Chapter 151 Get Out Of Here In Three Seconds...

Because they just washed themselves and were still in water, Leticia's hair were wet and her upper body that was out of stream water still had Water drops, making her look more captivating.

Max slowly caressed her smooth body and started kneading her breasts while kissing her nape from behind.

"Mm..." Leticia let out a faint sound and looked up at him.

Seeing her thin yet delicious looking lips, he leaned down and kissed them. Leticia also kissed back and took initiative to open her little mouth to him freely move his tongue inside.

Max happily obliged and put his tongue inside her mouth and started kissing and sucking her sweet tongue.

"Huff... Huff..."

They kissed until both of them were breathless and took deep breaths.

Their eyes were burning with fiery passion. Max's cock had become rock hard and was trying to lift her up in excitement.

Leticia's little sister was also becoming restless feeling his cock constantly pressing against her vertical lips.

She put her inside the water and grabbed his cock with her delicate little hands. She raised her ass a bit and put his cock on the entrance of her cave.

"Ahn~"

After adjusting it correctly, she lowered her body and his thing slid inside her and she let out a moan while her walls twitched and clamped on his cock.

She put her hands on his thighs and slowly started moving her body up and down while moaning in pleasure.

Max smiled faintly seeing her trying to do it by herself and pleasure him. Although her movements were sloppy, he felt good.

He put his hands on her thin waist that was moving up and down and simply enjoyed the pleasure of having sex out in the open with their bodies were submerged in water.

—At the temporary resting place—

Belén and others had cultivated for a few hours. In this time, Haory had also recovered quite a bit.

Rima was looking around while resting in her cot and said in an anxious voice “It’s been more than six hours, why haven’t they returned yet? Could it be that they have encountered some beast? Should we go look for them?”

Hearing this Haory frowned. The chances of them Encountering a beast were high and they had encountered one the last time they went together.

Belén looked at her anxious face and smiled. She then calmly said “Don’t worry. Even if they encounter some beast, they both are capable to escape with their speed. Moreover, it’ll be very difficult for us to find them since we don’t know where they might have gone and would even put ourselves in danger. So it’s best we wait for some more time.”

Hearing this Haory also nodded “Yes. We should wait here. You don’t need to worry about them because he is strong enough to survive in this two-star beasts’ territory.” While saying this, she had a complicated look in her eyes.

Rima nodded without saying anything.

However, they didn’t notice that someone had arrived not far from them and was looking at them.

It was the short haired man from Bartan’s group. He had been searching the west side for six hours now. He encountered some beasts while doing, but he skillfully evaded them and continued his search.

After not finding them, just when he was going to return, he heard Rima’s voice from afar.

Following the voice, he came here and spotted a few figures resting in the cots made from vines on top of the trees.

He sneakily claimed a tree to see if they were the group he was searching for.

First, his gaze landed on Belén, the Mature looking beauty with well defined curves and exclaimed inwardly ‘Beautiful!’ oVlxt.CoM

Then he saw Rima who had a very seductive body that could tempt most of the men and gulped. Then there was Haory who seemed average but was also quite beautiful.

He recognised them as Max's teammates, however, he didn't see him and the other member and thought 'Have they died or have gone somewhere?'

Crack!

'Fuck!' Suddenly, the branch he was standing on broke and he cursed.

...

"Mm?" Belén and others frowned upon hearing the cracking sound and turned to look in the direction from where the sound came from.

Upon seeing a man on the tree seventy to eighty meters away they sighed in relief because it wasn't a beast.

However, in the next moment, they raised their guard up and started stimulating their mana, ready to attack at any moment.

A hand made of sand rose from the ground and hovered in front of Haory while the Vines on the trees around them pointed towards the short haired man. Rima was also ready to attack.

"Who are you?" Haory asked coldly as spike came out of the sand hand.

The short haired man raised his hands and said "I'm also a disciple just like you guys. My group was attacked by a peak Two-star beast and we escaped in separate directions and I ended up here."

"Why were you spying on us?" Haory asked, her tone was same.

"Ugh!" Seeing her cold attitude, the short haired man's temper started flaring up but he controlled himself and calmly said "I couldn't tell if you guys were students or someone else. So to verify this, I had to climb up the tree. You know there are also bandits roaming these mountain so I had to be careful."

Haory and others frowned hearing his explanation and noticing his expression.

Logically, if someone gets attacked by a beast and separates from their group, they would be afraid, anxious etc and upon encountering other their expressions should be one of relief or something like that.

However, this man didn't have such expression and seemed very casual. Moreover, there weren't any bandits in these mountains since academy would take care of them.

Haory coldly said “Get out of here in three seconds or we’ll attack.”

The short haired man was instantly enraged upon hearing this. Mana swirled around him as she shouted “You damned wo—”

Whoosh! Whoosh!

Before he could say anything, a few sand spikes shot out at him without any warning. While vines appeared around him and started strangling his limbs.

The reason they acted this way was because they very well knew that during the outing period, groups would ambush and kill other groups in order to rob them of their beast cores. So they couldn’t allow someone from a different group stay near them.

Chapter 152 Ruthless Haory

“Fuck! Why every woman I encounter are such violent whores.” The short haired man, whose name was Bilaz cursed as his skin started to harden like a rock.

After using his stone type element, his physical strength and defence would skyrocket.

Bang!

He violently kicked at the vines that were trying to entangle him and blasted them to pieces.

He then brandished his fists and punched at all of the spikes in a flurry and destroyed them easily.

After neutralising their attacks, he stomped on the branch and leapt towards them. The branch broke and he shot out at very fast speed. In just a moment he was in front of Haory.

He raised his fist when he was only five meters away in air from her and sneered “After I beat you to submission, I’ll fuck you until this crappy attitude of your vanishes and you beg me to stop.” Saying this he punch at her.

Haory’s expression turned dark upon hearing this. Her mana poured into the giant sand hand and turned it into countless sand spikes which shot at him fiercely, aiming to take his life.

Seeing this, the sneer on Bilaz’s face vanished and his expression turned grave.

No matter how tough his defence was, if these spikes crashed onto his body, even if he doesn’t die, the pain he would feel would be too excruciating for him to bear. oVlxt.CoM

However since he was mid air, he couldn't dodge. Taking a deep breath, his mana crazily poured into his skin, making it even tougher. After that he simply raised and crossed his hands in front of his head.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!

The sand spikes ruthlessly crashed on his body creating loud banging sounds.

Boom!

After the sand spikes collided with him, he was shot towards the ground like a cannonball, breaking a few trees as he crashed on the ground and made a crater.

Hoary looked down coldly. However since there was sand and dust flying on the crashing site, she couldn't see his situation.

