Chapter 130: Goodbye Mr Parks

“Spector, are you able to hack into their residences' communications systems?”

“Affirmative, since hacking the sky tower security data, I am able to access anything within the sky towers.”

“You plan to speak to them?” Stacey asked in surprise.

“Certain of my readers.... I mean, viewers complained to me previously that not seeing the panic in their eyes as they learned who was about to kill them was boring.”

“What?” Stacey replied.

[Wikkr: Guilty.]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): Seriously, he's doing it to please the viewers? Hahaha.]

“Well, if that's the case, let me, I'm the one he came for after all,” Stacey suggested.

“Sure, why not?” Adam replied as Spector stopped level with the Parks Residence, and the viewscreen displayed a window showing Max and another older man who looked like him sitting in an opulent living room while staring in shock at Spector outside their window.

“You see, Mr Parks, when Max went to collect the shipment of drugs from the Skull Rose's, he also hired them to kidnap me.”

“Kidnap you? drugs?” Mr Parks replied in surprise before shooting his son a look.

“That's correct, we know all about how you have been purchasing drugs and selling them to other sky tower residents. As for why he tried to kidnap me, it seems you failed to raise your son well, Mr Parks. It seems he can't handle a simple rejection and got jealous when he saw me with my lover.”

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): He's mine bitch.]

[OfficialRowena (Darah 5): Dear me, Becky dear, I really do believe you're going to have to learn to share.]

“You hired that gang to kidnap this woman, you stupid boy?”

“Father, I can explain.”

“Silence, stupid boy. Your handiwork has put our entire operation in jeopardy; we now have to purchase these people's silence.”

“You seem to be misunderstanding something, Mr Parks. We're not here to negotiate, we're here to kill your entire family.”

“WHAT!” Max and his father said in alarm.

“I just wanted to let you know who killed you beforehand, Max. Apparently, it makes good entertainment for stream viewers.”

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): ☹ That's my granddaughter.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Terrana 5): I must admit the looks on their faces are most entertaining.]

“You... you can't just kill us in cold blood like this?” Mr Parks stammered.

“Oh, and why not? I think it's painfully obvious that's what that dickhead of a son of yours was planning to do after he raped me.”

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): 😏]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Kill the bastards.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Kill the bastards +1]

[Celebrityhunter69 (Earth): Kill the bastards +2]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Kill the bastards +3]

[Tessisdabest (Terrana 5): Kill the bastards +4]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): Kill the bastards +5]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Kill the bastards +6]

[Lizziethetruepower (Palalxia): Kill the bastards +7]

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): Kill the bastards +8]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): Kill the bastards +9]

[Thewhitesoverign (Terrana 5): Kill the bastards +10]

Max turned pale upon hearing Stacey guess his motives.

“Looks like I was right,” Stacey said as she looked at Max with disgust.

“Look, we can work something out.” Mr Parks said as he shot his son a glare.

“Well, you see, we originally just planned to blackmail Max into not visiting Becky’s again, but then we learned he dealt in drugs. After that, we planned to just kill him and make it look like a deal gone bad. But then he tried to kidnap me, and my lover doesn’t like people stealing what belongs to him, and so he decided to wipe out your entire family.”

[Puntanghunter69 (Earth): Oh shit, she just claimed she belongs to the streamer.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Make sure to mark your territory, my man. Kekeke.]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): FUCK I’m so pissed right now. 😞]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): Hahaha, that's right, granddaughter, lay your claim early.]

“Surely it does not warrant that level of retribution.”

“Apparently, you have never lost anyone close to you, Mr Parks.” Adam suddenly said. “The feeling of losing someone you love, worse, watching them be killed in front of your eyes, is something I never wish to witness again. Anyone who tries to take from me someone I care for will face my wrath.”

Mr Parks was about to respond when he and Max both noticed the hidden compartments for Spector's laser repeaters open as the weapons revealed themselves.

“NO WAIT”

“Goodbye, Mr Parks and your dickhead son,” Stacey replied before she pressed the fire button on her console.

