

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 35

"To come to Sealand a year ago and think about these things is truly remarkable!"

Martha's hand had long since clenched into a fist when she heard what they were saying.

What's the big deal about Sophia, it's not just Master Travis, it's been known for a long time that they have the idea of entering the country?

If she had known earlier, she wouldn't have let Sophia make such a splash.

.....

Summersky Group's counters began to be officially located in major shopping malls, and in the most prominent locations.

Sophia also did a lot of advertising for this and gave her clients an unprecedented opening offer.

Many women are crazy about it, they no longer have to go abroad to buy it, they can buy it on their own turf.

Those from other cities are particularly envious of Sealand's women and wonder when they will be able to set up a counter in their city.

In this regard, Summersky Group side also gave a good answer, Sophia said in the video: "Next, we will start setting up counters in the first-tier and second-tier cities in the country as soon as possible, and we guarantee that we will be finished within three months, the third-tier and fourth-tier cities, also included in our scope of work, and of course, the fifth-tier cities, we will be in Within a year, you can buy our products in your own shopping malls."

"Thank you all for your support of our cosmetics over the years, love you!"

This is the first time that Summersky Group, as president, has appeared in the public eye.

Wow! This woman is so good looking!

Her skin is too good, right?