To turn the sand hand into so many spikes in a single go consumed a lot of her mana. However, since she wasn't sure if he would die by this attack, she still started casting her strongest spell, [Black Metallic Spear].

Seeing this, Belén didn't say anything and started casting her plant spell if it was needed. However Rima panicked and yelled "Hoary, are you really going to kill him?"

Haory didn't look at her and said ruthlessly "Of course. A despicable man like him doesn't deserve to live."

Rima was aghast at her reply. She knew that the things he said and intended to do were heinous and deserving of death, she felt that actually killing him was too much.

Belén looked at her and shook her head. It was clear that she hadn't seen the cruelty of this world yet.

—Inside the small Valley—

Max and Leticia did it two times in the stream before she couldn't continue further because how sore her lower body had become. Max also didn't force her since he was also satisfied for now.

He brought her to the cave and let her cultivate to digest the energy she received for a while and laid down on the bedsheet beside her to rest and recover his stamina. He then opened his status screen.

[Lust Points: 5000]

After doing it two times with Leticia, he received 5000 LPs which he put in his mana attribute and increased it by another 500 points.

[Mana:4800]

After one hour, Leticia opened her eyes and found him lying beside her, sleeping with a peaceful expression.

She looked at his sleeping face and thought 'He must have exhausted himself fighting that Dark Demon Snake alone. I should let him sleep for a while. After he wakes up, I'll let him do it one more time and make him feel better.'

Thinking this, she blushed at her thinking and was amazed at the fact that despite feeling sore in the lower part of her body, she still wanted to do it.

She quickly shook her head and dispelled the bad thoughts. As she watched him sleep, she had urge to lean down and kiss his lips.

However, she resisted it since she didn't want to disturb his rest but eventually she couldn't hold herself back and slowly brought her face right above his face and lightly kissed on his lips before moving away.

Max wasn't in deep sleep and his senses were focused so that he would know if there was any danger and would react in time.

So, he knew when Leticia stopped cultivating. He was going to wake up but he was really exhausted and lay there for a while.

After a few minutes, he felt Leticia coming closer to him and felt her soft lips kissing his lips. He smiled inwardly at how cutely she was behaving.

Before she could move away, he grabbed her head with his right hand and brought her face down and continued the kiss.

"Mmff..." Leticia was given a fright and let out a muffled sound and involuntarily wanted to resist. However, she didn't and closed her eyes as she enjoyed the kiss.

After a while, Max stopped kissing her and stood up, his little brother was bulging in his pants.

Leticia saw this and her face flushed red. She then started to take off her clothes.

Seeing this, Max smiled and was tempted to do it again however he resisted the temptation. They were away for many hours now and Belén and others might worry. Moreover, he was worried that they were might have attacked by some beast.

Therefore, he grabbed her small hands and shook his head "We'll do it later. Now we have to go back and bring Haory and others here too."

Hearing this, Leticia became so embarrassed that she wanted to find a hole to hide herself in. 'He must think that I'm a horny girl. Ahhh what should I do?' She shouted inwardly.

Max crouched in front of her with his back facing her and said "Come on up. I'll carry you."

Seeing this, Leticia calmed down and felt her heart warming. She gently leaned her body on his back and put her hand around his neck.

Max put his hands on her round buttocks and stood up. Even though they had had sex many times, she still felt embarrassed being carried like this.

Max ran out of the valley towards the direction where Haory and others were. Praying that no beast had found them.

However, how could he know that although no beast had found them, they were in a fierce battle against a human and were on losing side.

A/N: Hello Guys. Please don't forget to comment on the chapter so that i can know whether you guys are liking the stroy or not.

Chapter 153 A Friend's Death

While Max and Leticia were rushing over, Haory was seething with rage. She poured her mana into her spell unreservedly and the Black spear started to take shape.

Belén and Rima looked down where he crash landed after being hit. However they could only see the sand and dust flying around.

Swoosh!

Suddenly, from the dust cloud, Bilaz shot out towards Haory. His clothes were torn and his stony body had some faint crack marks. He had a dark, murderous look on his face now.

Given how arrogant and cold blooded he was, it was completely normal for him to have bloodlust for Haory after being attacked and injured by her.

Although her sand spikes did injure him, they were only minor injuries. But the reason he was furious because of the pain he felt from these small injuries.

In an instant, he was in front of Haory once again and because she was in the middle of spell casting, she didn't have the ability to handle his attack.oVlxt.CoM

She couldn't cancel her casting because if she did, she would have to bear the backlash. Therefore, the only option was to dodge his punch by moving her body, however she didn't have time to do so.

"Go to hell. Dirty bitch!" Bilaz shouted with a savage look on his face and punched at her chest with his full strength.

If the punch landed, she most probably would die given how powerful he was.

"Not on my watch." Belén who had been casting her spell shouted and her special vines that were very resilient, flexible and powerful, formed a shield in front of Haory.

BANG!!

Bilaz's punch crashed into the vine shield and her vines that even the peak stage two-star bull had to exert a lot of power to break, were blasted apart.

"Ugh...!"

After breaking the shield, his punch landed on Haory's chest. She instantly spurted out a mouthful of blood and flew back. Her internal organs were damaged.

Bilaz turned to glare at Belén who foiled his plan to kill Haory and sneered "You are quite strong to be able to reduce 80% power of my punch huh. However, these vines of yours must take a lot of mana right? Let's see how many more can you conjure up to save her."

Finishing his statement, he chased after Haory who was thrown on the ground.

She was lying on her chest and blood was coming out of her mouth. There were some small cuts on her exposed skin which were the result of her body scraping against the tree branches when she was thrown down.

She looked at Bilaz who was jumping from the trees and towards her to attack again. Her face didn't show any dread.

She glanced at Belén who nodded after understanding what she was planning and poured her mana to conjure more vines to assist her.

Meanwhile, Bilaz punched at Haory once again.

Bang!!

Another Vine shield appeared in front of Haory and completely blocked his punch before it was broken apart.

The reason her shield was able to protect Haory wasn't because he used less strength in this punch than the first one but because Belén had used more mana and made it tougher.

Bang!

Bang!

...

He continued punching at Haory and Belén continued expanding her mana to make more shield to block him from hitting her.

After a few more exchanges, Belén's face was starting to turn pale as her mana was depleting rapidly.

Rima who had been watching Bilaz trying to kill Haory, finally made up her mind and started casting her spell.

Just as Bilaz was about to crush Belén's last vine shield and attack Haory, Rima shouted "Haory."

Haory heard her quickly covered her ears. Bilaz frowned seeing this and instinctively turned to look at Rima, who had opened her mouth and used her sonic spell.

Bang!

Completely unguarded, he was hit with her spell head on. His eardrums ruptured as blood started pouring out of them. His mind buzzed and he stood stunned in his place.

