Chapter 102: Nagareen

The shuttle was relatively small, consisting of a rectangular main compartment with a flight cabin at the front. Then there were six wings that made a triangular shape.

[Justiceistruth: (Earth): Dun dun da dun da dun dun da dun.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): You think it has stormtroopers aboard?]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Let's hope so they can't shoot for shit.]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4 ): Is it just me that's having trouble following their conversation?]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): You get used to it.]

Adam and Stacey heard the shuttle's engines stay the same, indicating that it had stopped moving for a few moments before the sound picked up again before it receded as they saw it flying away through one of the empty windows on the opposite side of the tower.

"If they're dropping people off here they have the same idea as us, they're planning to set up a sniper." Adam stated.

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): A sniper! Now we're fucking talking.]

"So what do we do?" Stacey asked.

"We go slow and sneak our way up to the roof. Make sure to keep an eye out in case anyone comes down to check the floors below." Adam replied before he set Stacey down gently.

"Copy that." Stacey said while pulling out the blaster Adam had given her.

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Ooh a new blaster, what is it what is it?"]

[Tessidabest (Terrana 5): It appears to be a Terran Munitions GL Two.]

Adam and Stacey carefully moved towards the staircase that led upward while listening for any sound that could indicate someone was approaching them.

Two individuals wearing combat armour, one armed with an automatic blaster and the other a sniper rifle of sorts, looked around the tower's roof carefully as they checked for any other individuals that may be present.

"All clear" the individual who was armed with the automatic blaster said.

"Copy that, I will get set up, you check the floors below quickly." The one with the sniper rifle replied.

"Oh please like there's anyone here." The first complained before he started to move towards the stairs that led downwards.

"This is team two, overwatch secured, setting up now."

Adam and Stacey carefully climbed the stairs with their blasters in hand while staying alert for signs of any movement from above.

As they climbed up two flights of stairs and reached a third they suddenly heard footsteps on the floor above making them freeze.

[Justiceistruth: (Earth): Oh shit oh shit oh shit.]

Adam pressed a finger to his lips before he leaned close to Stacey's ear and whispered, "Stay here."

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): BITCH! Stop getting so close to my man.]

[Tessisdabest (Terrana 5): 😊👉]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4 ): 🙄 My oh my, he's certainly the playboy isn't he.]

Stacey nodded and watched as Adam snuck towards the staircase that led to the next floor and hid behind a pillars that was near it.

Soon the chat saw an individual descending the stairs wearing dark combat armour and equipped with an assault blaster.

[Boobaslurper(Yaggdran): That's a desert shadow assault blaster isn't it? It's manufactured by Terran Munitions.]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): I think you're right, the combat armour also appears to be one of their products.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Is Terran Munitions the buyer that the stream info mentioned then?]

[Tessisdabest (Terrana 5): Can't be, the stream info mentions a mega corp and we Terran's don't have a mega corp. Terran Munitions is just a standard Terran weapons and armour manufacture.]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4 ): So they're using Terran weapons on a Terran planet to make it look like what they're about to pull was performed by Terran's. Sneaky.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): It's a clever strategy that leaves no clues leading back to whichever mega corp it is.]

As the individual reached the bottom of the stairs they turned and proceeded towards the next set not even attempting to muffle their footsteps.

"What a pain in the ass, we already confirmed that only the three members of that fucking Terran gang are attending the exchange." The individual complained.

As the individual walked past one of the pillars Adam snuck up behind him and grabbed him around the neck before planting his blaster in the individual's back and pulling the trigger.

The individual didn't even have time to make a sound before his body went limp and Adam carefully lowered it to the ground.

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Smooth.]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4 ): I don't see any damage caused by a blaster bolt, what happened?]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): He must have hit him with the stun shot.]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4 ): Stun shot! Seriously? Lorelie, you never told me his blaster was capable of something like that.]

[OfficialLorelie (Imperial Down): Oops. 🤦]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Why take the risk of them at point blank range and not from a distance? Seems kind of stupid.]

[Entrash (Hoenn 7): Idiot, didn't you see how he lowered the body gently to the floor afterwards. If he had shot him from range the body would have made a noise when it crumpled to the ground not to mention when their weapon hit the ground.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Entrash is right, he's obviously trying to stay quiet in-case there are others further above stupid.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Then why not just disintegrate him using his disintegration shot so there would be no body to hit the floor.]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4 ): WAIT! Disintegration shot. 😊. Lorelie you and I are having a serious talk after this stream.]

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): Sorry Lorelie can't come to the communication right now. She is currently busy recording her new song.]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4 ): You're still a couple of centuries too early if you think that trick will work on me.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Wait, new song? I want to hear it.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): 🙄 You can't idiot. We don't have access to their content, remember.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Oh yeah. 😊]

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): If you want I will just have the streamer play it on his stream.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Really? Yay.]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4 ): Oi stop ignoring me girl.]

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): 🙄]

"Right, let's see who we're dealing with here." Adam muttered as he bent down besides the unconscious individual.

"What are you doing?" Stacey asked quietly after she snuck over.

"My chat says that the gear this person is using is Terran tech but that makes no sense since Terran's apparently don't have a mega corp." Adam replied.

"That's true since many individuals and other companies refuse to buy Terran products."

"Damn that diplomats son really fucked the Terran race over didn't he, how is he even still alive?"

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): I know right, the bastard should be dead.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): It's hard to believe that one individual holds so much sway over the universe, even if they are a princess.]

[DeverinianLordMalacross (Deverinian 9): To be fair it's not really princess Liluth Solar's doing. Even after the incident happened she made no attempt to get revenge and in fact never even brought the incident up again as if she forgot about the whole thing.]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4 ): Malacross is right. The issue lies with the Soloarian's love for their princess. She truly is a nice person, one of the sweetest and kindest souls I have ever had the pleasure to meet.]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4 ): She is also ridiculous.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Didn't an IQ test put her in the top 5% of the entire universe?]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Damn 5 % of the entire universe?]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): Yeah though strangely it only applies to things related to a scientific and mathematics aspect. With anything else she is only slightly smarter than most.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): She's still fucking hot though.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Idiot.]

[Puntanghunter69 (Earth): How hot? How hot?]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): We're talking Diva Lorelie and Rowena levels of hot.]

[Puntanghunter69 (Earth): Whistle, nice.]

Adam placed his hand over the individual's combat armour before asking, "Spector, can you retract the helmet?"

[[Affirmative.]]

A moment later the helmet retracted to reveal a being that was definitely not Terran. The only way Adam could describe what the reptilian looking head looked like was as if you crossed a human with a snake and the snake's genes were more dominant.

The head was

"A Nagareen." Stacey said in surprise.

"A what?" Adam asked?

"A Nagareen, they are a humanoid reptilian species from the planet Naga. Their race has a mega corp that is rumoured to have been built off the back off stolen prototypes."

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4 ): Well now this makes more sense.]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): Yeah, I bet it's fucking Slitherus Security Mega Corp. Those bastards only became a mega corp by stealing other companies' prototypes and concepts.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): While I agree that they don't have the best reputation, they have never been convicted of such acts.]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4 ): That's because like a snake they know when to shed their skin to avoid being caught.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): This mega corp doesn't seem popular.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Agreed.]

"So no ones going to miss them if they don't come back?" Adam asked.

"No one we care about." Stacey replied coldly.

Adam nodded before he pulled out his beam sabre and stabbed it into the Nagareens head before putting it away and standing up and saying, "Lets go."
