Chapter 109: The history off Becky's

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): So any idea on who this 'certain streamer' the stream description mentions is?]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): There are many streamers who stream sexual content from Trillion but only a few stream from the brothel named Becky's, as for one who lives in the Sky Tower it can only be Maximus.]

[Entrash (Hoenn 7): The fact you know so much about sexual streamers is quite disturbing.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): ...]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Pervert.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): ...]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): So since streaming porn is apparently ok in the universe, does that mean the streamer will start streaming it?]

[Puntanghunter69 (Earth): Oh god please yes.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Please god no.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Meh.]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): HELL NO .... Well maybe if it's with me.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): I suppose it's ok if it's with Diva Lorelie.]

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): ... ?]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4): Hahahaha, Oh my Lorelie, it seems your fans are trying to set you up. 🤔]

[Boobaslurper(Yaggdran): Oh great tree, can you imagine the field day the press would have. That's not a good idea.]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4): Well if it isn't the Yggdranian crown prince, I thought I saw you make a comment a while ago.]

[Ayato_Kanzaki (Earth): Crown prince? Seriously more royalty.]

[Boobaslurper(Yaggdran): 🤔]

"So I have been meaning to ask, why is Becky's called Becky's?" Adam asked as he and Stacey flew through the lower sectors of Trillion towards the closest Sky Tower.

"It's because of the first owner who was called Becky." Stacey began to explain. "Back then sector eight six six wasn't ruled by the eighty sixers but another gang. This gang dealt in all things drugs, prostitution, slave trade, weapons smuggling. If it made them credits they dealt in it with little to no morals about anyone who lived in the sector besides those who were part of the gang."

"The lower city even now is not a safe place to live with gang wars that occasionally happen and thieves that work the streets trying to lift something of an unsuspecting score, however back then it was far worse. One day the gang leader at the time passed by a street rat that was scrounging for food and took a shine to her because he could see the beauty she had that was hidden under years worth of muck and filth from living on the streets."

"At that time in Trillion's past this was seen as a good thing for a street rat, as it meant they could get off the streets and have a bed to live in even if it meant having to offer their body for that privilege."

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Damn that's fucked up.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): I can't believe that was a thing.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): OMG 😊]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): Ah fuck.]

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): Poor thing.]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4): Unfortunately that's how things are for the poorest on a lot of planets and space stations.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): WTF!]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): That's messed up.]

[Wikkr (Earth): Oh my god.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Ah shit.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Hang on a mo, Is there actually any law about underage sex out there in the universe?]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): Universal law set out by the universal senate says that children should not engage in sexual activities until they are classed as being an adult by their race.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): She's right. While the act of prostitution and the laws surrounding it are left up to the individual race and species to decide, the unlawful act of sexual activities before maturity is a universal law set by the universal senate. Anyone caught in the act of transporting underage individuals or minors for the act of prostitution is given the death penalty.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): That's good to know.]

"I can't believe it was so bad here back then." Adam said as he continued to drive the hover bike.

"You're right, however this time it didn't go as the gang leader envisioned it would." Stacey said.

"After having her cleaned up the gang leader had the beauty brought to his bed chambers. Now the beauty was not stupid, she knew what was about to happen, living on the streets all her life had let her witness many things and one of those was the rape of countless women and men. While she had sold her body a few times in the past for food, she had managed to avoid being raped because of her fierce nature."

"The gang leader made her strip before he ordered her to go down on her knees and use her mouth to satisfy him, however what he didn't expect was that as soon as the beauty went down on her knees and grabbed a hold of his balls she would yank with all her strength and rip them right off."

The gang leader screamed in pain as he collapsed on the ground while clutching what was now a stump.

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Oh hell yeah, you go girl.]

[MerceadAnderson (Palaxia): Ah fuck. 🤔]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Oh god no, while I'm glad she didn't have to go through with it, this outcome is a bit much.]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4): Why did she do it though? My granddaughter already said that the beauty had sold her body in the past, why not to the gang leader who could offer her more?]

As if she could here what Rowena asked Stacey said, "As it turns out the gang leader was actually her father, when he was just a low level lieutenant he had raped her mother before dumping her in a pile of sewage." [StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Plot twist.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Nah saw it coming.]

"There was something in the sewage and waste that he had dumped her mother in which infected her and caused her to get ill during her pregnancy. Without the credits to pay for medical care her condition only got worse over time."

"Nine months later she gave birth to a baby girl and while she survived the ordeal of giving birth, it severely weakened her. Six years later the mother lay on her deathbed and in her dying words told her daughter who her father was."

"Naturally the daughter hated what her biological father had done to her mother and wished to get revenge though she saw no way of doing it since the man was now the gang leader. However when the gang leader, her father found her she took the opportunity presented."

"After he collapsed to the ground screaming in pain he had dropped the blaster he had been holding and presenting as a subtle threat. The woman grabbed it before shooting the gang leader in the head."

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): My kind of girl.]

[OfficialRowena (Felinia 4): I approve.]

"It wasn't long before she heard hurried footsteps of the other gang members who were probably alerted by the leader's scream. She quickly hid behind the door before it opened and as the gang members were shocked by what they saw she quickly killed them."

"After that she collected all their blasters before she went on a killing spree through the gang's base, slaughtering them one after another. While she obviously didn't kill every gang member, the majority of the leaders were present in the base and so she severely crippled the gang."

"After this she claimed leadership of the gang. In the process she renamed it the eighty sixers and over time she kicked out or killed almost all of the old gang members replacing them with people who grew up on the street like her or those with useful skills."

"Over time the gang moved their headquarters to the brothel where it is now and renamed it in honour of their leader, Becky."

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): Well us Becky's are all powerful Mwhahaha.]

"What happened to her in the end?" Adam asked as they neared the Sky Tower.

"Oh she's still alive, after she stepped down from the position of gang leader she acquired a small place on the street where her mother raised her. She still visits the brothel every now and then, you might meet her one day if you're lucky."

"I look forward to it." Adam replied a few minutes before they arrived near the base of one of the Sky Towers.

Looking Adam saw the sky for the first time since he landed on Trillion, the Sky Tower was a wondrous sight of white-gold and silver that disappeared out of sight behind the clouds above.

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): That's one fucking tall skyscraper.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): It goes above the clouds, is this some shit taken from that assassination game?]

[Justiceistruth: (Earth): Nah the streamers not skydiving onto the top of it.]

As they all looked at the sky tower they suddenly saw several shuttles departing from a landing pad part way up the tower before turning and heading in the direction of the neutron reactor plant.

"Took them longer than expected to depart." Adam commented before he slowly drove the hoverbike closer to the base of the tower.
