Chapter 1: The Beginning of The End

"yes , yes, yes..... Faster.... Harder."

It was a clear night in the middle of some woods near Alamo City and the only sound came from a tent that was sent up in a clearing on the edge of a cliff.

Inside the tent, two teenagers of around 18 years old were partaking in the sacred ritual of lovers.

They were both naked with the male teenager atop the female as he rocked his hips back and forth thrusting his cock into the female teenager's pussy.

"Oh gods Adam, why do you feel so much more forceful and dominating tonight." The female asked.

The male smirked as he answered, "It's your fault for teasing me Jenny."

"The entire journey out here you were purposefully flashing me or brushing up against my cock."

"Ohhhhh soooo good." Jenny moaned in pleasure before replying with a flirtatious smirk.

"I was only having a bit of fun with you, however now that I know what effect it has on you I will be sure to tease you plenty from now on."

"Then I hope you are ready for the consequences." Adam replied as he increased his thrusting causing Jenny to moan even louder.

Some time later they lay naked in each other's arms recovering from their activities and just enjoying each other's company.

Finally after a while Adam spoke, "Well I have to say, out of the 7 years we have been together, this anniversary is by far the best."

"Pervert." Jenny replied with a giggle before adding. "You only think that since we have only started having sex in the last year."

Adam didn't reply except for a small chuckle before they both lapsed into silence again.

Unfortunately their peaceful time was cut short as they suddenly heard the sound of footsteps outside before the entrance and the tent was ripped open.

"What!" Adam and Jenny just had time to say before after a pair of large strong hands reached through the opening and grabbed Adam by the ankles and yanked him out of the tent and flung him onto the grass.

Adam let out a wince of pain while narrowing his eyes just a moment before Jenny landed next to him as a cry of pain escaped her lips.

"Well, well, well, two naked sluts in the woods." A drawling voice stated.

Adam and Jenny looked up with surprise on their faces as they both recognised that voice.

In front of them stood a teenager the same age as them along with several older people flanking him.

While the older people all wore what appeared to be combat gear with guns holstered at the side, the teenager wore expensive branded clothing and a watch that glinted under the moonlight.

"Victor, what's the meaning of this?" Adam asked angrily as Jenny hid behind him trying to cover her naked body as much as possible.

"Do you even need to ask?" Victor replied with a frown on his face before continuing.

"You took something that belonged to me Adam, I warned you to break up with Jenny months ago."

"I've told you before Victor that I don't belong to you, I'm my own woman and I will decide who I date." Jenny snapped angrily as she glared at Victor.

"Jenny, Jenny, Jenny. I offered you everything to be my woman." Victor replied as he shook his head in clear disappointment as he continued.

"Money, clothes, jewelry, even your parents will never have to worry about anything ever again as their company will have the backing of my family's company."

"All you had to do was be my wife."

"I never wanted to be your wife Victor, Adam is the one I love and will someday marry" Jenny replied angrily.

Victor's frown deepened as he heard Jennys words and he balled his fists in anger for a few seconds before forcing himself to calm down and saying.

"Accept my offer Jenny and not only will you and your parents never have to worry about money ever again, but I will even give Adam here 5 million dollars."

"I don't want your money Victor." Adam replied before continuing.

"I told you before that no amount of money would be enough for me to leave Jenny."

"Don't be stupid Adam." Victory replied with mockery and contempt.

"You're an orphan who only got into the same school as myself and Jenny on a scholarship."

"Even if by some miracle you end up being the top scorer when our final exam results come out later this month, you still won't be able to provide Jenny with the luxury she has now and even more so what I can offer her."

Adam was about to reply but Jenny beat him to it.

"Enough Victor, I have never cared about the life Adam can provide for me, all I ever wanted was to be with him."

Victor once again balled his fists and his breathing intensified as he shot a murderous look at Adam as he said loudly.

"ENOUGH, I have been magnanimous with my attempts to settle this in a way we can all benefit from but in the end the both of you are just too stubborn to accept my generosity."

"Do it." He said to the man directly to his right before holding out his right hand to him as if waiting for him to pass him something..

The man nodded and made a hand signal before Adam and Jenny were roughly separated before several other military personnel.

"Stop, what are you doing Victor?" Jenny asked with panic now in her voice.

"It's simple Jenny." Victor replied with a dark grin.

"If I can't have your heart and make you my wife then no one can have you, but don't worry I won't kill you."

"No, I'm simply going to lock you away in my personal mansion so I can keep you all to myself."

"Are you insane? That's blatant kidnapping and a serious crime." Adam asked with shock and anger.

"You think I care about such things Adam?" Victor replied with a chuckle.

"My family is one of the top five richest and most powerful families in the world, I mean we even have access to military personnel like these soldiers here. Do you truly believe that we can't cover something as simple as this up?"

"Naturally we will have to make up a story about how Jenny unfortunately passed away and I will have to find someone else to marry, but don't worry Jenny my heart will always belong to you and I will take good care of you."

"You're mad." Jenny replied with fear.

Victor had always proclaimed his love for her ever since they first met years ago at a charity event that both their families attended. He claimed it was love at first sight, however Jennys instincts had always warned her about something being off with Victor and so never reciprocated his feelings, even going so far as to try and distance herself from him.

Unfortunately it had never worked as Victor would only ever try harder to win her love and only now did she understand that her instincts were correct all along.

"No my love." Victor replied with a twisted smirk. "We will finally be together as we were always destined to be even if it has to be in secret. Of Course this means that Adam will have to be silenced so he can't tell everyone our secret."

"WHAT!" Jenny yelled in horror as she saw the military officer to the right of victor unholster his sidearm and point it towards Adam.

"STOP THIS VICTOR STOP." Jenny screamed in panic while being held by one of the military personel.

Adam had a muzzle that was commonly used for prisoners forced over his mouth making it so that all he could do was make groaning noises before he was forced to his knees by two other men and held in place.

"DON'T DO THIS VICTOR PLEASE, I BEG OF YOU PLEASE." Jenny continued to scream and beg.

"Look away my love, soon this will all be over and we can finally be together without concern." Victor replied with a now calm tone before he accepted the gun that the man had just placed in his outstretched right hand.

Victor stroked the gun slightly as if enjoying the power that holding it gave him as he removed the safety before he steadily raised it to aim at Adam's head and started to squeeze the trigger.

In that moment time seemed to slow down for Adam as he saw his life pass before his eyes.

Jenny on the other hand started to panic even more and struggle with all her might as the man who held her tried to control her without injuring her since they were all under orders not to harm her.

Unfortunately because the man couldn't use much force Jenny was able to reposition herself slightly where she could take a shot at the man's crown jewels.

The man groaned in pain and slouched over instinctively releasing Jenny as he went to cover his own privates.

Jenny seized the opportunity now that she was free to desperately move before.

BANG.
