Chapter 135: What do you call it?

“Shut up, fucking perv,” Stacey said with a blush as she kicked him harder this time before answering his question.

“I remember biting your neck harder than I meant to, which caused some of your blood to enter my mouth. It was after my scream ended and I tasted your blood that I seemed to have suddenly lost control.”

“It must have been that then, though I don’t see why my blood would have any effect when Susan’s didn’t.”

“Nor do I, but again, I’m not experienced in this; hopefully, my grandmother will know more.”

They were silent for a while as they ate their food before Adam asked, “Any reason why your foot is misbehaving?”

“Is my foot misbehaving in some way?” Stacey asked innocently.

“Well, it seems to be rubbing along my thigh.”

“Why would it do that?”

“You tell me.”

“Perhaps it enjoys rubbing there,” Stacey replied as Adam just nodded and continued to eat.

Stacey’s foot, however, continued to sneak its way further and further up his thigh before it soon found something else to rub against.

"I think that perhaps it's just found its real target," Adam commented as he glanced down to see Stacey rubbing one of her naked feet against his trouser-covered cock.

It seems checking her wings wasn't the only thing she did when she hurried back to her cabin before; she seems to have removed her socks also.

"It's a shame your trousers are stopping it from rubbing against it directly," Stacey replied with a disappointed look.

"Then why don't you fix that?" Adam commented as he continued to eat.

"Don't mind if I do," Stacey said with a smile before she suddenly vanished under the table.

A moment later, Adam felt a tug on his trousers followed by a zipping sound before a hand grabbed a hold of his cock and pulled it out of the hole made by his now open fly.

"Seems a waste to just go back to stroking it with my foot since I'm already here," Stacey muttered before Adam suddenly felt a moist object run up its length, making him shiver and look down.

"Seems you like that," Stacey said with a perverted smirk before licking the length of his shaft again.

"Who wouldn't, especially from someone as sexy as you."

"Good answer," Stacey said as she kissed the tip while she started to massage his balls a little, causing him to moan slightly.

Enjoying the sound of the moans Adam made as she licked and kissed his cock Stacey decided it was time to go further and pushed the tip inside her mouth and sucked on it while flicking it with her tongue.

She felt his cock harden even more and shiver in pleasure, so she pushed her mouth further down his shaft until his entire cock disappeared in her mouth. The tip of his cock was starting to go down her throat, making her gag slightly.

Stacey didn't let up however, and sucked on it even harder while brushing her tongue against it and rolling his balls between her hands.

"Fuck, how did you get so good at giving blowjobs?" Adam asked as he leaned his head back at the feeling of ecstasy Stacey was giving him.

Stacey didn't answer straight away and continued to pleasure his cock for a while longer before she slowly brought her head back up and removed the final tip with a pop. She then began to wank him off as she looked up at him and said.

"What sort of a weird name is blowjob when you don't even blow it?"

"No idea why it's called that, to be honest. What do you call it then?"

"A dick suck, since that's what we're doing, sucking your big thick juicy dick. As for how I got so good, it's because I've had lots of practice. You can't live in a brothel and not get horny and needy when you see everyone else getting laid."

"Well, I hope you don't plan on sucking off guys regularly while we travel," Adam replied with a smirk.

"Oh, but I do, I plan to suck you off daily, babe," Stacey replied with a perverted grin before she took his cock back inside her mouth and started to bob her head up and down. She started slow to begin with, but soon picked up speed as her hands continued to play with his balls.

"Fuuuuccckkk." Adam moaned as he felt himself getting close.

He had to admit that Stacey could give one hell of a blowjob. He'd had them before, of course, off both Jenny and other women he had slept with prior to her. However, Stacey was by far the best out of them; she seemed to know exactly how to edge him to the point where he was about to cum, but stopped just short of it each time.

Stacey enjoyed teasing him and edging him several times to the point that as she looked up into his eyes while sucking on his cock, she could see he was begging her for release.

Adam was the first guy Stacey had ever edged and teased like this before. She had only ever done this to Susan in the past when they used to occasionally have fun and relieve each other, though it was never anything more than just friends helping each other.

Anyone else Stacey had been with was just her using them to relieve her pent up stress and to get a quick fuck if she wanted one, she generally made them cum quick from her dick suck before she had them fuck her until she was satisfied, after that she would probably not see them again since it meant nothing to her.

Adam was officially the first and only man she had ever developed true feelings for, and because of this, she planned to show and give him all the skills she had learned to make sure he was properly satisfied each time.

Thinking that she had edged him enough for this session, she finally let him cum as she once again took his whole cock inside her mouth and started to swallow his seed down her throat until he finished.

As she pulled his cock out again, strands of his cum could be seen connecting her mouth and the tip of his cock until she wiped them off with a finger, which she then sucked clean.

"Mmm,m yummy." Stacey said as she licked her lips before adding, "I've tasted the cum of quite a few different men of several different races, and none of them tasted this nice."

"I don't know whether to be happy about the fact that you enjoy the taste, or annoyed at the fact that you have tasted so many other men," Adam replied.

"Aww, are you jealous, babe?" Stacey said as she came out from under the table and sat on his lap, making his cock press against her wet pussy through her trousers before she said.

"Don't be, unlike you, those men didn't mean anything to me, I simply used them to satisfy my desires. You, on the other hand, are someone I will show all my skills to and not just use as a quick fuck, so make sure you fuck me often enough that I don't want to find relief elsewhere."

“Don’t worry about that, I plan to fuck you every day if not more,” Adam replied as he pecked her on the cheek.

“Only the cheek?” Stacey asked with a pout.

“I don’t want to taste my own cum thank you, I would rather taste yours.”

“Then do it,” Stacey said as she got off his lap and walked towards one of the large couches while removing her trousers and underwear as she shook her ass for him. When she reached the couch, she turned around and sat down on it before spreading her legs wide, allowing him to see the full glory of her shaven pussy while she started to play with herself in front of him allowing him to watch for a little while before making a come here gesture with the index fingers on her free hand.

Adam didn’t need to be invited twice, as he got up and moved towards her before he knelt down in front of the couch and put his head between Stacey's legs and started to lick her wet pussy, making her shiver and moan in pleasure as her hands grasped his hair.

“Mmmm,m so good.”

After licking for a while, Adam pushed his tongue inside her pussy, which continued to get wetter and wetter, making her arch her back slightly as she gripped his hair tighter.

“Yeeesss, keep going, babe, push it deeper.”

Adam did as requested as he pushed his tongue even deeper inside her while he started to suck her lower lips.

As she moaned in pleasure, Adam decided to tease her in return, so he lowered one of his hands underneath her pussy towards her plump ass before he slowly pushed it inside her anal hole.
