Seeing Hu Xiaobei smile, Wang Dagui's expression turned ugly. Soon, with his brows furrowed fiercely, Wang Dagui said coldly, "What? You have a problem with my proposal? Or do you just not want to help everyone get rich?"

Hearing Wang Dagui mention riches, all those ruffians instantly became as excited as if they had been injected with chicken blood!

"That's right, you can't be selfish!"

"Exactly! Hurry up and share the cultivation method!"

"Yes, yes! When there are benefits, you should think of all of us! Being selfish is despicable!"

"It's shameless!"

Hearing Wang Dagui and those ruffians speak up, all the women standing behind Hu Xiaobei mocked coldly!

At that moment, they truly realized these people had no shame at all!

Even if Hu Xiaobei had a method, it was one that Hu Xiaobei had researched himself. Now, their coercion to make Hu Xiaobei reveal it was simply shameless!

Their skin was as thick as a city wall!

Exclaiming so, Hu Xiaobei squinted his eyes and said, "I, of course, want to help everyone get rich! But, village chief, I remember that you were the one who chose to plant fruit trees before! Moreover, you confidently said that cultivating medicinal herbs was just a waste of time. Have you forgotten all that so quickly? Your memory is really too poor!"

Hearing Hu Xiaobei's mocking words, Meiyu and the others joined in directly!

"That's right!"

"Didn't you say that planting fruit trees was the proper way?"

"Exactly! Keep planting fruit trees, what are you envious of now!"

Having his face slapped in public like this made Wang Dagui's lips twitch fiercely...

Quickly, Wang Dagui, infuriated and embarrassed, glared at Hu Xiaobei with bloodshot eyes and yelled, "Stop talking nonsense! Just tell us, are you willing to hand over the cultivation method or not?"

Seeing him enraged, Hu Xiaobei softly said, "In your dreams!"

Being outright rejected, Wang Dagui shouted, "Fine! Since you're unwilling, then no one is allowed to pass through here today!"

"Hah! I'd like to see who dares to stop us!"

In the midst of speaking, Hu Xiaobei took a step forward...

Seeing Hu Xiaobei step forward, Wang Dagui and the ruffians cowered instantly...

"Hu Xiaobei, you're courting death here, we are protecting our village's road, and now you're leading the disruptions! Do you even care about Xiaohe Village anymore? Someone stop him!"

As Wang Dagui spoke, the villagers who had chosen to stand with him quickly gathered behind him.

Ye Lili was no exception...

Strutting out confidently, she reached out her hand and shouted loudly, "Today, unless you hand over the cultivation methods, none of you will get past!"

Hearing Ye Lili shout this, Hu Xiaobei laughed!

Soon after, Hu Xiaobei looked at those standing behind Wang Dagui and said, "Previously, I invited everyone to join me in cultivating medicinal herbs, but many felt it was futile. Now, the results are already obvious; whoever wants to cultivate with me, can stand on my side! I will treat everyone equally!"

"This..."

Hearing Hu Xiaobei's words, many people standing behind Wang Dagui were tempted, because before, they had seen those who followed Hu Xiaobei in cultivating medicinal herbs earn an exceptionally high share...

...

"Don't listen to him!"

"That's right, don't be deceived by him!"

Seeing that many people were genuinely tempted, Wang Dagui and Ye Lili quickly spoke up...

But no one paid attention to them; after hesitating a little, many resolutely walked over to Hu Xiaobei's side...

Once someone led, others followed!

Soon, except for Wang Dagui's relatives and those few ruffians, everyone had moved to stand behind Hu Xiaobei...

"This..."

Wang Dagui was dumbfounded, Ye Lili was dumbfounded, those thugs were dumbfounded, Qian Shidie was dumbfounded too...

Seeing that nearly everyone was about to leave, Ye Lili glanced at Wang Dagui and screamed frantically, "Are you dead or something? Hurry up and call them back, otherwise, we won't be able to make money from the subsidies Fang Zhonghu is offering!"

"You, destructive woman!"

When Ye Lili mentioned the subsidies, Wang Dagui's face suddenly changed...

Seeing the drastic change in Wang Dagui's expression, Ye Lili suddenly remembered that the subsidies were something absolutely not to be disclosed...

But she realized it was already too late...

At that instant, everyone coldly asked, "What subsidy?"

"Exactly, are there subsidies for planting fruit trees?"

"Explain clearly!"

"Good for nothing, only capable of messing things up!"

Wang Dagui didn't answer at that moment, but he cursed Ye Lili bitterly in his mind, blaming her indiscretion for their current predicament!

Not getting an answer from Wang Dagui, everyone turned their heads to look at Qian Shidie...

They knew Qian Shidie must know the answer!

With so many eyes on him, Qian Shidie cursed inwardly, "Such greed! Coveting even that little subsidy!"

After his furious cursing, he said in a somewhat hoarse voice, "Indeed, the company does have subsidies! We know in the first year the fruit trees are growing, so you won't get any returns, which is why we provided the subsidies for the first year!"

Hearing this, everyone became frantic!

"How come we didn't know about this!"

"Exactly!"

Seeing everyone worked up, Qian Shidie glanced at Wang Dagui and said, "We made this very clear to Wang Dagui, and the money is already being set to transfer into his account!"

Hearing this, all the thugs and those standing behind Wang Dagui turned to look at him!

With everyone staring at him, Wang Dagui felt his scalp tingle!

Just as he was about to speak, the people spoke up first!

"Village chief, when were you planning to tell us about that subsidy?"

"Exactly, were you planning not to tell us at all from the start?"

"Right!"

"This..."

While Wang Dagui was thinking about how to explain, Ye Lili stepped forward and shouted, "What are you accusing us of? Without Dagui, would you have had the chance to help President Fang plant fruit trees? You should be grateful! What's wrong with us holding back some compensation?"

Self-righteously!

Ye Lili was completely self-righteous at that moment!

At this point, everyone was unable to listen any further. In an instant, many of Wang Dagui's relatives and friends also moved over to Hu Xiaobei's side!

Soon, only Ye Lili and a few of Wang Dagui's own brothers were left by his side!

Even these brothers of Wang Dagui felt that he had gone too far, but after all, they were family, so they still stood there!

"If you leave now, you'll regret it!"

Seeing that everyone had left, Ye Lili yelled in fury!

After this, Ye Lili looked at Hu Xiaobei, bitterly saying, "Hu Xiaobei! It's all because of you, this trash, that things turned out this way! You won't die a good death, won't die a good death!"

As she bitterly cursed, Ye Lili became increasingly angry and fainted...

Seeing Ye Lili faint, everyone present felt a great sense of satisfaction. In their view, a greedy person like Ye Lili deserved no good end...

"Wife!"

Seeing Ye Lili faint, Wang Dagui's face turned pale!

The next moment, Wang Dagui hurriedly tried to help her up, but found he couldn't do it alone!

In a frenzy, he glanced at his brothers and shouted, "What are you waiting for? Come and help!"

"Okay!"

After they agreed, they quickly came over to help, and soon five or six people struggled to lift Ye Lili...

"Hu Xiaobei, if anything happens to my wife, I won't let you off!"

After dropping that pointless remark, he and the others struggled to carry Ye Lili away...

Those ruffians and Qian Shidie watched them leave, then hurriedly left as well...

...

Seeing them all leave dejectedly, Hu Xiaobei dismantled the roadblock. Afterward, Hu Xiaobei turned to Song Xue'er with an apologetic look, "Sister Xue'er, I'm truly sorry for what happened!"

Hu Xiaobei was genuinely apologetic because he knew that Song Xue'er's convoy had been stopped entirely because of him!

Hearing Hu Xiaobei's apology, Song Xue'er quickly shook her head, "It's okay!"

Feeling that Song Xue'er was not angry, Hu Xiaobei smiled and said, "Then that's good, right, you should hurry along now!"

Hu Xiaobei knew that Wang Dagui was a vindictive person and would likely come back again...

