Chapter 127: Oh the stalkers back. Kekeke

“You were amazing, Lorelie,” Becky said with excitement as she jumped forward to hug Lorelie as soon as she entered the room where her friends had been waiting for her.

“Hehehe, it went better than expected,” Lorelie replied with a giggle as she returned the hug.

“Hehe, Better than expected? That’s putting it mildly.” Rowena said with a chuckle.

“It was certainly an enjoyable show,” Malacross said with a smile.

“It was amazing,” Tephe said as she happily bounced up and down.

“I’m honestly surprised your mother, Pevaphio, allowed you to stay for the show.” Malacross began. “When she turned up before it started, I expected her to drag you back immediately.”

“So did I, but it seems that Empress Victoria managed to persuade her to let me stay for the show.”

“Apparently, Aunt Victoria invited Senator Pevaphio for a meal,” Becky informed them.

“And she accepted?” Malacross asked in surprise.

“Yup, apparently she was unable to refuse after Aunt Victoria mentioned that they would be serving God’s Oasis.”

“That explains it, my mum loves that stuff,” Tephe said in understanding.

“Along with most of the universe,” Malacross stated.

“It’s a shame Tessa Kirkmeld couldn’t join us, however,” Rowena stated.

“Unfortunately, her duties only allowed her to assist me in chaperoning you up until we arrived at the location of the concert; after that, she had to attend to the concert's wider security,” Becky replied.

“Is that so?” Rowena said with her signature smirk and mirth in her eyes before she turned to Lorelie and asked, “So are you going to tell us how you came up with such music?”

“The streamer, after he saved me, gave me a copy of all the music from his world,” Lorelie replied.

“The streamer? Wait, you still don’t know his name?” Tephe asked in surprise.

“No, he said that if we ever met again, he would tell me then.”

“Do any of you know his name?” Tephe asked, to which the others all shook their heads.

“I believe my granddaughter does, however, whenever it seems like she mentions it, the stream mutes it for some reason,” Rowena said.

“Speaking of my darling, he’s currently alive,” Becky said as she checked her uniband.

“I guess he didn’t get to see my performance,” Lorelie said with disappointment.

“I’m sure he has his reasons.” Rowena replied in a comforting tone before turning to Becky and asking, “Your darling?”

“Yup, he’s the man I plan to marry.” Becky boasted proudly with her chest out before remembering something and saying, “Oh, right, we need to get ready to head to Trillion.”

“You're still planning on going there?” Tessa suddenly said as she entered the room before turning to Lorelie and saying, “Even though I had to work, I thoroughly enjoyed your performance.”

“Thank you.”

“Of course I’m still planning to go there, you and Lorelie are coming with me too.”

“Oh, can I go?” Tephe asked.

“Sure,” Becky replied.

“No.” Malacross replied before adding, “Your mother would never allow it.”

“Boo,” Tephe said in disappointment.

“You do remember we are supposed to report back to the Imperial Down tomorrow, right?” Tessa asked with a sigh.

“So we’ll take some vacation time,” Becky said dismissively.

“Think this through, Becz, do you really think he will still be on Trillion by the time we get there?” Tessa asked.

“Mmmmm, good point.” Becky mused before saying, “Why don’t I ask him?” After which, she opened up his stream on the console in the room they were in, causing a large holographic screen to appear so that they could all watch.

“Why is he sitting across from a tattoo faced guy who has his hands pinned to his knees with kitchen knives?” Rowena asked curiously.

“A better question is, why isn't the man screaming his head off in pain?” Tessa added.

“He looks like he’s out of it. Look at how his eyes are out of focus as he stares up at the ceiling.”

“Party Time,” Becky said in disgust.

“You mean the drug?” Malacross asked.

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): What did I miss?]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Oh, the stalkers back. Kekeke.]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): You finally made it, you missed a lot.]

Adam noticed when Beczontop entered the chat, but didn't comment to let the chat fill her in on what had happened before she arrived.

