

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 101

Bard glanced over and the corners of his mouth lifted a little: "That's true, it's quite nice here."

Drake's eyes always fell on Sophia's body, only to see her in a red riding suit, open, handsome, noble aristocratic atmosphere, really let people can not move their eyes.

Cecelia noticed and hated it.

Flynn looked at her and whispered, "Cecelia, don't get me in trouble if you come over here, or I don't care about you."

"Got it!"

Although the mouth says so, but who knows what she will not do in private.

Sophia and her group went to pick out their horses, while Drake's group went to change into riding clothes.

By the time Drake and the others returned, Sophia and the others were already riding on.

Sophia and the others acted as if they hadn't seen Drake and the others and said with a smile, "How about a few of us race?"

Chloe was excited too: "Yeah, no problem!"

The four rode their horses to their designated spots, and Cecelia went to a waiter when no one else was looking, and slipped the money in her hand into his.

"Listen, do what I say and no one will find out it's you!"

"Yes!"

No one refuses the temptation of money, plus Price family's power, he really does not dare not obey, can only agree to it.

The four men went through at a whoosh at the command.

Bailey said in amazement, "I never thought Sophia's horse was so well ridden."

It's normal for the other three to be good, after all, they have been studying horsemanship since childhood, but Sophia, a commoner, how could she be so good at riding?

Flynn looked over at Drake : "Haven't you checked out Sophia? I always thought Sophia would be so much, not like a civilian woman at all."
