Chapter 171: A Diva named...

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Even the Defence Force leader had to ask for an autograph. Kekeke.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Can't say I'm surprised, I would do the same thing if I were in his shoes.]

"Of course, I would be happy to," Lorelie replied before asking for the name of the Defence Force officer's daughter and quickly writing a note to her.

After that, the other Defence Force officer requested autographs, to which Lorelie was more than happy to agree.

"Does this happen wherever you Divas go?" Adam asked Rowena who was walking next to him.

"Whenever we appear in public, yeah," Rowena replied before explaining. "You have to understand that each entertainment category only has five Diva spots, so meeting a Diva is a rare thing in the universe. We always get asked for signatures and autographs when we appear in public.

And while some only appear in public during formal events like Lorelie normally, others like myself regularly appear in public."

"Because you like the attention," Adam replied with a smirk.

"You know it," Rowena replied with a wink.

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): If I didn't already know she was a Brood, I would classify Diva Rowena more as a succubus or whatever you call them.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Agreed, she really knows how to sell her sex appeal, and her mannerisms are really flirtatious.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): It's pronounced Succuba. And yes, Diva Rowena does indeed use her sex appeal and flirtatiousness to increase her popularity.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): She's nothing compared to an actual Succuba Diva, however, Diva Aphrodite.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Aphrodite? Seriously?]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Yeah, is there a problem with that?]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Well, on Earth, Aphrodite was a Greek Goddess.]

[Whostolemyduck (Earth): Titan actually, she was a Titan.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): A goddess, really?]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): How fascinating.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Well, most of the men she has slept with and who have starred in her virtual reality porn videos say she's a goddess. Kek.]

"There's seriously a Diva named Aphrodite?" Adam asked with surprise as he read the chat.

"There is? Why do you ask?" Rowena asked with her signature smirk as Stacey shot Adam a suspicious look, and Lorelie carefully listened to his answer.

"Well, back in my world, Aphrodite was a Titan who was a goddess for two different civilisations. The Greeks called her Aphrodite, where she represented love, lust, beauty, pleasure, passion and procreation. While the Romans called her Venus, she represented desire, sex, fertility, prosperity, and victory.

I find it a strange coincidence that in my world she represented lust, pleasure, passion, desire and sex while Diva Aphrodite is a virtual reality porn star who deals in lust, pleasure, passion, desire and sex.”

“You're right, that is strangely coincidental,” Rowena replied thoughtfully before asking, “Did the Aphrodite on your world actually exist?”

“Do gods really exist? Who can say?” Adam replied.

“So she could have been just a made-up individual?”

“She could have been, however, many statues and temples devoted to her were built in the past and still stand today.”

“I see,” Rowena replied thoughtfully.

“AH!” Adam suddenly yelped as he felt a pain at his side, which turned out to be Stacey pinching him before asking with a suspicious look.

“And why exactly do you know so much about this goddess of sex?”

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Should have kept your mouth shut, streamer. Kekeke.]

“She featured in a novel I once read about a guy who married three beautiful vampires,” Adam replied.

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Ohhh, good novel.]

[Emojisonly (Earth): 🍷]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Yeah, he ended up marrying far more than just those three, though, including Aphrodite.]

[StealthAssassin9 (Earth): Gotta love the crazies.]

“Hmph, that better be all it is.” Stacey pouted, making the other women chuckle.

“You're not seriously jealous of a goddess that probably never even existed, are you?” Adam asked with a smirk.

“Shut up,” Stacey replied before pretending to ignore him.

“While this is all very amusing, I should warn you to guard yourself should you ever meet Diva Aphrodite.” Rowena began.

“As Lorelie’s bodyguard, there is a high possibility that you will meet other Divas as she tours the universe. Diva Aphrodite is dangerous to both men and women as she is an ancient and powerful Succuba.

One of the Succuba’s abilities is to seduce any being they wish, and while it is possible to resist their seduction if you have a strong will, the older and more powerful a Succuba is, the more difficult it is to resist.”

[Justiceistruth (Earth): Yup, that's a Sucubus.]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): That bitch better not try anything if she ever meets the streamer.]