Normally after stunning their enemies, Belén would use her vines to restrict them. However, she no longer had any mana left in her mana core.

She could only look at Haory who had a ruthless expression on her face as she glared at Bilaz.

Her face was even paler than Belén's as if all her power has been drained. However she didn't panic and pointed at Bilaz while saying "Go!"

Whoosh!

Suddenly a black spear dove down from above the tree canopy.

Even after being hit by him and spitting out blood, Haory hadn't stopped casting her spell and made sure to hid it among tree branches to take him off guard.

Fortunately for her, Bilaz was fanatically trying to kill her and he didn't notice the spear at all.

Just before he was about to be struck by the black spear, he regained his senses and became horrified after feeling the frightening aura of the black spear.

He was sure that only death would await him if this spear hit him.

"Haaaaa!!" He shouted and used a large portion of his mana on his legs before stomping on the ground and hastily jumping to the side.

BANG!!!

When he was only a meter away, the black Metallic spear struck heavily on the place where he was standing until now.

The impact was so strong that ground cracked and earth and stones flew around and a powerful shockwave was generated.

"Fuck!" Bilaz had just sighed in relief when he was hit by the shockwave and was thrown like a shooting star, crashing and breaking many trees.

"Huff... Huff..." Haory breathed heavily while letting out a disappointed sigh. Despite how fast she acted, he was still able to regain his senses in time and dodged the spear.

Sigh!

Belén also sighed while looking toward the place Bilaz was thrown at. 'Are we going to die here?'

Now both she and Haory were out of mana while Rima didn't have capabilities to fight an opponent like him, they were almost sure to be killed by him.

"Hahahahaha..." While they were losing hope, a mad laughter echoed in the surroundings.

Crash!

Bilaz kicked the broken tree atop him and stood up. Blood was flowing down from his mouth. Apparently, the shockwave injured him.

He took out a healing pill and ate it. Seeing their grim faces, he laughed and slowly walked towards them "I didn't expect you guys to have such strength. I'm impressed. However, now that all of you are helpless. I'll make sure to torture you enough before taking your lives. Hahaha."

Swish!

Suddenly, Rima jumped down and landed ten meters in front of him. She opened her mouth to cast her sonic spell once more while taking out a short sword.

She knew that she wasn't strong enough. But she wasn't willing to see her comrades die in front of her.

Therefore, she decided to risk her life to kill him. After fighting for so long, he must be exhausted too. So she still had a chance.

"Rima! Don't!" Both Haory and Belén shouted at the same time. However, it was too late.

Bang!

Bilaz had punched in her stomach before she could cast her spell. Unlike when Haory was punched by him, Rima didn't have a shield to lessen the strength of his punch.

She immediately spit out large mouthfuls of blood and her ears, nose and eyes also started bleeding.

Crash!

She flew threw the air and crashed heavily on the ground and stopped moving.

"Rima...!" Both Haory and Belén shouted and their eyes became bloodshot.

Chapter 154 Torture

Haory and Belén ran towards Rima in panic. It was as if they had completely forgotten about Bilaz's presence.

Bilaz frowned in displeasure but didn't stop them from reaching Rima. He was very much wanted to see them in despair. 'This is what you get for being arrogant in front of me.' He sneered inwardly.

Belén and Haory arrived beside Rima and checked her condition. Right after their expressions turned serious. She had fallen unconscious and wasn't breathing.

Haory started emitting a murderous aura as she glared at Bilaz with her bloodshot eyes.

After seeing her mother and her family die in front of her, she didn't want to see anyone close to her die.

This was also why she always acted aloof and unapproachable so that others would keep their distance and she wouldn't become close to anyone.

However, after being in the same group and fighting and living together for more than one month, although she didn't express it, she started treating them as her friends.

Now seeing her friend die in front of her, many emotions surged inside her. She felt anger, sadness, helplessness and many other emotions.

However she couldn't do anything apart from glaring at him, since she had exhausted her mana completely.

Seeing her murderous look, Bilaz laughed recklessly "Hahaha... Don't worry. Your death will be worse than her." He then looked at Rima and clicked his tongue "It's a pity that she was in a rush to die. Because of this I couldn't enjoy her enchanting body. But it's okay you two are bad either. Hahaha!"

Hearing this, Haory clenched her teeth so hard that blood started leaking out and took out a short sword to attack him.

Belén examined Rima's body to search for any signs of life.

Her eyes glittered as she felt a very faint heartbeat. She quickly took out a green coloured liquid from her spatial bag and drank it herself before putting her lips on Rima's and made her drink it.

After a few seconds the green liquid went down her throat, Rima's faint heartbeat gradually became louder and blood started rushing in her veins again.

"Pffff..." Suddenly blood burst out from her mouth and her eyelashes fluttered.

Phew!

Belén took a deep breath after seeing this. Haory and Bilaz also saw this. While Haory was relieved seeing her alive, Bilaz frowned.

He knew with how much force he hit her. Generally speaking, she shouldn't be alive. However, she clearly survived,

He looked at Belén and sneered "I didn't expect you to have a life potion. However, what's the benefit of her being alive. She would only suffer even more in my hands."

Saying this he ran towards them and punched at Belén "How dare you waste a precious life potion on her. Everything you have belongs to me now."

"I don't think so." Belén sneered and took out a long whip and whipped at him. Seeing this, Bilaz also punched at it.

Slap!

A crisp sound echoed as her Whip slapped at his fist. oVlxt.CoM

Bilaz was astonished. He retreated and looked at his fist. His stony skin had a centimetre deep and three inches long cut mark and blood was coming out from the wound.

He looked at the green coloured Whip in her hand. It was more than five feet long and two fingers thick. Its tail had many small black crystalline thorns. "Is it a grade two magic weapon?" He asked.

"Yes. It is." Belén nodded as she brandished it again.

"No wonder." He exclaimed in a low voice and then his lips curled into a cold grin "However, can you still use it?"

Belén's expression became unpleasant upon hearing this. She stared at him coldly without saying anything.

She didn't want to lower her and Haory's morale by answering his question. However, she couldn't use the Whip again since her mana core was devoid of mana.

Any magic artefacts can only be used when you have sufficient amount of Mana. Although her Whip was designed to use very low amount of Mana, it still needed some and Belén had squeezed every last drop inside her in last strike.

Seeing her reaction, Bilaz's grin widened and he slowly walked towards her.

"Haory, you pick up Rima and flee. I'll try to hold him back as long as I can." Belén shouted at her and swung her Whip at him.

Haory looked at her and sighed. She knew that he wouldn't let them escape. However she still went to pick Rima up.

Slap!

Belén's Whip struck him on his chest. However this time, it only ripped his clothing a little.

He casually grabbed the Whip and pulled. Belén's physical strength was only average, therefore her Whip easily flew out of her hands.