"Okay!"

After agreeing, Song Xue'er quickly gave instructions, and soon, the vehicles started again...

Watching the cars leave, Hu Xiaobei turned to the newcomers, smiling, "Anyone who wants to join me in planting medicinal herbs should register. I'll distribute the seeds to you guys later!"

"Okay!"

Everyone nodded their heads excitedly...

...

"Damn it, had I known Wang Dagui was so unreliable, I wouldn't have joined him in the first place!"

"Exactly!"

"What do we do now!"

After leaving, the ruffians gathered together!

At that moment, they felt as though countless frustrations were running wild in their minds. Before, they thought they could achieve great things with Wang Dagui, but now they realized they were sorely mistaken!

Because things were just getting worse!

They also wanted to join Hu Xiaobei in planting medicinal herbs, but they knew even if they were willing, Hu Xiaobei would definitely not agree...

Seeing everyone was depressed, one of them sighed, "Let's just take it easy for now. Maybe things will get better in a while!"

"Let's hope so."

While talking, they quietly turned back...

...

"Hu Xiaobei, I will never coexist with you!"

After confirming that Ye Lili had only fainted from anger, Wang Dagui breathed a sigh of relief.

After that, thinking that Ye Lili had fainted because of Hu Xiaobei, he shouted furiously...

He knew that after this incident, his reputation in the village was completely ruined!

"No, I can't let this go! I must find a way to take revenge, definitely!"

While uttering this resentful whisper, he heard footsteps and looked up to see those ruffians who had left earlier running back!

Thinking that they had left on their own earlier, Wang Dagui knew they had grievances against him, so he wasn't very polite at this moment and directly frowned, "What are you here for?"

"Village chief, you... you better come and see with us quick!"

Hearing their incredibly urgent request, Wang Dagui frowned, "See what!"

"Those fruit trees we planted earlier! They have all bloomed!"

"This... how is this possible!"

"We also thought it was impossible, but it's true!"

Earlier, they planned to go to the back mountain to remove the fruit trees they planted in their fields, thinking that since they wanted to cozy up to Hu Xiaobei, they naturally had to completely break with Wang Dagui, so they naturally couldn't continue to plant fruit trees with Wang Dagui anymore!

But when they got there, they were stunned because they saw the recently planted fruit trees had all bloomed...

In disbelief, they pinched their faces to make sure they weren't dreaming, then they went straight to Wang Dagui, which led to the conversation just now...

"Let's go! Let's have a look!"

"Alright!"

During the conversation, everyone dashed to the back mountain!

Soon, they arrived at where the fruit trees were planted, and in that instant, Wang Dagui saw an ocean of flowers covering the mountains and fields!

Wang Dagui's eyes widened, and the next moment, he rubbed his eyes to make sure he wasn't seeing things wrong, then excitedly said, "They've bloomed, all the fruit trees have bloomed!"

After this exciting clench of his fists, he quickly called Qian Shidie!

"Hello... is there something?"

Qian Shidie was already prepared to leave, feeling there was no need for him to stay here anymore...

Hearing Qian Shidie slightly displeased, Wang Dagui quickly said, "Teacher Qian, here's the thing, you better come quick, all the fruit trees we planted have bloomed!"

"Are you not fully awake yet, how is that possible!"

"I also know this is a bit unbelievable, but it's true, you should come and see!"

"Fine! I can come over, but if you are lying to me, I definitely won't let you off!"

"Alright!"

After hanging up the phone, Wang Dagui was ecstatic...

Now he knew that the medicinal herbs Hu Xiaobei had planted that grew so fast weren't because Hu Xiaobei was incredible, but because the land in their village was a treasure.

Otherwise, how could these fruit trees have bloomed overnight!

"We're going to be rich! Since they've bloomed, they will soon bear fruit, and then we can make money!"

Excitedly speaking, Wang Dagui was very glad that those people had already left...

He knew that since those people chose to go and plant fruit trees with Hu Xiaobei, they had given up the ownership of these fruit trees, so now they completely belonged to him!

...

"Village chief, we're going to be rich this time!"

Hearing the excited words of those hoodlums, Wang Dagui nodded and said, "That's for sure! You all did very well this time! Those who went to plant medicinal herbs with Hu Xiaobei are like idiots giving up these fruit trees' ownership, I'll give more to you guys when the time comes!"

"Thank you, village chief!"

"Village chief is mighty!"

"Uh-huh!"

Hearing their cheers, Wang Dagui laughed!

Soon, Wang Dagui saw several of his brothers and Ye Lili had also arrived...

Quickly, Wang Dagui eagerly pointed out the scene of the land covered in blooms to them, and in an instant, they all became incredibly excited...

After looking at them, Wang Dagui laughed heartily and said in high spirits, "From now on, all these belong to us!"

Hearing Wang Dagui's words, everyone nodded excitedly; at this moment, they all began to dream of a perfect future...

As they were dreaming about a bright future, Qian Shidie also arrived here!

At that moment, he too witnessed the absolutely shocking scene!

"This... this is impossible!"

While saying this, Qian Shidie closely inspected them for a bit and soon confirmed everything was real.

The fruit trees that were just planted had indeed blossomed...

Hearing Qian Shidie's shocked exclamation, Wang Dagui chuckled slyly, then quickly said, "Teacher Qian, what do you think? I didn't lie to you before, did I?"

"Yes! You didn't lie to me!"

As he nodded, Qian Shidie looked again with a face full of surprise!

He couldn't help it, having planted fruit trees for many years, but this was the first time he had seen such a miraculous sight...

Taking a deep breath in excitement, Wang Dagui looked at Qian Shidie eagerly and quickly said, "Teacher Qian, we thought Hu Xiaobei had some special cultivation method, but now it seems he doesn't have one at all. The medicinal herbs grow quickly purely because of the soil!"

Hearing this, Qian Shidie slowly nodded.

Indeed!

If it were only Hu Xiaobei's medicinal herbs growing quickly, that would mean Hu Xiaobei had a unique cultivation method.

But now, since the fruit trees here have also blossomed, it proves that it isn't about Hu Xiaobei, but rather that the land itself is very suitable for plant growth...

"Just knew that dumb farmer couldn't possibly be that impressive!"

Thinking this, Qian Shidie felt quite relieved...

"Teacher Qian, now that they've blossomed, do you think they will bear fruit?"

Wang Dagui glanced at the fragile fruit trees and asked in a low voice!

His main concern was that these small fruit trees, even though they had blossomed, might not be able to bear fruit!

Hearing Wang Dagui's hesitant inquiry, Qian Shidie quickly said, "Of course they can! These fruit trees are specially cultivated by our company, if they can blossom, they can definitely bear fruit, so just wait! Soon, these trees will be full of fruits. Then, you guys will really get rich!"

"Great!"

Hearing Qian Shidie's assertive words, everyone laughed heartily with joy...

...

While they were laughing heartily, Hu Xiaobei, leading everyone, came here to plant medicinal herbs, and at that moment, everyone saw the blossoming fruit trees...

In that instant, everyone was astounded!

"Xiaobei, those fruit trees have actually bloomed!"

"Unbelievable!"

Hearing their astonished exclamations, Hu Xiaobei smiled, just about to say something, when Wang Dagui spoke first!

"Hu Xiaobei, I used to think you dumb farmer had some special method that made those indigo plants mature quickly, but now it seems you have no damn method, and those medicinal herbs grow well solely because our Xiaohe Village's land is very suitable!"

"That's right! Now that you've been exposed, let's see how you continue to pretend!"

"Exactly!"

The gang rapidly chimed in, who previously had planned to follow Hu Xiaobei but now realized luckily they hadn't...

After giving Wang Dagui a nonchalant glance, Hu Xiaobei spoke softly, "What does blooming represent?"

"What does blooming represent? Blooming means bearing fruit!"

"That's right!"

"You aren't an idiot, are you?"

"Haha!"

"Bearing fruit? That's not necessarily true!"

