

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3111 -3120

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3111-“Mm, okay.” Upon hearing Wulfric’s agreement, Central Boss immediately felt much more at ease.

As a clone of Brahma, he was quite familiar with Wulfric’s situation and knew that Wulfric’s power level already reached the super state of Saint State!

Although Leon was very strong, after the two fights, he already saw that Leon’s power level was only at The Semi-Saint State at most, which was still quite some distance from the legendary Saint State.

Thus, he was sure that with Wulfric’s power level in The Saint State, he would be able to kill Leon and help avenge him! “Oh, by the way, your power level is a bit too low and you have not yet reached the true Semi-Saint State! In the next two days, I’ll find a way to help you level up and break through to The Semi Saint State! After I get rid of Leon, you should be able to rise again and rebuild your family with your strength,” said Wulfric after some thought.

Upon hearing this, Central Boss was overjoyed and quickly thanked Wulfric respectfully, “Yes, thank you for your help, Master Brahma.

” Around the corner outside the door.

At that moment, Leon was standing quietly in the corner, his face filled with killing intent.

He secretly followed Central Boss ever since the latter infiltrated the Chanters.

He heard the conversation between Central Boss and Wulfric and guessed that Wulfric must be the true Brahma behind Central Boss! His first thought was whether he should take action immediately to see if he could take advantage of the situation to eliminate both Central Boss and Brahma and capture these two dangerous villains all at once! However, after considering the situation, he hesitated.

Firstly, the side effects of The Dragon Pill would enter the recovery phase soon.

After the previous two fierce battles and delays, the effects of The Dragon Pill in his body were about to dissipate, and it would not be long before he entered the recovery phase.

Secondly, he knew nothing about the true Brahma’s situation and was unsure of his power level.

However, he could vaguely guess that Brahma’s power level was certainly not lower than Central Boss’s, probably at least at The Semi-Saint State, and possibly even reaching the extremely high level of the Invincible Semi- Saint State! Such power was not inferior to his own at all! It would be extremely difficult if he wanted to rely on his strength to kill both Brahma and Central Boss.

Moreover, this was the stronghold of the Chanters, a place filled with fighters.

He would be immediately surrounded if he alerted the fighters by forcibly attacking Brahma and Central Boss and alerted.

At that time, the side effects of entering the recovery phase could lead to him falling into their hands! That would be akin to courting death! He hesitated with that thought in mind, unsure whether he should forcibly take action or leave and plan further.

“Who is hiding outside? Show yourself!” Just as Leon was deep in thought a sudden change occurred.

A powerful burst of true energy pierced through the door, rapidly sweeping toward him.

“Oh, shit!” Leon was greatly shocked.

He reacted swiftly, stepping forward and immediately using the ultimate power dasei technique,

Phantom Steps.

He then vanished like lightning in the blink of an eye whoosh at the same time Wilfrid appeared at the spot where Leon stood.

His face was gloomy, his gaze cold as he looked around, but he saw no trace of anyone.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3112-“Master Brahma, what happened?” At that moment, Central Boss came out of the room, his expression a mix of confusion and uncertainty.

He had no idea what happened.

“Nothing, perhaps I was just seeing things,” Wilfrid frowned, his expression slightly easing.

He vaguely sensed that someone was spying on them from outside the room but the reality proved there was no one there.

Of course, with his formidable power at The Saint State, if there truly were someone outside, they would not have been able to evade his attack and keen eyesight! Since there was no one outside, he figured that he might have been momentarily paranoid about Leon, leading to a misjudgment.

Aside from that, he could not think of any other possibilities! As for Central Boss, he believed he successfully escaped Leon's clutches and was unaware that Leon possessed the Soul Searcher, a pill adept at tracking.

Even if beaten to death, he would never have thought that Leon secretly tracked him! Thus, he did not take the matter to heart and followed Wulfric back into the room.

Outside the courtyard wall, Leon was quietly lurking below.

His face was filled with shock! He was contemplating whether he should forcibly try to take action against Brahma and see if he could eliminate both Brahma and Central Boss at the same time.

