Chapter 132: Feeding for the first time***

“Mmmmm.” Stacey moaned in pleasure as Adam continued to grope her breast through her clothes as he moved his mouth down to start kissing her neck.

She tilted her head up to allow him easier access to her neck as she loved the feeling of his kisses against it.

However, as he switched from kissing it to sucking on it, her body shivered as a deeper moan of pleasure escaped her lips, “Mmmmmm”

She continued to run one hand through his hair for a while as she enjoyed the attention he gave her neck until she moaned, with desire, “Take that damn armour off so that I can feel you properly.”

Adam didn’t need telling twice as he lifted her up, making her squeal slightly and set her on the chair as he removed his anti-gravity armour in front of her.

Once he was done and the armour stood motionless to one side, he moved back towards her and leaned over to capture her lips again.

Stacey didn’t refuse and pulled him even closer to her as she tasted the lips she had been waiting to kiss for so long.

She ran one hand down his chest, feeling his muscles beneath, while he returned to squeezing and groping her chest and causing her to moan in pleasure again.

Adam didn’t stop there, however, as he moved one hand lower down to her private area and started to rub it through her clothing, which caused her to break the kiss and bury her head in his neck because of the pleasure she was receiving from him teasing her already wet pussy.

What neither of them noticed was that as Stacey buried her head in his neck and started to kiss it like he had done to her, Stacey’s eyes glowed slightly brighter and redder.

She decided to tease him back as she let her hand move down from his chest to his crotch, as she started to rub it and grab it through his trousers, causing Adam to moan as his cock became harder. "Mmmmm."

Stacey wasn't able to resist the urge for long and slid her hand down his pants to feel his hardening cock with her own hand before she grabbed hold of it and rubbed it gently while continuing to kiss his neck.

Adam returned the favour as his hand slid inside Stacey's trousers and underwear before he started to directly rub the entrance to her cave and tease her clit, causing her to shiver even harder as she changed from kissing to sucking his neck so that as she moaned into it, the noise was muffled, "MMMMMMM"

Stacey didn't notice or feel that her bicuspid teeth started to slowly elongate and become more fang-like, something that had never happened before, and she didn't think it was possible.

Adam continued to tease her clit as she rubbed his cock and sucked his neck until he slowly started to insert a finger into her wet pussy and slowly slide it in and out, making Stacey arch her head back towards the ceiling and cry out as her eyes glowed even brighter red, "OH GOD YES."

She swatted away the hand that was still playing with her tit before quickly pulling her top off and revealing her ample chest area in a black bra that Adam stared at with desire.

Stacey smirked at Adam in a way that was very similar to her grandmother, Rowena, as she removed her bra and let Adam's eyes admire her beautiful pair of breasts. She watched with pleasure the rising desire in his eyes.

After a few moments, she grabbed Adam's head and pulled it into her chest area as she said, "Take them in your mouth and pleasure them as well as your pleasuring my pussy baby."

Adam didn't refuse and took one of her breasts into his mouth and sucked on it while flicking the nipple with his tongue. Meanwhile, his other hand, which had been swatted away only moments before, returned to the other breast and started to tease and pinch the nipple that was growing erect.

"Yesssss, Keep goin,g Adam, my body belongs to you and you alone, play with it how you wish," Stacey said through gasping breaths as her eyes glowed even brighter and started turning a blood red.

Adam, spurred on by her words stating that she belonged to him, inserted a second finger into her wet pussy and pumped his hand even faster while he started to bite on her erect nipple in his mouth.

Stacey shivered in pleasure as her hands tightened in his hair and around his hard cock. Feeling the erect cock within her hand, she started to pump it harder until she decided she needed more room to do so.

Stacey quickly used her hands to loosen his trousers and pull them down slightly, along with his underwear, causing his large cock to appear before her and her eyes, which were turning blood red, to lock onto it with greed and desire.

“Mmmm, part of me was worried that you might not be very big, but I’m glad I was wrong,” Stacey said as she started to pump his cock with one hand while playing with his balls in the other.

“MMMMmmmm yessss.” Adam groaned in return before managing to ask, “Would you have changed your mind if it wasn’t as big as it is?”

Stacey looked at him in the eyes, and Adam was surprised to see her eyes glowing for a moment, which he found beautiful and hypnotic, but didn’t comment on them since he figured it was a natural thing that happened because of her Brood blood during intercourse.

“Of course not, however, it’s true that bigger ones are easier to get pleasure from.”

“Sounds like you have experience.”

“MMMMmm, I do, you didn’t think someone who stayed in a brothel on Trillion was still a virgin, did you?” Stacey teased and gripped his cock tightly, making him wince in pain.

“Assshhhh.” Adam hissed before replying, “I guess not.”

“Good, let me show you how I can please you,” Stacey said as she pumped his cock harder while she started to nibble on his neck slightly.

Eventually, when she felt full, Stacey removed her teeth and mouth from Adam's neck, causing a small amount of blood to flow out of the wound before they closed quickly, only leaving a barely discernible mark which she licked with her tongue affectionately.

Released from the euphoric feeling, Adam's body suddenly noticed the substantial blood loss he had accumulated from Stacey's feeding, which caused him to collapse on the floor unconscious. Stacey noticed this with glazed eyes that were not entirely her own and smiled in a loving way before she curled up on top of Adam and fell asleep with a smile on her face.

Stacey's wings continued to grow for a short time after she fell asleep, and her mostly black hair with tinges of red became slightly redder as it replaced parts of the black. As she slept, her bicuspid teeth or fangs returned to their normal length.
