[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Wow.]

[OfficialRowena Terrana 5): Colour me impressed.]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): OMG I WANT HIM EVEN MORE.]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palaxia): Can I divorce this idiot and marry you?]

[MerceadAnderson (Palaxia): ...]

Before Adam or the chat could say more regarding his statement, a high-pitched scream caught all their attention.

“AAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH”

[Devil_Prince_Asura (Deverinian 9): Oh, it seems he woke up.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Seems Party Time wore off.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): OH GOD YES.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Everything ok there, girl?]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): For what the streamer just said to be followed by that scream of pain pushed me over the edge and made me orgasm in a way I never have.]

[Justiceistruth: (Earth): Seriously, what is wrong with you?]

[Puntanghunter69 (Earth): Oh yeah, baby, tell me more.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Fuck off, there's only one man I want to give my attention to right now.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Can we focus? The streamer still has to question this guy.]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): Just when it was getting interesting. 😏⇒]

Adam ignored the chat for now and focused on the gang leader in front of him, who was now screaming in pain.

It took several minutes for the man to gather himself enough to look at Adam and ask, though the pain, “Who the fuck are you?”

“I’m the guy who stabbed you while you were enjoying your Party Time.”

“No shit, but who did you do it and how did you even get in here?”

“Well, you attempted to kidnap someone I care about, and I’m here to find out why, as for how I got in here. Well, I killed thirty-six of your men before unlocking the door, your security sucks by the way.”

[HackerSu (Trillion): No, your hacking skills are just to OP I would have needed way longer to hack that door. It puts my user name to shame.]

“I don’t even know who you are? How could I attempt to kidnap someone you care about?”

“Seems you kidnap a lot of people if you don’t know who I’m talking about,” Adam said before he pulled out his force staff and extended it. After doing so, he rested it against the gang leader’s chest before holding down a button.

“AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH”

The gang leader screamed and writhed in pain as blue-white electric currents could be seen travelling all over his body.

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): Wait, his force staff can do that?]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): You mean fake staff. Kekeke.]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): ...]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Terrana 5): The fact that it has that ability is making me start to doubt it is a fake.]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): True, I've never heard of a fake having this ability.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): It looks like he's being hit with electricity or something, like a taser, but you can't see the electric currents from them.]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): It's called shock punishment. It's a type of punishment or torture used by most races and species to make people talk, though normally you need to use a shock punishment tool to administer it; the force staff is the only weapon known to be capable of doing it.]

[Justiceistruth: (Earth): Torture?]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Is that legal?]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Terrana 5): Yes, it's legal for security and military personnel to apply it if the reasons are justified. As we have already said, the universe is a dangerous place and you can't keep it safe by always being nice.]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): It works by releasing a special type of electrical energy. It courses through an individual's body like electricity; however, this special type is less deadly while also being much slower and more painful.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): That explains why we can see it and why the gang leader didn't just die or pass out.]

“Nothing, I planned to kill you from the start, it's up to you if you want to make it quick and painless, or...” Adam said nonchalantly before activating the shock punishment again and making the gang leader scream for a few seconds.

“Who.... who knew one bitch... AAAAAAAAAAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH”

“Sorry, what was that? You really are a slow learner, aren't you?”

“Wait.... Just wait until my men get... AAAAHHHHHHHHHH.”

“Honestly don't you listen, I just told you I killed a bunch of your men, though I suppose I did skip out a couple of floors so maybe you do have more than thirty-six men here, it's a shame they won't be able to get through your door, who would have thought the security you installed to protect you when your taking Party Time would actually be your downfall.”

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Correct me if I'm wrong, but didn't the streamer leave the door open after he came in?]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): You're correct.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): So he's bluffing?]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Looks like it.]

“Fine.. fine,” The gang leader said while panting with fear, now showing in his eyes. “Max Parks hired us to kidnap the girl and deliver her to him.”

“Why?”

“Seems he was jealous that she got with some other guy instead of him.”

[HackerSu (Trillion): Figures that was indeed the case, never thought he would try to pull something like this though.]

[Thewhitesoverign (Devatov 7): If he knew who her grandmother was, I bet he wouldn't.]

"Thank you for your cooperation," Adam said before he had the force staff fire a blaster bolt into the gang leader's chest, killing him.

[[Kill Count: 37]]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): Now what, Mr protector? 🤔]

"Now we deal with Max Parks," Adam said as he put his force staff away before walking to the nearby window and opening it. Just as he was about to leap out, he pulled out a plasma grenade and, after pressing the button, threw it towards where the gang leader's body still sat dead.

He leapt out of the window and activated his anti-gravity drive, causing his wings to appear and flew away from the building just as the plasma grenade detonated and flames erupted in the gang leader's apartment.

[[Stream betting pool complete.]]

[Final [Kill Count: 37]]

[[Winner: Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage]]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): Hahaha, give me the credits.]

Adam made a beeline towards his hoverbike, and as he flew over the street, he noticed that a crowd had started to gather around the nightclub as smoke started to pour out of some of the windows.

Adam landed atop his hoverbike and deactivated his anti-gravity drive before turning the accelerator and speeding away.

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): Babe, while you have a minute, I wanted to ask how long you're staying on Trillion for?]

“Babe?”

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Stalker alert. Kekeke.]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): 1000yearsofdeath if my baby ever takes me to visit his home planet in the future, be sure I’m paying you a visit to cut off your balls.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): ...]

[Every male viewer: 😏]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Oh shit, can I join you?]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): For sure.]

[OrangeeyedStace (Trillion): For once, I agree with you, so I’m also in.]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): Sounds entertaining, count me in.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): .....]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): So, babe, how long are you staying there?]

“Considering what I’m about to do, I plan to leave right after.”

[OrangeeyedStace (Trillion): What! Why?]

“I’m about to do something that, let alone Tower Security, Trillions' leader won't be able to ignore. It might even cause concern in the Terran home world.”

[Tessisdabest (Terrana 5): What do you plan to do?]

Adam didn't answer and instead rode his hoverbike back to sector eight six six, where Spector was docked.

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): If that's the case, how about you let me hire you as my personal bodyguard.]

“What do you mean?”