However, with the attack Brahma just launched, he realized that the opponent's power level was not just at The Semi-Saint State as the Central Region Dragon Corps reported, but already reached the super state of The Saint State! That was not something he could contend with! At that moment, he dared not linger any longer.

He quickly and quietly left the place, planning to think things over again once he got back.

In the villa at Pearl Garden Estates.

When Leon drove back home, Cynthia, Ruth, and Mason already returned from the Summers'.

At that time, the effects of The Dragon Pill on Leon's body gradually dissipated, and he was about to enter the recovery phase.

Seeing that Leon's complexion was not looking good, Cynthia and Ruth quickly stepped forward to support him and helped him back to his room to rest.

In the bedroom, Leon lay on the bed and rested for a while.

Once he regained some strength, he immediately took out his phone to make an urgent call to Pierre Thames, the head of the Central Region Dragon Corps, so that he could inform him about Central Boss and Brahma.

Pierre was greatly shocked by the news.

He immediately put aside his work and headed to the address Leon provided with his men.

After arriving at the villa, Pierre, along with Zach and several other fighters central Region Dragon Corps, met with Leon privately in the room.

Seeing Pierre and the others, Leon-despite his weakened state- greeted them, "Pierre, I didn't expect we'd meet again.sp)sdoh after parting ways in the Southern region."

"Indeed! I didn't expect you to arrive in the Central Region so quickly, and to track down Brahma's whereabouts," Pierre said, visibly moved.

The last time he met Leon in the Southern region with Alfred, Leon mentioned his intention to track down Brahma's Whereabouts "and eliminate him! However, considering Brahma's high power level and his skill in concealing his movements, neither Pierre nor anyone in the Central Region Dragon Corps took Leon's words seriously.

However, within just a few days of arriving in the Central Region, Leon indeed tracked down Brahma's whereabouts.

It was truly unbelievable, nothing short of a miracle! Even then, they felt as if they were dreaming, unable to believe it was true.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3113-"Mister Wolf, you say Brahma's true identity is someone from the Chanters.

Is this true? Could.

you be mistaken?" Zach could not help but ask.

Roderick and the other Central Region Dragon Corps fighters' expressions became serious when they heard the question.

"I'm not mistaken.

It is true," replied Leon with a nod.

Earlier, when he called Pierre, he did not have time to explain in detail.

Now that Pierre and the others arrived, he recounted how he defeated Central Boss and tracked him to find Brahma's true identity.

"So Brahma's true identity is Wulfric! No wonder we couldn't find any useful clues even after investigating for so many years!" After listening, Pierre's face turned very grim.

Wulfric was the highest-ranking figure in the Chanter family, a generation above Aiken Chanter, the head of the Chanter family.

However, it was rumored that Wulfric went into seclusion more than twenty years ago.

He withdrew himself from all worldly affairs, and to that day, very few people knew for sure whether he was alive or dead.

Moreover, the Chanters, being the leading family among the Three Major Families of the Central Region, had a legacy spanning hundreds of years and held high prestige in the Central Region.

It was inconceivable that they would engage in any nefarious activities.

Thus, the Central Region Dragon Corps never suspected that.

Brahma was connected to the Chanters, let alone that Wulfric could be Brahma himself! That was, not until Leon uncovered this information.

Although all this was based solely on Leon's account without any concrete evidence, Leon was a Platinum Dragon Guard of the Southern Region Dragon Corps, which made him one of their own.

Additionally, Leon previously helped the Dragon Corps eliminate several notorious criminals from the wanted list, proving his reliability in both character and ability.

Thus, they naturally would not suspect Leon of lying or intentionally defaming the Chanters with regard to his investigation results.

Moreover, Leon had no grievances with the Chanters, so there was no reason for him to slander them.

"Pierre, what should we do now? Should we go back and gather fighters, then immediately go to the Chanters to arrest Central Boss and Wulfric?" Zach inquired.

"Well, I'm afraid that won't work.

According to Mister Wolf's account, Wulfric's power level has already reached the super state of the saint state if we act rashly we might not be able to handle him with our strength alone," replied Pierre with a shake of his head, feeling somewhat heavy-hearted.

