While Hu Xiaobei was thinking this, Han Xueyao and Han Jiayuan also saw what was happening over there...

After quickly averting their gaze, Han Xueyao said, "Alright, it has nothing to do with us, let's go back."

Hearing this, Hu Xiaobei nodded in agreement.

And so, the three of them walked back. Hu Xiaobei knew that the mother and daughter held not the slightest bit of good feeling towards Wang Dagui, so now, seeing Wang Dagui leading people to plant fruit trees did not interest them at all...

Over there, thanks to the vigorous encouragement of the yangge dance team, many villagers had gathered!

Seeing more and more villagers arriving, Wang Dagui was in high spirits!

At that moment, after surveying everyone once more, Wang Dagui leisurely took out a megaphone he had prepared earlier and shouted, "Everyone! Today is the first day that Xiaohe Village and President Fang, Fang Zhonghu, have established our cooperation. The saplings have already been transported over by President Fang's side, and soon, professional teachers will also come here to show us how to plant fruit trees!"

"Great!"

"The village chief is amazing!"

"Following the village chief, we can't go wrong!"

No sooner had Wang Dagui finished speaking than those idle loafers in the village quickly chimed in!

Hearing these flattering comments, Wang Dagui gave a very satisfied laugh.

Just as he was about to say something else, Wang Dagui suddenly noticed a black sedan slowly appearing...

Knowing that seated in the sedan was the expert sent from Fang Zhonghu's side, he quickly trotted over...

Those standing on the ground, upon seeing Wang Dagui running over so respectfully, quickly swarmed around as well...

...

As soon as he approached, Wang Dagui saw a middle-aged man with an almost completely bald head step out of the car.

"Hello, may I ask if you are Teacher Qian, Qian Shidie?"

Hearing the slightly ingratiating query, the man scratched at the few hairs on his head and responded, "Yes, that's me! Are you the village chief of this Xiaohe Village?"

"Yes, my name is Wang Dagui!"

"Alright then! Are all those who need to get the saplings here?"

"Yes! Everyone's here!"

"That's all? There are so few?"

"Yes! Most people in the village have chosen to plant medicinal herbs, so there aren't many here this time!"

Wang Dagui explained this somewhat embarrassedly...

He knew that if Hu Xiaobei had been meddling, the number of people coming to get saplings would surely have doubled...

"Planting medicinal herbs? What a joke! Do you think medicinal herbs are something you people can just decide to plant? That's a stupid idea!"

Hearing that others had chosen to plant medicinal herbs, Qian Shidie paused for a moment before scoffing in disdain. In his view, the idea that ordinary people could make money by planting medicinal herbs was downright impossible!

"I think so too, but those people still want to plant them, and there's nothing we can do about it!"

"No worries, soon those idiots will realize that planting medicinal herbs is just a waste of time! Now, let's hurry up and distribute the saplings, and then I'll go to the field and teach you all how to plant them!"

"Okay!"

After Wang Dagui agreed, he quickly started the distribution!

The idle loafers in the village, seeing that the saplings were being handed out, quickly pushed their way to the front!

They hadn't bothered to farm their land at all before, so their own fields had long since gone to waste. In their view, farming was too much of a hassle, so they were really too lazy to plant!

Knowing that planting fruit trees was easy, they were now anxiously coming to collect the saplings...

...

"Let's go, let's plant the medicinal herbs together!"

While Wang Dagui was getting ready to plant fruit trees behind the village, Hu Xiaobei and her mother and daughter were also preparing to go there, but Hu Xiaobei was leading them to plant Isatis roots!

In the field, seeing Hu Xiaobei just casually scattering seeds on the ground, Han Xueyao and Han Jiayuan, the mother and daughter, were slightly stunned!

To them, this seemed a bit too careless!

Just as they were about to say something, mocking words had already come flying over swiftly!

"Haha, Hu Xiaobei, what are you doing, feeding chickens?"

"That's right, who plants like you do!"

"Idiot, you don't know anything and you're trying to plant medicinal herbs!"

Hu Xiaobei turned around and saw Wang Dagui and others sneering in this direction.

Watching each of them carrying saplings, Hu Xiaobei knew they were now ready to plant fruit trees.

"Hehe!"

Not wanting to deal with them, Hu Xiaobei laughed dismissively and continued to scatter seeds.

Seeing Hu Xiaobei outright ignoring him, Wang Dagui clenched his fist resentfully!

The next moment, he looked over at Han Xueyao and Han Jiayuan standing to the side and said with a pleasant expression, "Xueyao, don't get fooled by this idiot Hu Xiaobei, come and plant fruit trees with us instead! Planting medicinal herbs is simply a waste of time!"

"Thank you for the concern, village chief, but no thanks!"

Han Xueyao didn't even look at him and directly refused!

Rejected so bluntly, Wang Dagui's face turned unsightly in an instant...

Just as he was about to say something, Qian Shidie was the first to speak up, "Who are these people?"

Hearing Qian Shidie's curious question, Wang Dagui quickly introduced, "This mother and daughter are Han Xueyao and Han Jiayuan, and the one scattering seeds is Hu Xiaobei! It was him who convinced a large part of the village to plant medicinal herbs with him!"

Upon hearing Wang Dagui say this, Qian Shidie nodded his head and soon scoffed, "Hu Xiaobei, huh? You can't possibly succeed in planting medicinal herbs like this! You're just harming other people!"

Hearing Qian Shidie speak up, Wang Dagui and the others quickly joined in the chorus!

"That's right, you're just wasting such good land!"

"Exactly, if you don't know how to do it, don't mess around!"

"Yes, yes!"

Listening to their continued nonsense, Hu Xiaobei frowned...

Before, Hu Xiaobei really didn't want to deal with them, but now it seems that not dealing with them just wasn't going to work!

Thinking this, Hu Xiaobei directly said, "Is it any of your business? The land isn't yours. If the actual owners have no issues, who are you to have a say?"

"You..."

They were infuriated!

In that instant, Qian Shidie and the others were thoroughly infuriated!

Especially Qian Shidie, who had always been respected and taken care of wherever he went as a guidance teacher. Now, being directly scolded by Hu Xiaobei, he immediately became extremely angry!

Shaking with rage, Qian Shidie shouted, "What... what is with your attitude!"

"Am I wrong? This land belongs to my aunt, and if she has no objections, what does it have to do with you?"

"You... I won't stoop to your level of idiocy!"

After saying this, Qian Shidie turned his head towards Han Xueyao and Han Jiayuan and quickly said, "Don't get hoodwinked by this idiot, Hu Xiaobei, anymore. It's true that the price of medicinal herbs is not low, but growing and managing them is very difficult, and medicinal herbs grow extremely slowly! If you plant them now, you probably won't see any profit for three years! So you better give up quickly and plant fruit trees with me! If you're willing, I'll definitely teach you hands-on!"

By the end, his tone had turned lecherous...

When Qian Shidie first laid eyes on Han Xueyao and Han Jiayan, he was completely smitten!

Especially upon seeing Han Xueyao, he felt truly excited.

In his youth, Qian Shidie had a strong liking for mature women, and now that he was older, his feelings only intensified...

And so, at this moment, he didn't bother to hide the lust in his heart!

As Qian Shidie displayed his lecherous demeanor, the expressions of Wang Dagui and others standing beside him subtly changed...

Wang Dagui knew that Hu Xiaobei's relationship with the mother and daughter, Han Xueyao, was not ordinary, so it was definitely not good for Qian Shidie to be ogling Han Xueyao and Han Jiayan like this in front of Hu Xiaobei!

Thinking this, Wang Dagui wanted to give a warning, but before he could speak, he realized it was too late. That's because he saw Hu Xiaobei, expressionless, quickly walking towards Qian Shidie!

...

"Beautiful! So beautiful! If I could have them both, I would be absolutely thrilled! Although the daughter is young, with some grooming, she could be perfect!"

The more he looked, the more Qian Shidie found them to be absolutely perfect!

Thus, the lust in his eyes gradually became thicker...

