Chapter 581 - 581 Kill!!!

581 Kill!!! noVelnext.COM

Originally, many people had faith in Lin Fan. They thought that he was the hope of Hua Nation and that he was an omnipotent god.

However, when everyone saw the blog post posted by Ai Jin, they were shocked.

They started to lose confidence and started to doubt Lin Fan.

Many people joined the comments on Ai Jin's blog, and fear and panic grew in their hearts.

Ai Jin did not care about the change in the mentality of ordinary people.

He looked at the increasing number of readers and fans, his face was full of smiles.

It was all money!

...

Lin Fan did not know what was happening on Earth.

At this moment, he had already gone past the hill. After walking forward for a while, a wide and clear lake gradually appeared in the distance.

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Quiker: [It's the lake that Hendry encountered!]

Water: [It's over, it's over!]

Selling Kidney: [I hope God Lin doesn't go into the water. Yes, God Lin definitely won't go into the water. His clothes and face need to be kept very clean.]

Men Also Need to Be Hurt: [With God Lin's strength, it's not a problem even if he goes into the water.]

World: [Didn't you see Ai Jin's analysis?]

Fool: [Although I hate Ai Jin, his analysis does make some sense. Sigh, I only hope that God Lin doesn't go near the lake.]

Steamed or Braised: [That lake is so terrifying. It's like an abyss. God Lin will sense the danger and won't go over.]

...

However...

Things often went against one's wishes.

Lin Fan felt as though his soul had been seduced by the lake as he continued walking forward at a steady pace.

Ten meters.

Nine meters.

Eight meters.

...

Soon, he arrived at the lake.

Lin Fan looked at the reflection on the calm lake. Then, he raised his head and looked at the other side of the lake.

At this moment, a monster that looked like a crocodile but was ten meters long suddenly jumped out of the water.

It was the crocodile monster that had eaten Hendry.

An extremely terrifying and ferocious aura surged over like a tide.

At that moment, the entire world seemed to darken, and the air froze.

Lin Fan seemed to be completely shocked. He stood on the spot and did not move.

...

This scene was shown on Hua Nation's live broadcast.

"Professor Lin, run! It's dangerous!" Xiao Bing shouted anxiously."

Countless bullet comments instantly filled the entire live broadcast room.

World Ghost: [God Lin, don't just stand there! Run!]

Galaxy: [The monster that killed Hendry!]

The Nine Heavens Primordial Essence: [It's so terrifying.]

Half Body: [Run!]

Fly With the Dream: [Run!]

Suiyuan: [Run!]

...

The dense bullet comments telling Lin Fan to run seemed to have turned into a storm, completely covering the entire livestream room.

...

The hearts of Xia Bing, Xia Xue, Hu Tian, Qin Yuxuan, and the others instantly rose to their throats.

They were extremely worried.

The crocodile monster was too big and looked so terrifying.

'Please don't let anything happen to Lin Fan.'

...

Lin Fan got closer and closer to the lake, his eyes lighting up.

When the crocodile monster jumped out of the water and appeared in front of Lin Fan, his face was filled with excitement.

Ai Jin's eyes moved as his hands jumped quickly on the keyboard. He posted another blog post.

Ai Jin: [It's not that Professor Lin doesn't want to run, but he's too scared to move. This is the instinctive reaction of weak creatures to powerful creatures.]

...

At this moment, the crocodile monster opened its huge mouth and gave off a terrifying aura as it bit at Lin Fan.

Everyone had no doubt that Lin Fan would be turned into a puddle of blood just like Hendry in the next second.

Some people even closed their eyes in fear.

However...

When the crocodile monster's mouth was only a meter away from Lin Fan, everyone was stunned.

Lin Fan moved!

Lin Fan did not even lift his eyelids. He used his thumb to push the Star Meteorite Sword in his hand.

[Skill: One of the swords, sword slash!]

A bright light flashed.

The crocodile monster's body suddenly stopped.

In the next moment, its head was split into two like a watermelon.

In the end, it fell to the ground with a dull thud.

Bright red blood spurted out like a fountain!

The entire scene suddenly fell silent!

Chapter 582 Freshwater Resources; Increase By 10%!

The scene in Hua Nation's live broadcast room froze at this moment.

The audience's mouths were wide open, and their faces were filled with shock.

Xiao Bing was stunned. "What just happened?"

Her voice evoked countless comments to appear.

[Guardian World Flame: [F*ck!]

Quick Guest: [F*ck!]

Stone Golem: [F*ck!]

Little Light: [Awesome!]

Qingchun: [Awesome!]

Song: [Awesome!]

...

The audience was shocked, but they did not know how to express it.

Thus, the entire screen was filled with classic curses.

After a long while, someone asked in confusion.

Joan: [What happened just now? Why did that crocodile monster suddenly snap into two?]

Too Crazy: [I watched the replay just now. Professor Lin only pulled out his sword, and then the crocodile monster died.]

World: [Drawing a sword and shooting out a dazzling sword ray. This is better than the special effects in movies!]

Water: [The method of the gods, this is definitely the method of the gods!]

Heaven and Earth No. 1: [So awesome!]

Painter: [My mom asked me why I was kneeling while watching the live broadcast.]

Sun Moon: [Who still dares to say that God Lin can't survive?]

Green Grassland: [Ai Jin actually said that God Lin was so scared that he couldn't move.]

Asylum Director: [F*ck! He said such a thing? Let's not talk about it anymore. Let's report him!]

Horse-Faced Man: [Ai Jin has been slandering and belittling God Lin outside. Report him directly!]

World Ghost: [I already reported him last time. Why wasn't he banned?]]

Fruit Tea: [I won't say much. Continue reporting!]]

...

Compared to everyone's surprise, Xia Bing, Xia Xue, Qin Yuxuan, and the others were full of joy.

The stronger Lin Fan was, the safer he would be.

This was what they hoped for the most.

...

Ai Jin also saw Lin Fan kill the crocodile monster with his sword. He was stunned.

Obviously, this was also beyond Ai Jin's expectations.

However, when he saw the increasing number of views, as well as countless insults and reports, his daze was replaced by joy.

As long as the number of views rose, it meant that his popularity was high.

The higher the popularity, the more money!

This was a theorem.

As for the insults and reports...

Ai Jin did not take it to heart.

Because the technical director of the blog was his cousin. No matter how many reports they made, it would be useless.

However...

At this moment, a message suddenly popped up on Ai Jin's blog.

[Notice: Due to your violation of the relevant regulations, your blog has been permanently banned.]

Seeing this...

Ai Jin was stunned.

What was going on?

His blog was banned?

How was this possible?

Yes, it must have been a mistake.

At the thought of this, Ai Jin picked up his phone and was about to call his cousin.

However, before he could dial the number...

The phone rang urgently.

pandasnovel.com Ai Jin looked at the caller ID. It was his cousin!

Hence, Ai Jin hurriedly pressed the answer button.

However, before he could speak, his cousin's roar sounded from inside.

"What the f*ck did you do?"

"I suppressed your report and was dismissed by the leader for it! I think you should take a look at

"Damn it!

"Do you know how much effort I put in to become the technical director?"

"It's all gone now!"

...

Ai Jin opened his mouth nervously and was about to say something.

Just then, there was a dull knock on the door from outside.

"Hello, is anyone there?"

"Can you open the door?"

"We're here to check the water meter!" Novelnext.com

Ai Jin had no choice but to slowly open the door.

The next moment, two investigators walked in and said, "Hello, we discovered that you're slandering our hero online. In addition, we've found that your account has transactions with an overseas organization. Please come with us."

Ai Jin's phone fell to the ground, and his face turned pale.

...

Naturally, Lin Fan had no idea about all of this.