He learned that Wulfric's power level reached The Saint State from Leon's account.

Although the Central Region Dragon Corps boasted numerous fighters, Pierre was the only one who reached the saint state! Apart from him, there were three Semi-Saints, with the rest comprising fighters at the Advanced Almighty state and Peak Almighty State.

The Chanters, as the leading force among the Central Region's Three Major Families, possessed profound strength and heritage.

Both Aiken and the Beezel Chanter were peak Semi-Saints! Additionally, Wultric, whose power deyeckreached The Saint State, and Central Boss, whose strength was close to The Semi-Saint State, further bolstered their formidable lineup.

This made them nearly on par with the Central Region Dragon Corps in terms of strength! the chanters would undoubtedly not easily hand over Wulfric and Central Boss for prosecution if the Central Region Dragon Corps were to try to apprehend them rashly without solid evidence.

In the event of a conflict, attempting to capture Wulfric and GentrabBOss would be nothing short of a fantasy for the Central Region Dragon Corps!

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3114-"Pierre, what do you suggest then?" Zach asked.

"In my opinion, we need to strategize carefully.

I plan to visit the Jansons and the Suttons later to see if I can persuade them to send fighters to assist US in dealing with the Chanters.

If both families are willing to help, it would make this situation much easier."

Pierre paused for a moment before continuing, "The Jansons and the Suttons, like the Chanters, are among the Three Major Families of the Central Region, with substantial strength and resources.

With their support, it would be three against one which would greatly increase our chances at success." "Yeah, that sounds like the best approach," said Zach with a nod, finding Pierre's plan more prudent.

"Mister Wolf, there's something else I want to discuss with you.

I've made some progress on your previous request for US to help find the Supreme spiritual herb Heavenly Flower.

If everything goes well, we should be able to locate the Heavenly Flower in about a week," Pierre shifted the topic, looking at Leon.

"Oh? That's great!" Leon's face lit up with joy.

He entrusted the Central Region Dragon Corps with finding the Heavenly Flower to heal Renee, who was in a coma.

"I feel completely relieved now that I know the Central Region Dragon Corps has led on the Heavenly Flower!" "In addition, your recent elimination of Hades and your tracking of both Brahma's clone and the original have once again greatly benefited US," Pierre added.

"So feel free to let US know if you have any other requests.

We will do our best to fulfill them," added Pierre.

"Other requests? Now that you've asked, I do have one," Leon's thoughts stirred as if he recalled something.

"Pierre, there's a highly valuable and rare heavenly herb called the Holy Spirit Fruit.

Have you heard of it? If possible, I hope the Central Region Dragon Corps can help me find a Holy Spirit Fruit.

It would be tremendously beneficial to me." At that point, Leon's sage arts power level reached the Advanced Golden Core Phase, and the next step was the Peak Golden Core Phase.

Beyond that lay the Great Crossing Phase, which required the Holy Spirit Fruit to strengthen the foundation and break through the barriers of the sage arts.

Once his power level broke through to the Peak Golden Core Phase, he could then use the Holy Spirit Pill refined from the Holy Spirit Fruit to elevate his power level straight to the Great Crossing Phase! Of course, all this hinged on him getting a Holy Spirit Fruit in the first place.

In addition to this, the power of the sage arts's Great Crossing Phase equaled that of a martial artist in The Saint State! Once his sage arts power level reached the Great crossing phase coupled with techniques like The Dragon Pill and the Mirror of Sovereignty, no Saint state powerhouse would be his match! At that point, he would achieve tremendous accomplishments in martial arts that few could ever hope to reach! "Holy Spirit Fruit? To be honest, we happened to acquire a Holy Spirit Fruit two years ago.

That Holy Spirit Fruit is currently kept in the Central region Dragon Corps medicinal repository," Pierre said with a smile.

"What? Really?" Leon was overjoyed upon hearing this.

Originally, he thought that finding the Holy Spirit Fruit would be quite a challenge given its extreme rarity and value.

He never imagined that the Central Region Dragon Corps already had a Holy Spirit Fruit in their possession.