While talking, Hu Xiaobei glanced over his shoulder at the people behind him and said, "Let's move back a bit and then wait to watch a good show!"

"Good show?"

As everyone hesitated, suddenly a buzzing sound was heard. They turned their heads and jumped with fright because they then saw a large, dark swarm of bees rapidly approaching!

...

"Still watching the show? Watch my ass, the bees are here to pollinate. Soon, they'll bear fruit!"

Hearing Hu Xiaobei mention watching the show, Wang Dagui sneered...

But his sneer quickly stiffened on his face because he then realized that the dark swarm approaching was wasps...

"This..."

He was stunned!

The thugs were stunned!

Qian Shidie was stunned too!

Because they all recognized that the fast-approaching swarm indeed consisted of wasps!

Generally speaking, the duty of bees is to collect honey, but wasps are not like that; they are quite different as they don't collect honey but destroy the flowers. Simply put, their appearance meant that no matter how many blossoms the fruit trees bore, they would all end up fruitless!

Seeing those wasps heading straight for the blossoming fruit trees, Hu Xiaobei's lips curled into a slight smile...

Yes!

These wasps had appeared because of Hu Xiaobei!

Earlier, he had infused Nine Wood True Qi into those fruit trees, causing them to mutate, which changed their pollen...

Simply put, this pollen couldn't attract ordinary bees, but the attraction to wasps had increased tenfold...

...

Realizing the wasps would utterly destroy these fruit trees, Qian Shidie snapped back to reality and frantically exclaimed, "What are you all dazed for? Hurry up and drive these wasps away, otherwise, these fruit trees are completely doomed!"

"This..."

Hearing Qian Shidie's hysterical roar, the thugs' eyelids twitched violently...

They knew if they really dared to attack these wasps now, the wasps would certainly not be kind to them, and they would surely end up stung all over...

Seeing everyone hesitating, Qian Shidie shouted, "What? Do you want to be content only after all the fruit trees are destroyed?"

Hearing this, they gritted their teeth and instantly, they picked up long poles and charged forward!

Seeing only the thugs rushing forward, Qian Shidie yelled at Wang Dagui and his brothers, "You guys go up there too!"

"This..."

Hearing this, they glanced at the large, dark swarm of wasps and instantly cowered...

"Go up!"

"Yes!"

With that said, they could only bite the bullet and rush forward. At this moment, they were extremely frustrated because they didn't know why these terrifying wasps had been attracted...

...

"This..."

Standing at a distance, Guo Meiyu and the others all looked towards Hu Xiaobei. Could this be the 'good show' he mentioned earlier?

Could it be that he had anticipated the appearance of these wasps?

Thinking this way, everyone admired Hu Xiaobei even more, and quickly, they all firmed up their resolution to continue cultivating medicinal herbs with him...

"Ah, my hand!"

"Fuck, not my face!"

"My ass!"

Soon, they heard those tragic cries of pain and involuntarily glanced over. Their sympathy reached its peak because they then saw everyone including Wang Dagui directly stung into pig heads by the wasps...

Half an hour later, after all the wasps had destroyed all the fruit trees, they flew away from here...

After they left, the scene was a mess, all the fruit trees were completely destroyed, and Wang Dagui and others were all stung into pig heads!

Even someone familiar with Wang Dagui would really have a hard time recognizing who he actually was!

No choice!

Now his face was more than twice as fat than usual...

Watching those wasps fly away, Wang Dagui, somewhat terrified, climbed up and the next moment, he looked at Hu Xiaobei and roared venomously, "Hu Xiaobei, tell me, did you bring those wasps here?"

Before, he had heard Hu Xiaobei talking about watching a good show but hadn't paid attention. Now, thinking it over, he realized that Hu Xiaobei must have anticipated all this!

Seeing him staring with bloodshot eyes, Hu Xiaobei laughed!

Soon, Hu Xiaobei indifferently said, "Do you have any proof? Don't talk nonsense without proof!"

"Don't we need proof? In Xiaohe Village, only you are the most cunning, so only you could do something like this!"

"Haha! I'd advise you to rest for a while! Otherwise, you might faint from anger soon!"

"I don't care what happens to me, it's none of your business!"

After saying that coldly, he turned his head to look at the fruit trees, and the next moment, he felt his heart bleeding!

Because he found that all those recently blossomed fruit trees were completely destroyed, not only were all the flowers gone, but even a lot of the bark was eaten away by the wasps!

It's over!

Knowing they were totally done for, Wang Dagui glanced at Hu Xiaobei with venom...

The next moment, an idea came to him!

Instantly, with a full-faced smile, Wang Dagui said, "These fruit trees have sustained a bit of damage, but just a bit! As long as they are well taken care of, they could definitely recover! Who's interested in taking over? For one hundred thousand yuan! Just one hundred thousand yuan, and you can have all the fruit trees in this area!"

"One hundred thousand, Dagui, have you gone mad?"

Ye Lili heard Wang Dagui was ready to transfer all the fruit trees for one hundred thousand yuan and was a bit frantic!

Hearing Ye Lili's urgent words, Wang Dagui's brothers also started talking!

"Exactly, that's too little!"

"Right!"

Hearing their words, Wang Dagui slightly furrowed his brows, and soon, he whispered, "Think about it, all the fruit trees have been damaged by the wasps, it will take a long time to revive them, some may not even make it, and think about it, what if they bloom again and attract wasps?"

"This..."

Everyone shivered at the mention of wasps, and even two thugs peed their pants...

Indeed!

If wasps are attracted again, it would really be too terrifying!

Seeing everyone's faces looking extremely ugly, Wang Dagui continued, "So, we might as well sell everything now! We can still make a clean one hundred thousand yuan!"

Convinced by Wang Dagui's reasoning, they all agreed!

But upon further thought, they felt that this land was a hot potato...

With that thought, they whispered, "But does anyone want it?"

"Exactly!"

"I think so too!"

They knew everyone wasn't foolish, so probably no one would be willing to take over, and the people in the village were poor. Even if someone was willing, they couldn't come up with that much money!

Having already planned, Wang Dagui chuckled and said, "I've already figured it out, others don't have much money, so we can try to make Hu Xiaobei buy it!"

"Right!"

Hearing this, their eyes lit up...

They all hated Hu Xiaobei, so they felt that tricking Hu Xiaobei was really great!

After reaching a consensus, Wang Dagui looked at Hu Xiaobei and said, "Xiaobei, what do you think? Are you interested in this land? It's just one hundred thousand yuan; surely you can afford that!"

Wang Dagui knew about Hu Xiaobei treating Eighth Master previously, so he knew that it wouldn't be difficult for Hu Xiaobei to come up with one hundred thousand yuan now!

Realizing he was targeting him, Hu Xiaobei said with a smile, "Indeed, I can afford it, but I'm not interested!"

Hearing that Hu Xiaobei could really afford it, Wang Dagui's eyes brightened, he quickly said, "One hundred thousand, think about it carefully, it's almost like picking it up for free! You're really not interested? Don't you want to expand your medicinal herbs' planting area? Our village only has so much land, so you better think it through!"

Wang Dagui was confident because he knew he was right; the village had only so much land, so if Hu Xiaobei wanted to expand the medicinal herbs' planting area, he would really have to agree...

"Xiaobei, don't be fooled!"

"Exactly! These fruit trees clearly won't survive, buying them would absolutely be a waste of money!"

"Right, don't really buy them!"

Hearing their words, Hu Xiaobei knew they genuinely cared about him!

After a light laugh, Hu Xiaobei looked at Wang Dagui and said, "One hundred thousand, I can give you that, but I not only want these fruit trees, I also want the land! This land belonging to you must be transferred to me permanently!"

"Permanently? That would be two hundred thousand!"

Hearing him shout two hundred thousand, Hu Xiaobei laughed heartily, "Alright! I'll give you two hundred thousand, let's sign the contract first!"

"This..."