He looked at the power of his sword, and the corners of his mouth curled up slightly, revealing a faint smile.

At this moment, an emotionless voice rang out beside Lin Fan's ears.

[You're the first player to kill a level-three Giant Crocodile. You've obtained a level-three treasure chest.]

[You're the first player to kill a level-three Giant Crocodile. Hua Nation's freshwater resources have increased by 10%.]

Then, an ancient chest appeared in front of Lin Fan.

He had already opened the chest twice.

This time, he opened the box without hesitation.

[30 points of Constitution. Do you want to use them?]

At the same time, a crisp notification rang out in Lin Fan's mind.

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a special red packet of 300 Constitution points.]

With an increase of 300 points, Lin Fan's bones and muscles grew by a whole fold.

Then, they quickly returned to their original state, becoming stronger and more condensed.

Then, Lin Fan lowered his head and touched the orb of light in the ancient chest.

His constitution increased by another 30 points!

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Wheatspike: [The Giant Crocodile is a level-three monster. No wonder it's so terrifying!]

Fruit Tea: [God Lin obtained 30 Constitution points. I wonder how strong he is now.]

North: [Hua Nation's freshwater resources have increased by 10%. Everyone, take a look and see if there are any changes.]]

The Person on the Summit: [F*ck, f*ck, f*ck! Suddenly, a long river that's hundreds of meters wide appeared in Bin Province!]

Youth Won't Come: [It's the same in Te Province!]

Rest: [One has appeared in Qi Province too!]

Rumble: [Long rivers have appeared in Qi Province, Te Province, and Bin Province? In other words, this long river flowed directly from the west to the east. Isn't this a super river that's not inferior to the Yellow River and the Yangtze River?!]

Sadness: [Haha! Qi Province finally has a big river. Now, we don't have to worry about water anymore!]

Your Highness: [I don't know what words to use to express the excitement in my heart. I can only say it's f*cking awesome!]

Black and White: [F*ck awesome!]

Guoguo: [F*ck, awesome!]

...

If an ordinary person encountered a clear lake after a few days, they would definitely want to take a bath.

However, Lin Fan was wearing a dust-proof coat, so there would not be any stains.

There was no need to wash it.

Of course, the most important reason was that the blood of the giant crocodile had already flowed into the lake, and it was very smelly.

Lin Fan was a little disgusted.

Therefore, he did not stay by the lake and went straight away.

He passed through the bushes and arrived in front of a forest.

The sun gradually set, and the sky began to turn yellow.

Not far away, two half-meter-tall rabbits were squatting on the ground and eating grass silently.

Lin Fan muttered, "It seems like I can only eat one. But if I let the other go, wouldn't it lose a playmate? I'll deal with them both, then.]

As soon as he finished speaking, Lin Fan's mind moved slightly.

[Skill: Gravity Control!]

In an instant, the two large rabbits seemed to have been crushed by a huge mountain that fell from the sky. They directly fell to the ground, unable to resist at all.

Then, Lin Fan took out his knife and easily skinned the two rabbits.

Chapter 583 Wolf; Heavenly Hound!

Lin Fan was familiar with the place and found some dry wood.

Then, he smeared the two big rabbits with cumin powder, pepper powder, chili powder, and other seasonings before placing them on the fire.

He flipped and cut the meat.

The fragrant oil was dripping.

Not long after, a rich fragrance spread through the forest.

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Indifference of the World: [It's starting, it's starting. Today's eating broadcast program is starting again.]

Goodnight: [I can make an extra bowl of white rice by watching God Lin's food broadcast every day. I won't say anything more. Let's go!]

Confucius Said: [Even just looking at it from afar, I know that the taste of this rabbit meat would definitely be superb.]

...

Lin Fan tore off a large rabbit leg and started eating.

It was crispy on the outside and tender on the inside. It was extremely delicious.

Lin Fan ate to his heart's content.

The size of the rabbit was simply too big.

Lin Fan had only eaten half of it and his stomach was already starting to swell up.

At this moment, a sound came from the grass not far away. Novelnext.com

Then, a fierce beast with silver fur, sharp teeth, and a wolf-like appearance slowly walked out. It was about one meter tall.

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Model: [F*ck! Is this a wolf? What a big wolf!]

Jing Tian: [Wolves usually live in groups. Could God Lin have encountered a wolf pack?]

Flowing Years: [Don't worry, they're just wolves. God Lin can casually wave his sword and kill them easily.]

Golden Dragon Chasing the Sun: [But did God Lin notice it?]

Clear: [God Lin, quickly turn around!]

...

Lin Fan seemed to have read the comments in the live broadcast room.

He slowly turned around and looked at the wolf, which was staring at the roasted rabbit with a pair of faintly sparkling eyes. Its mouth was half-open, and its could not stop drooling.

"Do you want to eat?" he asked with a smile.

The wolf was slightly stunned.

That was because it realized that it understood Lin Fan's words.

What was going on?

It opened its mouth and gave a soft call.

"Are you a dog too?"

Lin Fan's face darkened.

This was actually a dog?

Moreover, why were dogs always so weird, asking others if they were dogs?

"I'm a human."

The big white dog sized Lin Fan up again as if it was digesting this sentence.

At this moment, the rich aroma of roasted rabbit wafted into its nose again.

It could not help but inhale hard with its nose. It put all its attention back on the roasted rabbit. It opened its mouth and allowed its saliva to stop it from flowing down.

Seeing this...

Lin Fan could not help but smile as he pulled off a rabbit leg. "Eat."

As he spoke, he casually threw it out.

The big white dog's reaction was extremely agile. It opened its mouth and bit the rabbit's leg.

After swallowing the rabbit leg, the big white dog's eyes instantly lit up.

"Delicious!" he praised.

Its tail could not help but wag.

Obviously, it was very happy.

Lin Fan smiled. "If it's delicious, then eat more."

After all, he could not eat so much. It would be a waste to just keep it.

Thus, Lin Fan tore off another rabbit leg.

After the big white dog finished eating, Lin Fan directly threw out the remaining rabbit meat.

The big white dog ate happily, wagging its tail even more happily.

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Ruffian: [He gave away such delicious rabbit meat just like that?]

Quiet Rabbit: [God Lin wasted it. Wouldn't it be better if he gave it to me?]

Memories of Those Years: [I can't help but want to fight for food with the wolves.]

Wind: [God Lin gave so much meat to the wolf. What if it attacks God Lin later? This is a little risky.] I think you should take a look at Power: [If the wolf attacks God Lin, it'll only take one sword strike from God Lin. At that time, God Lin should be able to eat the wolf meat.]

...

Everyone had experienced Lin Fan's strength for themselves.

Not to mention a one-meter-tall wolf, even a ten-meter-long crocodile could be easily killed.

Not long after, the two rabbits were completely eaten.

The white dog was still wagging its tail.

"Do you have a name?" asked Lin Fan.

"Heavenly Hound!"

"Heavenly Hound?" Lin Fan nodded. "The name is not bad."

Then, he raised his head and looked at the moon that was gradually hanging in the sky. He was entranced.

Perhaps, the dog was attracted by Lin Fan.

The Heavenly Hound looked in the direction Lin Fan was looking at.

pandasnovel.com The man and the dog looked at the sky quietly.

It was quiet and peaceful.

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Who Am I Crazy For: [The rabbit meat has been eaten up.]

Big Saber King Five: [Isn't this a wolf? Why is it called the Heavenly Dog?]

Unhindered Rain: [Why do I feel like God Lin was talking to this wolf just now?]]

Unique: [God Lin has the power of a supreme god. It seems normal for him to talk to animals.]

Rainy Day: [God Lin, Heavenly Hound, moon, forest... I feel that this scene is so beautiful!]

I'm a Big Boss: [I want to use this image as my screensaver!]