This truly felt like a blessing from the heavens! His joy was indescribable.

“yes!” Pierre nodded.

“If you need it urgently, I’ll arrange for someone to deliver the Holy Spirit Fruit to Docas soon as possible.”

“Great! Thanks, Pierre,” Leon said with a grateful smile.

The Ex-Husbands Revenge Chapter 3115—“Mister Wolf, you are quite weak and need to rest well, so I won’t disturb you any longer.

I will now head to the Jansons and the Suttons to talk with them about teaming up to deal with the Chanters.

I will inform you once this matter is settled, and then we’ll need your help in dealing with the Chanters together,” Pierre said as he prepared to leave.

He knew very well that dealing with the Chanters was a serious matter and could not be rushed.

All of them—the Central Region Dragon Corps, the Jansons, and the Suttons—would need some time to properly prepare before taking action.

Moreover, Leon previously killed The Demon Lord and Hades, and defeated Central Boss twice, so his power level was at least at The Semi-Saint State.

Such formidable strength should not be underestimated! The Central Region Dragon Corps would certainly need Leon’s help if they wanted to deal with the Chanters.

Naturally, they could not leave Leon out of this.

“Alright, no problem!” Leon agreed readily.

After that, Pierre said his goodbyes and left the place with a few fighters from the Central Region Dragon Corps.

Before leaving, considering Leon’s weakened state, Pierre made sure to leave Zach behind to ensure Leon’s safety and to protect him from any potential troublemakers.

Over the next two days, Pierre secretly contacted the Jansons and the Suttons.

They made plans to take action against the Chanters in three days.

After that, Pierre immediately informed Leon of this plan and arranged for someone to deliver the heavenly herb Holy Spirit Fruit to him.

Upon receiving the Holy Spirit Fruit, Leon began preparing to refine the Holy Spirit Pill.

In addition to the Holy Spirit Fruit as the main ingredient, many rare supplementary ingredients were also required.

Having only arrived in the Central Region a few days ago, Leon was unfamiliar with the local herb market.

Therefore, he turned to Howser, asking him to help procure the necessary ingredients.

Knowing Leon's exceptional talent and high power level, Howser— along with Percival and others—was eager to befriend Leon and naturally agreed to his request without hesitation.

It took less than a day for Howser to quickly gather all the required ingredients and deliver them to Leon.

With the materials in hand, Leon began refining the pill and soon successfully produced the Holy Spirit Pill.

However, the only regret was that his sage arts power level was only at the Advanced Golden Core Phase and was yet to reach the Peak Golden Core Phase.

Even though he successfully refined the Holy Spirit Pill, he could not use it to elevate his power level to the Great Crossing Phase.

Thus, he decided to keep the Holy Spirit Pill for future use.

On another note, during these two days, Shally successfully acquired a large piece of clear green jade for him.

Considering the formation setup, besides the large clear green jade, he also purchased eighteen clear jade tablets from Shally for other uses.

On the morning of the third day, on the back mountain behind the villa, Leon carried all the jade items and headed alone to the mountaintop to start setting up the formation.

Originally, he bought these jade items to create an Energy Gathering Circle to channel the spiritual energy from the mountaintop down to the villa.

However, his plans could not keep up with changes! Since he tracked down Brahma's true form and realized that brahmas power level was far greater than he imagined, having reached the formidable Saint state, this put significant pressure on him.

Consequently, he decided to change his plan.

Using the eighteen jade tablets he previously purchased, Leon first set up an Energy Convergence Circle.

Then, with the large piece of premium jade and the additional eighteen jade tablets he bought later, he installed a Nine Solar Gathering Circle on top of the Energy Convergence Circle.

Both the Energy Convergence Circle and the Nine Solar Gathering Circle could aid him in cultivating sage arts.

Combined with the super training treasure, The Spiritual Pearl, these three methods together could significantly boost his sage arts power level in a short period.

Leon planned to use this opportunity to try and elevate his sage arts power level from the advanced golden core phase to the Peak Golden Core Phase, and then use the Holy Spirit Pill to break through to the Peak Great Crossing Phase.

