

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 281

"Oh! Sophia, not everyone should take the herbs. Each herb has its own use. Drake should have proper herbs even if he has to."

Emma's words reminded Sophia, and she said, "Ms. Glass, does the diet therapist you bring here leave the city? How about asking him to examine Drake!"

Emma burst into laughter, "Don't worry, Sophia, I'm on your side in this issue. When the diet therapist was about to leave, I asked him to make a prescription for Drake. And I have decocted the herb soup for him."

Drake was speechless.

Emma went into the kitchen and then brought out the herb soup, "Come on, here you are. Hereafter, you two should share the good and the bad together."

"Ms. Glass!" Sophia said resignedly.

"Don't be shy. You will finally be a couple. Anyhow, you merely lack the marriage certificates," said Emma.

Sophia couldn't retort at all.

By the way, it was funny to see Drake take his herb soup!

"Hurry up! Just do as what you told me just now," said Sophia.

Drake failed to fight back and kept silent.

He didn't expect that he would "suffer" the same so soon.

Aria stood and thought that it was the very home she always aspired for.

If Olivia got turned away and the Old Riley accepted Sophia finally, it would be the happy ending.
