

Chapter 5 - My Broken Love

Erik Hemsworth's POV

I put my phone down after looking at her cute pictures which she sent to torture me three days ago , my wife is really a devil but a cute one.

" Erik , focus man." Jack whispers glaring at me.

I look up and see everyone looking at me , why the hell are they looking at me now ?

" What do you think about this new project of making higher fences at the borders ?" Alex asks winking at me , he saved me from getting caught for not paying attention.

" Amazing. The fences will prevent rogues from getting in and causing harm. The idea is perfect." I say sounding like an arrogant alpha.

All of them nod their heads in approval and start discussing about another topic. I try to focus on the meeting but everytime my mind goes back to Amber , that little monster is going to get it once I go back home.

My phone tings again as a sign of another message . I mentally make a note that if its Amber again , I'll be leaving this meeting right here and going home.

I open my phone and see woman on the bed with a man on top of her. The woman is moaning as the man seemed to increase his pace. She screamed Jace loudly and that's when I looked closely and see that the man is no other than my cousin brother Jace.

I know he has a habit of fg his sluts but why is he sending me his videos , he knows it very well that I will never get interested in any other girl than my Amber. I was putting the phone back when the woman turned her head and my world shattered.

The woman on the bed was my Amber. My hands start shaking and sweat beads form on my forehead. I gulp down the bile which was rising in my throat and look at the screen again conrming that its my wife.

I look up and see everyone staring at their phones , some were gasping , some had neutral face and some were smirking.

I look at Alex and Jack to see tears in their eyes. Clenching my sts , I knew what they all were looking at.

I storm out of the room and get into my car driving home at full speed , Amber is cheating on me with that too with my brother. She made a fg joke of me in front of all the alphas.

Arriving at home , I spot four guards laughing and looking into a phone , I walk towards them and snatch the phone from them looking at it.

As expected it was my wife whoring with my brother it , I throw the phone and walk into the house before glaring at them.

I knock on the door and she appears , without wasting a second she wraps her arms around me but it angers me to see her fake love when in reality she's cheating on me.

I give her some cold words and slap her , upon seeing the video her face pales and she starts stuttering lies. That's when I lost it and beat her into a crap , I raped her brutally knowing it will hurt her a lot and dragged her to the kitchen to pour hot oil on her disgusting face but everyone arrived at the same time and saved her or that bh would have been dead by my hands.

They rush her to the hospital with me following behind because my dad was throwing daggers at me , at the reception a nurse was trying really hard to irt with me and thinking about Amber's betrayal , I fd the nurse in the storeroom . If she can fk men behind my back , I can also fk whores like her but instead of hiding it I will tell her this myself.

Jack came barging in the room and told me that Amber was not well because of the mate bond . I threw the nurse in a corner and ran to her room even though her state was breaking my heart , I rejected her and walked away from there. Her innocent eyes and broken voice was persuading me to et on my knees and ask for forgiveness from my princess but the image of her with Jace came in my mind each time I looked at her face.

After crying my heart out in the forest , I started spending time with the pack sluts fg them knowing that Amber will feel it and burn in the pain of being cheated. Even though I didn't feel any pain because of being an alpha , I know it will hurt her a lot.

Today she came home and the whole family red at her , I banished her from my pack because I couldn't bear her face anymore. The men threw comments at her and I had to stop myself from ripping them apart but I masked my emotions with a smirk knowing it will hurt her.

I humiliated her and moreover her relations with Jack and Alex were questioned , if she can fk Jace then Jack wouldn't be a problem for her but I didn't think about Alex. The girl who seemed the most innocent in the whole world turned out to be the most disgusting woman.

When she ran away from our house after I showered her with my cruel words , everyone seemed to be happy except my brother and parents and her family. Ignoring them I made my way to my room , I didn't go into my room after sending her to the hospital . I just couldn't bear the memories of US again.

Walking in the room , I spotted blood on the oor and also a lot of blood on the mattress. I didn't know that they'll be a day where I'll rape my own wife so brutally and painfully.

I fall back into the bed closing my eyes and hoping that all this could vanish like a horrible nightmare and we get back to our lives in the way we used to , but nothing happened because this is the bitter truth of my life now.

I look around and see ashes of my and Amber smiling , playing , kissing , ghting , eating and doing all sorts of crazy things in this room. This was our little heaven which we made with love but she fg broke everything because I was not enough for her.

A lone tear escaped my eye but I wiped it quickly promising to myself that I'll never shed a tear for that bh. I stood up and walked out deciding on which of my whores to fk now.

I hate you Amber and I really wish that you have a horrible death.