He would not have to fear Brahma and the Chanters as long as his sage arts power level reached the Great Crossing Phase.

This would also ensure that the plan to deal with the Chanters would be foolproof.

The Ex-Husbands Revenge Chapter 3116-Whoosh! After setting up the Energy Convergence Circle and the Nine Solar Gathering Circle, Leon took out The Spiritual Pearl and activated its power.

The Spiritual Pearl floated into the air.

He then sat cross-legged in the center of the Energy Convergence Circle and the Nine Solar Gathering Circle, activating the sage arts to begin his focused training.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh! This time, his training method was different from the past.

Previously, when Leon trained, he mainly relied on the Energy Convergence Circle to gather and absorb the surrounding spiritual energy, gradually converting it for his use.

However, not only did he absorb the spiritual energy gathered by the Energy Convergence Circle this time, but he also absorbed the spiritual energy from the jade pieces used to set up both the Energy Convergence Circle and the Nine Solar Gathering Circle! The spiritual energy contained within these jade items was extremely pure and rich, greatly aiding his training.

He could absorb and refine it all at once.

Although this method of training was extremely extravagant, almost akin to killing the goose that lays the golden eggs, he had no choice but to proceed to elevate his power level to the Peak Golden Core Phase.

Time slowly passed for a long time, and about four or five hours later, Leon absorbed all the spiritual energy on the mountaintop through the Energy Convergence Circle and Nine Solar Gathering Circle.

He also absorbed and refined the spiritual energy contained within those jade items.

Boom! Boom! Boom! At the same time, these jade items reached the end of their lifespan, and one after another exploded into dust and scattered in the wind.

In contrast, Leon, sitting at the center of the dual formation, wore an expression full of disappointment.

“What a pity, still just a little short,” Leon sighed, his expression tinged with helplessness.

Despite all the effort and meticulous planning, he failed to break through to the Peak Golden Core Phase.

However, his efforts were not entirely in vain.

This round of training significantly boosted his strength, leaving him just a step away from the Peak Golden Core Phase.

This was a small consolation for him.

“Since I didn’t break through with my sage arts power level, I might as well practice some Heavenly Class sage techniques.” Leon put aside his disappointment and began searching his mind for top -tier Heavenly Class sage techniques.

Among the inheritance left by his ancestor, aside from possessing Heavenly Class supreme techniques, there were also some Heavenly Class sage techniques and Martial Techniques.

Previously, his sage arts power level was too low, so he only practiced three Earth Class sage techniques.

However, this time he was ready to train in Heavenly Class sage techniques.

Given the substantial consumption of spiritual energy required for advanced sage techniques, Leon did not have the luxury of time and energy to train all three.

Therefore, he chose the most powerful one, the Heavenly Class sage technique "Phoenix Sky Fist," and began practicing it.

Boom! Boom! Boom! After some trial and error, Leon gradually managed to execute the Phoenix Sky Fist three times, quickly depleting his spiritual energy.

Compared to the large-scale Hurricane Break, the heavenly class phoenix fist consumed slightly less spiritual energy, allowing him to use it three times in a row.

This was quite satisfactory.

Next, he took a premium Spirit Nurturing Pill to replenish his o m depleted spiritual energy while continuing to practice the Phoenix Sky Fist.

Soon, he skillfully mastered this Heavenly Class sage technique.

Ring! Ring! Ring! Just as Leon was nearing the end of his training, an urgent phone ring suddenly interrupted him.

He took out his phone and saw that it was a call from Pierre.

Answering the call, he learned that the Central Region Dragon Corps.

planned to take action against the Chanters that/eVening. Leon left the hillside and drove to the Central Region Dragon Corps headquarters, where he met up with Pierre and the others.

At the prearranged time, the Central Region Dragon Corps, the jansons and the suttons launched their assault from three dierctions forming a grand offensive against the chanters

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3117-At the Chanters' Manor.

As the leading force among the Three Major Families of the Central Region, the Chanters were not foolish or inept.