Cyan: [I want it to be my screensaver too!]

...

As a result, many people used the scene as their screensaver for their computers and cell phones.

The night gradually deepened.

Lin Fan stood up and drew a circle around him.

[Skill: Draw a Circle For Home]

Immediately, the sound of the wind, the chirping of birds in the distance, and the flying dust... were all isolated outside.

Then, Lin Fan took out his LV sleeping bag and fell asleep.

After a while, he began to snore.

The Heavenly Hound looked curiously at Lin Fan, who was in his sleeping bag.

He walked around in circles as if he was hesitating about something.

In the end, he slowly lay on the ground.

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Ruthless: [F*ck! God Lin is sleeping? The Heavenly Hound is still beside him.]

Adorable Bookworm: [Does God Lin treat the Heavenly Hound as an ordinary dog? This is too careless of him.]

Crying Fish: [I hope the Heavenly Hound won't hurt God Lin. He gave it a lot of food just now.]

Terence: [No, I have to watch God Lin sleep today. If anything happens, I have to remind him immediately.]

Asians: I want to watch God Lin sleep too.]

...

The number of people online would decrease significantly at night.

After all, everyone needed to rest.

However, tonight, even though it was nighttime, the number of people online did not decrease at all.

In fact, it even seemed to be rising.

...

In the blink of an eye, it was the second day.

Sunlight shone through the cracks of the trees and onto the ground. It was like specks of starlight, incomparably dazzling.

Lin Fan slowly opened his eyes and crawled out of his sleeping bag.

When he saw the Heavenly Hound lying on the ground not far away, a faint smile appeared on his face.

"Are you hungry?"

The Heavenly Hound raised its head slowly and looked at Lin Fan quietly.

At this moment, its silence was an answer.

Lin Fan smiled and took out some leftover bird meat from the day before. "Try this."

As he spoke, he casually threw the meat to it.

The Heavenly Hound reacted quickly and climbed up.

Then, it began to feast.

Chapter 584 Taming; Oil Increases By 100%!

Not long after, the entire bird was eaten clean by the Heavenly Hound.

Its tail started wagging again.

Lin Fan felt the cold breeze on his face. He randomly chose a direction and walked forward.

As for the Heavenly Hound, it lowered its head and maintained a certain distance from Lin Fan, slowly following behind.

Under the sun's rays, the shadows were gradually elongated. They matched well with the surrounding grass and the forest, making the scene very warm.

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Ten Thousand Miles of Sad Autumn: [Fortunately, the Heavenly Hound didn't attack God Lin yesterday.]

Family Member: [It was such delicious bird meat, but it was eaten by the Heavenly Hound. God Lin is really too kind.]

Child King: [The Heavenly Hound seems to be following God Lin.]

Choice: [The scene of them walking in the wilderness is so beautiful! I want to save it.]

Dazed: [I'll save it too.]

Hello Everyone: [Save +1.]

...

When Lin Fan passed through a patch of grass, a crisp notification sounded out in his mind.

[Ding! You've been in the Otherworld for 96 hours. You've received a special red packet and 300 Constitution points.]

The surging energy rippled back and forth within Lin Fan's body, causing his muscles to squirm.

An even more powerful aura spread out in all directions.

Lin Fan's lips curled up.

His footsteps involuntarily became faster and lighter.

As for the Heavenly Hound that was following behind him, it paused for a moment.

A look of surprise appeared on its face.

pandasnovel.com The Heavenly Hound looked at Lin Fan's disappearing figure and hesitated for a while before continuing to follow.

He could only blame the food that Lin Fan gave him for being too delicious.

...

When the sky turned yellow, Lin Fan stopped.

Today, he passed through the grass and woods, but he did not find anything. He just took it as a stroll.

Lin Fan muttered, "There aren't any big birds or rabbits nearby. Let's see what I should eat later."

The Heavenly Hound behind him heard this and quickly turned around.

When it returned, it had two big rabbits in its mouth that looked like the ones from yesterday.

Then, he placed them in front of Lin Fan.

Seeing this...

Lin Fan could not help but smile. "Mmm, this saves me the trouble of finding ingredients."

After saying that, he picked up the knife and waved it quickly at the rabbits.

After a while, the two rabbits were completely skinned.

Then, Lin Fan found some dead wood and picked up the rabbit meat.

After applying the seasonings and sauce, a rich fragrance slowly drifted.

The Heavenly Hound stared at the rabbit without blinking.

When it smelled the fragrance, its saliva flowed down.

When the rabbit meat was completely roasted, Lin Fan tore off half of the meat and said, "Come, try it!"

As he spoke, he threw the rabbit meat at the Heavenly Hound.

The Heavenly Hound ate heartily, its tail wagging.

Looking at it eating, Lin Fan's appetite seemed to increase.

As such, Lin Fan ate significantly more this time.

...

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Choice: [The Heavenly Hound is not bad. It could even bring back two rabbits.]

Night Rain Sent North: [It would be great if it brought back food every day. In that case, God Lin wouldn't have to worry about food.]

Stone: [What are you worried about? God Lin wouldn't ever have to worry about food, right? However, with the Heavenly Hound to prepare food, it could reduce some trouble.]

My Lord Is Angry: [Not bad, Heavenly Hound.]

Blaming Oneself: [Do you think God Lin is going to tame the Heavenly Hound?]

Concentration: [How is this taming? The Heavenly Hound got a taste of the roasted meat and simply refused to leave.]

Zhao Dahai: [The dog is a foodie, hahaha.]

...

After Lin Fan ate his fill, he went into his sleeping bag and slept soundly.

The Heavenly Hound looked at Lin Fan and laid down again. I think you should take a look at

However, the distance between the Heavenly Hound and Lin Fan was clearly closer than yesterday.

In the blink of an eye, another day passed.

...

Today, Lin Fan and the Heavenly Hound once again journeyed together.

A moment later, a green bamboo forest appeared in front of Lin Fan.

The air was filled with a fresh and sweet smell.

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Supreme Goodness: [There are so many bamboos here.]

Are You Happy: [If giant pandas were here, they would definitely be very happy.]

Mr. Zhao: [Giant pandas? huh? Do you think there are pandas there?]

Sad Man: [It's really hard to say.]

Scrambled Tomato Eggs: [Come out! Giant pandas!]

Meeting: [Come out, pandas!]

...

Perhaps the audience's call had an effect.

A large patch of bamboo forest suddenly shook.

Many of the audience members focused their attention on the scene.

They were looking forward to the appearance of giant pandas.

However, the result disappointed them.

In the next moment...

An enormous emerald green snake suddenly darted out of the bamboo forest.

The air seemed to gradually turn cold when it appeared.

The green snake seemed to think that Lin Fan was delicious. Without any hesitation, it opened its mouth and bit at him.

Seeing this...

Lin Fan raised his eyelids and pulled out his sword. Novelnext.com

[Skill: One of the swords, sword slash!]

It was the same as when he killed the giant crocodile.

A bright light flashed.

In the next moment, the giant green snake, which had its mouth wide open and was rapidly approaching, suddenly froze.

Then, its mouth and body split into two!

In the end, the two halves of its body fell heavily to the ground, making a dull sound.

Fresh blood spurted out like a fountain, adding a different color to the quiet bamboo forest.

At this moment, Lin Fan's ears, or rather, everyone in Hua Nation's ears, rang with an emotionless voice.

Chapter 585 Advanced Fire Control Technique; Heavenly Hound Attacks!

Beside the Bamboo Green Python was an ancient chest.

Lin Fan opened it.

A ball of light flashed with a dazzling light.

An emotionless voice sounded in his ears.

[You've obtained Beginner Fire Control Technique. Do you want to use it?]

After this voice sounded, Hua Nation's live broadcast room was in an uproar.

