Chapter 140: Captain Randal

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Great Terran race, he can't be serious. Most of the universe is negative towards your Great race.]

[Devil_Prince_Asura (Deverinian 9): Is he seriously accusing the streamer of pretending not to be Terran?]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Spreading chaos and discord? More like spreading entertainment and porn.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Or spreading his lover's legs. Kekeke.]

[Vinnaka (Felinia 6): So are the Terrans actually out to arrest him or what?]

"I am Captain Randal of the Terran Imperial Space Force cruiser Dawn Rise. You and any crew members are hereby ordered to surrender yourselves and your vessel to us immediately, where you will then be taken to the nearest Terran prison colony to await trial." Captain Randal declared.

[Werewolf1987 (Caniniar 4): OMG, there fucking serious.]

[Razzakel (Ravonar 4): What the fuck is going on? So much for not having to worry too much about repercussions.]

"You can't be serious. I helped you eliminate a bunch of drug traffickers and corrupt security officers, and yet you want to arrest me?" Adam replied with slight disbelief.

"That may be so; however, you went about it without getting authorisation to do so and while harming innocent civilians. Vigilante activities are not authorised in Terran space."

"While I regret that any innocent civilians got hurt, I do not regret my actions; also, I was under the impression that there would be no repercussions from my actions."

“And who told you that?”

“Becky Starlover, the niece of the Empress.

You can't be serious, you think that slut could actually make this go away for you?” Captain Randal asked with a smirk before continuing, “While it's true she is the niece of the empress, she is a daughter of the Ororis Family; she will say anything to get you into bed.”

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): WTF 😏]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Oh damn, the stalker got outed. Kekeke.]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): The Ororis family, how interesting, no wonder you're so hungry for the streamer's dick. 🤔]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Terrana 5): I'd heard rumours a daughter of the Ororis family had married the emperor in order to get them to side with him in the past. I never expected it to be the empress herself; however, I figured it was just one of the emperor's other wives.]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): THAT FUCKING IDIOT AND HIS BIG MOUTH. 😏]

[Tessisdabest (Terrana 5): Honestly, if they did their research, surely they know the streamer well streams. Why would he reveal such sensitive information about the imperial family? 😏👉]

[OrangeeyedStace (Spector): How did an idiot like this make captain? Whose ass did he lick?]

[HackerSu (Trillion): We know whose ass you've been licking. 🤔]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Is there something special about this Ororis family?]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Terrana 5): They are a powerful family in the Terran Empire who normally maintain their neutrality. If the rumours are true, then their blood is part Succuba.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Don't you mean Sucubus?]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Oh boy, the streamers stalker is part Sucubus, no wonder she is always hungry for him. Kekeke]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): Fuck you, I ain't no Sucubus or whatever.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Terrana 5): Succuba not Sucubus, though I do find the similarity of their names interesting.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Are Succuba sex crazed females who feed off the life energy of their victims?]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Terrana 5): Well, some would class them as sex mad, yes, however, they don't feed off their victims' life energies, what sort of crazy idea is that? Instead, they use the energy contained in their lover's liquid that is released during ejaculation to increase their individual power.]

[Justiceistruth: (Earth): Do they have wings like Diva Rowena, also horns and a tail?]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): They do not have wings like me; however, they do indeed possess horns and a tail, yes.]

[Justiceistruth: (Earth): Sounds similar to succubus to me.]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): So you not only have these creatures called vampires, which are similar to we Brood, but now you also have Sucubus who are similar to Succuba, how fascinating.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): They don't actually exist, they're fantasy creatures.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Terrana 5): That may be so, but it makes me curious as to why Earth has so many fantasy creatures similar to races in the universe.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): I wouldn't call two 'so many'.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Terrana 5): Perhaps not, but it's still interesting that such a coincidence exists.]

"So what do you plan to do if I refuse your generous offer?" Adam asked as the chat continued to discuss the similarity between Succuba and Succubus.

"Your ship is severely outclassed in both size and firepower. Do not make a foolish decision here. Refusal is not an option."