When the Central Region Dragon Corps, the Jansons, and the Suttons assembled their fighters and prepared to confront the Chanters, Aiken—the head of the Chanters—already received the news.

Though he did not know why these three forces suddenly decided to launch an offensive against them, he immediately made proper arrangements, summoning the family descendants and fighters to prepare for this ambush.

By the time the Central Region Dragon Corps, the Jansons, and the Suttons arrived, Aiken already led a group of fighters and formed a battle array on the open ground outside the family estate.

When the three forces approached, they stopped five or six meters away, creating a standoff.

“Aiken, Percival, Alastair, what is the meaning of this? Us Chanters have always kept to ourselves and never interfered with you.

Why have you all united to attack US?” Aiken’s face was as dark as storm clouds.

It could not get any darker than that.

The Jansons and the Suttons, along with the Chanters, made up the Three Major Families of the Central Region.

Although there was no deep-seated hatred between these three powerful families, there was always a competitive relationship.

Aiken could grudgingly understand if the Jansons and the Suttons joined forces to attack the Chanters to seek some benefit.

However, the Central Region Dragon Corps, typically responsible for maintaining order and rarely involving themselves in martial world disputes, now allied with the Jansons and the Suttons to confront the Chanters.

This was beyond bewildering to Aiken, and he struggled to comprehend what could be behind this unprecedented alliance.

“Aiken, let’s not beat around the bush!” Pierre said sternly, getting straight to the point.

“According to our investigation, the Chanters’ ancestor is none other than Brahma, the number one villain on the Criminal list! We have come for him!”

“What?” Aiken and the Chanters’ fighters were shocked, unable to believe their ears.

“Wulfric is Brahma? This is impossible!” The Chanters’ ancestor, Wulfric, retreated into seclusion over twenty years ago, withdrawing from the martial world and its affairs.

They were unaware of what Wulfric did all these years in secret and had no idea that he was Brahma himself.

However, the Central Region Dragon Corps suddenly implicated the Chanters and claimed that Wulfric was the number one villain on the Criminal list.

Naturally, they found this hard to believe.

“Nothing is impossible! Aiken, Brahma’s crimes are heinous, and he deserves to be punished.

However, his crimes are his own and should not implicate the innocent descendants of the Chanters.

If you hand him over to US to get his just punishment, neither wethem central region Dragon Corps, nor the Jansons and the Suttons, will trouble the rest of you,” said Pierre sincerely.

Pierre knew well that the Chanters were the foremost of the three major families in the central region, a respected clan with a history spanning centuries.

It was unlikely that they would have colluded with Wulfric in committing such atrpaious acts, tarnishing their family’s reputation and honor.

Most likely, Wulfric’s actions had little to do with the descendants of the Chanters.

The Central Region Dragon Corps would not implicate innocent members of the Chanters because of one person’s deeds.

It would be the best outcome if Aiken and the Chanters could see reason and willing hand wultic over so that.

the matter would be resolved without any bloodshed.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3118-Well, this-” Aiken’s face turned pale, and he fell silent momentarily.

Wulfric was the last remaining of his uncles and a close relative.

He found it hard to believe Pierre’s claim that Wulfric was the infamous Brahma based on a few statements.

However, the Dragon Corps was a special department known for its impartial law enforcement.

Thus, it likely meant they had substantial evidence that Wulfric was indeed Brahma if the Central Region Dragon Corps dared to unite with the Jansons and the Suttons to denounce the Chanters.

Considering their formidable strength and the support from the Jansons and the Suttons, the Chanters would stand no chance if Aiken led the Chanters in defiance against the Central Region Dragon Corps.

This would undoubtedly lead to a catastrophe for the Chanters.

With this thought, Aiken's heart grew heavy, unsure of the best course of action.

"Nonsense!" A deep, cold voice suddenly echoed as Aiken stood in silence.

Two figures swiftly emerged from behind the Chanters and landed firmly in front of Aiken and his group.

The newcomers were none other than Wulfric and Central Boss.

"Uncle Wulfric, you're here?" Aiken and the other members of the Chanters could not help but breathe a sigh of relief when they saw Wulfric appear.