Xiao Bing: [Beginner Fire Control Technique? Could this be like those divine techniques from novels and movies?]

Reborn: [F*ck! God Lin is awesome!]

Human: [You said that there are no gods in this world?]

Untimely: [God Lin, you're going to cultivate!]

Concentration: [Awesome!]

...

Compared to the excitement of the people in the live stream, Lin Fan was very familiar with the light ball in the box.

That was because a crisp voice rang out in Lin Fan's mind.

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a special red packet—Advanced Fire Control Technique!]

Then, Lin Fan felt his body warm up.

Suddenly, in his vision, the trees, grass, and even the air were filled with special fire elements.

With just a thought, these fire elements would all burst into flames. It was very magical.

After a moment of comprehension, Lin Fan's gaze landed on the light ball in the box.

He did not touch the ball but turned to the Heavenly Hound and asked, "Do you want this Beginner Fire Control Technique?"

After all, Lin Fan had already obtained the Advanced Fire Control Technique. This Beginner Fire Control Technique was no longer of any use to him.

...

In fact, when the Heavenly Hound first saw the ball of light, it was attracted by it.

It instinctively wanted to get the ball of light.

After hearing Lin Fan's words, the Heavenly Hound nodded its head reflexively.

Lin Fan said, "Alright, just touch it."

The Heavenly Hound responded and slowly walked forward.

Then, it placed its claws on it.

The ball of light turned into a stream of light and instantly entered the Heavenly Hound's body.

The next moment, the Heavenly Hound opened its mouth and spat out a fireball the size of a basketball.

The scorching flames quickly burned the withered grass in front.

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Little Teenager: [F*ck! God Lin gave the skill to the Heavenly Hound just like that?]

Delin: [No!]

He Yongchen: [No!]

Chen Shuai: [God Lin, even if you don't want the fire control technique, you shouldn't have given it to the Heavenly Hound. Why didn't you give it to me?]

Waiting for Your Return: [Such a divine skill was directly given to a ferocious beast? This...]

God: [Sigh, what a waste.]

...

Yuan Yuan was once a famous writer.

A few years ago, she bought a house in Nashland and successfully obtained a Nashland household registration.

However, after entering the Nashland, Yuan Yuan realized that the real Nashland was not as beautiful as she had imagined.

She regretted it and was helpless.

However, she still stayed in Nashland.

Firstly, as long as one obtained another country's household registration, they would automatically lose their Hua Nation household registration. It would be extremely difficult to change back to Hua Nation household registration.

Secondly, Yuan Yuan did not want the people in Hua Nation to feel that she was living a bad life.

She wanted others to be envious and look up to her life!

When the doomsday declaration appeared, Nashland announced many heroes.

Among them, there were athletes, artists, and warriors.

Meanwhile, Hua Nation had yet to discover any heroes.

This made Yuan Yuan very happy. I think you should take a look at

Because she was now a Nashland citizen. The more heroes Nashland had, the easier it would be to survive the apocalypse. The country might even become more prosperous.

Hua Nation was the exact opposite.

As a result, her friends, family, and fans in Hua Nation became more and more envious of her.

Unfortunately, the good times did not last long.

After the heroes arrived in the Otherworld, Hua Nation's hero also appeared on the screen... Lin Fan!

In the beginning, Yuan Yuan looked down on Lin Fan.

However, not long after, Lin Fan had killed two ferocious beasts.

Then, as if he had obtained the power of a god, he easily killed the Giant Crocodile and the Bamboo Green Snake...

It allowed the people of Hua to gain benefits such as increasing their lifespan, improving their air quality, increasing their freshwater, increasing their oil, and so on.

This made Yuan Yuan very unhappy with Lin Fan.

Because she was no longer a Hua citizen, she could not enjoy these benefits.novELnExt.cOM

Jealousy and hatred were surging wildly in her heart.

At this moment, Yuan Yuan, who was in America, was even more displeased when she saw the audience in the live broadcast room praising Lin Fan.

Hence, she logged into Weibo and posted an article.

Yuan Yuan: [My disappointment.

[When I saw a hero appear in Hua Nation and how he continuously killed ferocious beasts with luck, I was filled with confidence in him.

[However, I didn't expect him to become arrogant and complacent because of this!

[The Beginner Fire Control Technique will truly make one a god.

[In the end, he gave it to a ferocious beast.

[Yes!

[People should be kind and generous.

[However, now isn't the time for that!

[Although this ferocious beast is relatively easy to get along with now.

[No one knows if it'll suddenly attack Lin Fan!

[Lin Fan is deep in a dangerous foreign world.

[His safety not only represents one person but also the entire Hua Nation and the entire world!

[Pride makes one fail!]

Yuan Yuan's works were very popular in the past, so she had many fans.

Not long after her Weibo post was posted, many people shared and commented on it.

...

Lin Fan had no idea about the bullet comments and Yuan Yuan's article.

He had just obtained Advanced Fire Control Technique, so he was in a good mood. His footsteps became lighter.

The Heavenly Hound that had been following behind him could not help but close the distance between him and Lin Fan.

Not long after, another crisp notification sounded out in Lin Fan's mind.

[Ding! You've been in the Otherworld for 120 hours. Congratulations, you've received 300 Constitution points.]

Lin Fan's body squirmed slightly as his strength increased once again.

The sun slowly set.

Just as Lin Fan was about to find a place to rest...

Not far away, a three-meter-tall grizzly bear slowly poked its head out of the woods.

Roar!

The grizzly bear roared toward the sky, and the entire mountain forest shook with it. It was extremely terrifying.

When the grizzly bear saw Lin Fan, its lantern-like eyes turned scarlet.

Then, it opened its mouth wide and rushed toward Lin Fan like a speeding truck. It wanted to crush Lin Fan into meat paste.

Lin Fan's expression did not change at all. He just stood there calmly.

Just as he was considering whether or not to draw his sword, the Heavenly Hound behind him suddenly let out a wild bark.

Then, his body suddenly grew to three meters tall. He arrived in front of Lin Fan in an instant.

Then, he swung his claw.

Its sharp claws slashed through the air.

When the Heavenly Hound's claws touched the giant bear's body, it was as if it had touched a piece of tofu. The bear instantly exploded, and hot blood spurted out crazily!

The giant bear, which had been so imposing earlier, fell to the ground stiffly. It lost all its vitality.

Chapter 586 - 586 Agreed; Worried!

586 Agreed; Worried! novELnExt.cOM

Seeing this...

Hua Nation's live broadcast room was in an uproar.

"Wow!" Xiao Bing exclaimed excitedly. "The Heavenly Hound is so powerful!"

Sigh: [This grizzly bear... It seemed to be the grizzly bear that was hunting down Li Xianhao from Korea, right? It was actually killed by the Heavenly Hound so easily!]

Repentant: [What a strong dog!]

Ruthless: [The Heavenly Hound can actually grow bigger. It's so cool! It's like a killing tool!]

A Little Sweet: [A killing tool? Do you think it can turn into a human? If he turns into a human, he'd definitely be very handsome!]

Old Man: [That's awesome!]

...

After the Heavenly Hound killed the giant bear, it returned to its previous one-meter-tall body.

Lin Fan sized up the Heavenly Hound before turning his attention to the giant bear.

He touched his nose and said, "It seems that the ingredients for today are already available."

The Heavenly Hound seemed to have understood something and quickly found many branches.

Lin Fan smiled. "Not bad!"

He waved his knife and peeled off the fur of the giant bear, cutting the meat into a few large pieces.

Yesterday, the Heavenly Hound had already seen Lin Fan's steps in roasting meat.

It knew that it was time to start a fire.

Thus, the Heavenly Hound opened its mouth and spat out a wisp of flame, instantly igniting the branches.

