.

Giana laughed dryly and wondered how much fear Mr.Proctor had planted in that poor girl.

However...it seemed that her visit had backfired.

Giana told what happened today to Jacob with great regret.

After Jacob heard what Giana said, he didn't know how to tell Jameson about it.

After half an hour, he knocked on the door of Jameson's office in fear.

After reporting to Jameson about today's work, he said helplessly, "Mr.Proctor, Lumiere Jewelry..."

"We just cooperated with it a few years ago.Why do you keep mentioning it? If you like Lumiere Jewelry so much, I'll permit you to leave my company now."

Jacob didn't dare to reply.

Mr.Proctor was so angry today.

In this case, Jacob didn't dare to say anything but left Jameson's office as soon as possible.

A few minutes later, Jameson put down his pen and tore off the paper with the wrong name.

He crumpled it into a ball and then threw the ball into the trash can.

Sharon, what an ignorant woman she was! Did she think that she could get rid of him just by returning the money? How dare she blacklist him!