As for Central Boss—who was standing beside Wulfric—the Chanters heard about the recent destruction of the Micahs.

While they did not know why Central Boss was with Wulfric, this detail was trivial compared to the threat posed by the united forces of the Central Region Dragon Corps, the Jansons, and the Suttons.

"Master Brahma, that young man next to Pierre is Leon." Central Boss, full of resentment, glanced at Leon and then leaned in to whisper a reminder to Wulfric.

"So it's him!" Wulfric's gaze turned icy as he looked at Leon, a murderous intent clear in his eyes.

Since Central Boss sought his help a few days ago, Wulfric planned to personally kill Leon to eliminate the threat once and for all.

However, he never expected that before he could act, Leon would join forces with the Central Region Dragon Corps and come after him, even exposing his true identity as Brahma.

This development caught him completely off guard.

Remembering the recent incident where he sensed someone spying on him, Wulfric quickly realized the truth.

It must have been Leon who watched him from the shadows, and Wulfric's negligence in letting Leon escape now led to this predicament.

"Brahma, you finally dare to show yourself! You've been hiding in the shadows for years committing countless atrocities, so you deserve to die a thousand deaths! Now that your true identity is exposed, there's nowhere for you to hide.

I advise you to surrender and face justice to avoid implicating the m Chanters "Pierre said sternly, his gaze fixed on Wulfric.

Wulfric scoffed his demeanor calm and composed as if he were unaffected by the situation.

"Pierre, there's no need for you to accuse me without evidence you claim im brahma what proof do you häve? Show it to me!" "Well," Pierre was momentarily speechless.

While he knew Wulfric was Brahma, this was primarily based on Leon's fortunate discovery.

In reality, Leon had no concrete evidence.

The Central Region Dragon Corps

had been investigating Brahma for over twenty years and had somen circumstantial their ehcounters, but nothing definitive enough to prove Wulfric was Brahma.

Thus, with Wulfric demanding proof, Pierre found himself at a loss for how to respond.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3119-"You want evidence? That's simple! Old man, once we capture you, a simple search of your residence will likely turn up something!" Leon interjected with a cold smile.

"Hmm, that's true." Pierre nodded in agreement.

"Wulfric, if you're truly innocent, then surrender peacefully.

Let the Central Region Dragon Corps search your residence.

If we find nothing, we'll clear your name." Pierre knew well that if Wulfric was indeed Brahma, his residence would likely hold evidence of his illicit activities over the years— whether it was directing criminals listed on the Criminal list or involvement in more sinister deeds like murder and robbing.

All they needed was permission from the Chanters to search, and the truth would be revealed.

Wulfric laughed in anger.

“How dare you accuse me without evidence? Pierre, the Central Region Dragon Corps has no proof and yet expects me to surrender willingly.

And now you intend to abuse your authority and force your way into the Chanters to do as you please? Do you think US Chanters are so easily bullied?”

Over the years, Wulfric directed criminals on the list to gather numerous top-tier techniques and martial arts, all of which were hidden in his residence.

Naturally, he could not allow the Central Region Dragon Corps to search his place, nor could he surrender and admit to any crimes.

“So, I take it you’re determined to resist the Central Region Dragon Corps?”

Pierre retorted coldly.

“So what if I am?” Wulfric retorted.

“Pierre, the Central Region Dragon Corps is tasked with maintaining order in the martial world and should act with fairness and justice.

But now, you listen to slander and, without any evidence, seek to abuse your power and oppress the Chanters by falsely accusing me! “This is already a miscarriage of justice, and you’re no longer fit to oversee the order of the Central Region martial world.

Therefore, the Central Region Dragon Corps should step down and let the Chanters take over the management of the martial world!” With a cold scoff, Wulfric stopped speaking and unleashed a powerful aura, overwhelming Pierre, Leon, and the others.

“The Saint State!” “What a powerful presence!” Everyone present was taken aback when they felt the terrifying aura emanating from Wulfric.

Especially for Aiken and the other fighters of the Chanters, despite Wulfric being one of their own, they were unaware of his exact power level due to his seclusion for over twenty years.

