

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 201

Looking at each other, Sophia didn't want to admit that she was touched.

So, she hurriedly lowered her head and continued eating.

Drake chuckled.

Sophia raised her eyes and looked at him with confusion.

"Sophia, have you found it? You can't hide your love for me anymore! "

"When did I love you?"

"You didn't even bother to look at me when we met before, but just now, you didn't drive me away, and even your tone of voice was gentle."

"Was it?"

"Yes!"

Sophia was stunned.

She admitted that his words reached the depth of her heart and made it beat fast.

Drake leaned forward, and Sophia tensed subconsciously.

He looked at her with his deep-set and affectionate eyes. "Sophia, just admit it. You've always loved me, and now you even completely fall for me. You're loving me with your heart and soul."

Hearing his words, her breathing was getting quicker.

After a long time, Sophia recovered her composure and looked at him. "Are you very proud of it?"

Drake put on a proud smile. "Yes, I'm really proud. As long as you love me, I won't give you the chance to escape!"

Sophia was not a heartless creature. After seeing what Drake had done for her, it was hard for her to remain untouched.

She did not know how long she could hold on.

She was afraid that if she got back together with him, she would become someone that even she couldn't recognize.

"Sophia!"

His voice was so sweet that it tugged at her heartstring all at once.