Spector's laser repeaters lit up and fired countless laser bolts into the Parks' residence, tearing through not only the furniture and walls, but also the bodies of Max, his father and also his mother, who was busy getting ready for the party in a different room.

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Fuck I'm so hot and jealous right now.]

[Justiceistruth: (Earth): Isn't that a bit overkill?]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Hell no, that's awesome, I've never seen anything like this before.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Terrana 5): For once, Handsome3horns is correct. I have never witnessed a streamer do this sort of thing on their stream.]

[Devil_Prince_Asura (Deverinian 9): I assume you mean in real life, since it's doable in Space Rogue.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Terrana 5): Very true.]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): Good riddance to bad shit.]

[Tessisdabest (Terrana 5): This is going to make not only Tower Security but the Trillion defence force target them. I wouldn't be surprised if ships aren't already on their way after detecting the weapons fire.]

[SciFifanboy (Earth): This is so Sci-Fi.]

[Healthylifebysniffingdugs (Deverinian 7): NOOOOO THE DRUGS.]

[Sparesomechangebro (Earth): NOOOOO THE MONEY.]

"Let's quickly move on to the next targets before security gets here," Adam said as he piloted Spector towards the next residence, which was a few floors lower.

This time, they didn't bother to speak to the residents, and Stacey just opened fire on the residents before they moved on again.

By now, the other residents had noticed what was happening and were in a panic as most of them tried to flee in case they were targeted next.

After clearing all the family members in the first tower, Adam controlled Spector to head towards a different sky tower containing the family members; however, as they were on route, sky tower security ships intercepted them and opened fire.

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Oh, here we go.]

[SciFifanboy (Earth): Yeah, spaceship battle in atmo, SO SCI-FI.]

"No need to hold back on corrupt security officers," Adam instructed.

"Copy that," Stacey replied as she started targeting the sky tower security ships and firing Spector's weapons while Adam conducted evasive manoeuvres.

The sky tower security ships were not designed to handle starships; they were designed to handle planetary affairs, so their weapons weren't even strong enough to drain Spector's shields, while they were taken down in one or two shots from her weapons.

"Detecting Trillion defence force ships entering the atmosphere, ETA three minutes," Spector announced

"How many?" Adam asked.

"I'm detecting five small class and one medium class ships."

“That’s not much of a problem to deal with; however, I would rather not fight those who actually do their duty correctly. Stacey switched the seeker missiles. Let’s end this quickly and get out of here.”

“Targeting the remaining six residences now,” Stacey said as she selected them as the seeker missiles’ targets before saying. “Targets locked, firing.”

The chat watched as the missile pod compartment retracted before six seeker missiles shot out and flew off.

“Let’s go,” Adam said as he had Spector ascend at high speeds towards the atmosphere and away from the incoming defence force craft.

As they were ascending, the chat watched through the missile cams as the missiles honed in on the six different targets before impacting them and causing the sky towers to shake as explosions rocked through them.

“Prepare to jump to FTL,” Adam said as they were exiting the atmosphere.

“Destination?” Spector asked.

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): Terrana 5, we can discuss you both being my bodyguards while you’re on your way here. Unless you’re against the idea? 😊]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): Oh yes, I approve of this idea, 👍]

“Do you really think it’s appropriate for me to head to the Terran home world after what I just did on one of their planets?”

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): Meh, it’s fine, I will speak to my aunt the empress and have you authorised; however, you may have to meet with the imperial family since you refused the offer before.]

“You heard about that, did you?”

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): Of course, it's not every day someone refuses an invite from the crown prince.]

"Fine, set course for Terrana Five," Adam said with a sigh.

"Course plotted and standing by to activate Star Drive."

Adam pressed a button on his console, and the chat watched as Spector jumped into FTL.

"Well, that was interesting," Stacey said with a smile as she allowed herself to relax in her chair.

"You sure you made the right decision, you're going to be wanted for murder on Trillion now?" Adam asked.

"I'm sure, I'm looking forward to exploring the universe with you and protecting Diva Lorelie sounds like fun; I have always wanted to meet her."
