

Revenge On My First Love

Chapter 13 Drake, I Don't Owe You Anymore

And he was getting closer and closer, his body was about to come up.

Trying hard to suppress the tension, Sophia asked, "So, you're getting back at me for your fiancée?"

"Between you and me, don't mention those irrelevant people!" Saying that, his body really pressed against hers.

Why does this man look so tall, but surprisingly heavier than before.

"Mr. Riley, I can sue you for home invasion rape!"

Drake laughed a little, and that laugh had no warmth at all.

"I'm not happy when you say that, how I have to do something to make the charge more valid"

His hand rested unruly on her collar, as if to open the buttons of her dress.

Sophia Thriller.

Is this man for real?

Drake froze for a moment, but hadn't Sophia been with a lot of men over the years because of money? Why did it look like she was afraid when he just touched her?

Sophia had a vase in her hand and hit him hard on the head.

Drake is stupid!

Sophia took the opportunity to push him straight away and quickly ran towards the door.

But halfway down the road, the whole group stopped again and turned their heads to look at him.

Drake sat on the floor, reached out his hand, and touched his head, where it was already bleeding.

If just now he does not look like a home invasion rape, then this moment, I'm afraid it really looks like.

"Sophia!"

Sophia tried to run, but was shouted over by Drake: "Do you want the police to come and take you away for committing murder?"

She didn't know what happened, in fact, it was clearly not her fault, but looking at his forehead kept bleeding, she went back to his side.

"I'll take you to the hospital!" Sophia reached out her hand and helped him up.

Originally Drake was no big deal, just a simple treatment, but at this moment, he put all the weight of his body on her body.

Sophia : "....."

What did this man grow up eating, how could he be so heavy?

When Sophia had a hard time bringing Drake out, she was thinking of throwing him to the staff here, after all, she didn't know how much force she had just used and if it was really possible to hurt him to endanger his life, but looking at no one, she gritted her teeth hard and got him into the car and went to the nearest hospital.

Without Sophia's knowledge, Drake secretly sent a message to his manager: When I get back, I'll give you a raise.

At the sales office, cheers were heard.

Sophia got the person to the hospital and after doing some tests, she repeatedly confirmed with the doctor, "Doctor, is he really okay?"

"Yeah, no, just be careful that the wound doesn't touch the water and get infected."

Sophia was finally relieved that now she wasn't a murderer.

When she returned to the ward again, Sophia had a nonchalant expression on her pretty face: "Well, since there's nothing wrong with you, and I've paid the medical bills, I'll leave first!"

The wrist was grabbed by a man.

Drake pointed to the head injury: "How do you think my employees or my family should explain this scene if they see it?"

Sophia was particularly speechless: "You can explain it however you want! Of course, you can also tell them that because you tried to rape a woman and ended up being beaten by that woman, I don't care!"

It's ridiculous, it's already considered very righteous of her to send him here.

"Drake, I don't owe you any more, bye!" With that, Sophia sashayed away.

Drake laughed to himself, what the hell else was he thinking, thinking she was Sophia back then, seeing him bleeding and her crying?

Sophia soon moved to her new home, saying something about opening up the two houses, which was not necessary at all, it was big enough for her to live alone on one side.

As for the other side

Sophia, while opening the video, said: "Sisters, this time my house is even bigger, if you do not want to live with me, you can stay in the room next door for as long as you want, without charging you a penny!"

"I thank you!" Chloe rolled her eyes, "You have enough money to kill several people at once, and you have the nerve to ask us for money."

"By the way, the last time I gave you a run for your money 20,000 yuan hurry back!"

How realistic! Look, the money is not used, it has to go back!

Sophia's eyes narrowed slightly: "Don't worry, the money is in my hand, there is no reason to return it."

"Yes, Sophia, you really are the biggest crook in the world, not to refund the money can be, transfer your house to my name, this matter is over." Chloe is not at all polite, said.

Sophia sighed: "Alas, originally thought to go down to buy a mobility car, also buy you a, since you want this house, it will not buy you a car so"

"Stop, stop, stop!" Chloe immediately got it: "You're buying me a car?"

"Helena, coming along?"

"Go, someone will buy you a car, why not go?"

"See you at the 4s in twenty minutes!"

Sophia didn't have to do anything special, the room was made up, she put the clothes in her luggage casually, and people came out of the house.

By the time we got to the 4s store, exactly twenty minutes later, Chloe and Helena were both already here.

Sophia looked at the two of them with a smile: "Can ah, said to buy you a car, come so quickly, if usually come out late, can not give me half an hour late is good."

Chloe was all smiles, "That's not the same, Sophia, I came to Sealand for you, you had to get me something."

"Speaking of gifts!" Sophia reaches out, "Where's my housewarming red envelope?"

Chloe and Helena looked at each other, and the two instantly pulled out two large red envelopes and said, "Dang it, happy housewarming!"

Sophia brought over two red envelopes, very nonchalantly in front of them to open the red envelope, is two bank cards.

"Not bad, go, sister take you to buy a car!"

"Alas, let's go!"

Three women then walked in.

This area is a Sealand luxury car 4s store, from this to that, and then to another, are the luxury cars that make your hands itch to itch.

The three women began to look up.

But usually they are concerned about the car, so basically they want to buy a car, they have a number in mind.

Besides, it's Sophia's money this time, so Chloe said falsely, "Sophia, then I'm not going to be polite!"

Sophia disliked her: "Like you've ever been polite to me!"

Helena also looked at a car, but luxury cars and ordinary cars are not the same, ordinary cars give you how many configurations for you to choose, but luxury cars are a different choice for each configuration, that is, there is no specific price, and when you are done choosing, the final seller to give you the calculation, that is the real price.

So, three people are going to buy it.

Chloe is a bit anxious: "Do you have the kind of ready-made in the store, I will not pick, almost on the line."

"Yes, there is, but"

"But that car I'm going to buy!"

Just then, two people came in from outside.

Chloe looked over: "Yo, ingrates, running into you two shady people again."

Aria pointed at her rudely, "Whoever said you were shady, I'd say you're shady and you're seen everywhere!"