Bilaz swung it a few times and commented "It's a good weapon. I'll earn quite a bit after selling it."

He then looked toward Haory who was picking Rima up and Whipped at her feet.

Slap!

The skin of her feet was shredded and blood flowed out. Although she felt immense pain, she only clenched her teeth hard without making any sound.

Bilaz coldly smiled "Acting tough eh? Let's see how much longer can you endure then."

Slap!

Saying this, he whipped at her left shoulder. Her sleeves along with the skin was ripped. Haory trembled in pain but she didn't make any sound.

He once again brandished it to Whip at her right shoulder. However, Belén moved her away and was whipped across her back instead.

"Ah..." She cried in a low voice as her skin was torn. She kneeled on the ground while trying to suppress her cries. Fortunately, Bilaz's wasn't using any mana or her spine would also have been torn.

"Can't see your friend hurt eh? How sentimental! So I'll whip you instead then." Bilaz laughed and aim to Whip at her buttocks.

Haory saw this and was infuriated. She moved to block it with her short sword.

Clang!

The Whip was block but the sword was broken into two pieces. One piece landed beside Belén. Bilaz didn't stop and once again aimed at Belén's ass.

Haory and Belén both were helpless and thought 'Are we going to be tortured and humiliated like this before dying at his hands?'

Swish!

The Whip moved through the air and was about to land on her buttocks.

Whoosh!.

Just then, he noticed from the corner of his eye that a small fireball was flying very fast towards him.

He instantly took the Whip back and struck it down.

“Who’s there?” He shouted.

“Your death!” A cold voice answer which made him break out in cold sweat.

Chapter 155 Begging For Death [1]

Hearing the cold voice, Bilaz felt chills running down his spine.

Although, he hadn’t seen who it was yet, the instinctual fear of being targeted by a stronger predator made him frightened.

He quickly turned around while putting his guard up. He saw a young man carrying a girl on his back. His expression was cold and murderous.

Haory and Belén also looked in that direction and saw Max coming towards them slowly. Belén’s despondent expression was instantly replacement by a relieved and happy one.

Haory also sighed in relief and the fear which she had of her possible death vanished and she felt happy which gave birth to some complicated emotions in her heart.

She never thought that she would ever feel this way seeing a man.

Bilaz saw his face clearly and instantly recognised him and exclaimed “Oh! So you aren’t dead yet.”

He then became angry for being frightened by him and swung the Whip around him “It’s good that you are alive, now I’ll take your life.”

Although Bartan had told him that that Max was fairly strong, he still didn’t put him in his eyes. After all he was a middle stage two-star mage while Max was just an initial stage two-star mage or so he thought.

Max didn’t say anything and took a step to the side easily dodging the Whip.

Bilaz didn’t stop and once and swung it at him. This time he infused his mana in it making its speed faster.

Slap!

The Whip struck making a crisp sound. However, it didn’t strike at Max but ground while Max had already walked up to Belén and Haory.

“Huh?” Bilaz was surprised since he didn’t expect him to dodge even when he used his mana to strike.

Max didn’t bother looking at him and glanced at unconscious Rima, Haory and Belén who were quite injured and his eyes turned cold.

He said to Leticia “Get down and use your everything to protect them while I take care of this bastard.”

Leticia nodded and got off of his back. She, Haory and Belén looked at him in slight surprise because Although he spoke in low voice, they could tell that he was furious right now and this was their first time they saw him angry.

Bilaz who was only twenty or so meters away from them, clearly heard him and was instantly furious. He didn’t like when someone else was acting arrogant in front of him, let alone curse at him.

He threw the Whip down and brandished his fists and ran to punch him.

Max turned around and threw a punch of his own. This punch was strengthened by his mana.

“Don’t...”Belén tried stopping him as she knew that although Max was considerably strong physically, Bilaz was stronger.

However, it was too late as they both had already punched and couldn’t retreat anymore.

Bilaz’s lips curled into a sneer seeing that he dared to compete in physical strength with him ‘How foolish!’

Bang!

Their fists collided heavily and Max was pushed a few meters back. Bilaz stood still in his place while looking at him in astonishment.

Max felt his hand turning numb. He could feel that if Bilaz’s punch was a bit stronger, his bones would have been fractured.

Belén quickly explained “He is a strength type mage and his defences are comparable to a magic beast. Don’t fight him in close range.”

Max nodded and quickly conjured two 200 MP fireballs and threw them at Bilaz. Bilaz was preparing to ran upto him and punch again but had to dodge and retreat.

Boom! Boom!

After being dodged, Both fireballs crashed on the tree behind and blasted it apart and burnt it.

“Tch, another elemental mage.” Bilaz clicked his tongue in displeasure. He wasn’t afraid of physical damage but elemental damage was another story.

He quickly dashed towards him intending to fight in close proximity.

Max quickly glanced at Leticia who nodded in understanding and took Rima and others and retreated some distance away in case Bilaz attack them again.

Bilaz saw this and didn’t care. He first had to kill Max before worrying about them.

Max was relieved seeing this and a cold smile appeared on his face as he retreated in other direction at a speed Bilaz could catch up. At the same time, he started casting [Calidus Brachium].

Seeing that Max’s speed was a bit slower than him, he chased faster and quickly caught up and Punched at his head.

Swish!oVlxt.CoM

Max dodged it easily and continued retreating.

Swish! Swish!

Bilaz kept attacking but Max dodged them everytime while mana continued to swirl around his fist.

“Huff... Huff...”

After a while, Bilaz’s expression became twisted. He stopped attacking while gasping for breath. In this short while, He had consumed two-three times more stamina than what he consumed while fight Haory and others.

“What? Done attacking?” Max asked sarcastically.

Bilaz grounded his teeth in anger and turned in the direction where Leticia and others were and sneered “I’ll kill those bitches first and then see if you can still continue to run around like monkeys without fighting.”

Saying this, he ran towards them. Max’s expression turned cold and he focused on casting his spell.

They were around 500 meters away from Haory and others. When Bilaz was only 200 meters away from them, Max completed his spell.

Sizzle~

His fist was covered in crimson flames and the air around it seemed to be burning.

...

Seeing that, Max wasn't chasing him, Bilaz laughed hysterically "Haha, I see you are also a ruthless man who don't care for others."

When Haory and others saw Bilaz coming at them while Max was standing still, they became slightly nervous. However, they stared at him coldly.

Belén and Leticia even had a ridiculing smile on their faces. They knew that Max wouldn't let anything happen to them since they were his woman.

When Bilaz was twenty meters away from them, he raised his fist and aimed at Leticia who was standing in front of others.

Swoosh!

However before he could cross the remaining distance, Max appeared in front of him and ferociously punched at him.