The next moment, Qian Shidie was about to say something with a smirk, but before he could get the words out, he suddenly became annoyed because, in an instant, he saw someone blocking his view!

Being blocked directly like this, he immediately became angry, "Hu Xiaobei, right! Move now! I'm not speaking to you at the moment, and a nobody like you doesn't have the right to speak to me!"

He had no idea about Hu Xiaobei's prowess, thinking Hu Xiaobei was just an ordinary farmer, so he waved his hand dismissively!

"What a coincidence! I also don't plan to talk to you because you're not worthy!"

With a cold smirk, Hu Xiaobei gave a ruthless and fierce kick!

Before Qian Shidie could react, he was sent flying by Hu Xiaobei...

Watching Qian Shidie roll around on the ground like a discarded trash bag, the faces of Wang Dagui and the others turned extremely sour!

Wang Dagui felt it even more!

He knew that he had brought Qian Shidie himself, so Hu Xiaobei's actions were like a slap in his own face!

Thinking this, he roared furiously, "Hu Xiaobei, you're going too far!"

"Too far? What? You want to have a go at it with me?"

"You..."

Wang Dagui's mouth twitched, and the next moment, he felt a tightness in his bladder...

He didn't dare!

Having witnessed Hu Xiaobei's capabilities before, he knew just how formidable Hu Xiaobei was. He was aware that ten of himself would not be able to match up, so agreeing now would truly be asking for a beating...

Seeing that Wang Dagui had instantly lost his nerve, Hu Xiaobei sneered, "Take him and get out of here. If I see him again, I'll hit him again!"

"Fine! You wait... just you wait!"

After dropping these meaningless parting words, Wang Dagui and the other thugs carefully helped him up and left in utmost disarray...

...

Watching them leave, Hu Xiaobei turned to look at Han Xueyao and softly said, "Auntie, it's all right now."

"Xiaobei, there was no need to hit him just now!"

Hearing this, Hu Xiaobei quickly said, "But I just couldn't stand the look in his eyes!"

Hearing Hu Xiaobei say this, Han Xueyao felt a sweet warmth in her heart. Soon, she whispered softly, "You! Alright, let's go back to planting the medicinal herbs."

"Okay!"

Hu Xiaobei readily agreed!

...

"Teacher Qian, are you... are you okay?"

At home, after taking a glance at Qian Shidie, whose face was as black as the bottom of a pot, Wang Dagui spoke up in a very soft voice!

Hearing this meaningless question, Qian Shidie roared, "Okay? Try getting kicked yourself!"

After saying that, Qian Shidie clenched his buttocks tightly...

Because he had just been kicked so hard, if he didn't clench tightly now, things might really go south...

Knowing that Qian Shidie had just been beaten badly, Wang Dagui quickly said, "Teacher Qian, I know you've just been wronged!"

"Knowing and not taking revenge for me? Get rid of him for me!"

In his entire life, Qian Shidie had never suffered such a humiliation, so at this moment, he really screamed hysterically...

At this moment, he truly longed to tear Hu Xiaobei limb from limb as he knew that only in this way could he rid himself of this seething hatred...

Sensing Qian Shidie's venomous resentment, Wang Dagui sighed silently, "I also want to kill him, but he's just a ruffian; I can't do anything about it!"

Wang Dagui had long found Hu Xiaobei disagreeable, but even so, it was useless, as he knew he was no match for Hu Xiaobei, and if it really came to blows, he would be the one to suffer!

Feeling Wang Dagui's helplessness, Qian Shidie frowned tightly, "What do you mean?"

"He's really good at fighting, ordinary people can't beat him at all!"

"Is that so! Well, if an open approach won't work, let's take the covert route! Didn't he plant medicinal herbs in many fields around your village? Go and spray them with lethal pesticide so they won't germinate!"

"Isn't... isn't that a bit too cruel?"

"What? You think that's cruel? Are you even a man? How can you be so cowardly!"

"This..."

Chastised like this, Wang Dagui felt rather embarrassed!

Upon reflection, he realized that indeed, he had been intimidated by Hu Xiaobei!

"Fortune favors the bold!"

With this thought in mind, he said, "Fine, I'll do it! I'll go buy lethal pesticide right away!"

"Good! Go buy it later, but spray it at night! Once we've destroyed all his medicinal herbs, let's see what that idiot can do then!"

"Heh heh!"

With such a perfect plan in place, Qian Shidie felt his mood lift considerably...

The next moment, his thoughts quickly turned to Han Xueyao, who had been making his heart itch...

Swiftly, Qian Shidie asked, "Is that Han Xueyao from your village? Tell me about her!"

Wang Dagui was a cunning one, so when he heard the question, he understood the intention right away!

Instantly, Wang Dagui said, "Teacher Qian, that Han Xueyao is a widow! This time, once we destroy Hu Xiaobei's medicinal herb plan, she will definitely choose to follow you and grow fruit trees. Then, whatever you want will be just a word away!"

"Right!"

Hearing this, Qian Shidie's eyes brightened...

The next moment, he said excitedly, "Buy some more lethal poison later; we'll go to the fields together tonight and make sure every seed of those medicinal herbs is poisoned to death! Only then will the villagers who chose to grow medicinal herbs with Hu Xiaobei switch sides! Then, I can get Han Xueyao, and you'll get more people to grow fruit trees with you!"

"Yes! It's a win-win!"

As they spoke, Wang Dagui extended his hand, and soon, the two grasped each other's hands tightly. At this moment, they truly felt like they had found kindred spirits too late...

"How have I treated you all normally?"

After Qian Shidie, who had been beaten by Hu Xiaobei, had a good rest, Wang Dagui came to the courtyard. Soon, Wang Dagui made a few phone calls, gathering the village delinquents who were idlers to this place, and quickly opened his mouth!

These delinquents were cunning, so they understood at this moment that the village chief had something they needed to do!

After exchanging a glance, one of the Balds quickly blurted out, "Village chief, just say it, who are we going to harm?"

Wang Dagui's eyelids twitched at this outright statement. "Harm... What are you talking about! Am I someone who asks you to harm others?"

Hearing this, that Bald felt wronged, "This... you previously directed us..."

"Shut up!"

"Yes!"

After that Bald had shut up, Wang Dagui continued, "The reason I've called you here this time is there's a very important matter! You all know about Hu Xiaobei planting medicinal herbs, right!"

"Yes!"

They all nodded vigorously...

Seeing everyone nodding, Wang Dagui gave a cruel smile and said, "Hu Xiaobei's seeds have just been planted. I think it's time to add some 'nutrients' to them. Later, you go to the town's store to buy some medicine. We're going to take good care of them after all, we're all from the same village!"

"This... What should we buy..."

Before Bald could finish asking, another sneaky-looking dwarf quickly agreed, "Village chief, rest assured! We will definitely do a good job!"

"Then go, the sooner the better!"

"Yes!"

Watching them leave, Wang Dagui snorted coldly, "Hu Xiaobei, I don't know how you managed to get in touch with Eighth Master, but it's useless! I still have many ways to make you cry without tears!"

Wang Dagui knew that Hu Xiaobei had made connections with Eighth Master now, so he dared not confront him directly, but no matter, he could still play dirty from his side!

"Er, why did you agree so quickly just now! We still don't know what kind of medicine to buy!"

After leaving Wang Dagui's house, that Bald looked at the dwarf and complained...

Hearing Bald's complaint, Er sighed quietly...

He thought Bald was good in every aspect, but intelligence was a real weakness...

Thinking this, he quickly explained, "Brother Bald, the village chief obviously wants us to get some poison for the seeds Hu Xiaobei just sowed, to 'add nutrients'! Simply put, the village chief doesn't want them to sprout!"

"Really?"

Seeing that he still didn't understand, Er explained again in detail, "Definitely! Think about it, once they can't sprout, those who followed Hu Xiaobei to plant medicinal herbs will directly switch sides, and then everyone will follow the village chief to plant fruit trees! Then the village chief can win more trust, and Hu Xiaobei will be despised by everyone!"

"Killing two birds with one stone! You really are smart! Alright, then let's buy the most poisonous poison!"

"Right!"