Lin Fan smiled. "You're sensible!"

As he spoke, he smeared seasonings on the meat while flipping it.

From time to time, he would make some requests.

"Make it smaller."

He could control the flame at any time. This made the roasted meat today even more fragrant than before.

The Heavenly Hound stared unblinkingly at the roasted meat. Its mouth was half-open, allowing its saliva to flow freely.

When the outer skin of the giant bear meat gradually suffused a golden color, Lin Fan picked up a piece of meat and placed it in his mouth.

“Mmm, it tastes good!” Lin Fan nodded his head in satisfaction.

Then, he picked up another piece of meat and placed it in front of the Heavenly Hound. “Try it too.”

The Heavenly Hound could not hold itself back any longer.

It eagerly opened its mouth and wolfed down the food. It ate happily and wagged its tail.

Lin Fan had only eaten a little bit when the Heavenly Hound had already finished his portion.

Hence, Lin Fan took out another piece of meat and said, “If you like it, then eat more.”

In Hua Nation’s live broadcast room.

Worried: [It’s time for the food broadcast again.]

Pro: [Fortunately, God Lin is eating a bear in another world. If he were in Hua Nation, he would have been investigated by now.]

Green: [Investigated? Teacher Zhang San had said that if one is hungry in the wilderness, there’s no problem for one to eat pandas or tigers upon encountering them!]

Second Brother: [The Heavenly Hound can control flames. It’s like a gas stove. Now it seems that letting the Heavenly Hound use the Beginner Fire Control Technique doesn’t seem too bad.]

Enjoying Loneliness: [The relationship between the God Lin and the Heavenly Hound is getting better and better. Perhaps he can subdue it!]

Heartbreak: [Conquer the Heavenly Hound? In that case, it seems good to let the Heavenly Hound have more skills!]

...

Initially, most of the comments on Yuan Yuan's Weibo post were in agreement with what she said.

However, not long after, the comments supporting Lin Fan increased again.

This made Yuan Yuan a little unhappy.

Hence, she posted another Weibo post.

Yuan Yuan: [Wild beasts are uncontrollable!

[Even the tigers and lions in the zoo would sometimes attack the breeders, resulting in some casualties.

[Furthermore, Lin Fan has been feeding the Heavenly Hound.

[The Heavenly Hound is so strong and terrifying. If it attacks Lin Fan, that would be too terrifying!

[Lin Fan represents the future of Hua Nation!

[He shouldn't be so careless!]

It had to be said that Yuan Yuan was indeed a writer. With just a few words, people agreed with her.

At the same time, many people started to worry for nothing. They even started to blame Lin Fan.

Yuan Yuan was very happy about this.

...

Soon, the entire bear was eaten clean.

Of course, Lin Fan only ate a small portion of it.

The rest were all eaten by the Heavenly Hound.

This was not because Lin Fan's food had been snatched away by the Heavenly Hound.

The bear was simply too big. Even a small portion of it was enough for Lin Fan to eat his fill.

Lin Fan looked at the Heavenly Hound that was wagging its tail and reached out to stroke its head.

Generally speaking, a powerful beast like the Heavenly Hound would not let people get close to it easily, let alone let someone touch its head.

However, when Lin Fan touched the head of the Heavenly Hound, it did not dodge or get angry.

Instead, it stood on the spot with a look of enjoyment.

At this moment, an emotionless voice rang out in Lin Fan's ears.

[You're the first person to establish a friendship with a level-six Heavenly Hound. You've received a level-six treasure chest.]

[You're the first person to establish a friendship with a level-six Heavenly Hound. The lifespan of Hua people will increase by ten years.]

At the same time, bright lights shot out from Hua Nation's Void Gates.

Some of the old men who had fallen to the ground stood up very steadily.

Some people who had heart attacks suddenly recovered.

Some people who had been paralyzed by a stroke were suddenly able to walk upright.

...

Miracles appeared in every corner of Hua Nation.

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Xiao Bing exclaimed, "Our lifespan has increased by ten years?"

The bullet comments were like rain, covering the entire live broadcast room.

Brother Qiang: [F*ck!]

Zhang: [F*ck!]

Almost Done: [F*ck!]

...

First, the entire screen was filled with exclamations.

After a while, other comments appeared.

Pure: [Thank you, God Lin, for letting me live another ten years!]

Abandoned: [Thank you, God Lin, for giving me ten extra years!]

Fantasy: Awesome! The Heavenly Hound is actually a level-six beast!]

Fei: [Demon King! This is a proper Demon King!]

Blue Vest: [No wonder the Heavenly Hound could kill the giant bear with one paw!]

Air: [God Lin has established a friendship with the Heavenly Hound. This is too awesome!]

Honor: [It seems that God Lin only gave the Heavenly Hound some food. Oh, he even gave it the Beginner Fire Control Technique, and he became friends with the Heavenly Hound. As expected, people should still adore pets.]

Flower in the Wind: [I thought it was a loss to give the Beginner Fire Control Technique to the Heavenly Hound, but now it seems that it's not bad a choice!]

Man's Heart: [A friendship with a level-six Heavenly Hound. Doesn't that mean that God Lin can do whatever he wants in the other world in the future?]

Ku Ku: [There's nothing wrong with that. God Lin can do whatever he wants!]

...

It was not easy for Yuan Yuan to make the public dissatisfied with Lin Fan and start to panic.

In the end, the situation changed again in the blink of an eye.

There were even some people who questioned her and asked why she was slandering Lin Fan.

The most important thing was that the lifespan of the Hua people had increased by ten years!

She was no longer a citizen of Hua Nation!

She could not enjoy this benefit!

This made Yuan Yuan even more unhappy.

Hence, Yuan Yuan posted on Weibo again.

Yuan Yuan: [Look back on history!

[History has taught us that friendships between two people are not reliable.

[This can also be said for humans and animals.

[I even think that the friendship between humans and animals is even weaker than that between humans.

[Lin Fan has temporarily established a friendship with the Heavenly Hound.

[The advantage is that it can light firewood.

[But in exchange, he lost a fire control skill?

[This isn't worth it.

[In fact, in my opinion, let alone fire control skills, even meat shouldn't be given to the Heavenly Hound.

[Because, at crucial times, meat is survival!

[Lin Fan is still too arrogant, immature, and irresponsible!

[I'm worried about the future.]

Chapter 587 - 587 Unfortunately, There Are No Ifs!

587 Unfortunately, There Are No Ifs!

Yuan Yuan relied on her influence and quickly attracted the attention of many people.

Some people who were originally happy because they had increased their lifespan by ten years began to feel worried again. Many people joined in the discussion.

Don't Forget, Don't Forget: [That's right. It's better to master such technique on your own.]

Farewell: [Sigh, he's still too young.]

...

Lin Fan was completely oblivious to the comments of the people in the real world.

He immediately placed his attention on the ancient chest beside him and casually opened it.

[100 points of spiritual energy. Do you want to use them?]

At the same time, a crisp notification rang out in Lin Fan's mind.

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a special red packet—1,000 points of spiritual energy.]

Instantly, Lin Fan's mind became relaxed and clear.

Then, everything that had happened a long time ago echoed in his mind like a movie. It was clear.

This was a special experience that he had never experienced before.

Lin Fan muttered in his heart, 'Is this the feeling of having an increase in your spiritual energy? It feels pretty good.'

After a while, Lin Fan slowly raised his head and looked at the Heavenly Hound beside him. He realized that it was staring at the orb in the box without blinking. Its entire face was filled with desire.

Lin Fan could not help but laugh, "If you want this spiritual energy, then go and touch it."

After all, the reason why Lin Fan was able to obtain 1,000 points of spiritual energy was also because of the Heavenly Hound.