Chapter 156 Begging For Death [2]

Feeling the threat from Max's blazing punch, Bilaz's hair stood on ends in fright.

He didn't hesitate to pour most of his mana into his arm in an instant without caring for the possible backlash of doing so and casted his most powerful spell [Diamond fist].

"Die!"

He shouted and punched at incoming fist. Max smiled coldly at this. Although this [Diamond fist], undoubtedly had enough power to injure a middle stage two-star beast, his [Calidus Brachium] was still superior despite the fact he only put a little over 1500 MP to cast it.

BANG!!!

Crack! Crack!

A loud banging sound reverberated in the area as their fist collided which was followed by the sound bones breaking.

Bilaz's fist was crushed by Max's punch which then banged into his chest heavily. Instantly, his turtle's shell like defences were broken apart and his chest caved in, while his rib cage was destroyed.

"Ahhhhhh!!!" He screamed in agony and was shot more than two hundred metres back, blood pouring out from his chest and mouth uncontrollably. Max's punch was so powerful that Bilaz crashed and broke many trees while flying away.

"Huu..." Max took a deep breath. He watched coldly as Bilaz crashed into trees after trees.

Bang!

Thud!

After crashing and breaking many trees, he crashed into the trunk of a thick tree and then fell down powerlessly.

Max walked towards him with a cold look on his face. .

"...Ah... Ahh..." As he neared him, he could hear him wailing in pain. He was lying in pool of his blood.

His chest had a giant hole and broken ribs were sticking out. It was a gruesome sight. However Max wasn't repulsed by all this bloodshed like before.

Bilaz's closed eyelids trembled slowly opened. He looked at Max with a horrified expression.

He hadn't thought that he, who was just a initial stage Two-star mage just over a month ago, was now even stronger than him who was a middle stage two-star mage. It was unbelievable.

'Did that bastard slave lied about his strength?' He was immediately suspicious of Bartan.

However, he quickly discarded it since Bartan had no animosity with him and was hell bent on killing Max, therefore he had no reason to lie.

"Ah... Don't kill me. I was wrong. Grr... My-My lord please spare my life. I'll be your s-slave for life." Bilaz immediately started begging for his life when he saw him coming towards him with a cold look.

He wasn't able to move any muscle since all of his internal organs were heavily damaged with his heart barely able beat properly.

“Hehe, do you think that’s possible after what you have done to them?” Max let out a cruel laugh and asked.

Before Bilaz could plead further, Max conjured a normal ten MP fireball and tossed it on his badly mangled chest. However, he didn’t make it explode and simply let it burn.

“AHHHH... YOU BASTARD. I’LL SHRED IN PIECES. AHHHH...” As the fire burned his wound, he screamed loudly while cursing in pain.

The tiny fireball burned on his chest for less than a minute before going out. Only less than one fourth of his wound was burnt since his body was very tough thanks to his element.

Leticia, Haory and Belén also came over with Rima who was still unconscious.

Max looked at them and saw that Haory and Belén’s wounds had stopped bleeding. They had taken some healing pills.

“Give it to me.” Max extended his hand towards Belén.

“What?” Belén asked in confusion.

“Your Whip.” Max said.

Belén had picked her Whip while coming over. She took it out and gave it to him.

Max took the Whip and brandished it without using any mana and struck his abdomen.

Slap!

“Ahhhh!...”

It struck horizontally on his abdomen and peeled of a layer on skin, making him scream again.

After a few seconds when he stopped screaming, Max struck on his left thigh, similarly peeling his skin off. oVlxt.CoM

“Ahhhh! Please don’t do this. I swear to become your dog– Ahhhh... Bastard.” Bilaz begged for mercy once again.

However, Max didn’t let him continue and whipped his right thigh without showing any mercy.

Leticia couldn’t see it and said “Max, Y-You should just kill him. It’s h-heartless to torture like...”

“Shut up!!” Max shouted and looked at her coldly “Didn’t you see what he was doing when we arrived? Can’t you see Rima is badly injured which might affect her cultivation in future?”

When he arrived and saw him whipping at Belén’s butt. He was truly angered. How can he not be angry when some bastard was harming his woman?

Leticia didn’t know how to react after being scolded like this. She stood still and didn’t say anything.

Belén patted her shoulder and said “Don’t be sad. He is angry right now so he can’t think clearly. You should know that he is doing this because this bastard almost killed Rima and wanted to torture and humiliate us before killing. He would have done so if not for your timely arrival. You shouldn’t empathise with scum like him.”

“Mmm.” Leticia nodded. She wasn’t sad because he scolded her but because she made him more angry.

Haory watched it without batting an eye. If she was strong, she would’ve done so herself.

Moreover, she found it ironic that when he was torturing them, he was laughing and now that he was the one being tortured, he was crying like this.

Slap!... Slap!... Sizzle~ Slap!

Ahhhh!!! Aghhhh!! Aghhh!

Max kept whipping and occasionally tossing a small fireball on him while Bilaz kept screaming like a madman.

After a while, his voice became hoarse as his vocal cord was damaged by screaming so loudly.

...

“...K..ill me. Plea...se kill me.” Bilaz begged in a weak voice. He has been doing so for a while now.

Max had regained his composure now. He threw the Whip down and took deep breaths.

He crouched in front of his bloody face and said “I’ll let you die if you tell me why did you attack us.”

Chapter 157 Urgent Need Of LPs

When Bilaz heard this, suddenly his heart was filled with regret. However, he didn't regret attacking Haory and other but attacking them alone was what he regretted.

Before they moved to search for Max in separate directions, Bartan only told them to find him and not engage.

Moreover, after he was found out, he could have retreated since Haory clearly asked him to do so.

However, because he was too arrogant and when he didn't like the way she spoke to him, he tried to kill them in anger, which led him to this moment.

He hesitated a little whether he should tell him or not. But since he already wanted to die, he told him.

"I... was hired... to kill... you. That dog... that dog of Daltons... hired us. Ugh! Please kill... me now." He said in a weak voice.

If he wasn't tortured by Max, he wouldn't have confessed so easily because of his pride. However, now his willpower had completely broken. He only wanted to die quickly and be relieved of his misery.

'Dog of Daltons? That Bartan guy huh. So that Dalton indeed made his subordinate join Cloud academy in order to kill me. Hehe, let's see how you kill me." Max laughed coldly in his heart.

However, he had to say that this Bartan was too ruthless. He clearly knew that Max was only an initial stage two-star mage when he joined academy and not much time has passed. Even then he hired a middle stage two-star mage to kill him.

He then frowned and asked "What do you mean by 'us'? How many people he hired to kill me and where is that Bartan now?"

"There are... three more apart from m-me. Ah! They are temporary in East direction from here. Ugh! However, We don't stay in one place for long and had to constantly move to look for you." Bilaz replied in between groans of pain.