As they spoke, they quickly headed towards the town...

...

"Cultivation is truly not simple!"

At home, Hu Xiaobei finished his breathing and muttered to himself!

Previously, after having received the legacy of Shennong, Hu Xiaobei also obtained Shennong's Hundred Herbs Scripture!

Now, what Hu Xiaobei was cultivating was just that...

But even now, Hu Xiaobei could hardly consider himself a beginner, for the Shennong's Hundred Herbs Scripture was indeed too difficult!

"Let's take it slow," Xiaobei sighed, knowing that haste makes waste. After a deep breath, he gradually regained his composure.

"It's already night, cultivation truly knows no time."

After this reflection, Xiaobei prepared to continue his breathing exercises, when suddenly, he heard the sound of banging at the door...

"Someone's here?"

Instinctively, he stood up, opened the door, and was immediately stunned...

The reason for his reaction was that upon opening the door, Xiaobei found not a person, but a white wolf standing at the threshold...

Seeing its pure white fur, Xiaobei instantly realized it was the same wolf he had treated on the mountain earlier!

"Are you here to repay the favor?"

Thinking this, Xiaobei watched the wolf...

Soon, he heard its soft whines...

After a moment, Xiaobei understood its intent—it wanted him to follow...

Quickly agreeing, Xiaobei and the wolf swiftly left the village under the cover of night...

After arriving at the riverside behind the village with the wolf, Xiaobei saw it staring ahead. Following its gaze, Xiaobei frowned when he saw a group of people gathered at the riverbank not too far away...

"What are they doing at this late hour?"

Muttering to himself while peering from behind a tree, Xiaobei soon recognized that the group included Wang Dagui and some local thugs, even Qian Shidie who Xiaobei had previously fought was there...

"They're definitely up to no good!"

As he thought this, Xiaobei noticed that each person had a sprayer in front of them, and Dagui was going around adding water and herbs to each one!

As he wondered what kind of herbs Dagui was mixing, Xiaobei overheard Dagui's excited proclamation, "Haha, I am happy as long as I'm up to mischief!"

"Me too!"

"And me!"

With this chatter, Dagui, still busy with the herbs, quickly said, "What's all the noise? Hurry up and get those sprayers on your backs, we are going to give Hu Xiaobei a nice 'warm' welcome now!"

"Okay!"

With that, they quickly loaded up the sprayers, each aware they had added enough substance to them to give Xiaobei a tough time...

...

"Indeed, they were harboring ill intentions!"

After they left, Xiaobei went to the riverbank and picked up the discarded packages of herbs, identifying them as poison...

Realizing the poison was meant to destroy his medicinal herb seeds so they would fail to germinate, Xiaobei wanted to intervene, but decided to wait and see...

Xiaobei was confident about the seeds he had enhanced with Nine Wood True Qi and truly didn't believe a bit of poison could completely destroy them...

"Whines..."

While he was deep in thought, Xiaobei heard the white wolf...

Chuckling softly, Xiaobei crouched down, gently patted its fluffy head, and whispered, "I know you want to help me, but there's no need to rush. They're just a few clowns; I can handle them!"

Xiaobei was truly grateful to it because without the wolf's warning, he would have been oblivious to Wang Dagui and the others' underhand tactics...

"Wang Dagui, since you've started this, I will play along and see who gets the last laugh!"

Having said this, Hu Xiaobei and the white wolf quickly followed them...

Wang Dagui was very familiar with the location of every household's land in the village, so he was leading the way at the forefront. Following closely behind him were the village riffraff and an expression full of malice, Qian Shidie carrying a sprayer!

"Hu Xiaobei, you dared to offend me before, and soon I'm going to make you pay a hefty price, you little punk!"

As Qian Shidie followed Wang Dagui, a cruel sneer spread across his face...

At this moment, Qian Shidie utterly despised Hu Xiaobei!

In his eyes, it was all because of Hu Xiaobei that he had lost face before!

As he was bitterly thinking about how to torment him, Qian suddenly heard Wang Dagui speaking, "This is the spot. This land belongs to Widow Li from the east of the village.

She had chosen to plant medicinal herbs with Hu Xiaobei before, and now her land is sown with the seeds of the medicinal herbs. Start spraying! I want all the herbal seeds to thoroughly rot in the soil!"

"Alright!"

After this agreement, all those carrying sprayers quickly stepped forward and soon, the sprayers began to operate, rapidly dousing the entire field with poisonous pesticides!

Seeing this, Wang Dagui smiled with satisfaction. The next moment, he sneered, "Hu Xiaobei, what can you use to fight me, punk!"

After saying this, Dagui chuckled heartily and continued striding forward arrogantly. Seeing this, the thugs quickly followed him with sneers.

...

After they left, Hu Xiaobei appeared here with an expressionless face!

Having just squatted down, Hu Xiaobei smelled that dizzying odor...

In an instant, Hu Xiaobei knew they had really added toxic pesticides to the sprayers!

"So poisonous!"

Saying this, Hu Xiaobei looked at them expressionlessly, and soon after, he quickly inspected the seeds that had been previously sown.

He discovered that indeed, the seeds had been affected by the toxic pesticides!

Although they were not completely unable to germinate, their vitality was severely damaged. Hu Xiaobei knew it was only because he had discovered it early, otherwise, they would have been completely corroded by the toxic pesticides, and hoping for germination would have been a fool's dream...

After taking a deep, cold breath, Hu Xiaobei slowly placed his hand on the ground. In that instant, traces of Nine Wood True Qi slowly seeped from Hu Xiaobei's palm...

Soon, this Nine Wood True Qi was infused by Hu Xiaobei into the seeds of the indigo plant...

After completely eliminating the impact of the toxic pesticides, Hu Xiaobei continued, expressionless, to follow Wang Dagui...

Thus, as they kept spraying pesticides in the front, Hu Xiaobei kept detoxifying them from behind...

At this time, Wang Dagui was in high spirits, completely unaware that Hu Xiaobei was following behind, and unknowingly, all his efforts were in vain!

An hour later, Wang Dagui glanced at Qian Shidie, saying, "Teacher Qian, it's thoroughly done! We can look forward to the show tomorrow!"

"Yes!"

With a satisfied smile, he said, "Really looking forward to tomorrow coming soon! Okay, let's head back, it's been a long night!"

"Yes!"

With that, they all left!

At this moment, they were all in a good mood because they knew their plan had succeeded and were aware that Hu Xiaobei would face misery tomorrow!

Five minutes later, Hu Xiaobei slowly emerged here...

Seeing them return to the village, Hu Xiaobei sneered darkly, "Since you've gone back to rest, now it's my turn!"

With that, Hu Xiaobei headed straight for the fruit trees that Wang Dagui and the others had just planted!

What goes around comes around!

Since they had already shown their true colors, there was really no need for him to be polite with them!

Thinking this, Hu Xiaobei quickly channeled the Nine Wood True Qi in his body as he reached the newly planted fruit trees. Soon, it scattered and the next moment, it all poured into the saplings...

Emptied!

At that moment, Hu Xiaobei truly felt his Dantian was completely emptied!

Of course, Hu Xiaobei didn't mind it much, instead, he laughed excitedly...

A Divine Doctor, if inclined towards goodness, is naturally a savior, a living Buddha!

But if a Divine Doctor chooses evil, then he is undoubtedly more terrifying than any assassin. Now, Hu Xiaobei had transformed into an absolutely terrifying assassin...

"Wang Dagui, now I'm waiting to see you cry!"

After saying this, Hu Xiaobei looked at the White Wolf and said, "I really owe you thanks for relaying that information to me earlier. How about I name you?"

After this, Hu Xiaobei watched as the wolf nodded almost humanly!

Knowing it agreed, Hu Xiaobei smiled and soon crouched down to gently rub its fluffy head!

Quickly, Hu Xiaobei saw it squint its eyes in enjoyment...

Ten minutes later, after watching the wolf return to the mountain, Hu Xiaobei cheerfully went back to the village...

Hu Xiaobei knew all the groundwork was laid out, so he could just sit back and watch the show...