Wang Dagui was stunned; he didn't expect Hu Xiaobei to agree so readily...

At that moment, he regretted not asking for three hundred thousand or more earlier...

Of course, he knew if he had asked for higher, Hu Xiaobei definitely wouldn't have agreed...

Seeing Wang Dagui's uncertain expression, Hu Xiaobei coolly retorted, "What? Having regrets now?"

"No, I have no regrets, let's sign the contract!"

"Okay!"

Just like that, Hu Xiaobei and he signed the contract in front of so many people...

After signing, Hu Xiaobei transferred the money to him via bank card!

Once he confirmed the money had come through, Wang Dagui started laughing madly, "Idiot, Hu Xiaobei, you're really an idiot! Before, I thought you were really smart, but it turns out you're a real idiot, two hundred thousand yuan, these fruit trees aren't worth a penny, and the land is only worth several thousand yuan, yet you spent two hundred thousand, you truly are a Money Scattering Child! Haha! Haha! Haha!"

Laughing wildly, Wang Dagui was frantically laughing at that moment, feeling like he had securely beaten Hu Xiaobei this time...

"Exactly, what an idiot!"

"Haha! Easy come, easy go!"

"Hehe!"

After Wang Dagui spoke, the thugs and Wang Dagui's brothers were also full of ridicule. At that moment, they genuinely felt that Hu Xiaobei had completely fallen...

"Xiaobei really was too hasty this time!"

"Just saying!"

"Ah...."

While Wang Dagui and others were laughing like mad, those standing by Hu Xiaobei, like Guo Meiyu, were also silently sighing.

They all felt that Hu Xiaobei spending two hundred thousand to buy up this land just wasn't worth it because the land simply wasn't worth that much!

Hu Xiaobei heard their comments, but didn't care, for he knew that spending the two hundred thousand was absolutely worth it...

Hu Xiaobei knew he possessed the Nine Wood True Qi so he would soon be able to revive those already dead fruit trees, and most importantly, once they were revived, they would return to normal and definitely not attract wasps again...

...

"Who will have the last laugh is still uncertain, laughing now, isn't it a bit too early?"

After carefully putting away the contract, Hu Xiaobei spoke lightly...

Hearing Hu Xiaobei's mild mockery, they exchanged glances before speaking again.

"Early? I really don't think it's early!"

"Just so! You spending two hundred thousand to buy this plot of land just shows you really have a problem in the head! Us laughing a bit is normal, right?"

"Yeah, that's right!"

"Hehe..."

Hu Xiaobei remained noncommittal...

"Alright, we don't have the patience to waste time here with you, idiot, we're going to head to town and celebrate properly!"

"Yes!"

"Ha ha!"

After such raucous laughter, Wang Dagui and others left with triumphant strides...

Watching their triumphant demeanor, Hu Xiaobei chuckled lightly, knowing they would soon be crying...

Thinking so, after taking another glance at them, he turned around and said, "Alright, let's continue planting medicinal herbs!"

"Ok!"

They all agreed in unison...

After planting the medicinal herbs with everyone, Hu Xiaobei walked back to his living quarters, happily humming a tune...

Hu Xiaobei was now looking forward to nightfall because at night, he could go up the mountain and reinfuse the fruit trees with Nine Wood True Qi...

"In a few days at most, those fruit trees will bear fruit, then it'll be Wang Dagui and the others' turn to be dumbfounded!"

Smiling to himself, Hu Xiaobei heard a knock at the door, lifted his head, and saw Su Xueying standing shyly at the entrance.

"Sister-in-law!"

His eyes lighting up, Hu Xiaobei greeted her quickly!

At the same time, Hu Xiaobei seriously sized up Su Xueying and realized she was wearing a brand-new dress...

Fine feathers make fine birds!

Su Xueying, in her new dress, looked even more charming than before...

"This little rascal!"

Seeing Hu Xiaobei staring blankly at her, Su Xueying felt incredibly shy in that moment...

Feeling slightly awkward, she fiddled with her black hair and softly said, "Xiaobei, I cooked up two dishes earlier. Are you hungry?"

Hearing Su Xueying's invitation, Hu Xiaobei quickly came back to his senses and instantly said, "Sister-in-law, I was just worrying about what to eat tonight!"

"Then hurry up and come with me!"

"Ok!"

Quickly agreeing, Hu Xiaobei stood up fast and followed her...

"That butt seems to have gotten even bigger!"

Following closely behind Su Xueying, Hu Xiaobei admired her butt, wrapped tightly in black leggings, with genuine appreciation. There was no helping it; right now, as they moved, it gently quivered, an extraordinarily distracting sight...

Many of the village's beauties couldn't help feeling gloomy when they saw Hu Xiaobei following Su Xueying straight to her place...

Before this, they had all prepared meals, hoping to invite Hu Xiaobei over to dine with them...

Don't forget the well-digger when you drink the water!

They knew that they had earned money before because of Hu Xiaobei, so they were truly grateful to him...

And because of this, seeing Su Xueying beat them to the punch naturally made them a bit gloomy...

...

Downtown, Wang Dagui and others sat comfortably in a private room!

Even though they had been stung into a pig's head by wasps before, it hadn't stopped them from celebrating...

After getting seated and feeling content, Wang Dagui took a glance at everyone and said with a smile, "Today, everyone eat to your heart's content, please don't hold back, just pretend that silly Hu Xiaobei is treating!"

Getting two hundred thousand from Hu Xiaobei had lifted Wang Dagui's mood to the extreme, so now, he was telling everyone to eat as much as they wanted...

"Sure!"

After their excited agreement, everyone started ordering dishes rapidly, and soon, all sorts of delicacies were brought to their table...

Once all the dishes were served, those thugs quickly poured wine for Wang Dagui!

Following that, they said, "Village chief, say a few words!"

Hearing this, Wang Dagui chuckled and responded, "Alright, I'll say a few! This time, we thought we'd suffer some losses due to the fruit trees, but now, not only have we not suffered losses, we've even made a profit, so everyone just enjoy the food and drink!"

"Great!"

Everyone welcomed his speech warmly...

Just then, Ye Lili put down her chopsticks and said, "Dagui, what if Hu Xiaobei revives all those fruit trees? What then?"

Upon hearing Ye Lili's words, Wang Dagui chuckled, "Revive? Even better if he does. Later on, we'll have the wasps sting him to death!"

"Right!"

"Sting him to death!"

Hearing this, Ye Lili, her face swollen from the stings, smiled as well...

...

Unaware that these people were happily celebrating, and also unaware that he had now become the village's darling, Xiaobei's eyes shone as he looked at the large spread of dishes on the table...

Upon realizing there were more than a dozen dishes on the table, Hu Xiaobei whispered, "Sister-in-law, isn't this too much? Can the two of us really finish it?"

"Who said it's just the two of us?"

"Then..."

Before Hu Xiaobei could finish, he saw Guo Meiyu carrying a black clay pot coming out of the kitchen in front...

"Sister-in-law, let me!"

As he spoke, Hu Xiaobei quickly took the black clay pot from Guo Meiyu's hands...

"At least you know what's good for you, kid!"

Seeing Hu Xiaobei eager to take the pot, Guo Meiyu laughed...

Soon, the three of them sat down...

Just about to pick up his chopsticks, Hu Xiaobei thought of something and quickly stood up, heading straight for the door...

That way, Hu Xiaobei, under their slightly surprised gaze, locked the door from the inside...

Seeing Hu Xiaobei locking the wooden door, Guo Meiyu gave him a big eye roll, "You little bastard, is it necessary to lock the door just for a meal?"

"Exactly!"

Hu Xiaobei glanced at them and explained with a beaming smile, "I'm just worried about being disturbed by others!"

"Is that so?"

Seeing their disbelief, Hu Xiaobei gave a dry laugh, not continuing the subject, but quickly picked up his chopsticks...

A long time ago, Hu Xiaobei had tasted Guo Meiyu's cooking, so he knew she was great at it, and for that reason, he simply couldn't help himself now...

