Chapter 118: Glow Sticks

[[Affirmative, I calculate there is enough dark matter to allow use of the experimental drive twice before needing more. However remember that dark matter wasn't the only item required.]]

"Understood." Adam replied as he continued to follow the directions on his minimap.

[[The subject known as Max Parks appears to have stopped.]]

"Well shit, I was hoping it was going to be a stingy dark alley deal, I guess Max is too high class to want to be seen down one of those." Adam commented after he looked at the minimap and saw that Max appeared to have entered a building.

Adam turned a corner and rode his hoverbike down the road that the building Max had just entered was on and as he passed it he saw that it appeared to be a nightclub called 'Skull Rose'.

"Well when sector security is just fellow gang members I suppose you can advertise where you operate from." Adam mumbled as he rode a little further up the road before pulling a U-turn and pulling over.

[[Launching stream.]]

[[Stream description below:]]

[[Stream Title: Eliminate the drug dealing streamer]]

[[Mission Parameters: The information you acquired from sky tower security shows that the popular sexual streamer Trillion Max Parks and his family are involved in selling drugs. Your plan to 'negotiate' with him is no longer viable and so you have decided to eliminate him and make it look like a drug deal gone bad.]]

[[Missions Goal: Eliminate Max Parks and make it look like a drug deal gone bad.]]

[Forever1stCommenter (Earth): First.]

"Seriously? I thought we had agreed not to stream this?" Adam asked as he had spoken to Spector a few days ago about not streaming his elimination of Max.

[[That was indeed the idea since you just planned to stand in the shadows of a dark alley and eliminate both the target and gang member. However the situation has now changed since you now need to infiltrate a club to eliminate the target.]]

"I thought the streams were about showing your capability and feeding it back to division five or something?"

[[Indeed they are, however by showcasing your ability using the equipment I provide I am also showing my capability indirectly. Also as your now my operator I am programmed to assist you and since you have already gained a group of followers who regularly watch your streams, I calculated that helping you grow as a streamer will assist you.]]

"Huh." Stacey said in surprise as she looked at her uniband which had just given out a notification sound.

"What is it?" Susan asked.

"Adam just went live."

"He did?" Susan asked in surprise before saying, "I thought he told you he wouldn't be streaming such a boring event."

"Yeah though by the looks of it it's not so simple as he's down the street from the Skull Rose nightclub." Stacey replied as she opened the stream on her uniband.

"I wonder if I can watch it?" Susan asked as she went to a streaming platform and found Adam's stream posted on the promo banner at the top.

"Heh I can." She said happily as she opened the stream.

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Even the streamers' own assistant is making things hard for him. Kekeke.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Damn, so Maximus is actually a drug dealer.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Oh yeah, another elimination mission.]

[NewManagment (Strathorp 6): It looks like his target is inside that club.]

[Wikkr (Earth): How's he supposed to make a drug deal look like it's gone bad in a nightclub?]

[OrangeeyedStace (Trillion): What happened? You said you weren't going to stream?]

"Things became more complicated." Adam responded to Stacey's question in the chat as he watched the club's entrance and said, "So now what, the door security is checking everyone at the door for weapons,

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Can't the streamers' weapons get past scanners like we saw when he robbed the bank?]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Wait, he's actually robbed a bank before?]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): You idiot, can't you see that they're patting people down and not using tech to check?]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): ...]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Guess they're too cheap to purchase any scanners.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Pity, I'm curious to know if the streamers weapons can pass the scanners we use just like the ones back on his own planet.]

"I should have brought my anti-gravity armour." Adam said with a sigh as he looked up towards the higher floors where the minimap showed Max.

"Well no use standing around." Adam said as he climbed off the hoverbike before opening a cargo space that was located under the seat.

He placed his blaster and beam sabre within before closing it and walking towards the club.

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): What about his force staff?]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): You mean fake staff. Kekeke.]

[Boobaslurper(Yaggdran): Maybe he's not carrying it.]

[Razzakel (Ravonar 4): If I had one of those I would carry it all the time.]