[Tessisdabest (Terrana 5): So this Max Parks has been selling drugs on the side and Tower Security hasn't done anything about it because he's paying them off?]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): Malgath is going to have a field day when he hears about this.]

[Tessisdabest (Terrana 5): Tell me about it. 😊⇒]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): Someone dared to try and kidnap my granddaughter?]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9) Well, to be fair, I doubt they know she's your granddaughter.]

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): I feel I must apologise for breaking my promise to you and using some of the music you so generously gave me. I'm sorry, but something in me told me I just had to.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): So she really did sing an Earth song.]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): I wonder which she sang?]

[Justiceistruth: (Earth): Not sure how I feel about this plagiarism.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Just leave it, it's not like anyone can do anything about it.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): He's right, also it's not like she is stealing money from the original artist, like if it happened back on Earth.]

"I hear your performance went well," Adam said with a smile.

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): It did thank you. I honestly appreciate the music you gave me, and I hope you can forgive me.]

"To be honest, I'm not really that bothered. It's not like it affects me in any way, and it's not like the known universe would have been able to hear Earth's music anytime soon if you hadn't."

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): So you're not angry?"

"No, but if you're that concerned about breaking your promise, you can make it up to me."

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): How?]

[Puntanghunter69 (Earth): Oh yeah, here we go, time to ask the top singer in the universe out on a date.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Careful, if he does that, he might upset his stalker and girlfriend. Kekeke]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): GIRLFRIEND! 😊]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Oh, you just had to say it, didn't you?]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Gotta breed that chaos. Kekeke.]

“You can get me some God's Oasis.”

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): HAHAHAAAA. He could have asked you out on a date and instead of asking for alcohol. 🤔]

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): ...]

[Thewhitesoverign (Devatov 7): I can't really blame him, even my mother can't resist that stuff.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Is this some kind of alcohol?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): It's one of the most popular beverages in the universe; however, it's really hard and expensive to acquire since only a small amount is sent off Oceana 7 where it's made each year.]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): It's also why Oceana 7 is such a popular tourist spot. You know, streamer, there is an easy way for you to be able to get as much God's Oasis as you wish.]

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): Rowena, you don't mean.]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): Oh, but I do. 😊]

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): STOP STOP. 🤔]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): All you have to do is marry Lorelie. A citizen of Oceana 7 has free access to God's Oasis, and as her husband, you will become a citizen there.]

[Tessisdabest (Terrana 5): ...]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): ...]

[OrangeeyedStace (Trillion): ...]

[Puntanghunter69 (Earth): Oh, heck yeah, Diva Rowena playing hook-up.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): She's like the ultimate wingman. Kekeke.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): You mean wingwoman.]

"As tempting as the offer is to marry someone so beautiful, I will have to decline your idea for now."

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): Oh? Is Lorelie not your type? Most, if not all, would jump at my suggestion.
👉]

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): ...]

"Not at all, as I said, I find her very beautiful and she is indeed someone I would be attracted to."

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): 👉]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): Then why?]

"I simply don't believe that two parties being set up by a third party is the appropriate way to start a relationship; these things should happen naturally."

[Tessisdabest (Terrana 5): So you don't agree with arranged marriages.]

"Not really, I admit that the history of my planet does show that arranged marriages have sometimes worked; however, for the majority of cases, there is no love between the two parties, and they are only married for the benefit and convenience of their families."

"If I were to marry Diva Lorelie or, for that matter, anyone else, I would want it to happen naturally where we fell in love with each other."

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): ??????]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): So you're not tempted by the fact that Lorelie is from now on going to be the most famous Diva in music and that you alone would get to make love to her each night?]

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): ROWENA STOP.]

"I won't deny that the idea of being the only one allowed to be with someone that almost every man and woman dreams about being with isn't appealing. But if I now agree to marry Diva Lorelie after admitting that, can she truly trust that I love her for who she is and not what she is?"
