

Chapter 3 - Rejected

" You're a f*****g slut."

Kick.

" A lthy bitch."

Kick.

" Why are you even alive ?"

Kick.

" I hate you so f*****g much."

Kick.

" Just wait for it to get boiling hot then I'll pour it on your ugly face."

Kick.

I'm currently lying on the kitchen oor getting kicked in my tummy by my hubby. He keeps cursing and kicking me with free punches included.

Tears were uncontrollably owing out of my eyes as I pray for my baby's safety , even though I tried to protect it , Erik is directly kicking my womb now.

My body couldn't take it after all this , getting whipped , raped , beaten and now he's going to pour hot oil on me . He is currently waiting for it to get extremely hot while beating me like a punching bag.

Suddenly I felt extreme pain in my lower abdomen , the fear of losing my baby struck me and I hold his feet which was going to kick me again.

" Erik . . .nnno. . . I . . . .babbbyyy." I mumble coughing. If I'll tell him about our baby , maybe he'll stop.

" Shut up b***h , don't even try to act innocent and loving to me. I've seen your real face." he growls and spits on my face.

" Its nally boiling hot." he mutters walking near the stove when someone screams from the main entrance.

I know that voice as mom's. I hear many footsteps coming from the other side. Someone's hands wrap around me and pull my upper body in her lap. It was mom.

" Amber , oh my god. Are de. . .dear are you okay ?" she asks as tears ow down her cheeks.

" Don't." I whisper . She looks at me confused for a while then she understood what I am saying.

" What's happening here ?" My dad's voice comes but stops suddenly.

I look up and see my whole family standing there with shocked expressions on their faces. My brother Alex is breathing heavily and his eyes are pitch black as if he is controlling his anger on Erik.

" Erik , what's this ?" Jack yells.

" Didn't you see that she was whoring around ?" Erik yelled.

" Erik , that doesn't give you the right to behave like this with my daughter." Erik's father yells.

" Dad , she-" Erik says but mom cuts him off.

" Were my morals that weak ?" she screams sobbing.

" Mom , she cheated on me." Erik growls.

" But brother , she is bleeding so bad." Sophia , Erik's sister says looking at my worriedly.

" Let her bleed , she's a f*****g lthy slut." Erik says coming towards me but Alex comes in front of him and pushes him back.

" Erik , you're a bastard. Don't you dare touch her again." Jack yells sitting beside mom and holding my bloodied hand in his.

" Oh , so you were also f*****g her that's why you're protecting her now." Erik laughs and my heart stopped beating for a second.

In shock , Jack leaves my hand and it falls on my thigh with soft thud. I look at him with tearlled eyes but he just glares at me and Jack.

" Ho. . .how. . .could. . . you . . . .say. . .say that ?" he mutters looking at him without blinking. Jack always treated me like his little sister as this comment of Erik is questioning the purity of our relationship.

" Oh come Jack , when she can f**k my cousin brother , why can't she open her legs for my own brother ? I know she's a slut and she has done it with you that's why you're supporting this lthy bitch." Erik laughs.

Alex breaks the edge of the wooden table he was holding on with his eyes red , I know he is controlling his anger and his tears. Being the delta of Erik , he can't raise his hand on him but Jack forgot this rule when those horrible words left his mouth .

" Erik , you f*****g asshole." Jack growls punching him.

Erik stumbles back because of the sudden force but regains his composure and punches Jack. They keep ghiting and cursing each other as I feel black dots appearing on my vision.

" Erik , Jack its not a time to ght like dogs." Alex's faint voice comes.

" Alex , look at Amber." My mother's voice comes before I'm surrounded by darkness.

----

The rst thing that I realize is the beeping sound which is quite irritating. I open my heavy eyes groaning in pain , it felt like hundreds of needles were being pushed on my body.

" Erik." I mumble opening my eyes.

I see white walls and white couches in the room , my brother and Jack were sleeping on one couch. Alex was sleeping on the couch while Jack was on his lap like a baby , they both were cuddling each other.

My mom and mother were sitting on the other couch holding hands but not talking. I moved my gaze and saw my father and Erik's dad talking while leaning on the wall.

I see machines by my side and they were attached to me , a nasal cannula was also attached in my nostrils and two needles were injected in my wrists.