In addition, the bond he had established with the Heavenly Hound was also considered a friendship.

Friends should share things with each other.

After hearing Lin Fan's words, the Heavenly Hound did not hesitate anymore. It stretched out its paw and touched the light orb.

The Heavenly Hound's pupils flashed slightly, becoming even brighter.

...

The night gradually deepened.

As usual, Lin Fan used his skill—Draw a Circle For Home.

Then, he took out his sleeping bag and fell asleep.

Two days ago, when it was sleeping, the Heavenly Hound would choose to put some distance between itself and Lin Fan.

Humans were afraid of beasts when they slept.

When beasts slept, how could they not be afraid of humans?

However, today, the Heavenly Hound lay quietly beside Lin Fan.

Both of them were sleeping in the forest. It was very quiet and peaceful, forming an extremely warm picture.

At the same time, it also became the new screensaver picture for the viewers.

...

In the blink of an eye, it was the second day.

As usual, Lin Fan put the sleeping bag into his internal space and started his aimless journey with the Heavenly Hound.

When he arrived near a small hill, a crisp voice rang out in Lin Fan's mind.

[Ding! Congratulations, you've been in the Otherworld for 144 hours. You've received 200 points of spiritual energy.]

Lin Fan felt a cool sensation in his head, and his entire body felt even more comfortable and relaxed.

At this moment, a rustling sound suddenly came from the surrounding hills.

The sound was very soft. If it were someone else, they probably would not have heard anything.

Lin Fan was not an ordinary person, though.

However, he was very calm, as if he had not heard anything.

In contrast to Lin Fan's calmness, the Heavenly Hound beside him was starting to feel uneasy.

Its head kept looking around, and it kept turning in circles.

The next moment, a black ant the size of a mouse emerged from the hill.

Then, two, three...

In the end, countless black ants crawled out of the hill.

Hill?

No!

As the black ants crawled out, the hill collapsed and turned into dust.

Wherever the black ants passed, the trees, grass, and rocks all disappeared like bubbles.

The dense black ants circled around Lin Fan and the Heavenly Hound in a fan shape.

They kept moving their mouths and antennae. Looking from afar, it made one's scalp tingle.

Seeing this...

The Heavenly Hound grew more and more anxious. It kept circling around as if it wanted to leave.

However, when it saw Lin Fan, who had not moved at all, it stopped in its tracks.

...

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

"So many scary ants!" Xiao Bing exclaimed.

Late: [Are these ants?!]

People Of the World: [In terms of appearance, they're indeed ants. They're just bigger. Oh right, I'm a biology professor.]

Who Are You: [F*ck! These giant ants are so scary.]

Wind: [Moreover, they easily gnawed on trees and rocks. They're simply super man-eating ants! God Lin, leave quickly!]

Qingchun: God Lin, hurry up and leave!]

Heaven: [Escape!!!]

...

Everyone knew that Lin Fan was extremely powerful.

He could even kill giant pythons and crocodiles with a single strike!

However, the problem was that there were too many ants in front. They were too terrifying.

No one could guarantee that he would be able to kill all of them.

Even the level-six Heavenly Hound was feeling uneasy!

...

When Xia Bing, Xia Xue, Qin Yuxuan, Hu Tian, and the others saw this scene, their breathing stopped slightly.

They all became extremely nervous.

It was as if they were surrounded by countless ants together with Lin Fan.

...

Naturally, Lin Fan did not know the reaction of the people in the real world.

He remained standing calmly on the spot, not moving at all.

Suddenly, the group of ants moved.

They were like sharp arrows that shot toward Lin Fan and the Heavenly Hound.

The Heavenly Hound's eyes narrowed. It opened its mouth and spat out a fireball.

Smoke filled the air, and the ants were quickly reduced to ashes.

Perhaps the flames had a deterrent effect, but for a moment, no ants dared to continue forward.

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Qing Pingle: [These ants seem afraid of fire.]

Mixed Power: The Heavenly Hound can breathe fire. That's great. God Lin is saved.]

Hope: [Ants fear fire!] novELnExt.cOM

Celebration: [Heavenly Hound, continue to breathe fire!]

...

When Yuan Yuan saw that Lin Fan was surrounded by the ants, a smile appeared on his face.

Good!

That was great!

Lin Fan was finally in trouble.

If he died, Hua Nation would suffer a terrible punishment.

Sure enough, her decision to become a citizen of Nashland was the right one.

However, before Yuan Yuan could celebrate for long, the Heavenly Hound suddenly shot out flames to stop the ants.

This made Yuan Yuan a little annoyed.

In her heart, she shouted, 'Ants, don't be afraid! Hurry up and charge!'

Unfortunately, the ants would not listen to her.

Yuan Yuan looked at the bullet comments in the live broadcast room, and her expression changed. Her hands quickly jumped on the keyboard as she made use of the time to make another Weibo post.

Yuan Yuan: [Unfortunately, there are no ifs!

[If Lin Fan wasn't proud and complacent, then the person with the ability to control fire now would be Lin Fan himself!

[Lin Fan could then use his fire control ability to resolve this crisis and help Hua Nation survive the apocalypse.

[Now, he could only place his hopes on a dog.

[Unfortunately, there are no ifs!]

Chapter 588 Words Are Laws; Support!

Yuan Yuan's Weibo post quickly resonated with many people.

More and more people began to criticize Lin Fan. They were filled with pessimism about the future.

...

The dense black ants surrounded Lin Fan and the Heavenly Hound for a long time.

Perhaps, they had already forgotten how terrifying the flames were.

At this moment...

Their antennae suddenly shook violently and made creaking sounds.

Then, four groups of ants surrounded Lin Fan and the Heavenly Hound from four directions.

The Heavenly Hound hurriedly opened its mouth and spat out four fireballs.

Black smoke billowed and burned the four groups of ants.

This action... seemed to anger the ants.

The ants moved out together, forming a tide of ants. They hissed and surrounded Lin Fan and the Heavenly Hound.

The Heavenly Hound let out a roar and spat out flames.

The flames were fierce, but there were more ants.

Finally, many ants gradually passed through the flames of the Heavenly Hound and quickly moved forward, as if they were going to devour the two of them at any time.

The situation was extremely dangerous!

The Heavenly Hound's forehead was sweating profusely.

Everyone in the live broadcast room also felt their hearts beating violently.

At this moment, Lin Fan, who had not moved at all, patted the head of the Heavenly Hound and said casually, "Let me do it."

For some reason, the Heavenly Hound had calmed down after hearing Lin Fan's words.

Lin Fan looked around and said softly, "Burn!"

In an instant...

The bodies of all the black ants were burning with raging flames.

They were scorching hot!

"Destroy!" Lin Fan said softly.

As soon as he finished speaking, the flames were completely extinguished.

The black mass of ants had disappeared without a trace. There was only faint black ash on the ground, which seemed to prove that they had once appeared here.

At this moment, an emotionless voice rang out in Lin Fan's ears.

[First to kill a group of level-two Armored Black Ants. You've obtained a level-five treasure chest.]

[First to kill a group of level-two Armored Black Ants. Hua Nation's greenery will increase by 10%.]

Xiao Bing looked at the screen, her mouth half open. She was completely stunned.

Some of the audience members had a stronger ability to accept it.

Rong Zai: [Earlier, that author, Yuan Yuan, said that God Lin was too young, too proud, and too complacent to give the Beginner Fire Control Technique to the Heavenly Hound. I wanna see what else she'll say now! Damn it!]

Man: [I also saw Yuan Yuan's Weibo post. Moreover, I even scolded Yuan Yuan in the comments below, but she blocked me.]

Invisible Wings: [What? Someone actually slandered God Lin? The last person who slandered God Lin has already been banned and sent in! Brothers, let's go! Let's continue to report her! Let's send her to jail!]