Just as he reached his doorstep, Hu Xiaobei saw someone standing at the door!

Upon closer inspection, his eyes lit up because it was Guo Meiyu, whom he had once rescued from the river, standing under the bright moonlight...

After a swift glance over her enchanting figure, Hu Xiaobei quickly greeted her, "Sister-in-law, you... you haven't slept yet?"

"Xiaobei, where were you earlier?"

Hearing Guo Meiyu's question, Hu Xiaobei smiled and said, "I couldn't sleep, so I took a walk around the village! As for you, sister-in-law, waiting here for me, did you miss me?"

"Little bastard, you dare to flirt with your sister-in-law!"

With these coy words, Guo Meiyu glared fiercely at Hu Xiaobei!

Knowing Guo Meiyu wasn't really angry, Hu Xiaobei chuckled...

The next moment, shedding his irreverent demeanor, Hu Xiaobei asked seriously, "Sister-in-law, what brings you to find me so late at night?"

Hearing Hu Xiaobei's question, Guo Meiyu nodded and quickly said, "Yes! Just now, as I was about to go to sleep, I heard some noise outside. I quietly opened the door and saw Wang Dagui and some thugs from our village sneaking past my doorstep, and they were even carrying sprayers! Do you think they were up to no good?"

"Yes! Those scumbags were definitely up to no good!"

While muttering this to himself, Hu Xiaobei laughed and said, "Sister-in-law, what are you thinking? They just planted saplings earlier, so carrying sprayers was likely just to spray the plants with medicine!"

Knowing full well that telling the truth might really drive Guo Meiyu mad, Hu Xiaobei hesitated no longer and outright lied...

Hearing Hu Xiaobei's explanation, Guo Meiyu slightly relaxed, but soon, she still muttered with some disbelief, "Is it really just spraying the trees?"

After looking at Guo Meiyu, Hu Xiaobei nodded his head seriously, "I think they're just going to spray the fruit trees! Alright, sister-in-law, don't think too much, go back and get a good night's sleep, everything will be alright tomorrow!"

"Okay! Then I'll head back, and you get some rest too!"

"Alright!"

After sending Guo Meiyu away, Hu Xiaobei returned home, locked his door, and once again began his serious cultivation...

Previously, Hu Xiaobei had completely exhausted his Nine Wood True Qi.

Now, as he started to cultivate once again, he felt it slowly gathering in his Dantian, and this time, Hu Xiaobei could distinctly feel it becoming purer!

This change excited Hu Xiaobei.

Hu Xiaobei knew that he was still some distance from a breakthrough, but he had already begun to see hope...

...

Early the next morning, Hu Xiaobei rose very early!

Since he began cultivating, Hu Xiaobei's need for sleep had significantly decreased; as such, as soon as day broke, he quickly got up!

As Hu Xiaobei was earnestly practicing his punches in the yard, villagers like Wang Dagui also got up, knowing it was the day to witness drama, so they absolutely couldn't afford to miss it by oversleeping...

...

"Hu Xiaobei, this time all the seeds of the medicinal herbs have failed to sprout, I wonder how you'll explain this to everyone!"

While laughing excitedly, Wang Dagui blissfully walked out of the courtyard, just in time to see Qian Shidie drinking tea in the courtyard!

Seeing that Qian Shidie was in a good mood, Wang Dagui smiled and said, "Teacher Qian, you look really refreshed today!"

"Indeed! A person feels spirited at happy occasions! I..."

Before he could finish, Qian Shidie heard a very urgent set of footsteps outside...

Instantly, Wang Dagui and Qian Shidie both turned their heads to look.

Soon, they saw the thugs who had gone to the mountain with them last night to spray the poison, rushing over quickly!

"What's going on?"

Seeing their excited expressions, Wang Dagui quickly asked!

"Village chief, it's great news, absolutely great news! Just now, I saw those women from our village who were planting medicinal herbs with Hu Xiaobei looking shocked and rushing straight to Hu Xiaobei's house! They probably went to the field and found the seeds all rotted!"

Hearing this, Wang Dagui and Qian Shidie's eyes lit up...

The next moment, Wang Dagui and Qian Shidie exchanged glances, seeing the excitement in each other's eyes, Wang Dagui said excitedly, "Let's go, let's go see the excitement!"

"Okay!"

As they spoke, everyone, grinning, headed straight for Hu Xiaobei's doorstep, feeling that the drama was about to begin!

Last night, they had struggled all night in the mountains with the sprayer, truly quite tired, but now, they knew it had all been worth it!

Arriving at Hu Xiaobei's doorstep, they laughed!

Because they realized that all the villagers who had planted medicinal herbs with Hu Xiaobei were truly all there!

"Hu Xiaobei, this time, prepare for your reputation to be ruined!"

Wang Dagui knew that Hu Xiaobei was thoroughly finished this time, so he prepared to properly taunt Hu Xiaobei!

...

"Ladies, what's going on?"

Hu Xiaobei opened the door and was shocked to see everyone standing there!

Seeing Hu Xiaobei in a daze, Guo Meiyu, who stood at the front quickly said, "Xiaobei, you need to go check the field right now!"

After Guo Meiyu finished speaking, the others quickly chimed in!

"Exactly!"

"Quickly, go check it out!"

"Something big has happened!"

Seeing their extremely anxious expressions, Hu Xiaobei asked softly, "What exactly happened?"

"We can't explain it, you'll know when you see it!"

"Exactly!"

"Come with us!"

"Well... okay then!"

After Hu Xiaobei agreed, he saw Wang Dagui and Qian Shidie, among others, coming over quickly with smiles on their faces!

After glancing at everyone, Wang Dagui said arrogantly, "Hu Xiaobei, now you understand the mess you've created, don't you? I told you very clearly before, planting medicinal herbs is extremely difficult! You insisted on doing it, and now look, you've wasted the seeds and everyone's time!"

Hearing Wang Dagui speak, Qian Shidie laughed heartily, saying, "That's how trash behaves; only after suffering will they truly learn!"

Hearing Qian Shidie's words, Wang Dagui laughed heartily again. Soon, he turned to the surrounding women and said, "Previously, you all planted medicinal herbs with Hu Xiaobei because you blindly believed Hu Xiaobei's nonsense. Simply put, you were deceived by him, so you are not to blame. If you want to plant fruit trees with me, just come and register!"

Pausing slightly, Wang Dagui then looked at Hu Xiaobei and said, "As for you, forget about it amosite not letting you get involved! You might as well go beg!"

"Just go pick up trash!"

"Idiot!"

"That's what you get for going against the village chief!"

After Wang Dagui finished speaking, the thugs snickered and chimed in. At this point, they saw Hu Xiaobei as utterly finished, so there was no need for niceties...

"Haha!"

After a disdainful laugh, just as Hu Xiaobei was about to say something, Guo Meiyu and others impatiently cut in...

"What are you babbling about!"

"Exactly! What mess?"

"Exactly, speak clearly!"

Guo Meiyu and the others were genuinely dumbfounded; they didn't understand why Wang Dagui and the others had come over and rambled on like that...

Stared at by everyone, Wang Dagui was slightly taken aback and quickly, frowning, he retorted, "What? Aren't you here because all the medicinal herb seeds you planted rotted?"

When Wang Dagui asked, Qian Shidie and others also stared intently at them!

"Rotted? How could that be?"

"Exactly!"

"We don't have time to waste talking to you, stop wasting our time!"

After saying this, they quickly left, surrounding Hu Xiaobei...

"This..."

Watching Hu Xiaobei being closely surrounded by all the women as they left, they were utterly baffled...

Not only was Qian Shidie baffled, but he was also filled with jealousy!

In his view, he should be the one surrounded by countless beauties!

"What talents does this loser have!"

Hearing Qian Shidie's resentful whisper, Wang Dagui quickly said, "Teacher Qian, don't be angry, let's go and see!"

"Alright!"

As they spoke, they quickly headed straight to the back of the village; they were truly frustrated because they had applied poison to the herbs the night before, so those seeds definitely should have been destroyed. Could it be that they bought fake poison?

