Chapter 244: Trending Lorelie

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): I know the streamer is a Phoenix Friend; however, I find your reaction a little strange, Empress Revi.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): I have my reasons.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): I'm sure you do. 🤔]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): What you're telling me is that the advanced technology streamer Adam was using was, in fact, alien tech he found on an alien spaceship?]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): That's basically the gist of it, yup.]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): And that many of the people in this chat are in fact aliens?]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): While I resent the fact that you're calling me an 'alien', you're still correct.]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): Oh, my apologies.]

[Superior4horns (Vinox 3): Never feel the need to apologise to that idiot 3horns.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): Shut the fuck up bitch 4horns.]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): Superior4horns is correct, there are a few questionable characters in the chat, and that idiot is one of them.]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2):]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): What you too, Emoji?]

[Emojisonly (Earth): 🐱🐱]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): Riiiiiggghhhttt, Anyway, the streamer Adam has officially left Earth then. Do you know if he ever plans to return?]

[Noobkiller9000 (Earth): No idea.]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): He's never mentioned anything about returning.]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): I see.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Looks like someone's upset about that, perhaps it's because they will never get to join his harem. Kekeke.]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): Harem?]

[Superhearofangirl (Earth): That idiot is another of the questionable characters in the chat that you shouldn't listen to.]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): 100% true]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): WTF!]

[Handsome3horns (Vinox 2): I feel your pain, bro.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Me too, bro.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): This is one interesting chat. 🤖]

[AlamoMatador4thewin (Earth): Diva Rowena said the exact same thing when she first joined the chat.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): That sounds about right.]

[DeverinianLordMalacoss (Deverinian 9): Oh, it seems that Trillion has access to the universal subspace network again after what happened.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Indeed, I hope everyone is ok.]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Most of the planet is still out of contact with the universal subspace network since it is still without power. I can only talk to you on here because Becky's had a portable generator, and Administrator Ororis got us some working consoles that connect to the universal subspace network. Also, the TISF is bringing in supplies like food and water so that we won't die, and I heard that a ship just arrived carrying a new weather control device.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): That's good to hear. I feared the worst when I heard that Trillion's neutron reactor was destroyed.]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Thank you for the concern, Empress Revi.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): Any idea what happened to it?]

[Tessisdabest (Imperial Down): The TISF are still investigating.]

[Phoenixempress (Fenix Nest): I see.]

[CEOHopkins (Earth): Can we get back to the part about him having a harem?]

[Gunlovergirl (Earth): Yeah, I'm totally jealous and trying to get into it.]

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): Same.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): Good luck with that, you know the first wife hates you. Kekeke.]

[Beczontop (Imperial Down): Shut the fuck up 1000 or when I do get into the harem I will ask my baby to ban your ass.]

[1000yearsofdeath (Earth): I'm not scared. Kekeke.]

[Tessidabest (Imperial Down): 😊⇒]

[HackerSu (Trillion): Ignore those idiots and allow me to explain.]

As Susan went on to explain to Emma about Adam's harem, Lorelie's concert continued. After every song, she used the Form Braclet to change into a new outfit, amazing the audience and viewers while Xer-verse blew up about both her new genre of music and the way she managed to change her outfit each song.

At one point, she came and got a drink before asking Adam what he thought of the show so far. Adam smiled before telling her that he thought it was great and that her voice always seemed to amaze him.

Lorelie smiled happily at his response before heading back out onto the stage to continue her performance until finally the show came to an end and the crowd all rose from their seats to give her a standing ovation.

"That was amazing," Tephe said as she clapped enthusiastically.

“I have to agree that was probably the best show she has ever performed,” Rowena said as she also applauded.

“Lorelie’s shows are always special, but that one was beyond anything I have ever seen her perform,” Queen Marilla said happily as she applauded.

“The combination of her new genre of music, combined with how she was able to change clothes, made the show one that will no doubt be talked about for a long time.” King Osharus said as he also rose to applaud.

