

Small Farmer Medical God #Chapter 11 - 11 Threaten Me? - Read Small Farmer Medical God Chapter 11 - 11 Threaten Me?

From before, Hu Xiaobei had been the center of everyone's attention, so when Hu Xiaobei quickly lifted the black cloth, everyone subconsciously turned to look!

At that moment, everyone was shocked by the scene before them...

"This... is this Calendula Flower? My god! I've never seen such a vigorous Calendula Flower!"

"Me neither! Is that Thunder Tooth Grass? It's so big! It looks to be over ten years old!"

"Right! That's the Overlord Pearl..."

After a brief shock, everyone came to their senses, and at that moment, were completely dumbstruck!

Just a while ago, they were all mocking Hu Xiaobei, but now, they knew Hu Xiaobei was truly awesome!

While being simultaneously shocked, they all felt a burning pain on their faces!

"This..."

While everyone was feeling the sting on their faces, the proud Qian Fei was also full of disbelief...

Before, Qian Fei thought it was already impressive for Hu Xiaobei to bring out one or two medicinal herbs, but now she knew that what he brought out was several times more than her own...

"You..."

Qian Fei opened her mouth, but was completely at a loss for words, because at that moment her mind was a complete blank...

Upstairs, the manager from headquarters and the store manager of this procurement station didn't hesitate to rush downstairs!

Laymen watch the excitement; experts watch the gateway!

As true experts, they knew the value of these medicinal herbs very well, and that's why they could not sit still any longer!

Hu Xiaobei didn't know they were hurrying down, after scanning the room with his eyes, he scoffed...

After doing so, Hu Xiaobei covered the herbs again with the black cloth...

As Hu Xiaobei covered them, everyone felt somewhat regretful because they hadn't had enough of a look!

Hu Xiaobei didn't care about their regret and quickly grabbed his medicine basket before turning to leave!

Seeing Hu Xiaobei coming this way, everyone instinctively cleared a path!

There was no helping it; at this moment, everyone's faces were slapped red by Hu Xiaobei, so they now lacked the courage to meet his gaze again!

Lu Yuan, seeing Hu Xiaobei leaving, quickly snapped back to reality!

Lu Yuan knew that the managers from headquarters were watching from the second floor, so if he let Hu Xiaobei walk away now, he'd be completely finished!

With that thought, he knew he had to stop Hu Xiaobei immediately!

At this moment, Lu Yuan was filled with regret!

If he had known Hu Xiaobei had so many medicinal herbs, he would not have shown off in front of Hu Xiaobei earlier!

But he knew that it was too late for regrets now!

After his mouth twitched, Lu Yuan quickly walked out and stopped Hu Xiaobei while everyone was still in shock, smiling fully and saying, "Sir, I'm truly sorry about earlier, now it's your turn! Let me properly assess these herbs for you!"

After giving him a look, Hu Xiaobei coldly said, "A good dog doesn't stand in the way, get out of my sight!"

Being called out by Hu Xiaobei, Lu Yuan's expression turned unsightly, but he knew he had to endure, "Sir, I know I went too far earlier, but you walking away like this isn't good for either of us, right! Plus, you know we are the largest procurement station in Lake Water County, so making an enemy out of us really does you no good, don't you think!"

The more he listened, the more it felt off, Hu Xiaobei said darkly, "Are you threatening me?"

After looking at Hu Xiaobei, Lu Yuan smiled sinisterly, "It's not a threat, just wanting you to understand, sometimes, people need to learn to bow their heads! Otherwise, you really will hit a wall!"

Shade is favorable under a large tree!

Lu Yuan knew he was backed by a towering tree, so he really didn't need to plead with him, just make him understand the stakes, and he would know what to do!

...

""This fucking idiot!""

The manager and the store manager, who had run down from upstairs, heard Lu Yuan's words and cursed inwardly!

At this moment, they really wanted to kick this fool to death!

If they were dealing with an ordinary person, such intimidation would have been very effective!

But Hu Xiaobei was obviously no ordinary person, for an average person simply couldn't get hold of so many medicinal herbs!

"Heh heh! I..."

Hu Xiaobei hadn't finished speaking when he saw two people quickly running over!

Hu Xiaobei noticed them, and so did the others; everyone couldn't help but their pupils shrink slightly for a moment!

Because they recognized that the two people rushing over were none other than the manager and the store manager of this procurement station!

"Manager, Store Manager!"

Seeing the two people, Lu Yuan greeted them with a smile, but before he could finish, the store manager slapped him fiercely across the face...

"Shut the fuck up!"

After the store manager roared crazily, he ignored the stunned Lu Yuan and turned to Hu Xiaobei with a smile, saying, "Sir, I am the manager here. Our staff have offended you just now, and I would like to apologize on his behalf!"

"Hiss..."

Hearing this apology, everyone on the scene took a sharp intake of breath!

Qian Fei and her mother's faces suddenly changed...

They hadn't expected the store manager would be so polite to Hu Xiaobei...

The store manager felt everyone's astonishment but didn't care at all...

After giving a cold glance at the bewildered Lu Yuan sitting on the ground, he growled, "Aren't you going to apologize?"

"I..."

Hearing the store manager ask him to apologize, Lu Yuan's eyes twitched furiously...

Seeing that he still disagreed, the store manager said coldly, "Are you deaf?"

Feeling the manager's complete annoyance, he knew he had to apologize. With that thought, the Lu Yuan who was covering his face quickly blurted out, "I'm sorry!"

Sensing that he was still reluctant, Hu Xiaobei spoke up indifferently, "Employing such people really affects your image!"

"Yes! Indeed it does!"

With these words, the store manager turned to Lu Yuan and said, "You're fired! Now get the hell out of here!"

"I..."

Lu Yuan was dumbfounded!

Not just Lu Yuan, everyone present was dumbfounded!

Because they hadn't expected the store manager to be so decisive...

Seeing that Lu Yuan had no intention of leaving, the store manager looked at the security guards standing to the side and said, "What are you all staring at? Drag him out of here!"

"Yes!"

The security guards quickly came to their senses as they were instructed, and they swiftly dragged away Lu Yuan, whose face had turned ashen...

"Sir, I wonder if you're satisfied with this resolution?"

"Mm!"

"Now, can you show us the medicinal herbs so I can have a good look? Rest assured, we will definitely make you a satisfactory offer!"

"Alright!"

Nodding slightly, Hu Xiaobei once again undid the black cloth, and quickly emptied all the herbs from the medicine baskets. Instantly, the tantalizing scent of the herbs spread through the air...