Muttering this, they quickened their pace, and soon, they arrived at the back of the village. Instantly, they were stunned, and just like that, everyone just stood there, dumbstruck, staring ahead...

At this moment, the reason they were so utterly stupefied was that the medicinal herb seeds, which should have all rotted away, not only didn't rot but had grown vigorously...

Standing there, they could clearly see the absolutely lush and verdant scene...

"Is this... am I dreaming?"

As he muttered this very softly, Wang Dagui fiercely pinched his own hand. In the next instant, he grimaced with pain!

At that point, he realized this wasn't a dream. Everything before his eyes was real; the medicinal herbs had genuinely grown!

Having confirmed this, his eyelid twitched, and the next moment, he quickly turned his head and abruptly slapped the bewildered thug's face!

That instant, the crisp sound reached everyone's ears, and they all instinctively looked toward Wang Dagui!

The thug who got slapped had a pitiful look on his face because he genuinely didn't understand what was going on?

Soon, covering his face with a wry smile, he said, "Village chief, what's going on? Why did you hit me?"

"Why did I hit you? Don't you have any idea? Didn't I tell you to go to town to buy poison, what crap did you buy!"

Wang Dagui felt certain there was something wrong with the medicine, so he vented his frustration on this thug who had bought the medicine...

The thug was on the verge of tears!

Soon, with a bitter smile on his face, he said, "Village chief, the medicine can't be faulty; I asked very carefully, the ones I bought were the most toxic!"

As he said this, he looked toward the others and said, "They can all vouch for me!"

Upon hearing this, the other thugs nodded vigorously...

They had gone together at the time, so they knew for a fact that what was bought was indeed the most toxic poison...

"Toxic my ass! You idiots!"

While talking, Wang Dagui looked again at the Chinese woad with excellent growth; at that moment, he was truly frustrated to the point of vomiting blood.

"What the hell is going on here!"

While Wang Dagui was extremely frustrated, Qian Shidie, standing beside him, also felt like spitting blood in frustration!

Before, he'd been ready to enjoy the show, but now he knew it wasn't going to happen...

...

The women in the village didn't know about their frustration; at this moment, they were all staring at Hu Xiaobei!

"Xiaobei, what's going on? Why are these medicinal herbs growing so fast?"

"Exactly!"

Though it was their first time planting medicinal herbs and they weren't very familiar with them, they did know that medicinal herbs have growing cycles, so for them to have grown this much in a single day was a bit too exaggerated...

Earlier today, when they got up, they had planned to see if the seeds had sprouted, but were met with the sight of the herbs lush and thriving, leaving them stunned, uncertain of what was happening. So naturally, they went looking for Hu Xiaobei!

Seeing all his sisters-in-law and aunts with their dazed expressions, Hu Xiaobei chuckled and said, "Grows fast, isn't that good? I'll call Song Xue'er in a bit and have her send people to buy them. You all don't need to think too much, just wait to count money!"

Hu Xiaobei wouldn't tell them that the rapid maturation of these medicinal herbs was because of his 'Nine Wood True Qi', so right then, he diverted the topic...

"This..."

Hearing Hu Xiaobei mention purchase, their eyes suddenly sparkled...

Seeing everyone becoming excited, Hu Xiaobei walked to one side...

After sneering at Wang Dagui and others, Hu Xiaobei leisurely dialed Song Xue'er's number...

...

"Haha, Xiaobei brother is calling!"

In the second floor of the European-style villa, Song Xue'er, who picked up the phone lazily, saw the number displayed and her lips curved into a slight smile.

The next moment, gently swinging her legs wrapped in black stockings, she softly answered the phone.

"Hello..."

Upon hearing that absolutely lazy voice, Hu Xiaobei felt a tingle of numbness all over his body.

The next moment, Hu Xiaobei said softly, "Xue'er, haven't you gotten up yet?"

"Just woke up, Xiaobei. Are you calling me now to ask me to send over the Master to guide your planting?"

Upon hearing Song Xue'er's question, Hu Xiaobei laughed and then glanced at the lush Isatis roots and said directly, "No, I want you to send someone over to purchase the medicinal herbs that were planted before. They have all matured!"

"You... What did you say? They've matured?"

Feeling the shock, Hu Xiaobei knew she must be wide-eyed at the moment, "Yes, they have all matured!"

"Is today Fool's Day?"

"No, it isn't! Just come and see for yourself!"

"Alright! I'll be right over! But if you're fooling me, you're not getting off easy!"

"Okay!"

After hanging up the phone, Hu Xiaobei laughed happily...

Hu Xiaobei knew that from now on, he finally had the ability to change the situation of the village...

While Hu Xiaobei was thus smiling, Song Xue'er at the villa spoke softly, "Planted just yesterday and they've matured today? That's totally impossible! I've got to see what kind of trick he's trying to pull!"

Having said this, she put down her phone and began looking for clothes to change into in the wardrobe...

Soon, after getting dressed in a tight black uniform, she glanced at herself in the mirror and, finding she indeed looked beautiful in this outfit, she smiled brightly...

After that, she hurried out...

...

"Xue'er, you got up so early this time?"

Song Feng, who had just returned from working out outside, was surprised to see Song Xue'er!

He knew that his granddaughter was good in every way, except she loved to sleep in...

So most of the time, she didn't get out of bed until late...

Feeling Song Feng's surprise, Xue'er, a bit flushed, explained, "I'm going to Xiaohe Village. Xiaobei just called and said that the Isatis roots we helped plant before have matured! But that's just impossible!"

Hearing Song Xue'er's words, Song Feng laughed, "It may be impossible for others, but for Xiaobei, I believe it!"

Ever since Hu Xiaobei had healed him, Song Feng realized that he could not see through him, so he had great confidence in Hu Xiaobei...

After giving Song Feng a look, Song Xue'er said, "Then Grandpa, why don't you come with me to see?"

"Alright!"

With that, the two of them got straight into the car...

...

Over at Xiaohe Village, all the villagers had gathered behind the village!

At that moment, everyone saw the absolutely flourishing Isatis roots...

After that, they were all astounded!

"This... It's only been one day, and they've grown so well!"

"Exactly!"

"This is amazing!"

While exclaiming in amazement, these people began to regret not having planted the medicinal herbs with Hu Xiaobei before...

Hearing all these people's high praise for Hu Xiaobei, Wang Dagui felt sour inside!

The next moment, he scoffed with disdain, "What do you guys know! Real medicinal herbs take a long time to grow properly. These herbs grew so quickly, they must have a problem and definitely can't be used in medicine!"

"Exactly!"

"They definitely can't be used in medicine!"

"I think so too..."

After Wang Dagui finished speaking, those ruffians again echoed him without hesitation...

"Really?"

Hearing such confident words, all the villagers were dumbfounded. They didn't understand much to begin with, so they were easily hoodwinked...

"Of course it's true!"

Qian Shidie had a grim expression as he spoke up!

The next moment, he sneered, "I don't know how Hu Xiaobei is doing this, but with medicinal herbs, the older they are, the more valuable. Right now, it's just been one day, and these herbs have grown—so they definitely couldn't be valuable!"

Qian Shidie had dealt with medicinal herbs before and knew very well that they are classified into many levels from bottom to top. The ones that Hu Xiaobei had produced would only count as the lowest grade, so they surely couldn't be worth much!

"So that's how it is!"

Qian Shidie was an expert, so they all believed what Qian Shidie said...

Soon, they heard some noise, turned around, and saw a black sedan and a large truck slowly appearing...

Wang Dagui and Qian Shidie knew that this truck was clearly here to collect the medicinal herbs...

After exchanging envious glances, they emotionlessly stepped back!

They all now felt these people had come in vain, for the medicinal herbs Hu Xiaobei had cultivated surely had no medicinal value!

Here it comes!

At this moment, Hu Xiaobei and the women standing beside him also saw the rapidly approaching truck and sedan!

Quickly, the women became incredibly excited, knowing that once the purchase really started, they could indeed make a lot of money!

While they were excited, Hu Xiaobei laughed lightly and looked towards the sedan.