I looked around again but didn't nd Erik anywhere. I was just going to call mom when I felt extreme pain in my tummy which made me scream. I clutched my tummy in pain forgetting about the needles that were now twisted in my wrists because the pain was unbearable.

I screamed and arched my back in extreme agony , it was like someone was tearing me apart from inside. Tears started owing down my eyes and my screams didn't stop. I feet hands on my body to calm me down but in front of the pain , I lost my sanity and begin screaming like a madwoman .

" Call him." I hear someone shouting.

My screaming gets louder by each moving second , after a few minutes I see Erik rush in the room with Alex. My pain reduced to some extent but didn't go away , Erik stood near the bed with a glaring face.

Mom came by my side and wiped the sweat beads from my face , a doctor rushed in the room the same time and sat beside me. She placed a stethoscope on my tummy and then on my heart. She took my wrists and placed two ngers near my pulse.

" Its her rst time ." she muttered picking up a white towel and dabbing it on his forehead and neck as I felt sweat running on me.

" First time of what ?" Alex asked.

" Her wolf was in pain. If Alpha didn't take the nurse in the storeroom , it wouldn't happen." the doctor says scribbling on the paper pad.

My eyes go wide and I felt my heart shattering in me. A loud sob escapes my mouth and tears start owing again. I look at Erik who had a smirk on his face. He walks up to me and leans down , he wipes my tears way with his thumb .

" How does it feel to know your husband was f*****g someone a minute ago ?" he mocks in a sweet voice.

" Erik." His father's voice booms in the room.

" How could you ?" Jack asks in disbelief.

" If she can f**k my brother , then a nurse is not a biggie for me." Erik replies coolly.

Mom walks up to him and a smack sound echoes in the silent room. She grabs his collar and pulls him forward slapping him again. She keeps slapping him till she gets tired and sits down on my bed getting defeated by him.

" I can't believe I gave birth to a monster." she sobs.

" Mom , she cheated on me." Erik yells.

" Enough." my dad says.

" Please everyone , you're in a hospital." the doctor says looking at me again.

" She is bleeding which is a result of rape I believe and her body shows signs of a lot abuse." the doctor mutters looking at my face keenly.

" I'm the alpha here." Erik growls.

" I'm very well aware of it." the doctor mutters.

" When your mate has s*x with someone else , you'll feel the same thing which you felt now Amber. Its like that your wolf feels the pain and it hurts you more and more." the doctor explained.

I've heard such things that the other mate feels pain when his/her mate cheats on them. I felt the same way they described about it. I start sobbing loudly as my mind couldn't believe that Erik cheated on me.

" Is she ne ?" Alex grumbles glaring at Erik.

" Yes , I've given her injection to stop bleeding of her privates and the whip welts will take time. And I'll do the dressing on the cuts on her wrist she got now." she says picking up some cotton gauze.

" How did she get a cut on writs ?" Erik asks glaring.

" When you were busy f*****g a w***e , she felt pain and in that the needles in her wrists got twisted and turned. You can't imagine the pain she is going through." Alex mutters as Jack nods his head in approval.

" Amber , we need to talk." Erik says cutting the doctor off.

" Erik , listen to me once." my voice came out hoarse and horrible , I was speaking after such a long time.

" No , you have to listen to this." his voice was cold and hard.

" Erik , don't do anything without listening to her." his dad yells.

" I , Erik Hems-" he starts but is cut off.

" Erik , you'll regret this." my mother yells.

" Erik don't. " mom says pleadingly.

" I Erik Hemsworth , Alpha of Dark moon pack reject you Amber Hems_."

" Erik don't."

" Erik , think before doing it."

" Erik , you'll regret this."

" No , Erik wait."

" Reject you Amber Hemsworth as my mate and Luna." he nishes.

" ERIK." everyone's voice sounds in the room as everyone screams at him but I sit there getting numb by his words.

" I Erik Hemsworth , Alpha of Dark Moon pack reject you , Amber Hemsworth as my mate and Luna." he says in a complete sentence and I felt pain of my heart breaking into million pieces.

Everyone starts yelling profanities at him but my body starts feeling numb , I feel a loud irritating whistle like sound in my ear and my vision gets blurred.

I am pregnant.

I got raped.

My mate , my husband rejected me .

I am pregnant , raped and rejected.

What am I going to do now ??