"Delicious!"

After taking a bite of the chicken, Hu Xiaobei's eyes squinted with pleasure, unable to help it—the flavor was just so incredibly delicious...

"You little dummy, no one's fighting you for it! Slow down!"

"Right?!"

Seeing Hu Xiaobei gobble up that piece of chicken and quickly reach for another, the two of them couldn't help but burst into laughter, teasing him softly...

Watching Hu Xiaobei eat so happily, they were genuinely overjoyed!

Before, the two of them had gone together to town to buy a lot of groceries, all with the purpose of treating Hu Xiaobei well; they knew that he had helped them a lot in the past!

"Hehe, it's just too delicious!"

As Hu Xiaobei said this, he grabbed another chicken leg.

These past few days, Hu Xiaobei had been incredibly busy, and therefore hadn't had a chance to have a proper meal. Because of that, the delicious food was now luring out his cravings!

Hearing Hu Xiaobei explain as he reached for more food, they remembered that Hu Xiaobei was an orphan!

Realizing that he usually couldn't eat well, their gazes softened a great deal.

The next moment, Guo Meiyu said softly, "If it tastes good, come every day, and I, your sister-in-law, will cook for you daily!"

"Then thank you, sister-in-law!"

"What are you being polite for? If it hadn't been for you before, I would've drowned in the river long ago!"

Guo Meiyu wasn't ungrateful, so she knew that being alive today was all thanks to Hu Xiaobei's desperate efforts to save her in the past!

Because of that, she felt doing something for Hu Xiaobei was only right.

Hearing Guo Meiyu bring up the incident by the river, Hu Xiaobei took a bite of his chicken leg and said, "Sister-in-law, anyone who had seen what was happening at the time would have rescued you! So don't worry about it!"

"Really?"

Guo Meiyu was noncommittal, knowing that if it had been anyone else, they couldn't possibly have been as decisive as Hu Xiaobei...

Sitting on the side, Su Xueying, listening to the conversation between Hu Xiaobei and Guo Meiyu, remembered how Hu Xiaobei had once helped her remove snake poison. She knew that if it had been someone else, they wouldn't have dared to suck out the snake poison so directly—after all, doing so really meant putting oneself in the utmost danger!

With that thought, Su Xueying gently picked up a chicken leg and placed it on Hu Xiaobei's plate...

"Sister-in-law, you two eat as well!"

Soon, Hu Xiaobei chuckled wryly, as he realized that the two of them were relentlessly serving him more food...

"As long as you eat well, that's fine!"

"Yeah, we made this meal just for you!"

Seeing Hu Xiaobei chuckle, the two of them exchanged a smile. They found watching him eat so heartwarming and felt that whether they ate themselves was really beside the point...

After the meal, Hu Xiaobei and the two of them sat under a jujube tree in the courtyard...

"Xiaobei, tell me and your sister-in-law Xueying, what were you thinking before? Why did you spend two hundred thousand to buy Wang Dagui's land and those fruit trees?"

"Yeah!"

The two ladies were genuinely curious as to why Hu Xiaobei had spent two hundred thousand on them, as it seemed like a total waste of money!

Hearing their question, Hu Xiaobei, rubbing his slightly bloated stomach, explained, "It's very simple, because I'm confident that I can make those fruit trees bloom again!"

"But even if they could bloom again, it would just attract wasps again!"

"Yeah, exactly!"

When they thought of the wasps, they recalled the menacing swarm from earlier and instantly felt a shiver run through their hearts...

Seeing their somewhat frightened expressions, Hu Xiaobei chuckled and said, "Don't worry! Those wasps won't come back again!"

Hearing Hu Xiaobei speak so confidently, they widened their eyes and asked, "So those wasps really were your doing?"

"Yeah, that's right!"

They had previously entertained such a thought, but later found it too incredible to believe, so they dismissed it!

Now, seeing Hu Xiaobei's confident face, they gazed at him blankly...

Noticing their dumbfounded looks, Hu Xiaobei laughed and said, "Yep, I was the one who brought them here!"

"How... How did you do that?"

"Yeah, how?"

Seeing them stare at him like curious babies, Hu Xiaobei's eyes twinkled, "Hehe, give me a kiss and I'll tell you!"

"You little bastard!"

Upon hearing Hu Xiaobei's request, they both pouted angrily, and in the next moment, simultaneously reached out and pinched the soft flesh on Hu Xiaobei's waist, causing him to grimace in pain...

After a while, looking at the bruised area, Hu Xiaobei said with a wry smile, "Sisters-in-law, that was too harsh!"

"Serve you right for spouting nonsense!"

"Yeah, exactly!"

"I was just joking! You guys are overreacting!"

"Hmph..."

Seeing their proud snorts, Hu Xiaobei smiled and said, "Anyway, I had already planned everything before, and those 200,000 won't go to waste! Just wait and enjoy the show!"

"Then we'll wait and see!"

"Okay!"

Having said that, Hu Xiaobei continued chatting with them for a while, and meanwhile, he couldn't help but let his mind wander as he admired their stunning beauty...

...

As night fell, Hu Xiaobei slipped quietly to the back of the village under the cover of darkness...

He knew no one would come this way now, so it was time to make some changes to those fruit trees...

Upon reaching the spot, Hu Xiaobei was just about to do something, when he suddenly heard rustling sounds...

Turning his head, Hu Xiaobei saw Xiaobai, all white, wagging its tail towards him!

After gently stroking its fur, Hu Xiaobei asked, "Xiaobai, why haven't you gone back?"

"Whoo..."

After understanding what it wanted to convey, Hu Xiaobei whispered, "Miss me? Want to come back to the village with me from now on?"

Having said this, Hu Xiaobei saw its tail wag furiously, instantly knowing that it really wanted to return with him...

"Alright, you can come back to the village with me after this, but first, I have some serious business to take care of!"

With that said, Hu Xiaobei summoned the Nine Wood True Qi from within his Dantian, directing it out and gradually infusing it into the damaged fruit trees one by one. Afterward, Hu Xiaobei looked at them and declared, "Tomorrow will be the day to witness a miracle!"

After finishing his declaration, Hu Xiaobei called out to Xiaobai, and soon, man and Wolf quickly made their exit...

After returning with Xiaobai, Hu Xiaobei asked Xiaobai to wait for a moment and quickly built a nest for Xiaobai using wood and bricks!

Since it was evening, Hu Xiaobei's construction was a bit crooked, which made him feel a bit embarrassed, but he soon sighed in relief after realizing that Xiaobai didn't mind!

Watching Xiaobai comfortably lying inside, Hu Xiaobei gently stroked its fluffy head and then went to get some water for it!

Thinking how Xiaobai liked his Nine Wood True Qi, Hu Xiaobei infused the water with some Nine Wood True Qi before placing it down!

Watching it drink happily, Hu Xiaobei smiled gently!

After that, Hu Xiaobei returned to his room.

Once he lay down, Hu Xiaobei began dreaming. In his dream, Hu Xiaobei dreamed that he had married many wives...

...

"That dream would be so nice if it were real!"

The next morning after turning over in bed, Hu Xiaobei muttered excitedly...

After going to the yard, Hu Xiaobei glanced at Xiaobai, shook his head slightly when he saw it was still asleep!

Shortly after, Hu Xiaobei happily practiced a set of military boxing and then prepared to make some sloppy meals to fill his stomach. Honestly, ever since he began his cultivation, Hu Xiaobei had greatly lessened his food requirements and now his portion size had diminished a lot, realizing that with his enhanced abilities his appetite would only diminish further...

Thinking this, Hu Xiaobei heard a knock!

"Who could it be this early in the morning?"

Curiously muttering, Hu Xiaobei quickly opened the door!

Instantly, Hu Xiaobei was stunned, because when he opened the door, he saw more than twenty beautiful women, each holding a lunch box...

"What... what's going on?"

