

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 188

Laura said, "The outcome is not in our control. And we can't prevent anyone from being jealous."

Emma sighed.

"You don't have to blame this on yourself. I know you are super nice to Sophia."

Emma nodded.

Laura looked around and said, "This house looks pretty good!"

"It's my son's house. Sophia had intended to rent a house herself, but I think, as the host, we should get a place for you, so I asked Sophia to bring you here."

Laura smiled and looked at Sophia. "Sophia may not want to trouble you."

"Not at all. We are so close to each other. I'm very happy to do this!"

"Thank you. By the way, how are you getting along with your son and daughter?"

"My son has been in touch with me these years, so he and I get along well, but it will take time to get closer to my daughter."

"Them have them both come together tonight!"

"You bet!"

After a short chat, they both went where they were needed.

Laura and Abbott specially brought a luxurious, elegant, and noble dress for Sophia.

The guests invited to the banquet couldn't quite understand what it was about. They knew nothing but that Sophia would attend it.

They had read a lot about Sophia these days, so they were curious about what would happen tonight.

Besides the guests with the invitations, some reporters were also here.