[MerceadAnderson (Palaxia): He's right, streamer, cruiser-class vessels are no laughing matter. They might not be the biggest or most powerful ships in the fleet, but they are the ones mainly used for patrolling around Terran space since they're more than a match for most things they run into.]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): I know your ship's advanced streamer, but I don't think you can win this fight; you only just managed to disable the large class pirate ship previously.]

"While you're correct about the size, what makes you so sure that my ship is outclassed in firepower?" Adam replied with a smirk.

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): He's not seriously suggesting his ship has firepower equal to a cruiser class, is he?]

[Justiceistruth: (Earth): A bluff only works if it's believably streamer.]

"You can't be serious? You actually expect me to believe that your medium-class ship can match the Dawn Rise when it comes to firepower? While reports state that your ship is indeed impressive, it is still no match." Captain Randal replied while giving Adam a look as if wondering if the man was right in the head.

“Perhaps, but regardless, I have no interest in turning myself, my crew or my ship over to you.”

“Then prepare to be taken into custody by force.” Captain Randel stated before the comm link closed.

[Lizziethetruepower (Palalxia): He’s seriously going to do it, he’s seriously going to take on a cruiser-class ship?]

[SciFifanboy (Earth): While a battle between the two ships would be so Sci-Fi, I’m not sure it would last very long.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Can’t he use the seismic charge like before?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): It would have little effect; a cruiser-class ship's shields are far more powerful than a large class, and it would require multiple seismic charges.]

[OrangeeyedStace (Spector): Not sure that's a good idea, babe.]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): Who the fuck are you calling, babe? 😏]

“Suggestions,” Adam said to Spector.

“The optimal course of action to neutralise the threat would be to use condition black,” Spector replied.

“Denied, I already said this once, but condition black is not something I want to show on stream unless I have to. Also, I don’t particularly want to destroy them since they’re a Terran vessel and we are heading for the Terran home world”

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Ok, now I’m starting to get curious, as he mentioned this before, what is condition black?]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): No idea, but it must be super powerful if the streamer wants to hide it.]

[Banguela007 (Vinox 3): A new type of weapon then?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): Possible but unlikely, in the past, when his ship changed condition colours, it seemed to redistribute power; it must have something to do with that.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): The AI just said 'The optimal course of action to neutralise the threat', which implies that the streamer does possess something that can destroy the cruiser.]

"Since it seems the TISF are hell bent on pursuing and capturing us, it would be best not to come into contact with them."

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): Does this mean you don't plan to come to Terrana Five and be my bodyguard? 😊]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): Fucking idiot Randel, he should be demoted immediately, no, he should be castrated then demoted immediately.]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): I am inclined to agree with you since it seems that man's interference is stopping me from reuniting with my granddaughter.]

[Tessisdabest (Terrana 5): This matter definitely needs investigating.]

[Thewhitesoverign (Terrana 5): Aww, I wanted to meet the streamer too.]

"I said I would listen to your offer and I meant it, also Stacey has something she needs to discuss with her grandmother, so I still plan to head for Terrana Five."

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): She does? What is it, granddaughter?]

[OrangeeyedStace (Spector): I would rather wait until we are in person; it is not something to be discussed when others are present.]

[OfficialRowena (Terrana 5): I see, very well.]

[OfficialLorelie (Terrana 5): But then how do you plan to reach Terrana Five without the TISF intercepting you?]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Maybe he can use that subspace drive thingy, or does the cruiser's EMP interference prevent that from being used also?]

[Beinglittleisnotadisadvantage (Strathorp 7): The EMP interference does not affect subspace, so while it is possible for the streamers' ship to enter subspace travel, it's unlikely he would get the chance. Unlike going to FTL, which is almost instantaneous, going into subspace requires you to open an entry point, and that takes several seconds, seconds in which the Dawn Rise can fire on the opening and collapse it.]

"I didn't really want to advertise this so soon, but needs must, I guess, activate condition yellow," Adam ordered.

"Affirmative."