Inside and Outside the Dream: [Does anyone even listen to Yuan Yuan, that traitor who hates the country? She's already obtained her Nashland household registration a long time ago. She can't bear to see Hua Nation doing well now.]

Li Shang: [Our province has a lot more green space!]

Twenty-Something: [Thank you, God Lin, for allowing us to have more plants!]

Hello Tomorrow: [Thank you, God Lin, for allowing us to have more plants!]

...

Xia Bing, Xia Xue, Qin Yuxuan, Hu Tian, Han Tian, and the others all had big smiles on their faces.

That was great.

Lin Fan had passed through the danger again.

Moreover, he had even more power.

That way, he would be safer in the Otherworld!

...

Sitting in front of the screen, a woman looked at the group of Armored Black Ants that Lin Fan had burned to death. She looked at the growing greenery in Hua Nation...

Her entire face became a little distorted.

Why?

Why... did Lin Fan overcome another crisis?

Why was Hua Nation getting better and better?

She looked at the praises everyone was giving Lin Fan and felt even more furious.

Yuan Yuan opened her Weibo and was about to post something to extinguish the joy in everyone's hearts.

At this moment, she realized that her Weibo had been banned.

Yuan Yuan could not help but snort, "You're not letting me post on Weibo? Then I'll go to another place!"

Therefore, Yuan Yuan opened her Weixin account, blog, and Zhihu...

However, she realized that all of these platforms had blocked her accounts without exception.

"F*ck!" Yuan Yuan shouted ferociously. "You can only report me and block my accounts! If you have the ability, send me in! But you can't do it! Because I'm in Nashland!"

In fact, this was also the reason why Yuan Yuan dared to slander Lin Fan on the internet after finding out that Ai Jin had been sent to prison.

Her water meter would not be checked in Nashland.

At this moment, a crisp bell rang outside.

Yuan Yuan looked through the peephole and saw two fair-skinned men in suits. She could not help but slowly open the door.

Then, she changed from her previous malevolence to an extremely gentle and warm smile. "May I ask what you need?"

In her heart, even talking to fair-skinned people was a great thing.

Among them, the man who looked stronger handed over his ID and said, "Hello, we're from the FBI. We found out that you're slandering someone online. Please come with us."

Yuan Yuan was stunned for a moment and said, "This... I... I only said some bad things about Lin Fan and didn't slander anyone. Did you guys misunderstand?"

"There's no misunderstanding! It's because you slandered Lin Fan that we're arresting you," the muscular man said.

"But he's from Hua Nation. You must be mistaken..." Yuan Yuan said.

As she spoke, she seemed a little agitated and accidentally knocked over the vase beside her.

The two men immediately pulled out their pistols and shouted in unison, "You're assaulting the police force!"

Then, they pressed Yuan Yuan onto the ground so hard that she could not move at all.

Soon, Yuan Yuan was taken away.

At this moment, a man of a different ethnicity walked over from afar and said to a fair-skinned man in an investigation uniform, "Well done! Our Qing Hong Sect will support you."

"Thank you!" the fair-skinned man said excitedly.

Chapter 589 Promotion; Repaid Wages

Lin Fan had no idea what was going on in the real world.

At this moment, he placed his attention on the ancient chest in front of him and casually opened it.

A ball of light appeared.

Then, an emotionless voice sounded in his ear.

[300 points of Constitution. Do you want to use them?]

At the same time, a crisp notification rang out in Lin Fan's mind.

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a special red packet—3,000 Constitution points.]

Instantly, Lin Fan's muscles and bones seemed to have been inflated. They instantly became thicker, and his skin shone with a faint metallic luster.

Soon, his muscles and bones began to compress and condense, slowly returning to their original state. His skin became fairer and purer.

Lin Fan clenched his fists gently. A feeling of power that he had never felt before circulated between his fingers.

He had a very real feeling that a casual punch of his could blow up a tall building.

After a while, Lin Fan slowly turned his head and looked at the stunned Heavenly Hound.

Earlier, he was suddenly surrounded by a dense group of Armored Black Ants.

Immediately after, the Armored Black Ants suddenly burst into flames again...

The huge ups and downs seemed to make it difficult for the Heavenly Hound to digest.

Lin Fan thought back to the scene of the Armored Black Ants charging at him and the Heavenly Hound not abandoning him, resisting with all its might. He nodded his head slightly and said, "Heavenly Hound, you can go and use these 300 points of Constitution."

The Heavenly Hound looked at Lin Fan before walking forward hesitantly.

The ball of light entered the body of the Heavenly Hound, and its claws became even thicker.

παΠdasNovel.com Then, an emotionless voice sounded in Lin Fan's ears.

[First to help a level-six Heavenly Hound reach level seven. You've received a level-three treasure chest.]

[First to help a level-six Heavenly Hound reach level seven. The air quality in Hua Nation has improved by 10%.]

Unsurprisingly, an ancient chest appeared in front of Lin Fan.

[50 points of Constitution. Do you want to use them?]

Following that, Lin Fan's mind rang out with a crisp notification.

[Ding! Congratulations, you've received a special red packet—500 Constitution points.]

Instantly, the muscles in Lin Fan's body started to squirm as his strength increased once more.

Therefore, he allowed the Heavenly Hound to obtain 350 points of Constitution.

In the end, he got 3,500 points of Constitution?

Not bad!

Then, Lin Fan said to the Heavenly Hound, "Use these 50 points of Constitution."

The Heavenly Hound had already experienced the benefits of having a strong physique. After receiving Lin Fan's affirmation, it did not hesitate anymore and stretched out its paw to touch the ball of light.

After everything was over, Lin Fan and the Heavenly Hound continued their journey forward.

On the other hand, in Qing City, Hua Nation.

Lin Tao, Dai Weixue, and Lin Xiaoyao's family were getting nervous as Lin Fan encountered one terrifying monster after another.

When Lin Fan killed these monsters and displayed his incredible strength, they were filled with joy.

At this moment, there was a light knock on the door.

After opening the door, two men in white shirts walked in with gifts in their hands and smiles on their faces.

Lin Tao was a little hesitant. "Factory Manager Huang and Chief Engineer Liu?"

The two men said happily, "Haha, Lin Tao, I didn't expect you to remember us. However, calling us Factory Manager Huang and Chief Engineer Liu is too formal. You can just call us Old Huang and Old Liu."

The two of them were Lin Tao and Dai Weixue's former factory manager and chief engineer. I think you should take a look at

"Factory Manager Huang, Chief Engineer Liu, come in and take a seat," Dai Weixue hurriedly said.

"Then we'll have to trouble you." The two of them laughed.

After entering, they first reminisced about what had happened in the factory back then.

"You were the top workers and the benchmark in the factory!" Manager Huang said. "Although you've already left the factory, in fact, the factory had already planned to promote you to managers at that time. In fact, we've even kept your positions..."

"We're here this time to pay you your salaries for the past few years. In the future, your monthly salary will be paid to your accounts on time."

Lin Tao and Dai Weixue were obviously stunned.

They had never expected that the factory manager and chief engineer would come to their house to give them their salary.

"Manager Huang, we've opened a clothing store now. I'm afraid we can't go to the factory anymore, so..." Lin Tao said.

Manager Huang smiled and waved his hand. "It's okay. It's okay if you don't go to the factory. Of course, it's better if you have time to come and take a look around. Many old friends miss you very much!"

After another round of small talk and under the insistence of Factory Manager Huang and Chief Engineer Liu, it was decided that the salaries would still be paid.

Lin Tao and Dai Weixue looked at the two people who were getting farther and farther away, then looked at the bank cards in their hands. They were still at a loss.

However, this was only the beginning.

