After understanding why Hu Xiaobei had come, Su Xueying hesitated for a moment but still slid the bolt open!

Upon seeing the bashful Su Xueying appear before him, Hu Xiaobei quickly said, "Sister-in-law!"

"Don't talk just yet..."

After stopping Hu Xiaobei from speaking, Su Xueying let him in!

Then, Su Xueying bashfully glanced around, ensuring no one was paying attention to this side before quickly locking the door behind her!

A widow's abode invites much gossip!

Late at night, Su Xueying indeed worried about others gossiping...

After locking the door securely, Su Xueying shyly glanced at Hu Xiaobei and said, "Okay, come inside!"

"Alright!"

As he agreed, Hu Xiaobei looked towards Su Xueying!

Observing her embarrassed demeanor, Hu Xiaobei suddenly felt a surge of excitement!

Shortly after, Hu Xiaobei and Su Xueying walked to the main room, one after the other!

Looking at the table with uncleaned pickles and shriveled steamed buns, Hu Xiaobei sighed silently!

Hu Xiaobei knew that it was really necessary to change the living environment of the village as soon as possible, otherwise, life was simply too harsh for these people...

"Xiaobei, sister-in-law actually feels there's nothing wrong now! You... you should go back!" said Su Xueying in a soft voice, hesitating.

Hearing Su Xueying's bashful words, Hu Xiaobei subconsciously looked towards her...

In that instant, his eyes lit up!

Beauty under the lamp, the more you look, the more spirited you feel!

Possibly because she was about to sleep, Su Xueying was wearing a loose nightgown.

Because the nightgown had almost lost all its color from washing, it really didn't cover much, and thus, Hu Xiaobei could clearly see her enchanting figure with the help of the lamplight...

Without getting an answer from Hu Xiaobei, Su Xueying shyly raised her head and caught him staring at her!

In that moment, Su Xueying felt her heart pounding...

Quickly, Su Xueying, biting her lower lip shyly, whispered, "What are you looking at?"

"Sister-in-law, I'm just checking if your body has recovered!"

"Is that so?"

Sensing Su Xueying's skepticism, Hu Xiaobei said seriously, "Yes, sister-in-law, you were bitten by a highly poisonous snake before, so if we don't take a good look now, there really could be issues!"

"Really?"

"Yes!"

Seeing Hu Xiaobei nod solemnly, she whispered softly, "Then... then help me check again!"

"Alright! Then sister-in-law, you should lie on the bed and try to stick your bum up!"

"Okay!"

Having gone through the experience once before, Su Xueying kicked off her black cloth shoes after agreeing...

The next moment, her smooth, fair feet were exposed...

"So white!"

Looking at them, Hu Xiaobei felt a tinge of yearning!

Quickly, Hu Xiaobei averted his gaze...

He couldn't help it; Hu Xiaobei knew that this time he had come to help remove poison...

Thinking about it, Hu Xiaobei suddenly felt a nosebleed coming on because, upon closer inspection, Hu Xiaobei realized that the position in which Su Xueying was lying on the bed, sticking her buttocks up high, was truly too tempting!

"Those buttocks really are big!"

Murmuring this to himself, Hu Xiaobei silently recited the Heart Sutra to cleanse the mind and desire several hundred times. After finishing, Hu Xiaobei spoke up, "Sister-in-law, I... I need to take a look at the wound now. Please lift up your robe a little!"

"Oh!"

After agreeing, Su Xueying gently took hold of it and quickly, gently lifted it!

So white!

Before, when Hu Xiaobei was in the field, he hadn't gotten a very good look, so now as Su Xueying lifted her robe, Hu Xiaobei saw it clearly for real!

It was for this reason that Hu Xiaobei's breathing became noticeably more rapid.

"Little bastard!"

Sensing Hu Xiaobei's accelerated breathing, Su Xueying really wanted to get up quickly, but she still gave up the thought...

"There really is some remaining poison in the wound!"

At that moment, Hu Xiaobei saw the wound!

Because her buttocks were so white, Hu Xiaobei could now clearly see a faint black mark on them!

After confirming that there was still some poison left in the wound, Hu Xiaobei quickly said, "Sister-in-law, there's still some poison left in the wound. I'll suck it out for you now. Bear with me, alright?"

"I... I understand!"

After getting a response, Hu Xiaobei quickly stepped forward. After that, Hu Xiaobei put his hand on her trembling buttocks, and at that instant, Hu Xiaobei genuinely admired the feel of them!

Twenty minutes later, Hu Xiaobei glanced at Su Xueying, who was shyly lowering her head, and said, "Sister-in-law, all the toxins have now been expelled so you don't have to worry anymore! There will definitely be no more problems!"

"Okay!"

Hearing that shy response, Hu Xiaobei knew that Su Xueying was still very embarrassed.

Knowing that if he stayed any longer, she would only feel more embarrassed, Hu Xiaobei quickly left the room...

Just as he stepped out of the alley, Hu Xiaobei heard footsteps. Turning his head, he saw a pot-bellied middle-aged man walking towards him...

"Xiaobei, out and about so late at night, where are you heading?"

Hearing the arrogant inquiry, Hu Xiaobei replied nonchalantly, "Just out for a walk! What about you, village chief, what are you doing out so late?"

As the question reached his ears, Hu Xiaobei knew the speaker was village chief Wang Dagui!

No helping it!

His voice was so distinctive that even if you wanted to forget, you couldn't!

Glancing at Hu Xiaobei and slightly adjusting his suit, Wang Dagui said indifferently, "I've heard that the security situation hasn't been great lately, so I'm out for a walk. You know, as the village chief, I naturally have to maintain order!"

"Heh!"

"Alright, you should head home now! And don't be out late at night in the future! Also, don't meddle in affairs that don't concern you, understand? Debts must be repaid, you got that?"

Upon hearing this, Hu Xiaobei knew he was being warned!

Hu Xiaobei knew this was to be expected, since Wang Dagui and those hooligans from the neighboring village were from the same nest of rats and snakes!

After Wang Dagui had walked a distance, Hu Xiaobei's expression darkened!

Hu Xiaobei knew Wang Dagui was trash!

Previously, when the mudslide buried the village's young people, not only did he think of not immediately rescuing them, but he also thought of quickly hushing it all up!

Hu Xiaobei knew that he was worried about being held accountable by the higher-ups...

Moreover, Hu Xiaobei also knew that the mudslide had occurred entirely because Wang Dagui had previously sold off many trees from the mountain behind the village...

"Wang Dagui, every unjust act brings its own punishment! Sooner or later, I'm going to make you pay!"

Having said this, Hu Xiaobei clenched his fists tightly and quickly headed home!

Previously, Hu Xiaobei had not had the ability to deal with him, but now, Hu Xiaobei knew he had that ability, and naturally, Hu Xiaobei was ready to make him pay...