"...kill me now." He then pleaded again.

Max ignored his wails and asked "Are the other three and Bartan also in the middle stage of two-star star mage realm just like you?"

This was most important thing that he should know. If they were all were in middle stage then that would be too dangerous.

Bilaz was squirming in pain and couldn't wait the pain to stop. However, hearing his question he laughed weakly and said "Yes. Moreover... Bartan is slightly stronger than the rest of us. Hahaha... Ahhhh—"

Max expression became grave seeing that it was indeed as he thought. Hearing him laugh, he tossed another 10 MP fireball on his chest which instantly stopped his laughter and made him cry in agony.

After fire stopped burning, Bilaz cried in hoarse voice "How... How much longer are you going to torture... me? Please just kill me."

Max finally looked at his bloodied body after hearing this and was a bit taken aback. 'Was I too cruel?' He thought. Bilaz's body was thoroughly cut and burnt. In no way did he resemble a human.

Suddenly he felt a bit nauseous. He turned to look at Haory and others to see if they were repulsed by this scene. However, he was surprised once again.

Haory was looking at Bilaz emotionlessly without even a frown. While Leticia's eyes were roaming around, she was trying to not look at the scene. Belén also didn't have much change in her expression.

Noticing that he was looking at them, Haory looked at him calmly while Belén gave him a charming smile.

'I guess they have more bloodshed than me.' He smiled bitterly in his heart.

He took a deep breath and conjured a fire arrow from death rain spell and pierced his forehead, instantly killing him.

He then went ahead and searched his body and found his spatial bag. Can't let resources go to waste right?

His spatial bag had a few hundred gold coins which were useless in academy, a few sets of clothing which he simply threw away. However, there were seventy mana stones too.

He distributed them equally and said "Quickly recover your mana. We'll move out from here. I've found a better place to stay."

After an hour,, they had recovered enough Mana and stamina to travel. Max carried unconscious Rima and departed with others.

After more than half an hour, they arrived in the valley where Max and Leticia previously had been.

“This is indeed a good place to stay.” Haory commented after seeing the beautiful scenery and the stream of fresh water. Belén also nodded.

Max led them to the cave. Which made them look at him.

Max smiled and looked at Leticia “Leticia, use your wind blades and make it large enough for five of us to comfortably live.” He then turned to Belén “You should use your vines to move the rubble produced out of the cave and make us some bed.”

Following this, they started working to make the cave larger which took them around an hour.

—Night time—

Bartan and others had gathered once again. Bartan was looking Haggard and was slightly injured. Other two who went east and south direction also looked exhausted. ovlxt.com

“Did you encounter some beast?” The electric woman asked. Bartan nodded without explaining anything.

He then asked while looking at them “I didn’t find them. Did you?”

“No.” Both of them shook their heads.

Bartan nodded and looked in west direction “Let’s wait for Bilaz. Maybe he was lucky enough to find them.”

After two hours, sky had turned completely dark. The mountain was even darker because the tree didn’t let moonlight reach the ground.

“I can’t wait any longer for that brute. If he comes back, talk to him yourself and tell me what you decide in the morning. I’m going to rest now.” The electric woman became impatient and stood up. After saying her piece, she went inside her tent.

Bartan didn’t say anything and was still looking in west direction with slight frown.

The man who went in south direction also stood up and walked towards his tent after saying “I think we shouldn’t wait any longer and rest now. He must have been unlucky to encounter some beast and was killed.”

Bartan’s frown deepened hearing this. He didn’t believe that this was the case since Bilaz was very strong and could easily survive in this area if he doesn’t encounter a peak Two-star beast, agility or flying type beast or a group of beasts and the possibility of these encounters wasn’t high.

The last man who had stayed looked at Bartan's frown and smiled a little. He was a lean body and considerably handsome guy and looked harmless. However he was more cruel than Bilaz.

He casually said "Maybe he had found our target. However, because he was overconfident in his strength, he tried killing them and was killed instead."

Bartan looked at him for a while without saying anything. Then he also stood up and said "Perhaps your conjuncture is right. Therefore if he doesn't arrive until morning, we'll head west tomorrow." Finishing his statement, he also entered his tent to rest, leaving the lean man outside to guard.

...

Max and others were sitting on their flower beds, cultivating. Max was simply meditating.

Rima was still unconscious however, her internal injuries had healed significantly thanks to Belén's life potion. Haory and Belén only had flesh injuries which healed completely after taking a few healing pills.

Max opened his eyes and saw everyone cultivating and laid down on his flower bed.

'My physical attributes are quite high and are enough to fight most two-star mages and beasts if they don't use spells.

I believe that Bartan would find this place in another one or two days.

I need to raise my mana reserves and master this new spell so that it takes less time to cast. If I can do this before they find me, I'll be able to easily handle them.' Max thought.

After thinking this, he didn't fall asleep. After a while, everyone stopped cultivating and slept.

He stood up and went to wake Belén up. He needed more LPs quickly and had to utilise every second.

After Belén woke up, he whispered "Come with me."

Saying this he turned around and walked towards the entrance of the cave which was blocked by the big rock.

He moved it to the side without making any noise and walked out with Belén.

Belén quietly walked behind him. Although she was very exhausted today, she wanted to obey everything he asked her to do.

After seeing that there was no beast in the valley, he led her a hundred metres away from the cave.

“Make a flower bed here.” He said. Belén nodded and quickly threw a seed which sprouted and assumed the form of a bed under her control.

Belén’s heart was beating like drums. Even though she had sex with him daily, but today she was more anxious because she knew that Leticia had also become his woman.

Therefore, she was worried that he would pay more attention to Leticia. However, now that he chose to wake her up instead of Leticia, she was both happy and anxious.

Chapter 158 Grinding All Night [1]

Just as flower bed was completed, Max lifted her up in his arms and put her on the bed. Belén’s heartbeat became faster and face was started to become red.

“Belén, tonight I’m going to be a bit rough. Is that okay with you?” He whispered in her ears as he gently bit her earlobe.

“Mm~ Yes. I’m okay with everything as long as you want it.” She replied in a sensual voice.

“Good girl.” Max smiled and put his lips on her alluring lips while taking off his clothes.

Belén’s eyes closed as she happily kissed him back. She even forget to make a barrier around the bed in case Haory or others came out. vlxt.com

Max also wasn’t in mood to care for such things right now.

After savouring the sweetness of her lips, he put his tongue inside her mouth and went for a deep french kiss.

Meanwhile, his hands also moved and went inside her clothes. His left hand started caressing and stimulating her boobs while his right hand caressed her clitoris.

He was trying to make her body ready for what was to come. He couldn’t just started fucking her like a madman and had to treat as gently and lovingly he could.