“Can you believe the show we just witnessed? I don’t think I’m wrong in saying that the first show of Diva Lorelie’s Genre Tour will go down in history. What do you all think?” The female Merinmian Musiccaster asked.

“I wholeheartedly agree. No music Diva has ever put on a show quite like that, and with so many new songs being sung for the first time, I doubt any other artist will even make it into the universal subspace networks music top ten.”

“She has certainly firmly taken hold of her spot as the number one music Diva in the universe. No other artist even comes close to her now, and I’m sure Entertainment companies that were already desperate to sign her will now be going stir crazy to do so.”

“In all the excitement, I forgot that she is still a free agent. I know we have said this multiple times already on Musiccast, but now more than ever, it is apparent that Drotas Entertainment must be kicking themselves for doing something so foolish and losing such a sensational artist.”

“Kicking themselves? I would be surprised if CEO Drotas herself isn’t ready to kill someone because of this.”

“Well, that is certainly going to be one of the talking points in days to come as Diva Lorelie continues her Genre Tour, which entertainment company will be able to have her sign with them.

Unfortunately, that is the end of Diva Lorelie's concert and this broadcast; however, we here at Musiccast will try to negotiate with Diva Lorelie to be able to broadcast more of her upcoming concerts for you all, as I'm sure you all, like myself, can't wait to hear more of her new genre of music."

"So how was it?" Lorelie asked with a flushed face after she swam up to Adam and hugged him.

"You were incredible. I can't believe you came up with the idea to use the Form Bracelet to change costumes mid-performance." Adam replied.

"Hehe, Surprised are you?" Lorelie asked.

"For sure, how did you even load all those outfits onto the Form Bracelet?"

"I watched the music videos of each song and scanned the outfit the singer was wearing. It seems it went down a hit like I was hoping."

"A hit is an understatement, you're trending on Xer-verse not only for your new Genre of music but because of your outfit's ability to change after each song," Adam replied as he showed the holographic screen above his uniband to Lorelie.

[[Diva Lorelie astounds with her form changing outfit.]]

[[Diva Lorelie's Genre Tour gets best start possible.]]

[[New songs from Diva Lorelie expected to lockout the universal subspace networks music top 10.]]

[[Entertainment companies rumoured to be ready to offer Diva Lorelie record breaking contract deal.]]

[[Drotas Entertainment refuses to comment on Diva Lorelie Genre Tour and if they plan to try and sign her back with them.]]

“WHAT THE FUCK IS WRONG WITH YOU IDIOTS?” A female Gobli that was going grey but was still attractive yelled furiously at a bunch of Gobli who stood before the desk she was sitting at.

“HOW THE HELL DID YOU MANAGE TO CALCULATE LORELIE’S SUCCESS SO WRONG? WHERE IS THE DOWNFALL AND HER LOSING HER DIVA STATUS LIKE YOU ALL TOLD ME WOULD HAPPEN?”

LOOK AT THESE NUMBERS. DOES THIS LOOK LIKE A DOWNWARD TREND TO YOU? BECAUSE TO ME IT LOOKS LIKE THEY ARE SHOOTING UP LIKE A SHIP LEAVING ORBIT.

WOULD ANY OF YOU CARE TO EXPLAIN HOW YOU COULD BE SO FUCKING WRONG AND WHY I SHOULDN’T FIRE EACH OF YOUR ASSES?”

“With all due respect, CEO Drotas, we had no way to know that Diva Lorelie would come out with an entirely new genre of music; if we had, our calculations would have been completely different.” One of the Gobli standing before Drotas said timidly.

“FIRED, YOU’RE ALL FUCKING FIRED, GET THE FUCK OUT OF MY OFFICE AND MY COMPANY BEFORE I HAVE YOU ALL THROWN OUT,” Drotas yelled furiously, causing the former employees to quickly leave the room. They all knew that Drotas was one to go through with her threats when she made them.