The principals of Lin Fan's high school, middle school, and even primary school came to visit.

In the end, even the leaders of Qing City came to visit the family personally.

Lin Tao and Dai Weixue understood that this was all because of their son.

This was because his son was a mathematician who had solved many unsolved mathematical problems. He was a professor who had invented high-tech technologies such as the earthquake prediction device, the carbon-based photolithographic machine, and artificial limbs. He had even won the Nobel Prize!

In addition, their son was the only chosen hero in Hua Nation!

In the past, these people did not know about these things.

However, the moment Lin Fan entered the Otherworld, he was completely exposed!

Lin Tao and Dai Weixue had left their jobs for more than ten years. Why would the factory manager and chief engineer still come and look for them with a promotion and bank cards?

As for being model workers and the benchmark, that was completely impossible.

One had to know...

Lin Tao was often criticized for being lazy in the past.

Lin Tao and Dai Weixue did not care about money or fame.

At this moment, the only thing they hoped for was for Lin Fan to return safely.

Five days passed in a flash...

In these five days, Lin Fan did not encounter any other beasts. He brought the Heavenly Hound around every day and ate roasted meat. It was extremely comfortable.

It felt as if they were not adventuring in the Otherworld at all. They were just camping.

In these five days, Lin Fan had already walked more than 200,000 steps and obtained two special red packets. In addition to the five special red packets, Lin Fan's now had 1,100 Constitution points and 600 points of spiritual energy.

Today, the sun was slowly rising.

As usual, Lin Fan placed the sleeping bag into his internal space and began his stroll.

After walking for a while, a clear notification sounded in his mind.

[Ding! You've been in the Otherworld for 264 hours. You've received an Advanced Ice Control Spell.]

Instantly, Lin Fan felt his body cool down.

At the same time, in Lin Fan's field of vision, there were many unique ice elements in the air.

Lin Fan had a very real feeling. As long as he willed it, the ice element would gather quickly. He could form icicles, ice cubes, ice balls, or other ice objects with his mind. It was very magical.

With this feeling, Lin Fan's lips curled up into a smile.

Then, his footsteps unconsciously became much lighter.

Phillus was one of them.

He was a retired soldier with good physical fitness and shooting ability.

After entering the other world, many of the chosen ones relied on compressed biscuits and licorice to survive. In just a few days, most of them had become sallow and emaciated. They were in a very sorry state.

However, Phillus relied on his survival skills in the wild, his good physical fitness, and his excellent shooting ability to hunt big rabbits.

Although he was not as satisfied as Lin Fan... At least he could ensure that there was meat to eat every day and he would not be too miserable.

After a night's rest, Phillus carried his luggage and guns. He maintained his vigilance and kept moving forward.

After entering the Otherworld, he once encountered a huge gorilla. It had taken him a lot of effort to successfully escape.

This made Phillus understand that the Otherworld was not safe.

Therefore, he was very careful at every minute.

At this moment, a lake appeared in the distance.

It was clear and spacious.

Phillus could not help but swallow his saliva.

The rabbits in the Otherworld were slightly larger than those on Earth.

However, even though Phillus tried his best to eat sparingly every day, he had already run out of rabbits to hunt.

In addition, the drinking water he carried with him was almost exhausted.

The lake in front of him was a huge supply station for him.

In fact, if he settled down on the lake...

He felt that he could live on forever.

First of all, he did not have to worry about drinking water.

In addition, there would definitely be fish in such a large lake. This was an inexhaustible source of food!

Phillus first looked around. After making sure that there was no danger, he held the handle of the gun and slowly approached the lake.

pandasnovel.com However, when he was about ten meters away from the lake, Phillus suddenly stopped.

He suddenly remembered that he was the Otherworld. In the unknown depths of the water, there was a high possibility of danger.

Thus, Phillus slowly retreated.

However, it was also at this time...

A huge tentacle as thick as a tree trunk suddenly stretched out from the calm bottom of the lake and shot toward Phillus.

Phillus' heart thumped wildly, and he quickly pulled the trigger.

Blood splattered on the surface of the tentacle, but it did not stop moving forward.

In the end, the tentacle wrapped around Phillus and dragged him into the lake. No matter how Phillus slapped, struggled, or fired, it was useless.

After a few bubbles appeared on the surface of the lake, everything returned to calm.

Immediately after, an emotionless voice sounded in the ears of the Nashland people.

[Phillus, the chosen one, has died. The air quality in Nashland has dropped by 20%.]

In Nashland's live broadcast room.

Cyan: [F*ck! The location that God Lin is heading to seems to be the place where the retired American soldier just walked past!]

Little Bridge Running Water: [That's true. God Lin, you'd better not go any farther.]

Man in the Wind: [God Lin went to the lake once and met a giant crocodile. He probably won't go again this time, right?]novEInext.cOm

Lin Fan did not see everyone's reminders at all. He walked forward unhurriedly.

After passing through a patch of withered grass, a lake appeared in front of him.

Silence!

Deadly silence!

The Heavenly Hound sniffed. As if it had sensed something, its eyes became stern.

However, Lin Fan did not stop there. He continued walking forward, getting closer and closer to the surface of the lake.

100 meters.

90 meters.

80 meters.

...

Lin Fan kept taking steps forward. Every step he took felt like he was stepping on the hearts of the live audience.

When he was only ten meters away from the lake...

A thick tentacle suddenly jumped out from the bottom of the lake. Its target... was Lin Fan and the Heavenly Hound!

The Heavenly Hound barked.

Its body instantly became three meters tall. At the same time, it extended its sharp claws that were like steel knives and slapped fiercely.

The thick tentacle was like a sausage, directly cutting into several pieces as fresh blood splattered everywhere.

Suddenly, a roar sounded from the lake.

Then, a dozen thick tentacles shot toward Lin Fan and the Heavenly Hound.

The Heavenly Hound either waved its claws or bit down, trying its best to resist. It snapped the tentacles to the ground.

The roars of the monster in the lake became even more ear-piercing.

At the same time, the surface of the vast lake churned violently. The water level rose continuously, forming a tsunami that was more than a hundred meters tall, like a towering wall of water.

There was a roar.

The tsunami swept out with terrifying power and slammed toward the Heavenly Hound and Lin Fan.

Seeing this...

The Heavenly Hound's pupils contracted slightly.

Even the Heavenly Hound felt a trace of fear from such a terrifying tsunami.

In Hua Nation's live broadcast room.

Xiao Bing shouted, "God Lin, run!"

My People: [Hurry up and leave!]

Tiny Teenager: [Run!]

Boxer: [Run! It's dangerous!]

...

Xia Bing, Xia Xue, Qin Yuxuan, and the others clenched their fists tightly and prayed in their hearts, 'Lin Fan, you have to be safe!'

...

Perhaps the crowd's call had worked.

Lin Fan, who had not moved at all, finally opened his eyes.

Just as the terrifying tsunami was about to hit him, Lin Fan opened his mouth and spat out a word, "Freeze!"

A gust of cold air spread rapidly.

The tsunami that was about to strike down instantly solidified and froze!

No!

Not only did the tsunami freeze, but the entire lake had also turned into a thick layer of ice!

Inside the ice, one could vaguely see a huge octopus monster and many small fish... None of them could move.

At this moment, it was as if space itself had been frozen. It was extremely strange.

Lin Fan pulled out the Star Meteorite Sword from his waist and waved it out casually.

[Skill: Sword 2!]

In the next moment, the octopus monster trapped in the ice layer was directly cut into countless pieces.

The thick tentacles that were originally wrapped around the Heavenly Hound also fell to the ground.

At the same time, an emotionless voice rang out in Lin Fan's ears.

[The first to kill a level-five Abyssal Octopus. You've obtained a level-five treasure chest.]