At that time, Hu Xiaobei saw Song Feng and Song Xue'er walking down together!

The instant he saw Song Feng, Hu Xiaobei noticed that his complexion had improved drastically from before...

Hu Xiaobei knew he was truly fully recovered now!

While genuinely happy for him, Hu Xiaobei's eyes lit up after looking at Song Xue'er...

It couldn't be helped, at this moment, her in the tight-fitting dark black uniform was simply stunning...

"Whenever there's a chance, I should make such body-hugging clothes for Guo Meiyu and the others, too. They ought to look even better wearing them!"

Hu Xiaobei knew that Guo Meiyu and the others had a tad more mature charm than Song Xue'er, so wearing black silk type tight clothes would highlight their seductive aura even more!

...

"Oh my God..."

Song Xue'er, unaware of what Hu Xiaobei was thinking, looked somewhat dazedly at the vast expanse of lush green Isatis roots!

At that moment, she truly felt like she was dreaming!

Because all of this was simply unbelievable!

Song Xue'er knew that the growth cycle of Isatis roots wasn't very long, but it still took several months to grow!

Yet now, they had grown in just one day!

This was just too exaggerated!

It wasn't just Song Xue'er who was astonished; Song Feng's face was also full of shock!

Glancing at Song Feng, Song Xue'er quickly asked, "Xiaobei brother, how... how did you do it?"

"I..."

Hu Xiaobei was about to explain but then furrowed his brow because he realized someone had interrupted him!

Turning his head, Hu Xiaobei saw the speaker was none other than Qian Shidie, the same man he had knocked to the ground previously for coveting Han Xueyao!

"What else could it be, definitely some kind of growth stimulant! Hu Xiaobei, you really are ruthless, using a growth promoter! Do you know? Medicinal herbs cannot be rushed to grow. Otherwise, once used as medicine, not only will they be of no benefit, but they will actually be harmful to people!"

"Just for money, you really would do anything!"

"Yeah, that's right!"

Wang Dagui and those hoodlums quickly echoed in agreement, currently puffing themselves up with pride because they felt they had finally caught Hu Xiaobei in the act, and had once again gained the upper hand!

"Is that true, big brother Xiaobei?"

Song Xue'er spoke up in a soft voice, knowing that if Hu Xiaobei really did that, those medicinal herbs would be truly useless!

"No! I did not use those growth-promoting drugs!"

Hu Xiaobei decisively shook his head at that moment!

He knew he did in fact hasten their growth, but Hu Xiaobei knew what he used was not drugs, but his own Nine Wood True Qi!

Hu Xiaobei was aware that the Nine Wood True Qi in his body wouldn't harm people; on the contrary, it was beneficial to them...

Seeing Hu Xiaobei shake his head, Song Xue'er breathed a sigh of relief!

But Qian Shidie didn't believe Hu Xiaobei's words, so right then he sneered coldly, "Braggart!"

"Yeah, that's right!"

"Just a stubborn dead duck!"

"Yeah, no drugs, and they could grow so much in one night?"

At this moment, none of them believed it, because they knew that without any tricks, it was impossible for the medicinal herbs to grow so much overnight!

As they spoke, many people around them also began to feel doubtful.

They too thought that a single day was way too short a time frame, so it was simply impossible for them to grow so well!

With a faint smile, Hu Xiaobei glanced at Qian Shidie and said, "How about we make a bet?"

"A bet? Bet on what?"

"Bet that I didn't use any growth-promoting drugs! Later, we'll test with an instrument and if even a trace of drug residue is found, then I lose. I'll leave Xiaohu Village and never come back! But if I win, then you all shut your mouths. When I'm around, you'd better step back a hundred meters obediently! Fair, isn't it?"

Hearing Hu Xiaobei speak so confidently, Wang Dagui hesitated for a moment.

The next second, he looked towards Qian Shidie, and seeing him nod at him, he understood Qian Shidie's intention.

In an instant, he quickly said, "Idiot, you think you can bluff me? You think I'm so easily frightened? Fine! I'll take you up on that bet; I want to see how long you can keep up your tough talk!"

Wang Dagui thought Hu Xiaobei was just trying to bluff him, having no real confidence, so all he had to do was grit his teeth and take the bet, then Hu Xiaobei would be finished...

...

"Isn't Xiaobei a little too confident?"

"Yeah, I know, right!"

"What if he loses!"

After the bet was made, many women on Hu Xiaobei's side murmured quietly...

They feared Hu Xiaobei would lose!

Hearing their discussions, Guo Meiyu and Su Xueying clenched their fists nervously!

Both of them were also very worried at this time...

"Grandpa, there won't be a problem, right?"

Song Feng smiled gently upon hearing Song Xue'er's words, and said, "Has your big brother Xiaobei ever let you down before?"

Thinking about it, Song Xue'er quickly smiled brightly...

Indeed!

Hu Xiaobei had never failed before, he couldn't possibly fail this time either. Thinking this, she completely eased her mind, hugged her shoulders, and prepared to watch the spectacle unfold...

Feeling the anxious glances from Guo Meiyu, Su Xueying, and the others, Hu Xiaobei gave them a reassuring look!

Then, Hu Xiaobei turned to Song Xue'er, who was standing with her arms folded, and said, "Xue'er sister, you should have the tools for testing, right?"

Hearing Hu Xiaobei's inquiry, Song Xue'er nodded her head, "Yes, we do!"

"Then let's hurry up and test these Ban Lan Gen for drug residues now! Also, verify the age of these medicinal herbs!"

"Alright! I'll do it right away!"

After saying this, Song Xue'er gestured ...

Soon, following Song Xue'er's signal, a staff member brought out specialized testing equipment from the vehicle and immediately began to calibrate it in front of everyone...

"Hu Xiaobei, this time you're definitely done for!"

Seeing the staff member calibrating the equipment, Qian Shidie sneered disdainfully...

Seeing Qian Shidie sneer, Wang Dagui hesitated for a moment, then took a step forward, "Teacher Qian, Hu Xiaobei knows that Song Xue'er, do you think she might falsify the test results during the testing process?"

Hearing his worried words, Wang Dagui sneered back, "There's absolutely no need to worry, you can't fake results with this kind of equipment! Plus, I'm knowledgeable in this area, so even if they really try to cheat, they definitely won't be able to hide anything from my keen eyes, so just relax!"

"When you put it that way, I'm truly relieved!"

Wang Dagui breathed a sigh of relief, rubbing his hands together in excitement, knowing that if cheating was impossible, all that was left was to enjoy the show...

"Mhm!"

After nodding slightly, Qian Shidie looked at Hu Xiaobei with a mocking smile.

In his view, Hu Xiaobei was just being stubborn to the bitter end!

There was no way Ban Lan Gen could grow in one day, so the only explanation was that he must have used some sort of growth-promoting solution beforehand. Qian Shidie knew the sensitivity of the current testing equipment meant that any trace of drug residue would be clearly detected, so Hu Xiaobei would soon be exposed...

"Manager Song, it's ready!"

"Good! Let's start the examination then!"

"Okay!"

After agreeing, the staff member cautiously took a sample from in front of the lush Ban Lan Gen and placed it into the testing device!

In that instant, everyone turned their heads in stunned silence to look over!

Seeing the testing device beginning to work, Qian Shidie excitedly said, "Soon, you'll hear the 'beep beep' of the alarm!"

Hearing Qian Shidie's words, Wang Dagui and the others perked up their ears!

But their consternation grew quickly because they never heard the anticipated 'beep beep' sound!

"How... how is this possible?!"

Seeing no 'beep beep' sound until the test was over left him completely dumbfounded!

Wang Dagui and the others also turned pale with urgency...

The staff member, indifferent to their confusion, efficiently printed out the test report!

Shortly after, he handed the test report to Song Xue'er!

Taking the test report, Song Xue'er glanced at it then quickly opened her mouth in astonishment...

"This..."

The reason why Song Xue'er reacted with such surprise was because she discovered not only were there no pesticide residues in the Ban Lan Gen, but their Yao Ling was comparable to that of ten-year-old Ban Lan Gen!

