

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 223

"I plan to send him to a branch abroad. As you know, you're still assisting him in Sealand, so he can finish his tasks without considering too much. I want him to become mature ASAP. Therefore, I must send him away."

Sophia felt weird. Edwin had just left, but Bard was about to be sent away. Was it possible that Travis had colluded with Drake to send Bard away?

However, she denied this idea the next second and believed Travis must be on her side.

She thought it must be a coincidence.

"OK. I see, Travis."

"Ehn. Can you keep an eye on your companies by yourself?"

"No problem."

When Bard received the news, he went ballistic and refused to leave Sealand.

He complained to Travis, "Travis, why must I go there? Why can't you send Sophia there instead?"

"Aren't you worried about letting Sophia be abroad alone?"

Bard was rendered speechless. If Sophia went abroad alone, of course, he wouldn't rest assured.

"That branch needs a general manager. Of course, I can send another person, but I want to give you this chance to develop your ability, so I decide to send you there."

Obviously, it was Travis' command. Bard could do nothing but obeyed him.

"When shall I depart?"

"The sooner, the better."

Bard promised Edwin to take good care of Sophia, but he would break his word soon.

The last thing he wanted to do was to leave Sophia in Sealand alone, but Travis' order came at such a critical moment.

Standing before Sophia, Bard said, "Sophia, Charles will go home soon. You and Chloe will be here alone. Chloe treasures her lover more than your friendship, so she has taken Drake's side. We cannot expect her to be any helpful, so you must be careful, Sophia."

Rubbing her eyebrows, Sophia answered, "Why don't you trust me?"

"I cannot, Sophia. I'm so afraid you'll end up staying with Drake forever after we leave."