Just after a few seconds, Belén’s nipples became erect and her pussy became wet as her lower lips twitched due to the stimulation to her clitoris.

She hugged him in excitement and their kisses became even more passionate.

She then moved her hand and put it on his penis which had become hard already and started stroking it slowly.

“Puah~”

Max broke the kiss seeing that she was almost ready to take his rode inside.

“Take off your clothes.” Max said and started to help her.

Belén’s face was flushed in excitement. She quickly nodded and took off her clothes.

...

Inside the cave, Haory was in deep sleep due to the exertion today while Rima was still unconscious. However, her previous painful expression had become a peaceful one and her breathing was even.

Leticia on the other hand had her eyes opened. She was also tired since she also exerted herself, fist with Max as they had sex in the morning and then after when cutting the cave.

However, she couldn’t sleep since she was worried that Max wasn’t happy with her after what she said when he was torturing Bilaz.

When she felt Max coming towards them, her heart was pounding. She guessed that he must want to have sex again.

But he didn’t stop by her bed and crossed it to go to Belén’s and woke her up. When he led her outside, Leticia was sad and tears threatened to fall down from her eyes.

‘What should I do?’ She thought while looking at the cave exit. She knew that they would be having sex right now.

Meanwhile, Max kissing and caressing her body. Belén was sitting on his lap, naked. He private parts rubbing against each other.

He slowly caressed the wound mark on her back and couldn’t help but be angry again. If Bilaz wasn’t dead, he would have killed him again for doing this to his woman.

Belén sensed this and was happy to see that he was very protective of her even though she only had status of a slave according to their agreement.

She lovingly put her slender hands around his neck and kissed his lips. Fluttering her long eyelashes, she looked into his eyes and said softly "Don't think anything else and let's enjoy this moment okay."

Seeing her act so adorably, Max was immediately excited and kissed her lips again.

He held her thin waist and moved slightly to put his hard and erect penis on her wet entrance.

He then pulled her down and his cock slid inside her tight pussy.

"Oh! Mm~"

Both of them moaned in pleasure. Belén then moved her waist by herself and took his cock completely inside her.

"Oh..." Max groaned and put his hands on her round buttocks and squeezed them.

'After a day of hard work, a woman's body is best for relaxation.' He sighed. He was feeling as if he was in heaven right now.

Before coming to this magic world, he never expected himself to have sex with such beautiful women.

Belén started moving up and down as her beautiful breasts jiggled in front of his face. He couldn't resist the temptation and started sucking them and let her move as she wanted.

After a while, Belén pussy tightened to an unimaginable degree as her body arched up.

"Ahhnnnggg~"

She moaned loudly before leaning on his chest powerlessly. She had cummed.

Max was hit with a strong wave of pleasure when her walls tightened. Unable to control himself, he started moving her up and down.

After a few minutes, he also felt like cumming and moved her waist even faster.

"Ahn~ Mm~ Ngh~"

Belén moaned in ecstasy as his thick cock kept going in and out of her sacred hole.

"Ughhhh!..."

"Ahhnnnggg~"

Max moaned and shot his load inside her. Belén was hit with a strong wave of pleasure. Her eyes became hazy as she also moaned aloud and cummed once again.

“Hah... Ha.. Ha... It was amazing.” She exclaimed in delight as she hugged him, her big and soft boobs pressing against his chest.

After cumming once, Max realised that this wasn't time to enjoy like this and he had to sped up things.

However, how could he not feel pleasure when such amazing woman in sitting in his lap with his cock deep inside her.

“Lie down now.” Max gently pushed her and she fell down on his back. Without him saying anything, she opened her legs with with flushed face.

She looked very seductive and enchanting right now. Max pounced on her like a wild animal.

He lifted her legs and put them on his shoulders and rammed his cock inside hard.

Another steamy round of sex started.

Thwop! Thwop! Thwop!

“Ahn~ Nngh~ Hah~”

Max pounded her pussy harder and faster in excitement. Belén's moans became louder and reverberated in the valley without restraint.

Chapter 159 Grinding All Night [2]

“...Ahn~ Oh~ Nngh~”

When Leticia didn't know what to do, she heard faint moaning sounds. She immediately knew what it was and her heart was filled with jealousy.

Without thinking anything anymore, she stood up and walked towards the exit of the cave. 17xt.com

As she neared the cave exit, the faint moaning sounds became clearer and louder.

Her footsteps became hurried. However, because Max had blocked the entrance with the giant rock after going out, she had to move it away to exit.

She looked at the rock in indignation. As a wind elemental mage, she didn't have enough strength to move such heavy rock away. She could only cut or destroy it with would undoubtedly cause a commotion.

She bit her teeth in frustration and stood there without moving, hearing their intimate sounds.

However, just at the moment, the sand under the rock shifted and the rock was moved enough to let her pass.

She was pleasantly surprised and was about to walked out immediately. However, suddenly she turned to look at Haory with a surprised gaze.

Hoary had her eyes closed as if she was in deep sleep.

Leticia shook her head and thought 'Of course she also knows about it.' She then said in a low voice "Thank you."

After that she sneaked out and turned towards the source of the sounds.

After she had left, Haory opened her eyes with a frown on her face. 'Why are they so focused on fleshy pleasure? Don't they know that most important thing is become strong?'

She was confused by this. She already knew that Belén, Leticia and Rima were interested in Max when they joined.

However, she thought that it was only liking and nothing more. However, after coming here, she found out that Leticia and Belén had become sexually involved with him.

However, she noticed that Leticia had stopped seeing him for some reason while Belén always seemed anxious to find time to be alone with him.

She had thought that this will make Belén's improvements to slow down or maybe even completely stop since she seemed more interested in sex with Max rather than cultivation.

Much to her surprise, after a few days she realised that Belén had improved more than anyone in their group. Of course, this didn't include Max since she didn't knew how much he improved.

After seeing that Max had become stronger than someone in middle stage two-star mage realm, she was astonished and couldn't help but think if sex could somehow make them stronger.

Therefore, after seeing that Leticia trying to go out when Max and Belén were having sex, she guessed that she might also want to do it with him.

So she helped her to open the entrance of the cave. She wanted to see if Leticia would also improve like Belén did.

After thinking for a while she closed her eyes and fell asleep.

Unlike other regions that were covered in darkness, the valley was receiving proper moonlight since there weren't any tall trees to block it.

Around hundred metres away from the cave, she saw both Max and Belén naked on top of a flower bed similar to the one they had inside the cave.

She was lying on her chest with her ass raised while Max was standing on his knees with his cock inside her.

He was constantly thrusting his rod inside her pussy which was already dripping with their love juices.

Belén had an ecstatic expression and her eyes were hazy. She was moaning wildly expressing the pleasure she was feeling.