"Big brother Xiaobei, how... how did you do this? The Yao Ling of these Ban Lan Gen is actually ten years!"

Hearing that the medicinal age of these Isatis roots exceeded ten years, Hu Xiaobei couldn't help but laugh...

At that instant, he gained a clearer understanding and recognition of the Nine Wood True Qi within his body...

"Ten years? How is this possible?!"

Qian Shidie snatched the test report in a flash!

After carefully examining it, he immediately tore it to pieces. The next moment, he bellowed, "This test is inaccurate, absolutely inaccurate!"

While speaking, he walked up to the vast expanse of Isatis roots under the watchful eyes of everyone!

...

"I'll test it myself; this time, I'll do it! You must have switched the samples just now!"

While talking, he placed the Isatis root he had just broken off into the testing equipment. Two minutes later, his face turned ashen, for the test report was identical to the one before...

"This... how can this be?!"

He didn't believe it!

He still refused to believe it!

Hu Xiaobei glanced at him and said, "Can you shut up now?"

"You..."

Watching him almost bursting with anger, Hu Xiaobei didn't bother with him and instead looked cheerfully at Song Xue'er!

At this time, Song Xue'er said softly, "Xiaobei Brother, you really can bring miracles!"

While talking, she called the company's finance department under everyone's gaze. As soon as the call connected, she crisply ordered, "Hello, I'm Song Xue'er! Bring all the company's liquid cash to Xiaohe Village now! Yes, all of it! And send a few more people over!"

After hanging up the phone, Song Xue'er continued to look at Hu Xiaobei with a hint of amazement!

Earlier, she had prepared a lot of money, but now she realized that the amount she had prepared was far from enough, which is why she had asked the accountant to make additional preparations...

Half an hour later, a black commercial vehicle rapidly arrived...

Quickly, seven or eight people got out of the vehicle, carrying very large and heavy boxes toward them!

Seeing this scene, all the women standing in front of Hu Xiaobei's eyes lit up, for they knew this meant the purchase was really about to begin!

Thinking this way, the black boxes were swiftly opened by the workers, and in an instant, all the people present saw the stacks of brand-new cash!

Having lived for so long, they had never seen so much money, and so they were extremely shocked at that moment...

Seeing everyone's astonished expressions, Hu Xiaobei smiled.

Soon after, Hu Xiaobei gently clapped his hands and said, "All right, now everyone can go and harvest the medicinal herbs in their fields. We'll weigh them together in a moment!"

"Okay!"

Agreeing to this, the women excitedly ran off!

...

"Jealousy!"

Looking at those stacks of brand-new cash, the eyes of everyone who had followed Wang Dagui's decision to plant fruit trees turned green with envy!

At this moment, they were filled with regret!

Thinking that all this was Wang Dagui's fault, they glared at him fiercely. Wang Dagui, noticing everyone staring at him, slightly changed his expression...

The next moment, Wang Dagui retorted somewhat stubbornly, "It's just a small, temporary profit! What's so great about it! Let's go. It's a waste of our precious time to stay here!"

After speaking, Wang Dagui rapidly left, and the other thugs quickly followed suit after his departure!

They had no face to stay any longer; they knew that if they stayed any longer, they would truly die of jealousy...

Hu Xiaobei didn't know those people had left crestfallen. Of course, even if he had known, Hu Xiaobei wouldn't have cared a bit!

At that moment, after arranging everything for the weighing, he was pulled by Song Xue'er to the peaceful riverside...

"Xiaobei brother, hurry up and tell me, how did you do it before? Why were you able to make those medicinal herbs grow so well overnight?"

Unable to figure it out, until now, Song Xue'er still couldn't comprehend how those medicinal herbs could have grown so well in just one night, so she was eagerly looking at Hu Xiaobei!

Seeing her staring at him like a curious baby, Hu Xiaobei chuckled, "Before, I made some small modifications to those seeds! That's why their growth cycle became shorter!"

Hu Xiaobei wouldn't tell anyone about the Nine Wood True Qi, so he simply told a lie instead!

Of course, it wasn't really a lie, since Hu Xiaobei had indeed used Nine Wood True Qi to modify the seeds...

"You... you're amazing!"

"Of course!"

While feeling proud and smiling, Hu Xiaobei carefully observed Song Xue'er standing in front of him!

At that moment, Hu Xiaobei found that no matter how he looked at her, she was really super pretty...

Feeling Hu Xiaobei's intense gaze, Song Xue'er's cheeks turned slightly red. Soon, she playfully whispered, "What are you looking at?"

Caught in the act, Hu Xiaobei coughed awkwardly, "Nothing! I just think this outfit really suits you!"

"Ah, Xiaobei brother, you're so sweet today!"

Hearing this, Hu Xiaobei let out a sly laugh, "Have you tasted it?"

"You... you jerk brother!"

With that, she dashed towards Hu Xiaobei, who noticed and quickly turned to run away!

While the two of them were fooling around, the weighing had already begun...

"Eight hundred yuan! I just sold a hundred jin of medicinal herbs and made eight hundred yuan! In the past, I wouldn't earn this much in a month, or even several months!"

"Yeah, me too! No way! I must expand my business after this!"

"Yeah, yeah! I need to expand as well!"

When Zhenzhen held the money in her hand, they all got a taste of the sweet rewards and were making plans to expand because they all knew that the more they planted, the better the profit would be!

"Hey, you're all thinking about expanding, but don't you want to properly thank our benefactor?"

Hearing this teasing comment, they were startled for a moment, and quickly, all of them thought of Hu Xiaobei...

They knew that the current changes were all thanks to Hu Xiaobei, so indeed, they should express their gratitude to him...

Thinking this, they began looking around, but they couldn't find Hu Xiaobei anywhere!

Seeing them searching, Guo Meiyu softly said, "Stop looking, Hu Xiaobei went to the riverside with Manager Song Xue'er earlier!"

At this, all the women came to a realization!

Quickly, they turned to Guo Meiyu and teased her softly.

"Ah, why do I detect a sour scent in the air?"

"Yeah, I smell it too!"

"Looks like someone's feeling jealous!"

Faced with their teasing, Guo Meiyu quickly said, "What nonsense! I'm not jealous!"

"Really?"

"Hmph! I'm not talking to you anymore!"

After stamping her foot in a huff, Guo Meiyu walked away quickly!

Seeing this, they exchanged glances, and soon, they also left with their money, as many were planning to go to town to buy some good food and celebrate...

...

On Wang Dagui's side, everyone's expressions were extremely ugly!

They had failed once again, and it was a crushing defeat...

"Hu Xiaobei, you and I are irreconcilable enemies!"

In the midst of such a venomous growl, Wang Dagui heard footsteps, turned his head, and saw his wife Ye Lili coming towards him!

"Dagui! I just saw the women in the village happily walking home with money from behind the village. What's going on?"

Why did she have to bring up the worst thing!

Hearing Ye Lili's words made Wang Dagui's eyelids twitch, but he said nothing!

Not getting a response, Ye Lili got annoyed!

The next moment, she shouted, "Are you dead or something? I'm talking to you!"

"What the hell are you yelling for!"

Wang Dagui, still fuming, yelled back and then emotionlessly explained the whole situation again.

After listening, Ye Lili quickly said, "The medicinal herbs matured in just one day? Is... is that for real?"

Hearing the disbelief in her words, Wang Dagui let out a frustrated sigh, "Yeah! Who knows how that Hu Xiaobei did it!"

"What are you just sitting here for! Go and steal that method for me!"

"Do you think I don't want to? But can I beat him?"

Wang Dagui too was tempted to steal the cultivation method, but he knew he couldn't because he was no match for Hu Xiaobei!

Hearing Wang Dagui's helpless words, Ye Lili said directly, "Idiot, if you can't beat him, you can still deal with that Song Xue'er. If we get a hold of her, Hu Xiaobei will be like a rootless weed!"

"It's easy for you to say, but how?"

Wang Dagui also knew that dealing with Song Xue'er could be a solution, but the problem was he just couldn't do it!