Wondering out loud, Hu Xiaobei curiously asked, "Aunties, sister-in-laws, this..."

"Xiaobei, you haven't eaten yet, have you? Auntie made you food!"

"Xiaobei, your sister-in-law made you some too, and even added a chicken leg!"

"I did too..."

"This..."

Seeing them all quickly handing over their lunch boxes, Hu Xiaobei realized they were all prepared to bring him breakfast!

Heartwarming!

Hu Xiaobei truly felt very heartwarmed at that moment!

The next moment, Hu Xiaobei hurriedly said, "Aunties, sister-in-laws, I can cook, you all don't need to go through so much trouble in the future!"

...

"No way! You've helped us so much before, making you breakfast now is the least we can do! How could it be a trouble?"

"Yes, we are repaying you!"

"That's right! You must accept, otherwise, we'll be upset!"

"Hmm!"

"This..."

Seeing how adamant they were, Hu Xiaobei rubbed his nose, saying, "Well, if that's the case, okay then! But... but I really can't eat so much!"

Hu Xiaobei knew that even if he ate all he could, he really wouldn't be able to eat that much!

Upon hearing this, they thought it over carefully and came to the agreement!

...

"We thought it over, Xiaobei, and decided we'll take turns bringing you breakfast, starting today with your Aunt Han!"

Hearing this, Hu Xiaobei looked at Han Xueyao and said, "Well... okay then!"

Seeing that Hu Xiaobei agreed, they smiled, quickly left feeling happy...

People must be grateful!

They knew Hu Xiaobei had helped them a lot, and they felt that doing something for Hu Xiaobei was truly right!

Seeing that everyone had left, Hu Xiaobei sighed with relief, looked at Han Xueyao, and said, "Auntie, come!"

"Alright!"

Han Xueyao nodded gently and slowly walked in with the lunchbox...

"Damn, what's so special about Hu Xiaobei!"

"Exactly!"

"Why should he!"

After all the women had left, the village ruffians began to speak out in deep vexation!

At this moment, their jealousy toward Hu Xiaobei had reached its extreme!

Earlier, they had heard some noise over here and had curiously come to check it out, only to witness the lively scene, which instantly made them green with envy!

"Alright, let's not stay here sulking anymore! This Hu Xiaobei probably won't be hopping around for too many more days! Let's go!"

"Yeah, let's go! This damn guy is going to die soon!"

"Yeah, yeah!"

After such bitter muttering, they quickly left...

In the courtyard, Hu Xiaobei's eyes lit up...

The reason his eyes lit up was that he saw Han Xueyao opening the lunchbox!

The box contained only a simple egg fried rice, but Hu Xiaobei was extremely eager to eat!

Seeing Hu Xiaobei's eyes shining, Han Xueyao flirtatiously tossed her smooth hair and whispered, "Hungry, right? Go ahead and eat!"

After nodding vigorously, Hu Xiaobei excitedly asked, "Yeah! Auntie, have you eaten yet?"

"I'll eat when I get home, you go ahead and eat!"

"That won't do, let's eat together! There's so much food here, I can't finish it anyway!"

"I only brought one spoon, you'll need to find another."

"What's there to fear from one spoon? You take a bite, I take a bite, can't we do that?"

Hearing Hu Xiaobei's suggestion, she pouted angrily and muttered, "Little bastard, always taking advantage of Auntie! Do you really want Auntie to hit you to feel happy?"

Being scolded by her, Hu Xiaobei said somewhat disappointedly, "Oh! I got it! I'll go find a spoon."

After saying this, Hu Xiaobei stood up...

Seeing Hu Xiaobei's disappointed look, Han Xueyao felt a bit painful and quickly called out to him, "It won't happen again!"

"Yeah!"

After nodding vigorously, Hu Xiaobei quickly sat down again!

Seeing his excitement, Han Xueyao couldn't help but smile...

After quickly taking a bite of the egg fried rice, Hu Xiaobei scooped up another spoonful and headed straight for Han Xueyao!

Seeing Hu Xiaobei intending to feed her, she said shyly, "Put it down, I can eat by myself!"

"It's okay, I can do it!"

"You make it seem like I'm a child!"

While muttering this, she gave Hu Xiaobei a seductive glance and soon gently opened her mouth!

Watching her teeth glisten like jade, Hu Xiaobei tenderly fed her the rice...

Afterward, looking at her reddened lips, he asked, "How does it taste?"

"Yeah!"

Seeing her charmingly cute demeanor, Hu Xiaobei felt very excited...

"Little naughty, just eat your meal properly!"

Seeing Hu Xiaobei's excited look, Han Xueyao knew he was up to something and couldn't help but roll her eyes at him...

"Hehe!"

With a quick laugh, Hu Xiaobei scooped up another spoonful, and Han Xueyao glanced at him, then somewhat resignedly opened her mouth again...

"What? Really?"

The village chief, Wang Dagui, who had just woken up from yesterday's hangover, learned from those thugs that a lot of people had gone to deliver breakfast to Hu Xiaobei!

Instantly, he was infuriated!

Seeing Wang Dagui blow his top, they exchanged looks and quickly nodded in agreement!

"It's true, we saw it with our own eyes! Everyone was making overtures to Hu Xiaobei!"

"Yes, that's right!"

Hearing this, the corners of Wang Dagui's mouth twitched violently several times!

The next moment, his expression darkened to the extreme as he smashed a cup on the table to smithereens!

"What merit does he have! What merit does that Hu Xiaobei have!"

As he growled, Wang Dagui completely lost his cool...

Previously, Wang Dagui had been hoping to get on good terms with the village's widows and beauties, but now there was absolutely no progress on his part, while Hu Xiaobei had already become chummy with them!

Unacceptable!

Wang Dagui found it completely unacceptable!

Seeing Wang Dagui's expression turn unspeakably ugly, those thugs exchanged glances. One of them said, "Village chief, we really do need to come up with a way to properly deal with Hu Xiaobei now, we have to ruin his reputation! Otherwise, his prestige in the village will only grow, and then, you won't be the village chief after the next election!"

"This..."

Hearing this, Wang Dagui's eyelids twitched!

Indeed! If he didn't do something about it, his standing in the village would be completely overtaken by Hu Xiaobei! By that time, it wouldn't be possible for him to remain seated as the village chief!

Thinking this, he looked anxiously at the thug and said, "Then what do you suggest we do?"

Hearing Wang Dagui's urgent question, the man hesitated for a moment and whispered, "This... this... I don't know!"

"Useless, all of you are useless!"

Hearing him say he didn't know what to do, Wang Dagui exploded in anger!

One keeps soldiers for a thousand days just to use them at the critical moment!

Wang Dagui usually supported them, but now, when they were needed, they were completely useless!

After saying this, just as Wang Dagui was about to add something else, he suddenly heard the sound of footsteps. Looking up, he saw his wife, Ye Lili, coming over with a beaming smile...

Disgust!

Seeing Ye Lili, who had indeed gotten fatter than before, Wang Dagui felt very disgusted!

But remembering that she was still his wife in name, Wang Dagui couldn't help but ask, "What's up? Got some good news?"

Upon hearing Wang Dagui's question, Ye Lili said with a bright smile, "Good news? It's fantastic news! I went to look at the back of the village just now! Guess what I saw?"

"Go see hell!"

As he muttered bitterly to himself, Wang Dagui said impatiently, "What were you doing at the back of the village! Haven't all our lands already been bought by Hu Xiaobei?"

"Yes! And precisely because of that, I took a look, and I saw that the fruit trees damaged by the wasps are blooming again!"

Hearing this, Wang Dagui and all the thugs' eyes widened in shock!

"Is... is that really true?"

Seeing their astonished faces with eyes wide open, Ye Lili chuckled, "Would I lie about something like this?"

Once Wang Dagui was sure Ye Lili was not joking, he exclaimed joyfully, "That's great! That's fantastic! We have to notify Hu Xiaobei about this good news right away! We must let him know immediately!"