[Tessisdabest (Terrana 5): We have to hope that they never will.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): Oh, that's a flag if ever I saw one.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Agreed.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): Flag?]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): It's a saying on Earth to say that you have just set that person on a course towards that event. In this case, by Tessisdabest saying 'We have to hope that they never will', she is, in fact, putting the streamer on a path to meet Diva Aphrodite in the future.]

[Tessisdabest (Terrana 5): ...]

[Beczontop (Terrana 5): Tess, seriously, whose side are you on?]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): You can't be serious? You don't actually believe that?]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): It doesn't matter, it's done, it's now almost a certainty that the streamer and Diva Aphrodite will meet in the future.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): I don't buy it.]

"Oh god." Adam sighed.

"What?" Lorelie asked curiously.

"Tessisdabest just flagged me."

[Tessisdabest (Terrana 5): ...]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): See, even the streamer believes it.]

[Prestigious3horns (Vinox 2): You Erthlings are weird.]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): I am reserving the right to say 'I told you so' when it happens in the future.]

“Flagged?” Lorelie asked.

“I will explain on the shuttle,” Adam replied as they neared the docking bay.

The Defence Force personnel led them into the shuttle bay, which had half a dozen shuttles standing by in their bays. Five of the shuttles had Merinmian and other races queuing up to board them, while the sixth shuttle had no queue.

The Defence Force leader pointed to the shuttle without a queue before saying, “That shuttle just there will transport you all to the planet below. The pilot is waiting on board. I wish you all a safe and pleasant flight.”

“Thank you, officer,” Lorelie replied with a smile before the five of them approached the shuttle and began to board it.

“Welcome aboard.” A female Merinmian said as they climbed aboard before asking Lorelie with excitement. “Would you like to be flown directly to your private residence or another location, Diva Lorelie?”

“You can fly us straight to my residence,” Lorelie replied as they all took their seats.

“Very well, we will be departing momentarily.” The female Merinmian said before she went to the cockpit.

A few moments later, the group heard the low hum of the shuttle's engine before the rear thrusters ignited and started to move the shuttle slowly forward.

[SciFifanboy (Earth): Finally, a ship with thrusters that we can take a proper look at. This is so Sci-Fi.]

“I hadn’t realised how much smoother the ride is with an anti-gravity drive,” Adam commented.

“Have you never been on a ship without one?” Lorelie asked.

“Spector is the first and only ship I have ever been on, besides its shuttle, of course,” Adam replied.

“An anti-gravity drive does indeed make the ride smoother and quieter,” Rowena commented as the shuttle left the shuttle bay and headed for the planet below.

“Director, we have just received word that the EDF001-Spector has arrived at the Oceana Seven Space Station.”

“How the fuck did it get there? We have been searching the Galaminer Galaxy since we haven’t heard about the ship using a jump gate.”

“Apparently, they exited subspace right next to Oceana Seven, sir.”

“You're saying that medium-class ship is also capable of subspace travel?”

“That appears to be the case.”

“That just makes it even more valuable as a prize. Update the bounty information, informing the bounty hunters of the target's location.

As for the ship, they wont be allowed to land it on Oceana Seven and will have to leave it docked at the space station. Hire someone to go acquire it.”

“Are you sure that's wise, sir. Reports say that Diva Lorelie did indeed disembark from the ship, and you know how much the Merinmians love and adore her.”

“It’s fine, after all, unlike those idiots at the TISF, we are not going to attack the ship while she is on it, our only targets are the crew of the ship and the ship itself.

Speaking of, have we figured out how many crew members the ship has?”

“It is believed to be only the individual name, Adam Spencer. While five women disembarked from the ship along with him, none of them could be his crew members.”

“How do you know?”

“First, there were Divas Lorelie and Rowena, then the Dragon Princess Tephe. Finally, there was a fourth woman we suspected of being a crew member named Stacey Sinclair. However, we have managed to discover that she is Diva Rowena’s granddaughter, so she is most likely travelling with her.”

“Very good. Proceed with my orders.”

“Yes, Director.”