After seeing this scene, Leticia stood there, motionless. She had walked out since she was feeling jealous. However, she didn't know what she was going to do once she was out.

...

Max was holding Belén's waist to support her so that her ass would be raised high enough to make his work convenient.

Thwop! Thwop! Thwop!

His waist was rapidly moving backwards and forwards as his thick cock would be inside her an instant hitting her cervix and in the next instant, it would outside with only the glans remaining inside.

"Ahhhhnnnggg~"

Suddenly, Belén's body became stiff as her back arched upwards and the clenching force her pussy was applying increased many folds.

"Ughhh!"

Feeling the pleasure, Max also thrust hard and cummed inside her once again.

"Hah... Hah... Ha..." Belén breathed heavily laid down powerlessly. This was her fourth time ejaculating.

However, she knew that it wasn't end yet so she was readying herself for next round.

Max took out his cock from his pussy and turned in the direction of the cave with a smile.

"Wanna join us?" He asked.

Given his high senses, it was impossible for him to not hear the sound of rock moving, even though it was very subtle.

He knew that either Leticia or Haory had come out and was watching them. However, he didn't stop fucking Belén because if it was Leticia, then there was no problem and if it was Haory, that also wouldn't be a problem since she already knew about their relationship.

Belén was surprised hearing him say this. She turned to look where he was looking and saw Leticia standing there like a statue.

However, she didn't become embarrassed like someone in her situation would be. Instead, a prideful smile appeared on her face.

Leticia was wanted to return to the cave after she saw them finishing up. However, she didn't expect him to know that she was here since she hadn't make any noise.

Moreover, he also called her out and asked if she wanted to join them. This made her face turn red in embarrassment.

However, she didn't run back to the cave even when she was embarrassed and nodded slightly before walking towards them.

This surprised both Max and Belén. Although it was very common a man having many woman or vice-versa.

However, even if a woman was strong enough to have many partners, she would have sex with one person at a time since no woman or man would want to do it at the same time with another. However, Leticia agreed to do it.

Belén frowned at this. However, Max's eyes lit up seeing this.

Chapter 160 Two Beauties In Embrace[1]

Seeing Leticia coming to join them, his eyes lit up as excitement coursed through your body. Any man would be excited in this situation since having the legendary threesom was countless men's fantasy. There was another reason which made him sigh in relief inwardly and made more excited.

Previously, he was worried that Belén wouldn't be able to do it many times in one go and he might have to force her to do it until he had enough LPs to raise his mana to the peak of high stage two-star realm which was necessary to face Bartan's group.

However, now that Leticia was willing to do it together with Belén, this problem was solved. He could just take turns and fuck them one after another. In this way, both girls would be satisfied, he would have experienced how good it is to fuck two different pussies at the same time and he should get more than enough LPs to raise his mana to the peak of two-star realm.

Thinking this, he almost couldn't control his excitement and his cock became harder than usual. However, there was still one problem which was Belén's willingness. If she didn't want to do it, he can only take a little hard way and fuck them separately. This way he would also get enough LPs. However, having two pussies laid bare in front of you to fuck as you want was still best option.

Therefore, he looked at Belén to see her reaction and indeed, just as he expected she was frowning.

Belén sensed him looking at her with eyes filled with unconcealable excitement and instantly knew what he wanted which caused a bitter smile to appear on her face before she nodded. Although she didn't really want Leticia to join them, she couldn't refuse when Max wanted it. She wanted him to be pleased with her so that he would continue having sex with her. If she refused now, he might stop liking her which she absolutely couldn't endure.

She didn't want to have sex just for the sake of becoming stronger now. After having sex with him so many times, she started to genuinely love him and couldn't bear to be apart from him.

Seeing her nodding her head, Max became excited and suddenly gave her a deep kiss which she happily received.

Leticia arrived near the flower bed and looking at them kissing she envious wanted him to kiss her too.

After a while Max broke the kiss with Belen and looked into her captivating reddish black eyes before giving her another soft peck. He had to say that after Lilly who he was in love with, he had a very good time with Belen.

He then turned to look at Leticia who was looking at them with envious eyes and couldn't help but chuckle softly. He then said "Come here."

Leticia looked at Belen who nodded at her. She then moved closer to bed and wanted to climb on it.

"Kyaa..." However, Max directly lifted her up before making her sit in his and cupped her cute face in his hands and gently put his lips on her beautiful thin lips.

Initially, Leticia was feeling shy since Belen was also there but as he kissed her, she forgot everything and closed her eyes to enjoy his embrace and kiss.

However, after a few seconds, she felt his hard thing poking between her legs. She shifted her waist slightly and his thing was now between her thighs, rubbing against her vagina. Although she still had her clothes still on, she still felt good by this rubbing.

Belen wasn't happy being left out and pouted her lips adorably as she complained "Max, you shouldn't just focus on her when I'm also waiting here right?"

Max stopped kissing Leticia and moved her to the side and said with a smile "Of course I won't let you wait in vain. Come here."

Belen happily came towards him. Leticia looked at her and said in anger "Belen, how can you be so unreasonable? You've done it with him a few times before I came. Shouldn't it my turn now?"

"I was with him first so its only reasonable that do it with him until I'm satisfied. If you want to do it, you can wait here quietly." Belen said with a smirk on her beautiful face.

Max smiled as a sense of pride surged in his heart seeing them fighting over him. He chuckled and said "Stop fighting now. Both of you will be properly taken care of."

Saying this, he turned Belen around and raised her ass. He then grabbed his dragon and rubbed it on the entrance of her pussy and gave a powerful thrust.

"Ahhnngg~"

Belen moaned loudly as his thick cock entered deep inside her soft, wet and tight tunnel. Her insides clenched his cock ever more tightly than before. Maybe it was because Leticia was here.

"Ah!"

Max also felt very good and wanted to fuck her hard but noticing Leticia who was looking at them indignantly.

Thwop! Thwop! Thwop! While thrusting his cock inside her pussy, he extended his right hand and grabbed Leticia by the waist and pulled her close to him before starting to kiss her lips and groping her breasts.

Leticia became happy, her hands wrapped around his neck as she responded to his kisses with fervor.

However, because his focus was divided, his waist's movements became a bit slower which caused Belen to turn to look back. Seeing them making out, she had a complicated expression which quickly turned into a faint smile.

Thwop! Thwop! Thwop!

She started moving her waist and taking his penis to the depths of vagina.

“Ahn~ Mmm~ Ngh~”

Her moans became louder than before while Max also groaned as it was entirely different sensation from when he was thrusting. To enjoy this sensation, he slowed down even more which caused Belen to move her waist faster.

“Oh yeah...!”

Max groaned in pleasure and suddenly grabbed Leticia's neck tightly from behind and gave a deep and forceful kiss as he ejaculated inside her.