"While speaking like this, Wang Dagui quickly stood up!

When the thugs heard what Wang Dagui said, they knew he wanted Xiaobei to hurry to the back of the village.

Since they had started blooming again, the wasps would soon reappear...

Once Xiaobei went to the back of the village, he would definitely be attacked by the wasps!

Knowing that Xiaobei wasn't stupid, the thugs quickly said, 'Village chief, what if Xiaobei doesn't go to the back of the village?'

Hearing the question from the thugs, Wang Dagui sneered, 'Not go? Let's stir things up right now, so he has no choice but to go!'

'So, what shall we do exactly?'

Seeing everyone looking at him cluelessly, Dagui rolled his eyes and soon bellowed, 'Idiots, let's start drumming and head towards Xiaobei's place! Let everyone in the village know that the fruit trees on the back hill are in bloom! If Xiaobei doesn't go then, we'll mock him relentlessly, and naturally, his prestige will decrease!'

Hearing Wang Dagui lay out the plan in detail, their eyes sparkled brightly, 'This... what a great idea!'

Seeing that they finally understood his plan, Wang Dagui roared, 'Now that you know it's a good plan, what are you standing around for? Go get ready with the drums and everything!'

'Right! We're on it!'

After agreeing, they ran off quickly!

...

'Little dummy, are you full?'

At Xiaobei's place, seeing Xiaobei patting his belly contentedly, Han Xueyao gave him a big roll of the eyes, her cheeks flushed red!

Just now, she had been fed by Xiaobei, so she really felt quite embarrassed!

Hearing Han Xueyao's shy inquiry, Xiaobei thought back to the intimacy of the moment, blushing slightly as he nodded, 'Yeah, full! Auntie, the fried rice you make is so delicious. I wish I could eat it every day!'

'As if I'd believe you!'

While talking like this, Han Xueyao picked up the empty lunchbox and walked towards the kitchen...

Watching her ample behind quiver slightly with her steps, Xiaobei secretly swallowed his saliva...

Soon, as Xiaobei was preparing to do something, he suddenly heard the deafening sound of drums outside...

Drums? Could there be some kind of celebration?

As he furrowed his brows in curiosity, Xiaobei heard the sound getting closer...

'Xiaobei, what's going on outside?'

After a glance at Han Xueyao, Xiaobei shook his head, 'Auntie, I don't know either!'

While they were talking, Xiaobei and Han Xueyao opened the door, only to see Wang Dagui and the village thugs coming their way, beating drums and gongs...

Behind them, many villagers were following curiously...

Xiaobei, casting an indifferent glance at Wang Dagui carrying the drum, asked calmly, 'Village chief, what's this all about?'

Wang Dagui laughed heartily and said, 'Xiaobei, we are celebrating your upcoming success!'

'Success? What success?'

'Don't you know? The fruit trees that you bought from me for two hundred thousand have started blooming again. I reckon the wasps will soon return to destroy the newly bloomed flowers again. I believe since you purchased them from me for two hundred thousand previously, you must already have a way to deal with those wasps, right?'

After Wang Dagui finished speaking, the thugs watching the drums quickly chimed in!

'Exactly!'

'He must have thought of a way!'

'I think so too!'

Hearing the chorus of agreement, Wang Dagui continued smilingly, 'So, this is our way of showing support for you. I believe, you wouldn't be scared off by those wasps, would you!'

After glancing at Wang Dagui, Hu Xiaobei let out a light chuckle, "Whether I get scared or not, what does it have to do with you?"

Having bumped into a soft nail, Wang Dagui coughed and said earnestly, "Xiaobei, you can't talk like that! We're all from the same village and we are your elders, so naturally, we care about you! You know, you are very respected in our village right now, so if you get scared by a few wasps, it will affect your image in the village!"

"That's right!"

"Xiaobei, go and take care of those wasps quickly!"

"Exactly, exactly! We're all waiting to see you unleash your prowess!"

Having already discussed it with Wang Dagui earlier, the riffraff quickly chirped in after Wang Dagui finished speaking!

Their harmonious collaboration had only one goal, to make Hu Xiaobei hurry to the back mountain...

Because they knew that only if Hu Xiaobei went to the back mountain would he be stung by the wasps into a "pig head"...

Hearing Wang Dagui's concerned remarks, Hu Xiaobei smiled!

The next moment, Hu Xiaobei mocked lightly, "I didn't expect that my every move would attract so much attention! In fact, I've already figured out how to deal with the wasps, so since the village chief wants to see, I naturally have no problem!"

Hu Xiaobei agreed readily.

Hu Xiaobei agreed really quickly this time because he knew those wasps wouldn't even show up...

Seeing Hu Xiaobei agree so readily left Wang Dagui and the others a bit stunned!

They had prepared a bunch of flattering words beforehand, but before they could say them, Hu Xiaobei had already agreed!

As they were stunned, Han Xueyao and the others quickly spoke up!

"Xiaobei, don't be provoked by them; those wasps are very dangerous, you shouldn't go to the back mountain now!"

"Just let those fruit trees be ruined by the wasps, since we are going to uproot them sooner or later to plant medicinal herbs anyway!"

"Exactly, exactly!"

Hearing that Hu Xiaobei agreed to go to the back mountain, Han Xueyao and the others quickly interjected...

They knew that Hu Xiaobei really shouldn't go because once he went, he would indeed be stung all over by the wasps!

"Don't worry, I've already settled it with those wasps; they won't show up!"

Seeing them worryingly looking at him, Hu Xiaobei smiled lightly and explained softly to them!

This explanation was so quiet, only they could hear it...

"This..."

Hearing Hu Xiaobei say he had settled things with the wasps left them dumbfounded...

Because they thought that was absolutely impossible!

Hu Xiaobei watched their dumbfounded expression and found it very amusing!

After enjoying their reaction for a bit, Hu Xiaobei turned to Wang Dagui and said, "Village chief, what's the matter? I've agreed now, but you don't seem very happy! It looks like you're really worried I might get stung!"

Seeing Wang Dagui and the others hesitate, Hu Xiaobei mocked lightly...

After picking up on Hu Xiaobei's sarcasm, Wang Dagui coughed and said, "Xiaobei, of course, we are worried, but we know nothing will happen to you! After all, you are so capable! So, shall we go to the back of the village now?"

"Sure!"

After this agreement, Hu Xiaobei took the lead in walking toward the back of the village, and in that instant, the village beauties quickly followed!

At this point, they all felt that Hu Xiaobei was still too young and had been provoked by Wang Dagui...

As for what Hu Xiaobei just said about having settled things with the wasps, they didn't pay attention, thinking that Hu Xiaobei was probably just saying that to avoid worrying them...

...

"Village chief, Hu Xiaobei has agreed so quickly, does he really have a way to deal with the wasps?"

After Hu Xiaobei had walked away, those thugs exchanged glances, and soon, muttered quietly among themselves...

They all felt Hu Xiaobei had agreed too quickly, and that there must definitely be an issue!

Hearing their worried inquiry, Wang Dagui sneered, "What could possibly be wrong! I don't believe it! Come on, let's hurry and see!"

"Okay!"

After exchanging another look, they agreed!

They also felt they were overthinking it, that Hu Xiaobei couldn't possibly have a good plan...

So, they quickly followed him!

Soon, not only them, but everyone in Xiaohe Village had received the news and had come to the back of the village!

Upon arriving, everyone saw Hu Xiaobei, who was calmly standing in front of the fruit trees that had blossomed again...

"Hu Xiaobei was just too impulsive before!"

"Exactly, he's standing too close to that spot. When the wasps appear, he won't have anywhere to run!"

"That's right!"

Hearing many villagers mumbling, Wang Dagui burst into laughter!

He was hoping that when the wasps appeared, Hu Xiaobei would have nowhere to run because then Hu Xiaobei would get stung all over his face!

...

"Nine Wood True Qi really has completely transformed them!"

