

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 142

Sophia hugged her mother, feeling touched. "I do, Mom, by the way, Ms. Glass' birthday is in a few days, I have to go to Sealand."

"Sealand?" Laura frowned.

Sophia understood her worry. "Don't worry. Although Drake is there, it doesn't mean I'll see him. Besides, I will come back after Emma's birthday. I won't stay there."

Laura knew that Ms. Glass was important to Sophia. And in fact, she should go to Sealand with Sophia too.

"Okay. Let's go there together, your dad and I should go too!"

Sophia smiled. "I am sure Ms. Glass will be very happy to see you. But she must feel stressed. After all, she is now in Sealand, not Pinkerton. If you go there deliberately, I am afraid... So, Mom, I don't think you and Dad should go there, I will take your gifts over."

Laura nodded. "Alright then!"

Noah also knew about this. For some reason, he felt that if Sophia went to Sealand, they would be more distant.

He looked at her and asked, "Sophia, do you have to go? If Ms. Glass needs anything, we can send it to her."

Sophia was a little angry. "Noah, what are you talking about? Ms. Glass helps me get where I am. She is my second mother. I would go to her birthday even if I were on another planet."

Noah realized that he had said something inappropriate. It seemed that she had made up her mind. "Okay, then I will go with you."

Sophia frowned. "What about your family?"

"It's OK. Didn't you say you wouldn't stay for long?"

Sophia knew she couldn't refuse him, so she nodded.

Noah finally breathed a sigh of relief. "By the way, the Frost family..."

The Frost family had been attacking Sophia's companies. Although they did it secretly, Sophia had noticed it.

"Don't worry, if they want to play this game, I'll join them."

Noah shook his head helplessly. He felt a pity for the Frost family, who had no idea what they were offending.