It was not until then that they realized their ancestor became a Saint State powerhouse.

Previously, the Chanters were somewhat worried due to the combined forces of the Central Region Dragon Corps, the Jansons, and the Suttons.

After all, it was uncertain who would come out on top if the two sides were to engage in a battle.

With this realization, they felt greatly reassured and their anxiety diminished.

They feared that forcibly opposing these three forces would be akin to seeking their destruction.

However, after witnessing Wulfric's power level reaching the Saint state they realized they might just have a fighting chance against the Central Region Dragon Corps and its allies.

"Is the Saint State really that impressive?" Pierre scoffed.

"Since you're determined to resist, let's settle this will a had othe spoke pierre also unleashed a formidable Saint state aura, immediately countering Wulfric's oppressive presence.

The Ex Husbands Revenge Chapter 3120-"Central Region Dragon Corps, listen up! Move out immediately, apprehend Wulfric and Central Boss! Punish any of the Chanters accordingly if they dare to obstruct!" Pierre made a decisive move and promptly issued the attack order to his men.

While he understood that most of the Chanters present were likely not involved in Wulfric's wrongdoing, they would nonetheless be considered accomplices if they insisted on protecting him since that would be akin to aiding and abetting those on the Criminal list.

In such a case, the Central Region Dragon Corps would not show any mercy.

"Yes, sir!" Upon Pierre's command, the fighters of the Central Region Dragon Corps immediately encircled Wulfric and Central Boss.

"Chanters, heed my command! Prepare for battle!" Aiken raised his hand and without hesitation, ordered the Chanters' descendants to confront the impending threat.

The Central Region Dragon Corps was trying to arrest the Chanters' patriarch with nothing but unsubstantiated accusations.

That was truly outrageous! The Chanters naturally would not allow the Central Region Dragon Corps to have their way.

They must resist with all their might and settle this with a decisive battle!

“Attack!” Seeing both the Central Region Dragon Corps and the Chanters engaging, Percival and Alastair each gave orders to their respective fighters.

Immediately, they led their forces into the fray, assisting the fighters of the Central Region Dragon Corps in confronting Aiken and the Chanters.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Thus, a fierce battle erupted between the two sides.

“Wulfric, I’m coming for you!” Meanwhile, Pierre also joined the fray.

He leaped forward, delivering a powerful blow toward Wulfric with immense force.

“We’ll help you, Pierre!” Zach called out, rallying two nearby fighters from the Central Region Dragon Corps.

Together, they charged toward Wulfric.

They were all well aware that Wulfric was a Saint State-level powerhouse, whose power and strength were on par with Pierre.

Thus, it was unlikely Pierre alone could subdue him.

However, with the three of them, whose powers were only slightly beneath Pierre’s in the Central Region Dragon Corps, each of them having reached The Semi-Saint State, things were different.

With the support of the three Semi- Saint State powerhouses, and Pierre whose power level reached The Saint State, the four of them joining forces against Wulfric would likely be able to defeat him, apprehend him, and bring him to justice! “Good! Now I’ll let you witness my strength!” Facing the onslaught from Pierre and Zach, Wulfric remained undaunted.

Stepping forward, he swung both palms, carrying two immensely powerful true energies, swiftly meeting the attacks and engaging them in battle.

As the fierce battle erupted, Leon did not stand idly by either.

He promptly took out a Dragon Pill and consumed it, unleashing his inner potential.

Whoosh! As soon as the effects of the Dragon pill kicked in Leon leaped forward preparing to join pierre and zach in confronting wulfric However, before he could make his move, a figure suddenly lunged at him, intercepting his path.

It was none other than Central Boss!

“Leon, you deserve to die for.

annihilating my family today Will make you pay with your blood!

Behold, my Soul -Piercing Claw!”

exclaimed Central Boss bitterly With a glare filled with endless hatred.

Without hesitation, he swung his palm, unleashing his most powerful move, Soul-Piercing Claw.

Five fingers wrapped in a strange black mist, carrying an gret o m whelming forde like thunder, swiftly attacked

Leon!
