

Revenge On My First Love Chapter 84

"Wait a minute!" Sophia grimaced.

The guards still stopped.

Sophia stomped on her heels, thumped her way to her, and before Aria could react, a slap landed on her face.

Cecelia said angrily, "How can you hit someone?"

Sophia grunted coldly, "You're right, how can I hit someone? It's not even a person I'm hitting."

"You!"

Aria didn't expect her to say that at all.

Sophia looked at Aria: "Keep your mouth shut, and if I hear you say those dirty words again, I don't mind sewing your mouth shut myself."

The security guards knew what they were doing and dragged the people away directly.

Travis had a grim face: "Is that how they scold you on a regular basis?"

Sophia turned her head: "Don't mind them, brother, I haven't got my bag yet!"

That one was definitely out of the question, and the thought of Aria breathing the air inside repulsed her, so it was off to another store.

Aria, who was thrown out, was watched by many people, some of whom took out their cell phones to take pictures.

"What are you shooting, or I'll kill you!" Aria said.

Those people are more energetic.

Cecelia also felt ashamed, if Aria hadn't taken the initiative to go over and tear into Sophia, how could she have ended up in such a scene?