Adam approached the queue for the nightclub and waited several minutes until it was his turn where a large bouncer grouchily said, "Next."

"Spread." The bouncer ordered as Adam stepped forward before he started to pat him down.

"When he reached his right leg and felt something he stopped and said suspiciously, "What's this?"

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Uh oh busted. Kekeke]

"A glow stick." Adam replied calmly.

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): You gotta be kidding me.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Seriously.]

[Entrash (Hoenn 7): What's a glow stick?]

"What's a glow stick?" The bouncer asked.

"You've never been to a club or concert where they had glow sticks?" Adam asked in surprise.

"No"

"Mind if I show you?" Adam asked.

"Slowly." The bouncer said as he placed a hand over where his blaster was located causing his colleague and those nearby to pay attention.

Adam nodded before he slowly reached down and pulled out what his chat recognised as his force staff.

[Lizziethetruepower (Palalxia): Wait, he does have it?]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Oh shit he really is busted and now he's gonna lose the force staff. Idiot streamer.]

"It looks like a stick that could be used as a weapon to me?" The bouncer said with narrowed eyes.

"Not at all, look." Adam said before he pressed a button that made a white light illuminate at one end of the force staff.

As he pressed the button again the light changed colour to red and kept changing as he pressed the button.

"See, then you wave it around." Adam said as he started to jump up and down like he was dancing at a concert while waving the light around.

[HackerSu (Trillion): OMG PLEASE STOP I'M CRACKING UP.]

[OrangeeyedStace (Trillion): I'm embarrassed to know you right now. 🙄]

[Devil_Prince_Asura (Deverinian 9): HAHAHAHA.]

[Vinnaka (Felinia 6): Oh god this is amazing.]

[Werewolf1987 (Caniniar 4): Hmmm that's a novel idea, maybe singers should incorporate it into their future concerts.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Did the stream just introduce the glow stick for the rest of the universe, hahaha.]

[Sparesomechangebro (Earth): Hey bro if you get a percentage from their future sales give it to me.]

[Pokemonking0924 (Mobius 2.0): I didn't know I was watching a comedy stream, you should change your stream tag.]

It wasn't just his chat that was laughing at him but the other club goers who were still in the queue.

"Hahaha look at this fool."

"Wow I want one."

"Hey mate, where can I get one of those?"

"He can't dance for shit hahaha."

The bouncer looked at his colleague who shrugged before going back to checking the patron in front of him.

"Fine, fine just stop looking like an idiot."

"Hey hey, I will let you know that I have been complimented on my dancing." Adam complained.

"Were they drunk?" The bouncer asked, causing those who heard him to laugh.

Were they drunk? hahaha.]

[[Boobaslurper(Yaggdran): Were they drunk + 1]

[[Razzakel (Ravonar 4): Were they drunk + 2]

[[Pokemonking0924 (Mobius 2.0): Were they drunk + 3]

[[Devil_Prince_Asura (Deverinian 9): Were they drunk + 37]

"Whatever." Adam said as he hung his shoulders in shame and stepped past the bouncer.

"Awww bouncer you upset him."

"Why do you have to be so mean?"

"Hahahaha"

Adam put the force staff away as he entered the dimly lit club and heard the sound of music beating further in as he pulled up his hood while the chat noticed his body started to disappear from there view after he did so.

[[adg (Indigo Station): What the hell is this?]

[Werewolf1987 (Caniniar 4): Where did he go?]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Well we haven't seen this since his very first stream.]

[OrangeeyedStace (Trillion): Can someone explain where he disappeared to?]

[HackerSu (Trillion): What's wrong? Worried your boyfriend ran off with another woman. 😏]

[OrangeeyedStace (Trillion): Shut up.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Why isn't Beczontop here, I want to watch the cat fight.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): She's probably busy showing the dragon princess around, I saw that she actually showed up to the Terran celebration.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): That would explain why it seems like Tessisdabest, Lord Malacoss, Diva Lorelie and Diva Rowena aren't here either.]