Seeing Wang Dagui's clueless expression, Ye Lili thought he was really as good as deadwood, "Idiot, just make up any excuse, like his car damaging our village road or something! You're the village chief! We're on our own turf, you can just concoct an excuse, can't you?"

"Right!"

Wang Dagui's eyes lit up instantly upon hearing this...

"Wife, you're the smart one!"

"Not that I'm smart, you're just too dumb!"

"Hehe!"

After chuckling, Wang Dagui glanced at the thugs and said, "Let's go, set up a checkpoint with me. We'll stop her! Then we'll see what she can do!"

"Yes!"

As they talked, they all stood up excitedly, and soon, everyone walked out in a grand procession...

...

Meanwhile, Hu Xiaobei and Song Xue'er walked back from the riverside to the car. Song Xue'er spoke up, "You know, in the future, not only will you need to help me grow Isatis root, but you'll also have to help me grow other medicinal herbs, got it?"

"Don't worry, as long as you're lacking any medicinal herbs on your side, I'll help you grow them, okay?"

"That's more like it!"

Satisfied with a smile, she saw all the staff had packed the medicinal herbs and said, "Alright then, I'm taking off!"

"Okay!"

Nodding readily, Hu Xiaobei waved goodbye, soon watching her and Song Feng leave together...

In the car, Song Feng glanced at Song Xue'er and asked, "Xue'er, what do you think about Hu Xiaobei?"

Hearing Song Feng's question, Song Xue'er's cheeks turned slightly red, "Grandfather, what are you implying?"

"Nothing much! Just asking! After all, you're not getting any younger, it's time to find a boyfriend!"

"I can't stand that big womanizer!"

Song Feng listened to Song Xue'er's insincere reply and chuckled. Just as he was about to ask more, he suddenly noticed the truck ahead come to a stop...

"What's wrong?"

While Song Feng muttered in confusion, Song Xue'er also slightly furrowed her eyebrows...

Soon, Song Feng and Song Xue'er saw the driver running towards them!

Seeing the driver's eager appearance, they knew that there was indeed a problem!

Without hesitation, Song Xue'er quickly got out of the car, "What's going on?"

"Manager Song, there's a roadblock ahead!"

"Roadblock?"

After furrowing her brows, Song Xue'er quickly walked forward, and soon, she saw that there was indeed a temporary roadblock ahead!

At this moment, there were about a dozen people standing at the roadblock...

Most of these people were strangers to Song Xue'er, but she had seen Wang Dagui before, so she directly asked, "Village chief, what's going on?"

Wang Dagui, who was smoking, responded indifferently, "It's nothing much, just that your cars have been going back and forth, damaging our roads here! So you should take another route!"

"Village chief, you must be joking, this is the only road here!"

As Song Xue'er spoke, she knew that he was really causing trouble!

Because behind Xiaohe Village there's the river and mountains, the only way out was this one...

Hearing Song Xue'er speak up, Wang Dagui sneered, "You know it's the only one, huh? So what are we supposed to do if you damage it?"

After Wang Dagui finished speaking, several thugs came over with sneers on their faces!

"That's right!"

"Exactly!"

"Don't even think about using it again in the future!"

Hearing their unified voices, Song Xue'er knew they were definitely causing trouble!

Thinking it's better to have less trouble than more, Song Xue'er said with a smile, "Indeed, we were not quite right about this matter. How about this, after we leave, I'll find someone to fix the damaged parts for you, should that be okay?"

"No way! It's not negotiable!"

After being bluntly rejected, Song Xue'er frowned, "Then village chief, what do you have in mind?"

"Simple! Let Hu Xiaobei come and kowtow to apologize to me, and also, have Hu Xiaobei spill the method for the medicinal herbs to grow quickly! We can all make money together!"

"This... This is too much!"

"Too much? Since you think it's excessive, then just wait here, we have all the time in the world!"

After a dismissive sneer, Wang Dagui lazily sat down again!

Wang Dagui knew that he didn't need to be in a hurry now, he just had to keep dragging this out to achieve his goal, because they were transporting medicinal herbs, they simply couldn't afford to delay!

"You..."

Song Xue'er knew that this time she had completely encountered a rascal. Left with no choice, she had to call Hu Xiaobei, knowing that now only Hu Xiaobei could help her solve the problem...

...

"Huh?"

Hu Xiaobei, who had just returned home, heard his phone ring!

He quickly took out his phone, and when he realized that it was Song Xue'er who was calling, he was momentarily stunned, but soon, Hu Xiaobei quickly answered!

After answering, Hu Xiaobei spoke in a carefree manner, "Miss Xue'er, missing me?"

"Brother Xiaobei, come quickly, I'm being blocked at the entrance of your village!"

"Blocked? Alright! You wait, I'll be right there!"

Saying this, Hu Xiaobei hung up the phone and headed to the entrance of the village with a dark expression!

On the way, Hu Xiaobei knew it must be Wang Dagui up to his old tricks again!

Regarding this Wang Dagui, Hu Xiaobei felt that he really couldn't stand it anymore!

...

After hearing Song Xue'er make the call, those thugs quickly gathered around Wang Dagui!

"Song Xue'er has made a call, so Hu Xiaobei will definitely come in person later! What do we do then?"

"Exactly!"

"We are no match for Hu Xiaobei!"

Hearing his subordinates panicking in fear, Wang Dagui said coldly, "What's there to be afraid of? Is he some sort of three-headed and six-armed monster? Besides, this time we're doing it for the good of the village, and many people will stand with us. I refuse to believe he can turn the world upside down!"

As Wang Dagui saw it, he was defending the village road this time, so even if Hu Xiaobei showed up, he could only behave himself!

"That's right!"

Hearing Wang Dagui's words, they regained some composure...

Indeed!

This time, they really had the high ground, so there was no need to worry too much...

...

At this moment, the people of Xiaohe Village gathered in increasing numbers, and soon everyone understood what was going on!

For a while, everyone felt that Wang Dagui was going too far...

"How can someone as petty as Wang Dagui be the village chief!"

"Exactly!"

"It's disgusting!"

Hearing these comments, Wang Dagui's eyelids twitched slightly!

...

"It's really Wang Dagui!"

When Hu Xiaobei arrived quickly, he saw Wang Dagui lounging over there!

In an instant, Hu Xiaobei's expression turned extremely grim!

The next moment, Hu Xiaobei sprinted forward and kicked away the makeshift roadblock that Wang Dagui and his people had set up...

"Good!"

Seeing Hu Xiaobei kicking it open directly, most villagers present felt a surge of satisfaction!

"Hu Xiaobei, what do you think you're doing?"

Wang Dagui shouted at the top of his lungs!

As Wang Dagui yelled, the thugs quickly stood up!

Hu Xiaobei scoffed, "Doing what? I should be asking you what you're planning to do!"

Hearing Hu Xiaobei's challenge, Wang Dagui replied, "What am I planning to do? Are you blind? Can't you see that this road has been damaged by vehicles? As the village chief, I naturally have to maintain the condition of the village's roads!"

"Exactly!"

"There's only this main road in our village, what if it gets damaged?!"

"That's right!"

Hearing their assertive statements, Hu Xiaobei sneered, "If a road could be damaged so easily, then it wouldn't be a road!"

"Anyway, I don't care, you cannot pass through here today!"

"Exactly!"

"Absolutely not!"

"You... you're going too far!"

"Yeah, why can't we pass?!"

"Right, right!"

Seeing Wang Dagui being completely unreasonable, Guo Meiyu, Su Xueying and others stood out directly!

Seeing that most of the villagers were on Hu Xiaobei's side, Wang Dagui's eyelids twitched, and then he shouted, "I am the village chief, and I say it's not allowed!"

With that, Wang Dagui turned a slow gaze to Hu Xiaobei and leisurely said, "Of course, that doesn't mean there's no room for negotiation. Just tell me your method of making the isatis root grow quickly, and then I'll consider letting them pass right away, and I promise never to stand in the way again! What do you think?"

He was revealing his true intentions!

Hearing Wang Dagui's words, Hu Xiaobei fully understood his aim, and at that moment, Hu Xiaobei laughed...
