

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 199

Drake went to Price residence. The Prices knew what he came for.

When Marley saw him, he tried to stop him. "Drake, what are you doing?"

"Mr. Price, you should know what I'm here for, get Cecelia out." Drake's last bit of respect for Marley was completely gone now.

"Drake, what did Cecelia do this time?"

Drake laughed. "Don't you know? I am sure you do. You just pretend that you don't."

"Mr. Price, you should be thankful that you have a good son. After all, if it wasn't for him, the Price Group would have vanished now."

Marley looked pale. "Drake, how can you talk to me like that?"

Drake didn't want to talk too much to him, so he pushed him away and walked toward Cecelia's room.

Marley yelled loudly. "Drake, don't go too far!"

Of course, Cecelia heard it. She stood up in a panic, wanting to run away, but she didn't know which direction to go.

She thought that what Flynn said was just to scare her.

After all, she had known Drake for so many years.

She didn't believe Drake would show her no mercy.

But now that Drake was here. And it looked like he wouldn't let her go easily.

Her room was on the third floor. She couldn't escape from the window. At this moment, Drake kicked open the door and walked in.

The moment Cecelia saw him, she was stunned.