Standing in front of the fruit trees, Hu Xiaobei saw how they had grown more robust than before, doubling in size, and laughed heartily!

Hu Xiaobei knew that if he kept infusing them with Nine Wood True Qi over the coming days, their growth rate would be even faster. By then, they would soon grow into towering trees!

"I'm really looking forward to tasting the fruit they bear soon!"

Thinking so, Hu Xiaobei looked at the tender white blossoms...

Diverse development. When Hu Xiaobei had bought this land from Wang Dagui, he had planned to develop Xiaohe Village diversely, so initially, he hadn't planned to remove these fruit trees but rather used Nine Wood True Qi to fully stimulate their growth!

There are many ways to lead the village to prosperity, and Hu Xiaobei believed the fastest way was by developing tourism!

Hu Xiaobei knew that nowadays, many city dwellers love to vacation in beautiful environments, so he planned to turn the village into a place with a fantastic environment, where tourists would flock to visit even without much effort from their side...

...

"F*ck, why haven't those wasps shown up yet!"

"Exactly!"

"What in the world is going on?"

Frustrated!

Having waited for a while without seeing the wasps appear, Wang Dagui and the others directly grew agitated!

They were here to enjoy the spectacle, and now that there was none, they naturally felt depressed!

Just as Wang Dagui was about to say something, he suddenly heard a buzzing sound approaching rapidly and turned around excitedly. He saw a dark mass swiftly closing in!

Here they come!

Seeing them, Wang Dagui laughed heartily, and so did the thugs...

"Is there something good happening, Village Chief? Let us in on the joy too!"

Hu Xiaobei heard Wang Dagui's boisterous laughter, casually turned his head, and looked towards the excited faces of Wang Dagui and the others!

Hearing Hu Xiaobei's words, Wang Dagui laughed heartily and said, "Xiaobei, do you see that large swarm behind you? Those wasps are back again, didn't you say you had thought of a way to deal with them? Now's your chance to show us!"

"Yeah, we're all waiting to see this, we trust you won't disappoint us!"

"Heh heh! Just make sure you don't end up crying for your mommy and daddy when they sting you!"

After Wang Dagui and the thugs finished speaking, everyone quickly turned their heads, and at that instant, they all saw that dark, imposing swarm!

In that moment, everyone knew that the wasps had returned once again!

Remembering the sight of Wang Dagui and the others being stung before, they instantly felt a chill in their hearts...

The next moment, without hesitation, they loudly exclaimed, "Xiaobei, run quickly!"

"That's right, Xiaobei, hurry over here!"

"Exactly!"

Hearing their urgent voices, Hu Xiaobei spoke softly, "Sisters, don't worry about me, I'm fine! I..."

Before Hu Xiaobei could finish, he suddenly saw Guo Meiyu rushing towards him!

Seeing the flushed cheeks of Guo Meiyu standing next to him, Hu Xiaobei was somewhat stunned, "Sister, what are you..."

Seeing Hu Xiaobei staring blankly at her, Guo Meiyu said, "Hmph, if you're not leaving, then I'll stay with you!"

"I..."

Just as Hu Xiaobei was about to speak, he saw Su Xueying and others quickly rushing over as well...

Soon, there were more than thirty people in front of Hu Xiaobei!

"This..."

Hu Xiaobei truly hadn't expected such a scene to unfold!

Neither had Wang Dagui and those thugs, so at this moment, Wang Dagui was gnashing his teeth with jealousy!

The next moment, he was inwardly roaring with fury, "Why this Hu Xiaobei, what merits does he have?!"

He was utterly infuriated at this point!

The next moment, he was wishing those wasps would swiftly appear and sting Hu Xiaobei to death because as long as Hu Xiaobei was around, his own status in the village would greatly diminish!

Watching them standing right by his side, Hu Xiaobei was deeply touched, "Sisters, aunties, you..."

Hearing Hu Xiaobei start to talk nonsense, they all chanted in unison, "Stop talking rubbish, hurry up and think of a way to drive them off!"

"Exactly! With so many of us here, we can definitely do it!"

"Yes, yes!"

Seeing them picking up shovels and the like as weapons, Hu Xiaobei rubbed his nose and the next moment, pointing towards the so-called wasps flying their way, he said with a smile, "Sisters, aunties, there's no need to get ready for battle just yet. Take a closer look at what's coming; it's not too late!"

Hearing Hu Xiaobei's words, they paused slightly, "What is it? Aren't they wasps?"

As they murmured, they turned their heads and took a closer look, quickly realizing that the large, dark swarm wasn't wasps at all, but ordinary honeybees...

"This..."

They were completely stunned...

Because it was clearly wasps that had come flying in last time...

Seeing their cute expressions, eyes wide with surprise, Hu Xiaobei explained, "Alright, sisters, aunties, there's no need to prepare for a fight now! These are just ordinary honeybees. They came here to collect nectar, so please put down the shovels and the like. If we scare them away, it could affect the yield of our fruit trees later on!"

Hearing Hu Xiaobei's teasing, their cheeks blushed slightly, and quickly, they hurriedly dropped the shovels and the like they had in their hands!

When they dropped the shovels, Wang Dagui and the others also realized that what was flying toward them were not wasps, and in an instant, they were all stunned...

"What... what exactly is going on here?"

"Yeah, shouldn't they all have been wasps flying toward us?"

"Right!"

At that moment, they were all feeling frustrated...

As they wallowed in their frustration, the honeybees swiftly flew past them and, soon after, they directly landed on the fruit trees to start pollinating and collecting nectar...

"This..."

Seeing Hu Xiaobei completely unharmed from beginning to end, everyone felt so frustrated they could die!

They just couldn't figure it out!

Why were they all wasps the last time the flowers bloomed, but this time they were normal honeybees...

Hu Xiaobei had no idea about their frustration, and even if he had, Hu Xiaobei didn't have time to explain because he was now firmly surrounded by Guo Meiyu and others!

Seeing every one of them looking at him with sparkling eyes, Hu Xiaobei tightened his clothes nervously and then muttered very softly, "Ladies, sisters, what is this..."

Scared!

Hu Xiaobei really was feeling a bit scared at the moment because they were indeed staring straight at him as if they were about to devour him!

Hearing Hu Xiaobei about to say something, Guo Meiyu quickly said, "You don't speak!"

"Uh..."

Hu Xiaobei rubbed his nose and sensibly closed his mouth...

After that, Hu Xiaobei heard Guo Meiyu's question!

"Xiaobei, how exactly did you do it?"

"Yeah, did you really talk things over with the wasps as you said before?"

"Right, right!"

Before, they had heard Hu Xiaobei whispering very softly about having talked things over with the wasps, that they wouldn't come again, but they hadn't paid much attention at the time. But now, they realized Hu Xiaobei might not have been joking!

Seeing them all staring at him intently, Hu Xiaobei explained, "Heh, I previously gave them a call, mentioned a few things, and then..."

"Enough already!"

"Yeah!"

"Always spouting nonsense!"

Interrupted by them, Hu Xiaobei chuckled and said, "Alright, ladies, let's talk about this matter later! There are more important things right now!"

After saying this, Hu Xiaobei walked over to Wang Dagui with a smile while everyone watched.

Seeing the constipated look on Wang Dagui's face, Hu Xiaobei began, "Village Chief, about those wasps, I really have to thank you!"

Hearing Hu Xiaobei bringing up thanks, Wang Dagui was puzzled, "Thank me?"

"Yeah! I reckon it was because you fought desperately with the wasps last time that scared them away, so they didn't dare to come back!"

"You..."

Hearing Hu Xiaobei bringing up the incident of being stung last time again, Wang Dagui felt like vomiting blood...

The next moment, he looked at Hu Xiaobei, shaking all over and said, "Hu Xiaobei, consider yourself lucky this time. Just you wait, we'll see!"

After saying this, he shivered and left, and those hoodlums seeing Wang Dagui's sorry departure, also quickly scampered away...
